Plaintiffs have requested the issuance pursuant to Rule 65, Fed.R.Civ.P., of a Temporary Restraining Order and Preliminary Injunction. Plaintiffs have submitted and the court has considered the declaration of John Boston and various exhibits in support of the motion.

It is hereby ORDERED that:

1. Defendants show cause to this court on the day of July, 1991, at in the United States Courthouse, Foley Square, New York, New York, why an order should not be entered preliminarily enjoining the defendants, their agents and employees, and all persons acting in concert with them, from discontinuing any medical, dental and mental health services in the New York City jails or reducing them below the level existing on June 1, 1991, until further order of the court;

2. Sufficient reason having been shown therefor, pending the hearing of plaintiffs' motion for a preliminary injunction, a Temporary Restraining Order shall be, and hereby is, issued restraining the defendants, their agents and employees, and all persons acting in concert with them, from discontinuing any medical, dental and mental health services in the New York City jails or reducing them below the level existing on June 1, 1991, until further order of the court; restraining them from laying off any present staff or terminating any staff positions of persons assigned to provide medical, dental or mental health services to the inmates of the New York City jails or to provide access or administrative support to these services, including administrative, support service, clerical and correctional staff employed by the City of New York; and from reducing, decreasing, withholding or otherwise failing to provide funding to, or impairing the contracts of, contract providers of medical, dental or mental health services to the inmates of the New York City jails, including but not limited to the services provided by Montefiore Medical Center-Rikers Island Health Services and St. Vincent's Hospital and Medical Center of New York.

Nothing contained in this Restraining Order is intended to adjudicate at this time whether any particular health service being provided is constitutionally required, nor is it intended to prevent the City from renegotiating any contract with providers of medical, dental or mental health services to the inmates of the New York City jails.

3. This Temporary Restraining Order shall expire on July 8, 1991 at 2:45 P.M.

4. Personal service of a copy of this order, and the papers on which it was granted, on Victor Kovner, Corporation Counsel of the City of New York, or his representatives, on or before 3:00 P.M. on the 28th day of June, 1991 shall be sufficient service thereof.

Dated: New York, New York
June 28, 1991
