CHAIR GWATHNEY’S¹ RESPONSE TO PLAINTIFFS’ OBJECTIONS (DOC. 205)
TO MAGISTRATE JUDGE DOYLE’S ORDER (DOC. 200) DENYING PLAINTIFFS’ MOTION TO COMPEL PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS (DOC. 154)

Following discussions in which we were unable to achieve agreement, doc. 154 at 2, Plaintiffs moved to compel Leigh Gwathney, Chair of the Board of Pardons and Paroles, to produce “thousands” of documents, doc. 154 at 1, protected by the State’s pardon file privilege and concerning persons who are not parties to this case. The Magistrate Judge denied the motion. Doc. 200. While he determined that the State’s pardon file privilege does not apply, doc. 200 at

The other State Defendants do not possess or control the pardon file documents at issue, and so only a response by Chair Gwathney is required. Should the Court think it necessary for other State Defendants to respond, they join this opposition.

4, he denied the motion because the Plaintiffs’ requests for production are “grossly disproportional to the needs of the case,” id. Plaintiffs filed objections challenging that second determination. Doc. 205. Though they originally recognized that “thousands” of documents had been withheld, doc. 154 at 1, Plaintiffs now argue that the Magistrate Judge erred in his analysis of the proper scope of discovery and that Chair Gwathney barely raised the scope issue, e.g., doc. 205 at 12-13. Plaintiffs are wrong. Magistrate Judge Doyle’s Order, doc. 200, should be affirmed.

I. BACKGROUND

“This is an action challenging Alabama laws and procedures respecting felon disenfranchisement.” Doc. 1 at ¶ 1. The United States Constitution expressly approves of the right of a State to disenfranchise felons, Richardson v. Ramirez, 418 U.S. 24, 54 (1974), and Alabama has long done so. The 1868 and 1875 Constitutions disenfranchised all felons and those convicted of some additional crimes. Constitution of 1868 at art. VII, § 3; Constitution of 1875 at art. VIII, § 3. The 1901 Constitution disenfranchised all felons and a laundry list of others. Hunter v. Underwood, 471 U.S. 222, 223 n.  (1985). Some of that laundry list were selected on the theory that the crimes were more likely to be committed by blacks and poor whites. Id. at 229-33. Over the years, portions of the 1901 provision were stricken. E.g., id. at 225 (holding the provision unconstitutional insofar as applied to misdemeanants); Hobson v. Pow, 434 F. Supp. 362, 367 (N.D. Ala. 1977) (holding that the “assault and battery on the wife” clause violates Equal Protection). Still, at a minimum, all felonies remained disenfranchising until the State took affirmative action. In 1996, Alabama voters repealed the 1901 Suffrage and Elections Article and replaced it with one that, inter alia, provided that only felonies involving moral turpitude are disenfranchising. Docs. 43-1 & 43-3; Ala. Const. Art. VIII, § 177. In 2017, Alabama enacted a statute listing (and limiting) which felonies involve moral turpitude for voting purposes. Ala. Act No. 2017-378; see also Ala. Code § 17-3-30.1.

In addition to casting aside any elements of the racist 1901 Suffrage and Elections Article and also limiting who is disenfranchised, Alabama has further taken steps to restore voting rights. In 2003, Alabama created a new Certificate of Eligibility to Register to Vote, which made it possible for some felons to get their voting rights back without going through the more time consuming and discretionary pardon process. Ala. Act No. 2003-415. Recently, Alabama revised the CERV process with an eye toward making it easier and faster. Ala. Act No. 2016-387; see also Ala. Code § 15-22-36.1. As it stands now, and as pertinent here, to be eligible for a CERV, the felon must have “paid all fines, court costs, fees, and victim restitution ordered by the sentencing court at the time of sentencing on the disqualifying cases.” Ala. Code § 15-22-36.1(a)(3). In Count 13, Plaintiffs Thompson, Gamble and Greater Birmingham Ministries challenge this requirement as wealth-based discrimination. Doc. 1 at ¶¶ 245-52; doc. 93 at ¶¶ 65-69. This is the only Count brought against Chair Gwathney. Doc. 80 at 31-40 (dismissing Counts 14 and 15); doc. 93, generally.

A. The Requests for Production.

Plaintiffs initially brought 15 claims on behalf ten individual Plaintiffs and GBM against the State and three State officials. Doc. 1. They originally sought a plaintiff class, nine plaintiff subclasses labeled A through I, and a defendant class. Doc. 1 at ¶¶ 50-60, 68. The March 2018 supplemental complaint still sought a Plaintiff class and two subclasses. Doc. 93 at ¶¶ 32-43. That same month, Plaintiffs propounded broad Requests for Production to the State Defendants. Doc. 156-1. While all of the Requests were directed to Chair Gwathney, Plaintiffs focused in their motion to compel on Requests 16 through 24. Doc. 154 at 3. Those Requests are:

Request Number	Request
16	Any and all documents, communications, and things related to Individualized CERV Applicant Information and Individualized CERV Applicant Processing Information² for each of the following CERV applicants: a. All CERV applicants who were rejected or otherwise not granted a CERV because they were not convicted of a crime of moral turpitude and therefore did not lose their voting rights. b. All CERV applicants who were rejected or were otherwise not granted a CERV because of outstanding LFOs; c. All CERV applicants who were rejected or otherwise not granted a CERV for any other reason not mentioned above; and d. All CERV applicants whose applications were granted.³
17	For each individual CERV applicant listed in response to Request 16(a)-(d), provide any and all documents, communications, or things recording: a. The specific felony conviction(s) at issue (including jurisdiction and statutory provision); b. The reasons why the CERV application was approved or rejected and the method by which the CERV applicant was determined to be eligible or ineligible; c. The outstanding LFOs of the CERV applicant, if applicable, and the method by which the Board determined that the applicant had outstanding LFOs; d. The felony conviction(s) that the Board determined involved moral turpitude, if applicable. e. The felony conviction(s) that the Board determined did not involve moral turpitude, if applicable.
18	Any and all documents, communications, and things related to Individualized Pardon Applicant Information and Individualized Pardon Applicant Processing Information for: a. All pardon applicants who were rejected or otherwise not granted a pardon because of, in part or in whole, outstanding LFOs. This request includes all pardon rejections where outstanding LFOs were listed as a factor at any point in the pardon review process. b. All pardon applicants whose pardons were granted who had outstanding LFOs at the time of the grant of the pardon. c. All pardon applicants whose pardons were rejected who had outstanding LFOs at the time of the rejection of the pardon.

² These terms, and their counterparts for pardons and remittance applications, are defined by the Plaintiffs. Doc. 156-1 at 4-8.

³ Taken together, parts (a) through (d) refer to all CERV applicants who were denied and all who have been granted CERV. The Requests date back to January 1, 2008. Doc. 156-1 at 9.

Request Number	Request
19	Any and all documents, communications, and things related to Individualized Remittance Applicant Information and Individualized Remittance Applicant Processing Information.
20	For each individual Pardon applicant listed in response to Request 18(a) provide any and all documents, communications, or things recording the reasons for the denial of the pardon.
21	To the extent not included in the above information, any and all documents, communications, or things related to any formal or informal determination that a CERV applicant with a felony conviction does not qualify for a CERV because his or her conviction(s) was for a non-disqualifying crime, including any and all notification letters sent to such applicants.
22	To the extent not included in the above information, any and all documents, communications, or things related to any formal or informal determination that a CERV or Pardon applicant is ineligible because of outstanding LFOs, including any and all notification letters sent to such applicants.
23	Any and all documents, communications, or things related to any prior or current, formal or informal, policies and procedures for each of the following: a. Processing CERV or Pardon applications submitted by applicants with a felony conviction(s). b. Determining that a prospective CERV applicant with a felony conviction does not need a CERV on the basis of his or her conviction not bein[g] disqualifying, i.e. not being for a felony crime of moral turpitude, including any and all documents, communications, and things related to lists of non-disqualifying crimes or any other list or program used to identify voters who may have a non-disqualifying felony conviction. c. Determining that a CERV or Pardon applicant does not qualify for a CERV because they have not fulfilled all of his or her LFOs, including any and all documents, communications, and things related to procedures for matching records with the Alabama Office of Courts or any other list or program used to identify applicants with outstanding LFOs. Include any and all documents, communications, and things that describe the scope of data included in any database used for determining whether an applicant has any outstanding LFOs. d. Assessing outstanding LFOs in the pardon application review process.
24	A sample letter of each type of notification of the status or disposition of a CERV or Pardon application as it relates to ineligibility because the conviction does not “involve moral turpitude” or the failure to pay LFOs.

Doc. 156-1 at 19-23 (spacing altered).

B. The State Defendants' Responses and Objections.

In April 2018, the State Defendants served their responses and objections, doc. 154-1, and in May 2018, we amended, doc. 156-7. The State Defendants' operative responses and objections to the full set of Requests totaled 68 pages plus five exhibits, id., and have resulted in substantial productions. The State Defendants objected to most of the Requests pertinent to this dispute. Doc. 156-7 at 45-68. We objected to Requests 16 through 23 as overbroad, not proportional, unduly burdensome, and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Doc. 156-7 at 45, 52, 53-54, 60, 63-64, 65-66; see also Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1). We also explained the pardon file privilege as it pertains to paper files. Id. at 47-49, 55-57, 61-62.⁴

Specifically, we explained that the Board of Pardons and Paroles maintains a single paper file on each person who applies for a CERV and pardon, and with respect to each request for remittance of a fine or forfeiture, and that the paper file is privileged. Doc. 156-7 at 47-48, 55-56, 61-62. The State's pardon file privilege, found at Ala. Code § 15-22-36(b), provides: "Each member of the Board of Pardons and Paroles favoring a pardon, parole, remission of a fine or forfeiture, or restoration of civil and political rights shall enter in the file his or her reasons in detail, which entry and the order shall be public records, but all other portions of the file shall be privileged." (emphasis added). Additionally, we pointed to a decision from the Supreme Court of Alabama which described the privilege as "absolute," Ex parte Ala. Bd. of Pardons & Paroles, 814 So.2d 870, 872 (Ala. 2001), to the decision from this Court in Neelley v. Walker, 2015 WL 6432017, *3 (M.D. Ala. 2015) (Moorer, M.J.), and to a 1951 Alabama Senate investigation that recommended the current privilege scheme, S. Rep. No. 4, Special Sess. (Ala. 1951) (Special

⁴ We cite to the discussions in the responses to Requests 16 and 18 and, when appropriate, 19. Responses to some of the other Requests incorporate the responses to Requests 16 and/or 18. See e.g., doc. 156-7 at 52.

