08/05/2020		TEXT ORDER issued by JUDGE CATHERINE C. EAGLES: The plaintiffs have shown a likelihood of success on the merits and irreparable harm, but the Court concludes in its discretion that the balance of the equities and the public interest support denial of a

		TRO, to give the defendants a short period of time to implement reasonable time, place, and manner rules for access to courthouse grounds, if they so choose. In the absence of immediate implementation of reasonable restrictions or other material change of circumstances, and subject to further briefing, the Court will likely grant the motion for a preliminary injunction, as a long-term prohibition on protests on courthouse grounds traditionally used as a public forum violates the First Amendment. Written order with specific findings and discussion to follow by the end of the week. The Court anticipates holding the record open for a week or so for any additional evidence or briefing; a specific schedule will be set in the forthcoming order. (Sanders, Marlene) (Entered: 08/05/2020)
08/07/2020	57	MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER signed by JUDGE CATHERINE C. EAGLES on 8/7/2020. Additional evidence or briefing in connection with Plaintiff's motion for preliminary injunction must be filed no later than August 12, 2020. Reply briefs and evidence due no later than noon on August 14, 2020. In absence of a change of circumstances or additional evidence undermining the Court's factual findings herein, the Court contemplates granting the motion for preliminary injunction against the County defendants. 08/14/2020	62	MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER signed by JUDGE CATHERINE C. EAGLES on 8/14/2020; The County Defendants imposed a total prohibition on protests in the traditional public forum of outdoor areas surrounding the Alamance County Historic Courthouse. The total prohibition is not a time, place, and manner restriction, and however strong the governmental interests are, the total prohibition is not narrowly tailored. The plaintiffs are entitled to a preliminary injunction, which will issue by separate order. (Sheets, Jamie) (Entered: 08/14/2020)
