3-23-71	Minute entry dictated to Clerk this date in open Court: On 3-16-71 this Court, through its resident deputy Clerk notified MR. Paul H. Kidd, counsel of record for plaintiffs and Mr. Kostelka, Dist. Atty. representing Defts. that there would be a hearing on this matter with respect to the application for preliminary injunction at 9:30 AM 3-23-71. On March 21, 1971 the Court had its Clerk, Mr. Curtis, to notify Messrs. Kidd & Kostelka that a pretrial conference concerning the case would be held at 2 PM on 3-22-71. Both counsel were present at that time together with representative of the School Board. Mr. Kidd stated that he no longer represented the plaintiffs and was of the impression that they had employed other counsel to handle the matter, and advised the Court that he felt Mr. Stanley Halpin of the Lawyers Const. Def. Comm. of the Roger Baldwin Foundation, of ACLU, Inc. New Orleans, would represent them. The Court offered to telephone Mr. Halpin to ascertain whether this was true, but Mr. Kidd advised the Court that he would do so and notify the Court later in the day as to the true EXX situation. The Court received no EXX further notice, and the matter now is before the Court with no counsel appearing for plaintiffs in the case, nor did ANY any of the Plaintiffs make an an appearance. Dr. J. Harvey Walthal, Supt. of the Monroe City Schools, advised the Court that since the hearing in Shreveport, La. 2-25-71, wherein the motion to dissolve the temporary restraining order EXX theretofore issued by the Court was granted; that his office the following day notified the 18 students who had not returned to school by letter that they would be permitted to remain in school throughout the following week, during which they were to come with their parents to his office to enable him to explain to them the rules adopted and followed by the school board, pursuant to the La. Statute authorizing this. Dr. Walthal also had EXX testified at the hearing in Shreveport, La. on 2-25-71, that no intimidation of any kind was EXX exerted by him upon the parents and students who called his office, and when they did so they were immediately reinstated in good standing. Dr. Walthal also advised the Court that while the original penalty for deliberate absenteeism from Neville & Wossman High Schools was to have been one percent per day deducted from their EXX grades, that this was modified so as to impose only a total of EXX 3%, regardless of the fact that some of the students had been out for some 20 school days. IN LIGHT OF ALL THE CIRCUMSTANCES, THE COURT HEREBY DISMISSES THIS SUIT with prejudice for want of diligent prosecution. The $250.00 bond executed by Mr. A. G. Facen, as surety for issuing the temporary restraining Order, is hereby forfeited to the school board on the ground that the EXX temporary restraining order was determined to be wrongfully obtained and is assessed as Attorney's EXX fees and expenses payable EXX to the Monroe City School Board. (BCDJR)X (IMPORTANT IN NOTE: EXX This 3-23-71 dismissal only applies to the 2-18-71 Appln. for Prel. Inj.). NOTICE OF ENTRY GIVEN. 3-23-71 Court Reporter's EXX transcript of 3-23-71 proceedings, filed. 3-25-71 Notice of Appeal by Emily J. Ross from the Court's rulings of 2-25-71 and 3-23-71, filed. 		RULING: Before this court is plaintiffs Annie F. Harris and Benya F. Marshall's motion for amendment of judgment pursuant to FRCP 59(e). These plaintiffs ask this court to reconsider its order of 04/29/98 granting partial relief to the Monroe City School Board from the school desegregation plan in place in the Monroe City School district. Plaintiffs' Rule 59 Motion to reconsider is barred; a Rule 59 motion must be filed within ten days of the entry of judgment. Even if the court considered the motion as one for relief from judgment under Rule 60, plaintiffs' motion would still fail. Plaintiffs' have not addressed in their motion any specific grounds for relief from judgment under Rule 60(b). Those grounds discussed without reference to Rule 60(b) do not support a Rule 60(b) motion. Plaintiff shad ample opportunity to contest the factual assertions of the school board before now. For instance, plaintiffs could have filed a responsive memoranda contesting any of the school board's points before the court ruled. Plaintiffs' motion is therefore DENIED. (FAL/dmn) NOE/twb
