Cuccinelli II, United States Citizenship and Immigration Services, United States Citizenship & Immigration Services, Kevin K. McAleenan, Ken Cuccinelli, United States of America, United States Department of Homeland Security USCA Case Number 20-2537. In appealing from a preliminary injunction granted to the plaintiffs by the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (Daniels, J.), the defendant Department of Homeland Security ("DHS") moves to stay the preliminary injunction pending resolution of this appeal. We conclude that the moving party has demonstrated likelihood of success on the merits as we doubt that the district court had jurisdiction to issue the preliminary injunction while this Court was considering an appeal from a prior, virtually identical preliminary injunction. Accordingly, we stay the preliminary injunction pending further order of this Court by the panel charged with deciding its merits. Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe, Clerk USCA for the Second Circuit. 10/23/2020	236	ORDER: The parties may amend the pleadings or join additional parties until November 30, 2020. All fact discovery shall be completed by April 16, 2021. All expert discovery shall be completed by July 16, 2021. Initial disclosures must be exchanged by November 6, 2020. If Defendants intend to oppose the production of initial disclosures, they may file a brief on the issue by close of business on October 26, 2020. Plaintiffs' reply, if any, is due by November 2, 2020. The parties are required to follow the Court's Individual Practices when seeking Court intervention on discovery disputes. See http://www.nysd.uscourts.gov/judge/Wang . A joint letter informing the Court of the status of discovery shall be filed by December 2, 2020 and every 60 days thereafter. The letter should address any outstanding discovery disputes and the efforts made by the parties to resolve these issues without Court intervention. It should also indicate whether the parties wish to schedule a settlement conference and, if so, include proposed dates on at least two consecutive weeks. The parties are, however, encouraged to contact the Court earlier if they believe a settlement conference sooner would be productive. The parties request a bench trial. (Amended Pleadings due by 11/30/2020., Expert Discovery due by 7/16/2021., Fact Discovery due by 4/16/2021., Joinder of Parties due by 11/30/2020.) (Signed by Magistrate Judge Ona T. 10/23/2020	237	ORDER: The Court has reviewed the parties' joint letter. (ECF 231 in 19-cv-7777; ECF 259 in 19-cv-7993). It is hereby ORDERED that Defendants are directed to supplement/revise their privilege log by November 13, 2020 as follows: Defendants are directed to revise their privilege log to include this information. The privilege log need not be publicly filed. The Court does not find this request unduly burdensome as Exhibit 1 contains 208 entries. Defendant shall supplement their privilege descriptions. Defendants shall identify which individuals listed in the privilege log are attorneys. The Court does not find this request unduly burdensome. A ruling on this issue is premature. Neither Plaintiffs nor the Court can assess the applicability of the deliberative process privilege in a vacuum. The Court will address the applicability of the privilege if/when, after a robust meet and confer between the parties, there are particular documents where the applicability of the privilege is contested. Parties shall follow my Individual Practices for raising such disputes in the future. Plaintiffs' request for the Court to set a deadline for Defendants to produce a final privilege log is denied without prejudice for renewal. The parties are directed to report on Defendants' progress regarding the privilege log in the joint status letter due by December 2, 2020. Any future privilege logs concerning documents not referenced in Exhibit 1 should follow the spirit of this order. SO ORDERED. (Signed by Magistrate Judge Ona T.
