5/28/2014	Motion (P#28.0) After review, ALLOWED. On May 15, 2014 , Plaintiffs violated Superior Court Rule 9A(a)(1) by filing a Motion for a Preliminary Injunction without the required supporting brief. Without commenting on that violation, I issued an Order allowing Plaintiffs to file the required brief later, by May 23, 2014 . The Plaintiffs have violated Superior Court Rule 9A(a)(5) by submitting a brief that far exceeds 20 pages without prior court permission. That brief is stricken from the record, and Plaintiffs may replace it with a 20 page brief by June 2, 2014 . Defendants may file 20 page briefs by June 9, 2014 . The hearing on the preliminary injunction request is rescheduled to June 17, 2014 , as is the hearing on the protective order motion. This case involves very serious issues, so it is important that the Court and the parties deal with this case by employing the rules that apply to every Superior court case, which are designed to assure fairness and efficiency in court proceedings.