Legislative Committee Investigating Pardons and Paroles), doc. 156-7 at 106-75. Doc. 156-7 at 47-48, 55-56, 61-62.

We further explained the sensitive and confidential nature of information found in pardon files, doc. 156-7 at 48, 56, 62, and, as to the CERV and pardon Requests, we objected on grounds that production would invade privacy interests and be extremely burdensome, id. at 49, 56-57. For instance, in the Response to Request 16, we explained:

In addition to the history explaining why the pardon files are confidential, significant portions of the pardon files are both obviously confidential and entirely unrelated to this litigation. In addition to name, address, race, gender, date of birth, and social security number, pardon files include things such as information about, and statements from, both victims and witnesses. Part of the pardon application process includes signing a waiver to allow the Board to collect information about the applicant's work, school, and military history, financial and credit status, and reputation, as well as medical, physical and mental health records – all for the Board's confidential use. The investigation includes family information and contacting references, and the pardon file further contains records from the Department of Corrections. All of this sensitive information is within the scope of the overbroad Request, but unnecessary to the resolution of this case. Thus, in addition to the confidentiality objection, the State Defendants object to this Request as overbroad, unduly burdensome, not proportional to the needs of this case, and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

Further, the State Defendants object on grounds that Plaintiffs have demanded pardon files for approximately 23,000 individuals. This is an invasion of expected privacy rights and is not proportional to the needs of this case or reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Moreover, it would, in practice, be unduly burdensome. Because the pardon file, in addition to being statutorily privileged, contains confidential sensitive materials that are wholly unrelated to this litigation, production would require having Board staff review each file for relevant documents, disassemble the file to allow for those alone to be copied or scanned, and then reassemble the file; this would have to be done approximately 23,000 times. Further complicating matters, many of the pardon files are at Archives, which we understand lacks the manpower to pull this volume of documents in a timely fashion.

Doc. 156-7 at 48-49 (emphasis added).

We then reached for what we believed we could legally and reasonably produce. We explained that the Board of Pardons and Paroles had a Microsoft Access database with 32,787 records concerning pardon and CERV applications dating back to before 2008 and we had produced it. Doc. 156-7 at 46. The columns in that database, Bates No. D005351, include: first and last name; date of birth; whether the request is for voting rights or a pardon; the request date and due dates; whether the convictions are State, federal or out-of-State; and, voting rights status. Doc. 156-9, Decl. of Jessica Gratz, Ph.D. at ¶ 3. “Examples of the entries in the voting rights status column include: ‘restored,’ ‘lives out of State,’ ‘$’, ‘ineligible nature of offense,’ and ‘owes COM’s’ per various people. COMs are court-ordered monies.” Id. at ¶ 4.

Of those 32,787 records, nearly 23,000 were from 2008 forward. Doc. 156-7 at 46; Doc. 156-9 at ¶ 3. The Board merged a dataset with those approximately 23,000 files with a dataset from a docket file that includes address, race, and gender to create a new dataset containing that information. Doc. 156-7 at 46; Doc. 156-9 at ¶¶ 3, 5-6. That dataset was created for the Plaintiffs, Doc. 156-9 at ¶ 6, and produced, Doc. 156-7 at 46. It is an Excel file bearing Bates No. D005349.

Separate from the pardon and CERV database, the State Defendants explained, the Board had a remittance database with 170 records total, nearly 60 of them since 2008. Doc. 156-7 at 60. That Microsoft Access database, too, was produced. The columns in that database, Bates No. D005350, include: first and last name; AIS number (a number assigned by the Department of Corrections); the request date; whether the request is for remission of a fine or forfeiture or both; and, the status of the request.

In addition, the Board of Pardons and Paroles keeps ledgers of CERV⁵s, pardon certificates, and Board Action Sheets. Doc. 156-7 at 49-51, 57-58. The ledgers for the CERV⁵s and pardon documents thus contain additional copies of some documents that are kept in the paper pardon files. The Board Action Sheets are the documents specifically made public records by the pardon file privilege statute. Doc. 156-7 at 49, 57.⁶ We scanned recent portions of the ledgers and produced them to the Plaintiffs, and we said we would work with the Plaintiffs if they wanted to come copy more. Doc. 156-7 at 49-51, 57-58. They have never come.

We also undertook a search for electronically stored information (ESI), and it yielded a remarkable number of hits. The search terms have subsequently been refined. They represent a good faith effort to locate for review documents that may be responsive to Plaintiffs' Requests, not a guarantee that every document located is a smoking gun or even responsive.

C. The Claw Back and Subsequent Productions.

After production had started, the undersigned learned that the State's pardon file privilege is not limited to the documents placed inside the paper pardon file. This, of course, makes sense. That documents exist on the computer before they are printed for paper files should be no surprise in this day and age. Accordingly, the subsequent claw back letter explained that "These electronic documents are not made disclosable by the fact that, while in the hands of the Board, they have not yet reached the paper pardon file or are briefly removed from it in the process of carrying on the Board's work." Doc. 154-1 at 139. Indeed, it is the equivalent of having the document on a desk for review or in an "out" tray with notation to "Add to confidential files."

Our claw back letter described the documents being withheld as follows:

The documents subject to the pardon file privilege are identified as Privileged in the Claw Back Reason column of the Excel spreadsheet. Most of these fall into three categories. First, approximately 60 of the documents are identified in the Excel spreadsheet as CERV applications, sometimes with attachments to those applications or for other applications. Many of these were sent to the Board from the ACLU and one – D087750 – is from Plaintiffs' counsel.

While these documents are not privileged in the hands of the originating entities, in the Board's hands they are destined for the pardon file and privileged such that the Board cannot produce them.⁷ Second, approximately 270 documents are interoffice communications generated by Board staff and documenting that someone is seeking voting rights restoration, a pardon (full or partial) and/or remission of a fine or forfeiture. These documents state which form of relief is sought and information about the applicant, and they are used to assign the applications to Board staff for follow up. Third, approximately 60 more documents are fairly described as documenting internal investigations in follow up to requests for relief or internal memoranda concerning how cases should be handled. The remaining privileged documents are varied and include communications to CERV applicants. Again, all of these documents have been identified as being within the scope of the pardon file privilege.

Doc. 154-1 at 139. The interoffice memo discussed in the block quote is the same as the Interoffice Communication in re: Pardon Request/ Request for Remission of Fine or Forfeiture discussed in our letter of March 8, 2019. Doc. 154-1 at 203. In that letter, we noted that the documents are applications at the beginning of the process and “do not reflect the thoughts or decisions of the Board Members who will ultimately exercise their discretion in making a pardon determination.” Doc. 154-1 at 203.

An example of the interoffice memo documenting an application is found in Bates No. D086722. An example of a CERV application from the ACLU is found in Bates No. D083836. Both of these, and the application from the Plaintiffs' counsel, have been provided to the Court for in camera review. See doc. 153 (notice concerning 420 clawed back documents submitted for in camera review) & 153-1 (privilege log for the 420 clawed back documents).

⁷ A footnote provided: “Given the nature of the privilege, you have the option to reach out to the ACLU, SPLC, and any other organizations you know to be involved in assisting felons in regaining their voting rights to seek copies of any documents they may have. If you do so, then, to the extent that you expect to use them, we would expect to receive copies as Supplemental Initial Disclosures.” Doc. 154-1 at 139 n. 3. We have not received any supplemental initial disclosures with these documents or been notified of any subpoena duces tecum directed to the ACLU (over whose CERV applications we are asserting privilege) or SPLC (who is teamed up with Plaintiffs' counsel in registering felons to vote in Alabama, see Alabama Voting Rights Project at www.AlabamaVotingRights.com, last visited April 27, 2020).

Following the claw back, the State Defendants have made additional productions relevant here. First, as Plaintiffs acknowledged in their motion to compel, doc. 154 at 4, in late February 2019, we withheld 4,105 documents as privileged under Ala. Code § 15-22-36(b), doc. 154-1 at 196 (“Of the 7,251 documents, 4,105 are actually slip-sheets letting you know that the document is being withheld pursuant to the pardon file privilege); see also Exhibit 1 (privilege log for the withheld documents). Then in early April 2019, and again as acknowledged by the Plaintiffs, doc. 154 at 4, we withheld approximately 80 more documents pursuant to the privilege, doc. 154-1 at 197-201 (privilege log filed by Plaintiffs).

At the time of the original briefing, we noted: “We are continuing our review of ESI of the Board of Pardons and Paroles, and continuing to find documents protected by the pardon file privilege. Should [Chair Gwathney] be required to run the search terms anew for ESI created since the original data pull last Spring [i.e., 2018], there would no doubt be hundreds, if not thousands, more privileged documents.” Doc. 156 at 11.

Since then, in June 2019, we produced more documents, withholding 731 pursuant to the pardon file privilege. Exhibit 2 at 1 (production letter); Exhibit 3 (privilege log for withheld documents). In July 2019, at Plaintiffs’ request, we produced an update to the Microsoft Access database discussed above, which then contained 34,958 records, and we produced an update to the Excel file discussed above by providing 2,618 new records for the timeframe since the original pull to the then-present. Exhibit 4 (production letter). In August 2019, the Board sat for deposition pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(6). Exhibit 5 (deposition transcript). Finally, pertinent here, in November 2019, we produced 49 documents that we determined to have been previously withheld in error, Exhibit 6 at 1 (production letter), and we withheld 368 more documents pursuant to the privilege, Exhibit 7 (privilege log for withheld documents).

Thus, Chair Gwathney has clawed back or withheld more than 5,500 electronic documents pursuant to the State’s pardon file privilege—most of which were acknowledged by Plaintiffs in their motion to compel, doc. 153 at 2, doc. 154 at 3-4. In addition, Chair Gwathney has withheld approximately 23,000 paper files pursuant to the State’s pardon file privilege—a number that was first put in front of the Plaintiffs at least two years ago, see e.g., doc. 154-1 at 35. While there should be no dispute about the volume of documents impacted, Chair Gwathney’s opposition to the motion to compel included a declaration which stated: “The Board of Pardons and Paroles has a file for each individual who is under its supervision, who has sought parole, and/or who has sought restoration of rights through a pardon application or a request for a Certificate of Eligibility to Register to Vote (CERV),” doc. 156-12, Decl. of Askisha Jones at ¶ 3 (emphasis added)⁸, which further supports these statements of counsel.

II. THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE’S ORDER DENYING PLAINTIFFS’ MOTION TO COMPEL SHOULD BE AFFIRMED.

Magistrate Judge Doyle’s order denying Plaintiffs’ motion to compel should be affirmed on either of two theories. The order should be affirmed because the Requests for Production are “grossly disproportional to the needs of the case.” Doc. 200 at 4. Alternatively, the order should be affirmed based on the State’s pardon file privilege, Ala. Code § 15-22-36(b).

A. Magistrate Judge Doyle’s Order Should Be Affirmed Based on the Limits Placed on Discovery by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1).

In responding to the motion to compel, Chair Gwathney did explain at length her arguments in support of honoring the State’s pardon file privilege, doc. 156 at 11-22, but her Fed. R. Civ. P. 26 arguments were not thereby hidden. Facts and argument about the appropriate scope of discovery pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1) permeated the opposition brief, which both led and closed with explicit pleas to limit the discovery in this case, including through a traditional Rule 26 analysis.

The first paragraph of Chair Gwathney’s opposition stated: “Whether under the rubric of privilege or a traditional Fed. R. Civ. P. 26 analysis, the Plaintiffs’ motion to compel should be denied.” Doc. 156 at 1. That paragraph further included the first of eight references to 23,000 felons who were then not (and are not now) Plaintiffs in this case. Doc. 156 at 2; see also id. at 8 (two references in database discussions), 16 (explaining the felon before this Court in Neelley v. Walker, 2015 WL 6432017, *3 (M.D. Ala. 2015) (Moorer, M.J.), “did not receive anything else from her own file, and certainly did not receive internal memoranda concerning approximately 23,000 other people”); 18 (two references in a block quote—reproduced above—about the burden of going through 23,000 paper files); 21-22 (“And, not only do these Plaintiffs demand approximately 23,000 records”); 23 (concluding that “Plaintiffs should not gain access to the paper pardon files of approximately 23,000 felons.”). The opposition concluded that “It is time to put a stop of Plaintiffs’ expansive discovery in this case, not expand it further. The motion to compel should be denied because the records are privileged or pursuant to a traditional Rule 26 analysis. . . .” Doc. 156 at 23 (emphasis added).

Chair Gwathney’s opposition, like this brief, included a chart setting out the Requests at issue. Doc. 156 at 5-7. Scarcely anyone but the Plaintiffs would read the Requests and not recognize that the entire purpose of the chart is to demonstrate the undue breadth of the Requests. For instance, Request 16 demands “any and all documents, communications, and things” related to a number of fields for each and every CERV applicant since 2008. Doc. 156 at 5 & n.6.

Chair Gwathney noted that she had made burdensomeness objections and cited the Court to where they could be found in her Responses. Doc. 156 at 8. She explained how many documents had then been withheld to date and expressed concern about the potential need to pull an updated search that could result in “hundreds, if not thousands, more privileged documents.” Id. at 11. She alluded to upcoming burdensomeness arguments, id. at 14, and then made the arguments, including through a block quotation to the explanation of pulling, disassembling, and reassembling 23,000 files, id. at 18. She argued that the Plaintiffs appeared to be fishing, e.g., id. at 20, and encouraged the Court not to order that approximately 23,000 files be turned over when there had been no determination that a class should be certified and when the files would include those for non-class members, id. at 21-22.

Chair Gwathney also made the burden argument that the Magistrate Judge accepted. She explained:

Plaintiffs now demand documents protected by State law from disclosure and they demand them from [Chair Gwathney], who is “legally bound” to treat the documents as privileged. Ex parte Ala. Bd. of Pardons & Paroles, 814 So.2d at 873. This is a “quite great” burden on [Chair Gwathney] and the Board of Pardons and Paroles, and, as discussed below, that burden is a proper consideration in ruling on the motion to compel. Cf. McCoy v. Ray, 164 Fed. Appx. 876, 878 (11th Cir. 2006) (per curiam) (unpublished).

Doc. 156 at 13. Magistrate Judge Doyle reasoned that the “Plaintiffs’ sweeping discovery requests . . . were clearly aimed at supporting the LFO subclasses’ claim now impose a burden and expense on Pardons and Paroles that completely outweighs any conceivable benefit to Gamble and Thompson.” Doc. 200 at 4. Relying on McCoy v. Ray, he recognized that “the Eleventh Circuit has considered the fact that parole files are privileged under state law as a proper factor to consider when analyzing the burden of the proposed discovery on respondent under Rule 26.” Id. In McCoy, “the burden was quite great since parole records in Georgia are confidential state secrets.”

Id. at 5 (quoting McCoy, 164 Fed. Appx. at 878). The plaintiff in McCoy, an inmate bringing Ex Post Facto and Due Process claims, sought in camera review of his own file. McCoy, 164 Fed. Appx. at 877-78.

Plaintiffs seize on the Magistrate Judge's class discussion and argue, inter alia, that if the lack of a class limits their ability to get discovery "then class certification is, in fact, necessary." Doc. 205 at 5 (emphasis by the Plaintiffs). Not surprisingly, however, neither Plaintiffs' motion for class certification nor their reply brief ever argued that a class was needed to justify broad discovery. Doc. 106, generally; doc. 114, generally.

Similarly, the State Defendants did not argue that a class should be denied for discovery reasons. Doc. 113, generally. We did make a remedy-based argument that:

. . . A declaratory judgment that Section 177 of the Alabama Constitution is unconstitutional or that it may not be applied to felons convicted only of felonies involving moral turpitude before August 1, 2017 is as meaningful aimed at the Secretary of State on behalf of one plaintiff as one aimed at him on behalf of one thousand plaintiffs. This is certainly true for a finding of intentional discrimination under Counts 1 and 2, and for Plaintiffs' claims aimed at the alleged retroactivity of Ala. Const. Art. VIII, § 177(b) and/or Ala. Code § 17-3-30.1, i.e., Counts 11, 16, and 17. In fact, it is true for the same reasons that make the Plaintiffs think the case is a fit for class certification. The declaratory judgment on the cruel and unusual punishment claim is a little tougher for reasons to be discussed below, but a finding that disenfranchisement is excessive punishment for theft of property 1st, for example, would be equally effective on behalf of a single Plaintiff. Of course, a finding that Alabama's laws are not intentionally discriminatory and/or that disenfranchisement is not punishment at all would defeat the claims, and class certification in that instance would simply bind more Plaintiffs. In short, class certification adds no benefit for the Plaintiffs or the putative class and subclasses, though it risks complicating the litigation.

Doc. 113 at 11-12. The cruel and unusual punishment discussion that followed in the commonality section of the briefing explained that what was cruel and unusual for one felony may not be for another felony and so Plaintiffs' motion for class certification could complicate the litigation. Id.

at 16-17. With respect to Count 13, which was not addressed in the block quote above, we explained: “A declaratory judgment that Ala. Code § 15-22-36.1(a)(3) is unenforceable and an injunction not to enforce it would have the same effect whether entered for one plaintiff or one thousand plaintiffs, and so again class certification serves no benefit.” Doc. 113 at 15. Thus, the State Defendants focused on remedy and needlessly complicating the litigation, without ever mentioning discovery.

In January, this Court denied Plaintiffs’ motion for class certification. Doc. 194. The Court explained that “[t]he Plaintiffs do not point to any reason for the need for certification other than potential mootness,” id. at 8, and rejected that basis, id. at 8-9. The Court further explained:

In M.R. [v. Board of School Commissioners of Mobile County], 286 F.R.D. 510 (S.D. Ala. 2012)], the court explained that the plaintiffs identified no other reasons that might warrant class-based relief in this case and that ‘proceeding as a class action would yield inefficiencies and complexities that would needlessly burden litigant and judicial resources alike, all of the sake of obtaining a class injunction that would be identical in scope, breadth and effect to an individual injunction awarded in favor of the individual plaintiffs alone.’ Id. at 521. This Court is persuaded that the same reasoning applies to this particular case. . . .

Doc. 194 at 9-10 (emphasis). Thus, the Court rejected Plaintiffs’ earlier attempt to needlessly complicate this litigation and thereby burden the Court and litigants. Plaintiffs’ new argument that if the lack of a class limits their ability to get discovery “then class certification is, in fact, necessary,” doc. 205 at 5 (emphasis by the Plaintiffs), is an invitation to complicate the litigation and impose disproportional costs on the defense and it should likewise be rejected.

Plaintiffs have already received extensive discovery consistent with a class action, as partially detailed above. In addition to producing various documents from the Board of Pardons and Paroles over which the pardon file privilege was not asserted, Plaintiffs also received extensive databases. Chair Gwathney produced a Microsoft Access database with 32,787 records concerning pardon and CERV applications dating back to before 2008. Doc. 156-7 at 46.; see also doc. 114 at 10 n. 4 (Plaintiffs acknowledge receipt thereof). Of those records, nearly 23,000 were from 2008 forward. Doc. 156-7 at 46; Doc. 156-9 at ¶ 3. The Board merged a dataset with those approximately 23,000 files with a dataset from a docket file that includes address, race, and gender to create a new dataset containing that information. Doc. 156-7 at 46; Doc. 156-9 at ¶¶ 3, 5-6. Then, in July 2019, Chair Gwathney produced updates to each of these databases. Exhibit 4.

