Appeal from the United States District Court for the Northern District of Alabama, D.C. Docket No. 2:16-cv-00690-RDP

Before WILSON, JORDAN, Circuit Judges, and CONWAY,* District Judge.

Opinion

PER CURIAM:

*424 This panel's opinion in Lewis v. Governor of

Footnotes

* Honorable Anne C. Conway, United States District Judge for the Middle District of Florida, sitting by designation.

Alabama, 896 F.3d 1282 (11th Cir. 2018), was vacated for rehearing en banc, 914 F.3d 1291 (11th Cir. 2019). On rehearing, the en banc court addressed the employee-plaintiffs' Article III standing to sue the Alabama Attorney General for Act No. 2016-18's alleged violation of the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment. Lewis v. Governor of Ala., 944 F.3d 1287, 1292 (11th Cir. 2019) (en banc). It held that the "plaintiffs lack Article III standing to bring their equal-protection claim against the Alabama Attorney General," and therefore did not consider the claim's merits. Id. at 1306. The en banc court affirmed the panel opinion in part and remanded to the panel. Id. For the reasons given in the en banc opinion, we affirm the district court's dismissal of the plaintiffs' claims against the Alabama Attorney General for lack of jurisdiction. That reasoning applies equally to the plaintiffs' standing to sue the State of Alabama, so we affirm the district court's dismissal there too. And for the reasons we gave in the panel opinion—with which the en banc court expressed no disagreement—we affirm the district court's dismissal of the City of Birmingham from the suit. See Lewis, 896 F.3d at 1291.

AFFIRMED.
