ORDER

This matter coming on to be heard pursuant to paragraphs 3 and 4 of this Court's order of January 3, 1972 (as modified by subsequent orders relating to the time of hearing only), pursuant to the response of defendant Chicago Housing Authority ("CHA") with respect thereto filed on March 17, 1972, and pursuant and 29, to the hearing held on September 28/ 1972, for the consideration (as provided in such order of January 3) of such response and the entry of further orders in connection therewith; and,

It appearing from the evidence that CHA presently has a "reservation" from the defendant United States Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD") for 1500 Dwelling Units (as defined in this Court's judgment order of July 1, 1969, 304 F.Supp. 736), that CHA has approved three "development plans" for all of said 1500 Dwelling Units as are to be located in the General Public Housing Area (as defined and provided in said judgment order), and that CHA has submitted or shortly will submit such development plans to HUD for approval; and

It further appearing from the evidence that CHA has previously applied to HUD for an additional reservation for 3500 Dwelling Units but that such application may be technically defective; and,

The Court having retained jurisdiction of this matter for all purposes, specifically including enforcement of this Court's judgment order of July 1, 1969, which order, among other things, obligates CHA to "use its best efforts to increase the supply of Dwelling Units as rapidly as possible in conformity with the provisions of [such] judgment order," and directs CHA to "take all steps necessary to that end, including making applications for allocations of federal funds and carrying out all necessary planning and development", and,

It appearing to the Court that pursuant to such reservation of jurisdiction further orders are necessary to enforce such judgment order and "to remedy the past effects of CHA's unconstitutional site selection" as provided in this Court's memorandum opinion of February 10, 1969:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. Within 15 days from the date hereof CHA shall either obtain written confirmation from HUD that its pending application for a reservation for 3500 Dwelling Units is acceptable in its present form as a valid application for such number of Dwelling

Units, or shall resubmit such application to HUD in appropriate form.

2. The Court retains jurisdiction over this matter for the entry pursuant to notice of such further orders as may be appropriate to effectuate the provisions of this order or otherwise.