Additionally, in August 2019, the Board put up two individuals for its deposition pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(6). Exhibit 5. Eddie Cook was then the Executive Director of the Board and he had previously spent about nine months serving on the Board. Exhibit 5 at 17:9-11; id. at 20:9-12. He testified that monies owed is one important factor the Board Members consider in determining whether to grant a pardon, id. at 31:14-32:8, 48:12-51:2, 56:8-11, 57:22-58:5, and he explained at least some of the reasons why it is important that the felon have paid his monies due, or “made great efforts to pay that,” id. at 45:15-46:8; 99:9-23. Owing monies is not a disqualifier that will prevent a felon from even being considered by the Board. Id. at 37:2-38:19; id. at 42:19-43:13. Mr. Cook testified that the Board has sometimes denied pardons because of monies owed, id. at 59:7-13, but Plaintiffs’ counsel did not follow up for any details, id. at 93:16-94:3. During Mr. Cook’s service on the Board, there were a “few cases” where pardons were denied despite monies due where “the person had shown a history of continuous paying for years.” Id. at 71:9-12, 72:14-22. Mr. Cook also testified that Board Members do not always document their reasons for denying a pardon, id. at 74:3-7, and that the checklist they have is for marking reasons a pardon is granted, id. at 93:1-9.⁹ After Mr. Cook, Askisha Jones testified that it is “common practice” to send pardon applicants letters in advance of their hearings encouraging them to pay outstanding monies in advance of the hearing. Id. at 254:7-256:12. Thus, Plaintiffs have received, at least, proportional discovery; the Magistrate Judge’s order only denies “grossly disproportional” discovery, doc. 200 at 4.

Finally, Plaintiffs rely on the Eleventh Circuit’s decision in Jones v. DeSantis, 950 F.3d 795 (11th Cir. 2020), as “underscore[ing] the relevance of Plaintiffs’ discovery requests,” doc. 205 at 8. Jones is a decision upholding a preliminary injunction in favor of 17 individual plaintiffs. It is not a final decision on the merits, as Plaintiffs suggest, doc. 205 at 2, and it does not address any evidentiary disputes. Moreover, even if one assumes arguendo that all the evidence Plaintiffs demand is relevant, that is not enough to bring it within the scope of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1). In addition to being relevant, evidence must be “proportional to the needs of the case, considering the importance of the issues at stake in the action, the amount in controversy, the parties’ relative access to the relevant information, the parties’ resources, the importance of the discovery in resolving the issues, and whether the burden or expense of the proposed discovery outweighs its likely benefit.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1). It was here that Magistrate Judge Doyle rested his decision in holding that Plaintiffs requests were “grossly disproportional to the needs of the case,” doc. 200 at 4, and this is a sufficient basis for affirming that order. As demonstrated above, Plaintiffs are proposing to fish through thousands of documents in hopes there might be something to support their claims, and that is neither reasonable nor proportional and thus should not be allowed.¹⁰

¹⁰ In footnote 6 to their objections, Plaintiffs argue that the withheld documents are relevant to multiple claims. Doc. 205 at 10-11 n. 6. Their analysis is strained at places and broken in others. For instance, it is not apparent why the documents would be relevant to a proper consideration of the intent of the 1995 Alabama Legislature or the 1996 electorate.

B. Magistrate Judge Doyle’s Order Should Be Affirmed Based on the State’s Pardon File Privilege.

Alabama’s pardon file privilege provides that “Each member of the Board of Pardons and Paroles favoring a pardon, parole, remission of a fine or forfeiture, or restoration of civil and political rights shall enter in the file his or her reasons in detail, which entry and the order shall be public records, but all other portions of the file shall be privileged.” Ala. Code § 15-22-36(b) (emphasis added). The privilege is important and it would be enforced by an Alabama court. When a Montgomery County Grand Jury subpoenaed certain records covered by the pardon file privilege, the Supreme Court of Alabama held that “A plain reading of the statute indicates that the Legislature created an absolute privilege to provide individuals and entities an unfettered opportunity to provide information to the Board, without exposing the individuals and entities to public scrutiny and potential retaliation.” Ex parte Ala. Bd. of Pardons & Paroles, 814 So.2d 870, 872 (Ala. 2001). The Court went on to say that the statute “clearly and unambiguously establishes an absolute privilege that the Board is legally bound to obey and the circuit court is under a duty to uphold.” Id. at 873 (emphasis added).

Plaintiffs demand documents protected by State law from disclosure and they demand them from Chair Gwathney, who is “legally bound” to treat the documents as privileged. Ex parte Ala. Bd. of Pardons & Paroles, 814 So.2d at 873. They argued that the privilege is not applicable in federal court based on Fed. R. Evid. 501, doc. 154, and the Magistrate Judge agreed, doc. 200 at 4. Chair Gwathney did not object to that holding as the final decision was in her favor, based on her burden argument pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1). Nonetheless, because the privilege provides an alternative ground for affirming the Magistrate Judge’s order, Chair Gwathney briefly argues this ground as well.

As the Magistrate Judge recognized, in McGoy v. Ray, 164 Fed. Appx. 876 (11th Cir. 2006) (per curiam) (unpublished), the Eleventh Circuit upheld an order denying an inmate access to his own parole file and did so based on a burden analysis, finding “that burden was quite great since parole records in Georgia are confidential state secrets.” Id. at 878.

Later the same year, the Eleventh Circuit faced a similar case. Porter v. Ray, 461 F.3d 1315 (11th Cir. 2006). Again, plaintiffs wanted in camera review of their own parole files, and this time some additional documents. Id. at 1324. Plaintiffs’ “complete parole files” were again “confidential state secrets under Georgia law.” Id. (internal citations and quotation marks omitted). The Eleventh Circuit recognized that “courts must not blindly accept the Board’s contention that parole records are confidential,” id., but again the records were not disclosed:

Nevertheless, the discovery rules do not permit the appellants to go on a fishing expedition. As we noted earlier, the appellants’ argument that statistics will prove that the Board has applied a de facto 90% policy is irrelevant here. The appellants have failed to demonstrate how the discovery they request will show that the Board applied a de facto 90% policy to them. Furthermore, even though we do not blindly accept the Board’s claim of confidentiality, we find that the appellants’ allegations are insufficient to meet their burden when requesting discovery that the State of Georgia has deemed confidential. McGoy v. Ray, 164 Fed. Appx. 876, 878 (11th Cir.2006) (per curiam) (unpublished). Consequently, we hold that the district court did not abuse its discretion in denying the appellants’ request for an in camera inspection of their parole files and documents and statistics from the Board.

Porter, 461 F.3d at 1324 (emphasis added). Cf. Sullivan v. Williams, 2008 WL 4007020, *7 (M.D. Ala. 2008) (“Thus, it is possible that in certain limited circumstances, which are not found here, the Board might not necessarily be able to use the statute to require the court’s blind acceptance to its declaration of privilege. It is likewise true, however, that discovery rules, see Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, do not permit Sullivan to go on a fishing expedition. See Porter v. Ray, 461 F.3d 1315, 1324 (11th Cir.), cert. denied, 549 U.S. 996, 127 S.Ct. 516 (2006).”) (Recommendation of the Magistrate Judge which was adopted by the District Court).

This Court faced the question of Alabama’s pardon file privilege in Neelley v. Walker, 2015 WL 6432017 (M.D. Ala. 2015) (Moorer, M.J.). At the end of the day, plaintiff sought documents from her own file: (1) correspondence between her and/or her counsel and the Board, and (2) the publisher and dates of newspaper articles in her file. Id. at *3. The Court “recognize[d] the parole file privilege” and effectively imposed a higher standard for producing the documents – a standard that took some documents off the table. The key portion of the analysis is as follows:

The correspondence requested clearly do not raise the same concerns as those raised in the case law cited in support of the privilege, or those cited in the legislative intent of Section 15-22-36(b) of the Code of Alabama. The correspondence are of the nature that Plaintiff and/or her counsel drafted them and sent them to the Parole Board, or the Parole Board voluntarily sent a copy to Plaintiff and/or her counsel. While the Court recognizes the parole file privilege, it must also take into account that the correspondence cannot be obtained in another manner and that the documents sought were created by the Parole Board with the intent that they be viewed by Plaintiff and/or her counsel or created by Neelley and/or her counsel to be viewed by the Parole Board. Indeed, these items were sent to Neelley and/or her counsel by the Parole Board, or sent by Neelley and/or her counsel to the Parole Board. Correspondence sent between Neelley and/or her counsel and the Parole Board do not implicate the need that the privilege is meant to address. Therefore, the Court finds that Defendants shall produce the requested correspondence between the Parole Board and Neelley and/or her counsel. However, Defendants shall only produce those documents that are not already in Plaintiff’s possession, and shall redact any writings or markings made by the Parole Board or its counsel that were not on the document when sent to Plaintiff or her counsel, or sent by Plaintiff or her counsel.

Neelley also requests the name of the publication and the corresponding dates of publication for any newspaper articles contained in her parole file. Neelley asserts that Defendants have pursued a defense based upon the statute of limitations, as well as heavily relied on it in Defendants’ Motion for Summary Judgment (Doc. 41), thus, she must gather information related to the notice element. See Docs. 38, 45. Neelley asserts that Defendants have cited to several newspaper articles in their motion for summary judgment; however, they did not attach them as exhibits or set forth any identifying information. Defendants aver that as a whole, the collection of newspaper clippings speak to the Parole Board’s decision-making process by disclosing all of the news related media used in making their decisions related to Neelley’s parole consideration. While the Court generally agrees with Defendants’ stance, Defendants cite to several of the articles in their motion for summary judgment. While the Court is not making any express finding that Defendants have waived the parole file privilege, to the extent that Defendants have cited to the documents in their motion for summary judgment, in the interest of fairness, the Plaintiff is entitled a copy of those articles in order to properly defend herself against a possible summary judgment. Thus, to the extent Defendants cite to any newspaper articles in their Motion for Summary Judgment (Doc. 41), the Defendants shall produce the publisher and corresponding date to only those articles cited. Additionally, if any of the articles are clippings that do not identify the publisher and/or date, Defendants shall produce a copy of that article, subject to redactions of any notes or markings made by the Parole Board or their counsel.

Neelley, 2015 WL 6432017 at *3-*4 (emphasis added). Thus, plaintiff only received copies of correspondence that she or her counsel at one time possessed and articles cited by the Board Members in their dispositive motion. She did not receive anything else from her own file.

This Court dealt with the State's pardon file privilege again more recently. In Ellison v. Alabama Board of Pardons and Paroles, 2017 WL 6947946 (11th Cir. 2017) (per curiam) (unpublished), the Eleventh Circuit affirmed this Court's denial of plaintiff's requests for his parole file. Ellison, 2017 WL 6947946, *4. The Court cited Ala. Code § 15-22-36(b) and said: "Accordingly, under statute, because Ellison sought parole files relating to the denial of parole, the files that he sought – including his own – were statutorily privileged, and the district court did not err in denying his motion to compel discovery of that information." Ellison, 2017 WL 6947946, *4.

