05/22/2020	41	ORDER of USCA as to 35 Notice of Appeal to the 9th Circuit filed by South Bay United Pentecostal Church, Bishop Arthur Hodges III. The motion of Americans United for Separation of Church and State for leave to file an amicus curiae brief in opposition to appellant's emergency motion for an injunction pending appeal is granted. The Clerk shall file the amicus brief submitted on May 16, 2020. Appellants' request to expedite this appeal is granted in part. Briefing schedule issued. No streamlined extensions of time will be approved. No written motions for extensions of time under Ninth Circuit Rule 31-2.2(b) will be granted absent extraordinary and compelling circumstances. (akr) (Entered: 05/22/2020)
05/22/2020	42	ORDER of USCA as to 35 Notice of Appeal to the 9th Circuit filed by South Bay United Pentecostal Church, Bishop Arthur Hodges III. This appeal challenges the USDC's denial of appellants' motion for a temporary restraining order and order to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not issue in appellants' challenge to the application of the State of California and County of San Diego's stay-at-home orders to in-person religious services. Appellants have filed an emergency motion seeking injunctive relief permitting them to hold in-person religious services during the pendency of this appeal. We have jurisdiction to review the denial of a temporary restraining order where, as here, "the circumstances render the denial 'tantamount to the denial of a preliminary injunction.'" Accordingly, the motion to dismiss for lack of jurisdiction is denied. The request to take judicial notice is granted. In evaluating a motion for an injunction pending appeal, we consider whether the moving party has demonstrated that they are likely to succeed on the merits, that they are likely to suffer irreparable harm in the absence of preliminary relief, that the balance of equities tips in their favor, and that an injunction is in the public interest. We conclude that appellants have not demonstrated a sufficient likelihood of success on appeal. Where state action does not "infringe upon or restrict practices because of their religious motivation" and does not "in a selective manner impose burdens only on conduct motivated by religious belief," it does not violate the First Amendment. We're dealing here with a highly contagious and often fatal disease for which there presently is no known cure. In the words of Justice Robert Jackson, if a "[c]ourt does not temper its doctrinaire logic with a little practical wisdom, it will convert the constitutional Bill of Rights into a suicide pact." The remaining factors do not counsel in favor of injunctive relief. We therefore deny the emergency motion for injunctive relief pending appeal. (See Order for full text.) (akr) (Entered: 05/22/2020)

07/29/2020	49	ORDER of USCA as to 35 Notice of Appeal to the 9th Circuit filed by South Bay United Pentecostal Church, Bishop Arthur Hodges III. On July 10, 2020, Plaintiffs-Appellants filed a motion for a limited remand to the USDC for it to reconsider whether to enjoin California's orders regarding the COVID-19 pandemic, in light of changes to those orders and other developments since Plaintiffs filed the present appeal on May 15, 2020. The specific developments relevant to Plaintiffs' request are outlined in Plaintiffs' Motion for Indicative Ruling and the Second Amended Complaint filed with the USDC. The panel construes Plaintiffs' request as a renewed application for a temporary restraining order and an order to show cause re: preliminary injunction. The USDC presently lacks jurisdiction to consider this request, G & M, Inc. v. Newbern , 488 F.2d 742, 746 (9th Cir. 1973), but the USDC has issued an indicative ruling stating that the request raises a substantial issue. Accordingly, the panel grants Plaintiffs' motion for limited remand pursuant to Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 12.1. The panel retains jurisdiction of the case and remands it for the limited purpose of permitting the USDC to consider Plaintiffs' request in light of the events and case law that have developed since May 15, 2020. On remand, the USDC may order supplemental briefing as necessary to address Plaintiffs' request. The oral argument set for August 12, 2020, is vacated, and this appeal is stayed pending the results of the limited remand ordered herein. The parties shall notify the Clerk of Court when the USDC has decided the motion on remand. (akr) (Entered: 07/29/2020)
