1 WHEREAS, on April 30, 2021, the plaintiffs moved the Court for its order certifying this 2 case as a class action (Dkt. #96); and

3 WHEREAS, the plaintiffs supported their motion for class certification with evidence and 4 citations to the Court's rulings in this case (Dkt. ##14 (Kim Declaration), 24 (Hruby
5 Declaration), 25 (Atherholt Declaration), 33 (Court's Order Granting Temporary Restraining 6 Order), 54 (Court's Order granting preliminary injunction), 83 (Court's Order), 96 7 (Declarations in support of motion for class certification); and

8 WHEREAS, on October 18, 2021, the Court issued its Order denying plaintiffs' motion 9 for class certification without prejudice (Dkt. 124); and

10 WHEREAS, in its Order denying class certification without prejudice, the Court stated, 11 "Therefore, the Court concludes that this requirement [commonality] is not satisfied, though it 12 is likely Plaintiffs will be able to cure this deficiency by narrowing the class definition and/or 13 creating subclasses." (Dkt. #124, 9:13-15), and "Therefore, the Court finds that the typicality
14 requirement is not satisfied with respect to the proposed class as currently defined. It is likely 15 these defects can be remedied, however, by limiting the class definition and/or finding a named 16 plaintiff who was injured by tear gas deployed by a mutual aid partner." (Id., 10:15-18); and

17 WHEREAS, the parties have diligently negotiated to reach agreement on a class
18 definition that complies with the Court's Order.

19 ACCORDINGLY, the parties hereby stipulate and request that the Court order that this 20 case may proceed as a class action under FRCP 23(b)(2) as follows:

21 This case shall be certified as a class action under F.R.C.P. 23(b)(2). The class certified

24 while protesting peacefully in the City of Oakland, with respect to their claims against the City of 25 Oakland for violations of their rights under the First Amendment, Fourth Amendment
26 (excessive force), and Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution and their state
27 law claims of assault and battery, negligence, and violation of the Bane Act (Civil Code § 52.1)." 28

13 training sessions and to attend those sessions.

14 Plaintiffs will not present evidence at trial of incidents involving the use of tear gas where 15 no named plaintiff was present.

16 Defendants reserve the right to move to decertify the class at a later time.