In each of these cases, the courts denied (or upheld the denial of) a demand to produce a pardon/parole file. In none of these cases, did the courts address Fed. R. Evid. 501. Each of these cases further considered only the file(s) of the plaintiff(s). Here, the Plaintiffs demand approximately 23,000 files, amplifying the burden on Chair Gwathney 23,000 times. And that it without even considering what it would take to physically go through those files. Even as to the electronic files that have been withheld during the ESI search, there are more than 5,500, and thus a much greater burden than justified denying production in all of the cases discussed herein. The burden is overwhelming, and self-evidently so.

III. PLAINTIFFS' REQUEST FOR EXPENSES, INCLUDING ATTORNEYS' FEES

While Plaintiffs have never briefed the issue of expenses, docs. 154 & 205, they originally proposed an order granting their motion to compel that would direct them to “submit a motion for attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant to Rule 37(5)(A),” doc. 154-2, should they prevail. Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(a)(5)(A) provides:

If the Motion Is Granted (or Disclosure or Discovery Is Provided After Filing). If the motion is granted--or if the disclosure or requested discovery is provided after the motion was filed--the court must, after giving an opportunity to be heard, require the party or deponent whose conduct necessitated the motion, the party or attorney advising that conduct, or both to pay the movant’s reasonable expenses incurred in making the motion, including attorney’s fees. But the court must not order this payment if:

- (i) the movant filed the motion before attempting in good faith to obtain the disclosure or discovery without court action;*
- (ii) the opposing party’s nondisclosure, response, or objection was substantially justified; or*
- (iii) other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.*

Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(a)(5)(A) (emphasis added). Here, Chair Gwathney’s assertion of the pardon file privilege was substantially justified, and it would be manifestly unjust to award expenses.

Chair Gwathney’s assertion of the pardon file privilege was substantially justified because she “is legally bound to obey” the plain language of the State’s pardon file privilege. Ex parte Ala. Bd. of Pardons & Paroles, 814 So.2d 870, 873 (Ala. 2001). Her position is further justified by the decisions in Porter v. Ray, 461 F.3d 1315 (11th Cir. 2006); Ellison v. Ala. Bd. of Pardons & Paroles, 2017 WL 6947946 (11th Cir. 2017) (per curiam) (unpublished); McGoy v. Ray, 164 Fed. Appx. 876 (11th Cir. 2006) (per curiam) (unpublished); Neelley v. Walker, 2015 WL 6432017 (M.D. Ala. 2015) (Moorer, M.J.); Sullivan v. Williams, 2008 WL 4007020, *7 (M.D. Ala. 2008) (Recommendation of the Magistrate Judge adopted by the District Court). Where this Court and the Eleventh Circuit have respected the State’s pardon file privilege, Chair Gwathney—a State official—should not be expected to disregard it. Her refusal to produce the documents is also justified based on Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1)'s limits on the proper scope of discovery. For these same reasons, it would be unjust to award the Plaintiffs expenses.

IV. CONCLUSION

When Chair Gwathney raised (repeatedly) the specter of impacting more than 23,000 records, e.g., doc. 156 at 18, Plaintiffs sat quietly—an implicit acknowledgment that they thought their arguments justified such a production. Their belated attempt to negotiate a narrower scope for their Requests should be rejected. The Court should affirm, in whole, Magistrate Judge Doyle's order denying Plaintiffs' motion to compel Chair Gwathney to produce thousands of records protected by the State's pardon file privilege.

Re: Thompson, et al., v. Merrill, et. al., Civil Action No. 2:16-cv-783-ECM-GMB (M.D. Ala. pending).

Dear Danielle:

Though all deadlines in this case remain continued generally, doc. 125, we are producing documents by today shipping a CD via FedEx to Bryan Power. The CD is password protected, and the password is Tr#w5*. The production consists of 5,969 documents with a Bates range of D185277 through D200067. The documents represent our on-going review of ESI from the Board of Pardons and Paroles as well as a supplemental production of documents from the Secretary of State's office.

Board of Pardons and Paroles

Please note that 731 of the documents included in this production are protected by the State's Pardon File Privilege. We are obviously aware that you moved to compel production of these files, doc. 154, and we opposed, doc. 156. Your motion remains pending. Accordingly, as in the past, the documents are withheld and slip sheets stating that the documents are withheld are produced.

My letter dated April 3, 2019 informed you that the email account of Terry Davis had been disabled on May 30, 2018 and the email account of Aimee Cobb Smith had been disabled on July 25, 2017. To the extent that your responsive letter of May 2, 2019 may be read to suggest that the Board was required to cease routine destruction of any and all files for any and all custodians, we disagree. With respect to your reservation of your right to seek relief as to these two custodians, you may be interested to know that Smith served one week in April 2017. Davis served from April 2017 until May 2018.

Secretary of State

We previously completed our initial production of documents from the Secretary of State's office. We have now¹ gone back and asked for documents subsequent to the original ESI search. We have also added custodians to be searched, and we requested their documents back to the January 1, 2008 date specified in your Requests for Production – to the extent they exist. At this point, we have identified 19 custodians who may potentially have (or previously had) responsive materials. For five of the custodians, some or all of their files and/or emails were destroyed before this litigation was filed. The Secretary of State's IT staff has been made aware that there must be no on-going routine destruction for these 19 custodians.

In response to our requests, we have received standalone files for review and nearly 3,000 of those are included in the present production. We have more of the files to review and expect to receive supplemental emails in the near future.

We continue to have serious doubts about the usefulness of reviewing and producing the ESI you have demanded. In the current production, the vast majority of the Secretary of State's documents are text files that are worthless insofar as the substance of this litigation is concerned. They are produced because they were part of zip files – which we treated as families of documents such that the whole family was responsive if any part of it was – and one or more of the files was responsive (which is not synonymous with useful). Many more documents were captured by the agreed-upon search string used to collect the ESI for review but are not responsive to the Requests for Production and so are not produced.

Montgomery County Board of Registrars

Your May 2, 2019 letter seeks confirmation that any routine deletion procedures for Chairman of the Montgomery County Board of Registrars Cindy Sahlie have been suspended. As you learned last year, neither the Montgomery County Board of Registrars nor the Secretary of State holds the keys to the Board's ESI: Montgomery County does. Last year, we worked with the County to acquire ESI for review, and we have completed that production. In light of your letter, we reached out to the County attorney to advise us, and we have not heard back.

We propose that you agree the Montgomery County Board of Registrars shall not have any further obligation to respond to the pending Requests for Production. Not only was the ESI only ascertainable by going through a separate non-party government entity, but very little was responsive and useful. According to our records in Summation, the County collected and provided to us nearly 13,000 documents. These documents were represented to us to be the result of "a thorough search of [the] current and archived electronic documents systems" of the Board, and they were collected in their entirety, i.e., without applying any search terms. When we applied the agreed-upon search string, Summation reflects that approximately 95% of the documents did not contain any of the search terms. Of the documents that were captured by the search string, more than half were not responsive to the Requests for Production. Ultimately, Summation reflects that 300 documents were produced for the Board. A handful of those were paper documents that were scanned for production and pictures we took of documents in the office when you complained we owed you copies after you saw them.²

¹ You may recall that we previously represented that we had requested an update last Fall. There were issues and delays. We ultimately put that request aside and started anew this Spring.

We are aware of no significant event relevant to this case since the data were collected last Summer that would justify going through the process again. We recognize that, under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, parties have an on-going obligation to supplement, but it remains our position that Chair Sahlie should not be a party to this case. She is one member of a Board. As such, she cannot grant any relief on her own. And, even if she could, Chair Sahlie's duties and power are limited to Montgomery County, but neither the purported classes nor even the named Plaintiffs are all residents of Montgomery County. See doc. 113 at 9-12 & n. 9; cf. Fed. R. Civ. P. 1. At this point, Pamela King is the only viable Plaintiff who resides in Montgomery County.³ The complaint gives no hint that the Plaintiffs are oddly seeking different relief in Montgomery County than in the rest of the State, and, if they are not, there is no reason for Chair Sahlie to remain in this case. Plaintiffs should voluntarily dismiss her.

Under these circumstances, we do not see the point of repeating the ESI collection, review, and production process for documents subsequent to the Summer 2018 data pull. Undertaking this work is not "proportional to the needs of the case" and the "burden . . . of the proposed discovery outweighs its likely benefit." Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1). If the documents from the Board were particularly helpful to your prosecution of this case and you have a good faith basis for believing similarly useful documents would be produced from a subsequent search, please explain the likely benefit you reasonably anticipate. Otherwise, we ask you to dismiss Chair Sahlie, or, in the alternative, agree that the Montgomery County Board of Registrars shall not have any further obligation to respond to the pending Requests for Production. If you insist on on-going productions, we will seriously consider seeking a protective order from the Court. This letter serves to open the meet and confer process in support of such a motion.

Sincerely,

Misty S. Fairbanks Messick
Assistant Attorney General

Re: Thompson, et al., v. Merrill, et. al., Civil Action No. 2:16-cv-783-ECM-SMD (M.D. Ala. pending).

Dear Danielle:

By email dated June 18, 2019 and June 20, 2019, you requested updates of certain databases that were originally produced last year. Specifically, you requested updates to D005351, D005349, D009606, and D064502, as well as updates to the codes provided in D014404 and D064537, if applicable. You prioritized two of the databases.

The enclosed media contains updates to each of the requested databases as well as new codes files. The media is password protected, and the password will be transmitted to you separately for security purposes. In producing these updates, we do not waive our right to refuse to produce further updates. Details on this production are as follows.

D005351 was Microsoft Access database from the Board of Pardons and Paroles that contained CERV and pardon data. When produced in May 2018, it contained 32,787 records dating back before 2008 (when the Requests for Production start). Approximately 23,000 of the records were for 2008 forward. See May 2018 RFP Responses at 46. A copy of the current CERV and pardon database is enclosed as Bates No. D200068. This Microsoft Access database contains 34,958 records.

