11/28/2017	54	ORDER by Judge Laurel Beeler denying without prejudice 48 Motion for Protective Order. The parties must comply with the court's standing order regarding discovery disputes (attached). The defendant's motion for a protective order is denied without prejudice. The defendant may renew its motion by meeting and conferring and filing a joint letter brief with the plaintiffs and the CFPB in accordance with the procedures in court's standing order. Should the defendant renew its motion, the joint letter brief should address, among other things, whether this court has jurisdiction to enter an order barring counsel for the plaintiffs from responding to the CFPB's CID, which was not issued in this action, or whether the District Court for the District of Columbia (or some other venue) is the more appropriate forum in which to challenge the CFPB's CID.
