FOURTH ORDER MODIFYING
JUDGMENT ORDER OF JULY 1, 1969

This matter coming on to be heard on the joint motion of the parties requesting certain modifications in this Court's judgment order of July 1, 1969, which motion is made pursuant to the provisions of Article X of said judgment order whereby this Court has retained jurisdiction of this matter for all purposes including the purposes particularly enumerated therein, and

The Court having conferred with counsel for the parties and having determined that the provisions of this modifying order are based upon relevant information with respect to the subject matter, counsel having discussed the same with the Court prior to the entry of said judgment order, and that said provisions are appropriate and consistent with and in furtherance of the reasons for the issuance of said judgment order.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

I. Article VII, subsection D of the judgment order, providing for the filing and serving of certain statements by CHA which, among other things, disclose the street addresses of Leased Dwelling Units, is hereby modified by the insertion of the following words after paragraph (9):

"All information relative to street addresses or otherwise identifying the specific location of Leased Dwelling Units shall be confidential. Statements containing such information shall be filed in sealed envelopes. The Clerk shall retain custody of the envelopes and they shall not be released by the Clerk without further order of the Court. Until further order of the Court, no such information shall be divulged to any other person by Plaintiffs' counsel, by the Civil Rights Division of the United States Department of Justice, or by the Regional Administrator of the Department of Housing and Urban Development."

II. The modifying order entered by this Court on October 20, 1969, is hereby revoked.

III. Except as and to the extent otherwise expressly provided in this modifying order, this Court's judgment order of July 1, 1969, as heretofore modified remains in full force and effect.