D005349 was an Excel file from the Board of Pardons and Paroles that was also produced in May 2018. This file was created for you by the Board. The Board merged a dataset from the CERV and pardon database on a common identifier with a data set from a separate docket file. That docket file, which is maintained by the Administrative Office of Courts but contains data entered by the Board of Pardons and Paroles, contains information such as addresses, race, and gender that is not included in the CERV and pardon data. The result was 22,365 records. See May 2018 RFP Responses at 46.

The person who performed the merge last year was in her final days with the Board of Pardons and Paroles, however, she was able to provide Bates No. D200069 before leaving. It is an Excel file with 2,618 records reflecting the period from April 1, 2018 through June 25, 2019. She used the file number in the CERV and pardon database as the common identifier with the pdkt_ais field in the docket table; I am informed that only 15 did not match.

D009606 was a text file from the Secretary of State's office containing 80,188 records. It was a May 2018 snapshot of all records who have a "status" of "not eligible" or "disqualified" and a "status reason" of "criminal conviction/moral turpitude." See May 2018 RFP Responses at 20. Bates No. D200070 is an update to this file. It is a text file containing 82,554 records.

D064502 was a text file from the Secretary of State's office containing more than 5 million records. It was produced in July 2018 in response to your email of June 12, 2018 requesting a snapshot of the entire voter registration database. The file was not responsive to any Request for Production and contained both records that are not sold and records that concern people with no felony convictions. See July 11, 2018 letter that accompanied the data. Last year, I requested that the Secretary of State's office provide the certain fields that appear to track your definition of Individualized Voter Information in your Requests for Production. Bates No. D200071 is an update to D064502 but it includes additional fields, including fields for partial Social Security Numbers and driver's license numbers. It contains 5,183,569 million records.

D014404 and D064537 were created for you to explain certain codes used in PowerProfile. While none of the codes have changed, the Secretary's office has provided new files with these codes and has also provided a file explaining additional codes, all as follows:

- Bates No. D200072 is an update/copy of D014404, which contains codes for registrant status, registrant status reason (three of the codes only), race and gender.
- Bates No. D200073 is an update/copy of D064537, which contains the complete codes for registrant status reason.
- Bates No. D200074 is new. Ten of the fields included in the large snapshot (Bates No. D200071) provide space for information on voter history. The elections are identified by codes, and Bates No. D200074 provides more information on the elections.

All of the databases/datasets contain Confidential Information protected by the PROTECTIVE ORDER, doc. 104. Accordingly, Plaintiffs may use these records "for the sole purpose of conducting this litigation, including on appeal." Id. at 3-4 (footnote omitted).

Sincerely,

Misty S. Fairbanks Messick

Today is Tuesday, August the 20th, 20 2019. The time is 10:37 a.m. Central Standard 21 Time. 22 This begins the video deposition 23 of Eddie Cook in the matter of Treva Thompson,	Page 17 1 (THROUGH THE EDDIE COOK, JR.), 2 being first duly sworn, was examined and 3 testified as follows: 4 5 EXAMINATION BY MS. LANG: 6 Q. Good morning, Mr. Cook. Thank you 7 for being here today. Can you state your full 8 name and position for the record? 9 A. My name is Eddie Cook, Jr. I am 10 the executive director for the Board of Pardons 11 and Paroles. 12 Q. And Mr. Cook, have you ever been 13 deposed before? 14 A. I have been in a deposition, not 15 directly deposed, but I have been in a 16 deposition. 17 Q. Okay. Were you answering 18 questions during that deposition or -- 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. Okay. So I will go over some 21 rules that probably you will be familiar with, 22 but I want to make sure we are all on the same 23 page.

Page 18 1 A couple of them are quite simple. 2 We will try not to talk over each other. In 3 normal conversation, it is common for us to 4 finish each other's sentences and guess what 5 the other person is going to say. But that 6 makes it quite difficult for the court record, 7 to have a court reporter to take down a clean 8 record. So I will say you let me finish my 9 questions, and I will do my best to let you 10 finish your answers. 11 The other is, similarly, in normal 12 parlance, we go huh-uh or uh-huh. We shake our 13 head or nod. And although we do have a 14 videographer here, we want the record itself to 15 be understandable. And so say yes or no rather 16 than shaking your head or having those kinds of 17 non-verbal answers. Is that all right? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. Okay. If you don't understand a 20 question, just go ahead and ask me. If you 21 don't ask me, I will assume that you understood 22 the question. 23 If you need to take a break, that	Page 20 1 How long have you held that position? 2 A. Approximately two years. 3 Q. And were you working for the 4 Alabama Board of Pardons and Paroles before you 5 had that position? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. And in what role were you employed 8 at the Board of Pardons and Paroles? 9 A. I was a former board member. 10 Q. Board member. And how long did 11 you serve as a board member? 12 A. Approximately nine months. 13 Q. And prior to that, what was your 14 employment? 15 A. I was the assistant executive 16 director. 17 Q. And how long did you hold that 18 post? 19 A. From about 2005. 20 Q. Until 2016, is that about right? 21 A. That's correct. 22 Q. Okay. 23 A. June of 2016.
Page 19 1 is perfectly fine. We are not going to be 2 here, I think, for your deposition terribly 3 long. But if you need a break, that is fine. 4 All I ask is that if I have asked you a 5 question, that you answer that question. And 6 then we can go ahead and go off the record and 7 take a break. 8 Your attorney from time to time 9 may object to inartful questions of mine or 10 something about my question. Unless she 11 instructs you not to answer, you can just go 12 ahead and answer after she has put her 13 objection on the record. 14 Is that all right? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. Are you on any medication or are 17 you aware of any other reason why you might not 18 be able to testify truthfully today? 19 A. I am not on anything that will 20 prohibit me from testifying truthfully. 21 Q. Okay. So just a moment ago you 22 let us know that you are the executive director 23 of the Alabama Board of Pardons and Paroles.	Page 21 1 Q. And what is your educational 2 background? 3 A. I have a bachelor's degree. 4 Q. From where? 5 A. Alabama State University. 6 Q. In what? 7 A. Criminal justice and psychology. 8 Q. And after you graduated from 9 college, did you go directly to the Board of 10 Pardons and Paroles or did you have other 11 employment? 12 A. I had other employment. 13 Q. Can you describe to me in general 14 terms what your employment was prior to -- 15 between college and joining the Board of 16 Pardons and Paroles? 17 A. I worked for approximately one 18 year for a company by the name of Construction 19 Testing & Engineering, where we inspected 20 construction sites, blueprints. And after 21 that, I started work with Alabama Department of 22 Corrections as a correction officer for five 23 years before I started with the Board of

Page 22 1 Pardons and Paroles. 2 Q. Okay. And as a correctional 3 officer, were you working in one of the Alabama 4 prison facilities? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. Which one? 7 A. Draper and Kilby. 8 Q. And when you became executive 9 director in 2005 -- I'm sorry. Did you hold 10 any other positions at the Board of Pardons and 11 Paroles prior to becoming the assistant 12 executive director? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. And what were those roles? 15 A. I was a division director over 16 field services, and I was a probation parole 17 officer senior over -- in the pardon unit. 18 Q. Are board members appointed to the 19 Board of Pardons and Paroles? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. Okay. By whom? 22 A. The legislature. They are named 23 by the governor and confirmed by the Senate	Page 24 1 MS. MESSICK: Object. Outside the 2 scope. 3 A. No. 4 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Mr. Cook, can you 5 tell me in your best terms why it is that you 6 didn't receive a vote from the legislature? 7 MS. MESSICK: Object. Outside the 8 scope. Also object to the form. And you can 9 answer. 10 A. Because my name didn't come up in 11 the committee meeting for a confirmation for it 12 to be voted on by the Senate confirmation 13 chair. 14 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Did the chair say 15 why? 16 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 17 Object -- object to the scope. 18 A. The committee chair said that 19 there was a lot of pressure on him by outside 20 stakeholders that I was not tough on crime. 21 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And what were some 22 of those outside stakeholders? 23 MS. MESSICK: Object. Beyond the
Page 23 1 confirmation committee. 2 Q. And what is the average term -- is 3 there a specific term for -- 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. -- for board members? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. And what is that term? 8 A. They are staggered six-year terms. 9 Q. How did it come to pass that you 10 had kind of a shorter tenure as a Board of 11 Pardons and Paroles board member? 12 MS. MESSICK: Object. Outside the 13 scope. 14 MS. LANG: I am just -- 15 MS. MESSICK: You can go ahead and 16 answer the question. But his answer is on 17 behalf of Eddie Cook and not on behalf of the 18 board. 19 A. I didn't get confirmed by the 20 legislature. 21 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Did you 22 have a vote at the legislature, like an up or 23 down vote?	Page 25 1 scope. Object to form. 2 A. I don't know. 3 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Were there any 4 specific examples provided to you as to why you 5 were, quote, not tough on crime? 6 MS. MESSICK: Object. Beyond the 7 scope. 8 A. No. 9 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Mr. Cook, 10 you are here -- I'm sorry. Mr. Cook, what are 11 your current responsibilities as an executive 12 director of the Board of Pardons and Paroles? 13 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 14 A. To oversee all day-to-day business 15 operations of the Board of Pardons and Paroles. 16 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And what are the 17 responsibilities of board members of the 18 Pardons and Paroles? 19 MS. MESSICK: Object. Beyond the 20 scope. 21 A. To grant -- to make the decision 22 to grant pardons, paroles, remissions of fines, 23 fines and forfeitures and to be the appointed

