RESPONDENTS' PRELIMINARY
RESPONSE TO PETITIONERS' MOTION FOR TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

Respondents, by and through the United States Attorney for the Eastern District of North Carolina, hereby submit this Preliminary Response to Petitioners' Motion for Temporary Restraining Order ("TRO") (D.E. 24), and respectfully request that the Court allow Respondents a reasonable amount of time, up to and including June 3, 2020, to respond to both the underlying Petition (D.E. 1) and the Motion for a TRO.

On May 26, 2020, Petitioners, through counsel, filed a voluminous petition for writ of habeas corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2241, seeking injunctive and declaratory relief for alleged unconstitutional conditions of confinement. Specifically, Petitioners allege Respondents have violated their Eighth Amendment rights by failing to control the spread of the novel coronavirus (“COVID-19”) at the Federal Correctional Complex in Butner, North Carolina (“FCC Butner”), and by failing to provide proper medical care for those inmates infected with the virus. (D.E. 1). On May 27, 2020, the Court conducted an initial review and allowed the case to proceed. (D.E. 15). The Court also directed Respondents to file a response to the petition on or before June 3, 2020.

At almost 6:00 PM on May 28, 2020, two days after filing the petition, Petitioners filed a Motion for a TRO raising the same issues as they raised in the petition. Respondents’ counsel contacted Petitioners’ counsel, seeking consent for a request that Respondents be permitted to respond to both the petition and the Motion for a TRO by the Court’s June 3, 2020, response date. Petitioners’ counsel stated that they oppose Respondents’ request.¹

In both their petition and Motion for a TRO, Petitioners have requested sweeping relief including the unprecedented release of prisoners en masse from federal prison. (D.E. 1, 24). As such, if the Court is inclined to either immediately grant Petitioners’ Motion for a TRO or to deny Respondents’ request to respond to both the petition and TRO by June 3, 2020, Respondents respectfully request the opportunity to be heard via oral argument before the Court rules on the motion.

Respectfully submitted, this 29th day of May, 2020.
