O R D E R

Before: BOGGS, KETHLEDGE, and DONALD, Circuit Judges.

Asserting mootness, the defendant moves to vacate the district court judgment and opinion on appeal and for remand to the district court with instructions to dismiss the case with prejudice. The plaintiffs do not oppose dismissal of the appeal as moot but oppose vacatur of the district court's judgment. The defendant replies in support of the motion.

Upon review, the motion is GRANTED. This appeal is dismissed as moot; the matter is remanded to the district court with instructions to vacate the judgment on appeal and to dismiss the complaint in this action.

ENTERED BY ORDER OF THE COURT