Page 26 1 authority of hiring and firing of employees and 2 all other administrative actions. 3 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. And in 4 order to grant or deny a pardon, how many votes 5 are required? 6 A. To grant a pardon, it requires two 7 votes. To deny a pardon, it requires two 8 votes. 9 MS. MESSICK: Can we take a break 10 for a second? 11 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Okay. Stand 12 by. We are off the record. It is 10:48 a.m. 13 Central Time. 14 (Whereupon, a break was had from 15 10:48 a.m. until 10:49 a.m.) 16 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Okay. The time 17 is 10:49 a.m. Central Time. We are now back on 18 the record. 19 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Mr. Cook, is there 20 ever a time when three votes are required for a 21 pardon? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. And what is that circumstance?	Page 28 1 those questions. 2 MS. LANG: Sure. 3 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Mr. Cook, at the 4 time that a board member begins considering a 5 pardon -- 6 MS. LANG: I am trying to get it 7 as close to just the scope as possible. 8 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Mr. Cook, at what 9 stage in the process does a board member start 10 considering whether to grant or deny a pardon 11 application? 12 A. The board member starts that 13 process when the files are placed in the 14 boardroom for the board to review on that 15 Monday before the Tuesday hearing when they are 16 doing their screening of each case. 17 Q. Okay. Is there a hearing every 18 Tuesday? 19 A. There are board hearings on 20 Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. 21 Q. Okay. And the records for pardon 22 applications for Tuesday, Wednesday and 23 Thursday are delivered all on Monday; is that
Page 27 1 A. When a case is based on innocence 2 and that case has been commuted, it takes 3 unanimous votes. 4 Q. What do you mean by commuted? 5 A. When a person has been convicted 6 of a crime and the courts and the judges, 7 jurisdiction has determined that that case, the 8 person was innocent of that crime. 9 Q. Okay. Mr. Cook, I am going to try 10 not to ask you too many process questions 11 because I know that is not why you are here. 12 But I do want to get a tiny bit of framework of 13 how you come to make decisions as board 14 members, how those applications get to a 15 hearing. 16 MS. MESSICK: Well, that is 17 outside the scope of what we have put him up 18 for. 19 MS. LANG: Okay. 20 MS. MESSICK: So -- 21 MS. LANG: Okay. 22 MS. MESSICK: -- he would not be 23 speaking for the board if you wanted to ask	Page 29 1 correct? 2 A. No. 3 Q. No? Okay. What applications are 4 delivered to the boardroom on Monday? 5 MS. MESSICK: Object to -- object 6 as beyond the scope. 7 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) You can answer. 8 A. On Mondays, the staff that 9 processes pardons and parole hearings, they 10 take the files to the board on Monday so the 11 board can start the review process of those 12 files before the hearings on Tuesdays. 13 Q. Okay. And when -- and when do you 14 receive -- or when does a board member receive 15 the records for the Wednesday hearing? 16 MS. MESSICK: Object as beyond the 17 scope. 18 A. On Tuesday afternoon at the board 19 hearings. 20 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. What 21 records does a board member consult in 22 assessing eligibility for a pardon? 23 MS. MESSICK: I am going to not

Page 30 1 object on the assumption that you mean 2 generally speaking, what would they consult. 3 MS. LANG: Yes. 4 MS. MESSICK: Because we are 5 talking about a variety of different people. 6 MS. LANG: Yes. I'm going -- 7 MS. MESSICK: So we are going to 8 interpret that question very reasonably. 9 MS. LANG: Exactly. 10 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) So I am going to 11 ask a series of questions that are about kind 12 of the general process that board members go 13 through. 14 And I am not asking you to 15 describe the very -- the specific actions of 16 any particular member, but rather what is the 17 process by which pardons are -- go through the 18 process. 19 So with that understanding, what 20 documents or sources of information does a 21 board member rely upon in assessing eligibility 22 for a pardon? 23 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form.	Page 32 1 had on supervision. They will look at the 2 support letters. They will look at the protest 3 letters. 4 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And what do you 5 mean by they would look at the case? 6 A. What type of sentence it is, 7 murder case, robbery case, assault case, what 8 type of conviction. 9 Q. And is that -- is the information 10 that you just listed provided to board members 11 by board of -- by staff? 12 MS. MESSICK: Object as beyond the 13 scope. 14 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) You can answer. 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. Okay. And is that what you mean 17 by the records that were brought to the -- that 18 are brought to the boardroom prior to the 19 hearing? 20 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Are there 23 any other materials that are included in that
Page 31 1 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) You can answer. 2 A. Would you ask the question again 3 so I can make sure I understand what you are 4 asking? 5 Q. Sure. What documents would a 6 board member look at when assessing whether or 7 not to grant or deny a pardon? 8 MS. MESSICK: Okay. That is a 9 different question. 10 MS. LANG: It is a different 11 question, and I am trying to -- 12 MS. MESSICK: Okay. So answer the 13 most recent question. 14 A. Okay. What a board member looks 15 at when he or she is trying to determine 16 whether to grant a pardon, as I understand your 17 question is, he or she will look at the case; 18 he or she will look at the sentence 19 information. 20 He or she will look at how long 21 the person served, whether it's probation or 22 parole. They will look at whether there are 23 fees owed, what type of success rate he or she	Page 33 1 record for an individual pardon application 2 that you have not yet referenced? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. And what are those? 5 A. There's an investigation done. A 6 social history of investigation is done by one 7 of the probation/parole officer staff. There 8 is a recommendation that is made by a 9 supervisor in the pardon unit. And there's a 10 records check done to see if there are any more 11 criminal records or activities since the last 12 arrest. 13 Q. What types of information is 14 included in the social history investigation 15 report? 16 A. Educational background, siblings, 17 family, marital status, employment history, 18 record of arrest, current home address. 19 Q. Do board members receive 20 information from an interview with the pardon 21 applicant? 22 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 23 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Included in -- I

Page 34 1 will rephrase. Included in the record given to 2 a board member to consider, is there 3 information related to statements made during 4 an interview with the pardon applicant? 5 A. Would you rephrase that question 6 so I make sure I understand what you are 7 asking? 8 Q. Sure. I am asking -- let me ask a 9 question first. As part of the pardon process, 10 are pardon applicants interviewed by staff at 11 the Board of Pardons and Paroles? 12 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 13 the scope. 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And is information 16 from that interview included in the 17 investigation report or otherwise in the 18 records that are given to board members? 19 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 20 the scope. 21 A. Yes. 22 MS. LANG: I just want to make 23 clear on the record you are preserving your	Page 36 1 MS. MESSICK: And Mr. Cook is here 2 to talk about eligibility for a pardon and the 3 decision to grant or deny a pardon. 4 MS. LANG: Yes. 5 MS. MESSICK: We have a different 6 witness who will address questions like you are 7 trying to figure out what is in files. 8 So to the extent you are asking 9 what is in a file, I think that is probably 10 more for the other witness. 11 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Mr. Cook, do board 12 members consider statements from victims in 13 assessing pardon applications? 14 A. If it is a victim case and victims 15 are at the hearing, yes. And if victims -- if 16 it is a victim case and victims provide a 17 protest letter, yes. 18 Q. Mr. Cook, what are the -- what are 19 the eligibility requirements for applying for a 20 pardon in the state of Alabama? 21 A. If a person has been conviction 22 [sic] other than treason, impeachment and a 23 death sentence, they are eligible to apply for
Page 35 1 objection. I don't agree that these questions 2 are necessarily outside the scope. And, of 3 course, we can deal with that if it ever comes 4 to pass, but I don't want my silence to suggest 5 that I am agreeing that all of these questions 6 are outside the scope. 7 MS. MESSICK: Okay. 8 MS. LANG: So I don't have to say 9 that every time, right? 10 MS. MESSICK: Of course not. 11 MS. LANG: Okay. 12 MS. MESSICK: I just have to 13 preserve my objection. 14 MS. LANG: I totally understand. 15 Okay. 16 MS. MESSICK: And actually for the 17 record to be clear, we have two witnesses 18 today. We talked about this off the record. 19 Some of these things may be within the scope of 20 topics that you have noticed us on, but we have 21 two witnesses who are handling different 22 topics. 23 MS. LANG: Yes.	Page 37 1 a pardon. 2 Q. Are there any other requirements 3 before you apply for a pardon? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. What are they? 6 A. If the person is on parole 7 supervision, he or she has to have completed 8 three years of successful parole supervision. 9 Q. And what does successful 10 supervision mean? 11 A. It means that under their 12 three-year supervision term they have not had 13 any new infractions, violations of the 14 conditions of their parole supervisions. 15 Q. So if an individual has had any 16 infractions during the past three years of 17 their supervision, are they eligible to apply 18 for a pardon? 19 A. If a person is on parole and he or 20 she has had infractions, whether technical or 21 new offense during that three-year time period 22 while they are on parole, they are ineligible 23 to apply for a pardon.

Page 38 1 Q. Okay. What -- are there any other 2 eligibility requirements? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. And what are those? 5 A. If they are on probation 6 supervision, they are ineligible until that 7 supervision term is up. 8 Q. Are there any other requirements? 9 A. Not that I can think of at this 10 time. 11 Q. In a person has had their pardon 12 denied in the -- a pardon application denied in 13 the past, when can they apply again for a 14 pardon? 15 A. Two years. 16 Q. So people who have had a pardon 17 denied, they are ineligible until two years has 18 passed from that denial; is that correct? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. Okay. In order to apply -- in 21 order to be eligible for a pardon, are there 22 processes or procedures that an applicant must 23 undergo?	Page 40 1 you testified earlier that decisions about 2 granting or denying pardon applications are 3 done at a public hearing; is that correct? 4 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 5 MS. LANG: Let me rephrase. 6 MS. MESSICK: Just ask him if it's 7 at a public hearing. I don't remember 8 testimony about that. 9 MS. LANG: Okay. 10 MS. MESSICK: That was my only 11 concern. 12 MS. LANG: Okay. Fair enough. 13 MS. MESSICK: If you will just get 14 to the meat of the question. 15 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Are votes on 16 pardons or paroles -- are votes on pardons done 17 at public hearings? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. And at a hearing for a pardon 20 applicant, what kinds of evidence or testimony 21 does the board consider? 22 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 23 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) You can answer.
Page 39 1 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 2 the scope. 3 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) You can answer. 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. And what are those? 6 A. The person has to make application 7 himself or herself with the Board of Pardons 8 and Paroles's central office or at one of the 9 location probation and parole offices. 10 After that application is made, at 11 some point the person you have to -- the 12 candidate would have to go to the probation and 13 parole office to sign a waiver form 14 acknowledging that I am the person that is 15 requesting this pardon. And that starts the 16 process. 17 Q. Uh-huh. In order to be eligible 18 for a pardon, do you have to undergo a DNA 19 test? 20 MS. MESSICK: You can answer. 21 A. Yes, if one has not been done by 22 DOC prior to that application. 23 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. I believe	Page 41 1 A. The board considers everything 2 that has been prepared in that applicant's file 3 that I have alluded to earlier. The board 4 additionally considers the testimony at the 5 hearing from the victims if it is a victim 6 case, from stakeholders like the district 7 attorney's office, DA's offices. 8 The board considers the witness 9 from the -- the testimony from the applicant 10 himself or herself and any other witnesses that 11 he or she may bring. 12 Q. After hearing the testimony and 13 considering the record evidence, do board 14 members discuss their -- do board members 15 discuss the pardon application before taking a 16 vote? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. Do they -- do they deliberate 19 about their vote on pardon applications? 20 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Do you know 23 if any decisions about eligibility for pardon

Page 42 1 applicants are made prior to -- I am going to 2 rephrase my question. 3 Are there any applicants for 4 pardons that receive denials of their pardons 5 based on eligibility without receiving a public 6 hearing? 7 A. No. From the board, no. 8 Q. Okay. Let me just make sure we 9 are understanding each other. So if somebody 10 applied and they had not yet served three 11 years, for example, on parole, would that be an 12 application you would have a public hearing 13 for, or would they be denied based on that 14 requirement prior to a hearing? 15 A. If they have not served their 16 three years on parole, they are ineligible for 17 the process. So the board would not hear that 18 case. 19 Q. So eligibility determinations are 20 made without the board member's involvement; is 21 that right? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. As to eligibility to apply for a	Page 44 1 MS. MESSICK: I was trying to get 2 the second sheet off of it, and I couldn't. 3 MS. LANG: But it is just one. 4 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Do you recognize 5 this document? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. And what is this document? 8 A. This is the Board of Pardons and 9 Paroles board action on application for pardon 10 restoration of rights. 11 Q. Okay. And is that the form that 12 is always used in considering pardon 13 applications? 14 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 15 A. The board always has a board 16 action sheet that is used for every pardon and 17 parole, but this form is not always the form. 18 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. What other 19 forms are used? 20 A. This form has been revised. 21 Q. Okay. 22 MS. BOWIE: (Handing document.) 23 MS. MESSICK: Thank you.
Page 43 1 pardon, those decisions are made prior to board 2 member involvement? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. And then the board members decide 5 whether or not to grant an eligible applicant a 6 pardon; is that right? 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. Okay. Thank you. Would it ever 9 be the case that someone would have their 10 application denied because of outstanding fines 11 or fees prior to a public hearing? 12 A. Their application would not be 13 denied based on that. 14 Q. Okay. 15 (Plaintiffs' Exhibit 1 was marked 16 for identification.) 17 MS. LANG: I am going to mark 18 Exhibit 1, Plaintiffs' Exhibit 1. And we will 19 get a copy for you and counsel. 20 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Do you recognize 21 this document? 22 MS. LANG: I believe it is just 23 one page.	Page 45 1 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) What changes were 2 made to this form? 3 MS. MESSICK: Object as beyond the 4 scope. 5 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) If you know. 6 A. Basically, the formatting. 7 Q. Okay. Did any of the reasons for 8 favoring a grant change that are listed at the 9 bottom? 10 A. No. 11 Q. Okay. So I am going to pick 12 through -- at the bottom of this sheet, there's 13 a list of reasons for favoring a grant of 14 pardon -- and ask you a little bit about each 15 of those reasons. So the first is "conduct 16 indicates rehabilitation." What kind of 17 conduct indicates rehabilitation? 18 MS. MESSICK: You can answer. 19 A. The person has, since he or she 20 was -- finished their supervision term, has not 21 committed any new felonies, new crimes for over 22 a period of time. 23 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Any other conduct

Page 46 1 that would indicate rehabilitation? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. Can you give me some other 4 examples? 5 A. If there are any outstanding 6 fines, court costs, they have paid that or made 7 great efforts to pay that. They have 8 maintained stable employment, housing. 9 Q. And it says "substantially comply 10 with parole terms." I think that is relatively 11 self-explanatory. But would that include the 12 payment of supervision fees? 13 A. No. 14 Q. No? 15 A. Not in its entirety. 16 Q. I'm sorry? 17 A. No, not in its entirety, the fees 18 part. 19 Q. Can you explain to me what you 20 mean by that? 21 MS. MESSICK: You can answer. 22 A. Substantially compliant with 23 parole terms involves more than just paying	Page 48 1 Q. Okay. So is it fair to say that 2 reliance on State assistance is a factor 3 against granting a pardon? 4 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 5 A. No. 6 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) But lack of 7 reliance on State assistance is a reason for 8 favoring a grant; is that correct? 9 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 10 A. Would you repeat your question, 11 ma'am? 12 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Lack of reliance 13 on State assistance is a reason for favoring a 14 grant of a pardon? 15 A. Yes. 16 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 17 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Are board 18 members provided information about pardon 19 applicants' reliance on forms of State 20 financial assistance? 21 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 22 A. During the investigation process, 23 their financial status is questioned by the
Page 47 1 supervision fees. 2 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Right, of course. 3 And my question is, does that include, although 4 not only, the payment of supervision fees? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. What kind of family or community 7 support does the board consider? 8 MS. MESSICK: You can answer. 9 A. Whether the person that is 10 applying for a pardon, whether his employer is 11 there with him or he has employment. Many 12 times church, family members will come. Many 13 times family members that have had spastic 14 relationships with these individuals will come 15 and show their support and attest to their 16 change. 17 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And the 18 next factor, I understand gainfully employed, 19 but it also says the phrase "legitimate 20 support." What does legitimate support mean? 21 A. It means that they are 22 self-sufficient. They are not relying on State 23 assistance.	Page 49 1 probation officer to the offender to go into 2 the person's social history report so that 3 information is before the board to know. 4 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And I think we 5 have gotten to this -- we have already 6 mentioned this a bit, but payment of 7 restitution is a factor that is considered in 8 determining the grant of a pardon; is that 9 correct? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. And also the payment of 12 supervision fees, is that also a factor? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. And then following is court -- 15 payment of court-ordered money. What types of 16 other fines or fees is included in payment of 17 court-ordered money? 18 A. I'm not sure at this time. 19 Q. Okay. Does it include court fees 20 or assessments issued by the sentencing court? 21 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 22 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Would the board 23 consider whether or not an individual had paid

Page 50 1 court fees or other assessments in assessing a 2 pardon application? 3 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. And does 6 the court consider payment of other outstanding 7 fines, including late penalties for nonpayment 8 of fines and fees? 9 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 10 A. I'm not sure what the Court 11 considers. 12 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) What does the 13 board -- does the board consider payment of 14 late fees or things like -- of that nature? 15 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 16 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Does the board 17 consider late fees, payment of late fees in 18 assessing a pardon application? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. Is it fair to say that the board 21 considers the payment of any legal financial 22 obligation related to the criminal justice 23 system in assessing a pardon application?	Page 52 1 answers no because I asked about the court 2 rather than the board? 3 MS. MESSICK: I'm going to object 4 to the form. I think that could be impossible 5 for him to answer without going through the 6 transcript. 7 MS. LANG: Yeah, I am just going 8 to go back. 9 MS. MESSICK: But I think you can 10 try to fix -- 11 MS. LANG: Yeah, sure. 12 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Does the board 13 consider outstanding traffic tickets in 14 assessing a pardon application? 15 A. The board considers, yes. 16 Q. Okay. And does the board consider 17 outstanding parking tickets in assessing a 18 pardon application? 19 A. No. 20 Q. Okay. Are there any other types 21 of fines or tickets that the board considers 22 that we haven't discussed yet here today? 23 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form.
Page 51 1 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Does the court 4 consider outstanding traffic tickets or other 5 noncriminal outstanding fines in assessing a 6 pardon application? 7 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 8 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) I will ask, does 9 the board consider outstanding parking tickets 10 in assessing a pardon application? 11 A. No. 12 Q. Does the court consider outside -- 13 outstanding traffic tickets in assessing a 14 pardon application? 15 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 16 You keep saying "does the court." Some of them 17 are compound. 18 MS. LANG: Does the board. 19 MS. MESSICK: But you also keep 20 asking about the court. 21 MS. LANG: Okay. Thank you. 22 MS. MESSICK: Okay. 23 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Were some of your	Page 53 1 A. I can't think of any at this time. 2 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. The fact -- 3 there's a -- the next factor listed is 4 "satisfactory criminal record check." What is 5 meant by satisfactory criminal record check? 6 A. What that means is that during the 7 investigation process, the staff has pulled the 8 records from the criminal database to see if 9 the person has any more criminal charges and at 10 the time of the pardon application the person 11 has no outstanding warrants or pending cases on 12 him or her. 13 Q. Okay. And the following is 14 "investigating officer recommends." So I am -- 15 can you explain what that means? 16 A. When an investigation is done 17 prior to going to the board by one of the 18 investigating officers, the officer at his 19 level or her level makes a recommendation 20 whether to grant this pardon. When it goes to 21 the supervisor in the pardon unit, before it 22 goes to the board, likewise that supervisor 23 makes a recommendation whether to grant.

Page 54 1 Q. And is that supervisor the pardon 2 examiner? The next factor says "pardon 3 examiner recommends." 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. Okay. The following factor, 6 "reasonably satisfied he will remain at liberty 7 without violating the law," what types of 8 things or facts does a board member consider in 9 determining whether or not he or she is 10 satisfied that the applicant will remain at 11 liberty without violating the law? 12 A. Everything that has been presented 13 to the board that was discussed earlier, the 14 things in the file, the criminal history, the 15 success, home plan, job, the witness during the 16 hearing itself, how the person has changed his 17 or her life, the victim support or nonsupport, 18 all of that is considered. 19 Q. Okay. Pardons are always 20 discretionary by the board; isn't that right? 21 Or are pardons discretionary or mandatory? 22 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 23 You may answer the question.	Page 56 1 And what is the purpose of the three separate 2 boxes? 3 A. The three separate boxes are 4 factors, reasons for favoring or granting a 5 pardon that each board member that is present 6 can check off that satisfies his or her 7 reasoning for favoring that pardon. 8 Q. Okay. Is the payment of 9 outstanding restitution an important factor to 10 the board's consideration of whether or not to 11 grant a pardon? 12 MS. MESSICK: I am going to object 13 to the form on that. We talked about, of 14 course, the board is not a computer unit. You 15 have asked about -- there's two or three board 16 members at all times. 17 You have asked about a time period 18 starting in January 2012 through current. 19 During that time, I believe eight different 20 members have served in different 21 configurations. 22 So I'm not sure how to make sense 23 of the question. But I think maybe you can
Page 55 1 A. The law provides a process for a 2 pardon. The decision of the board to grant or 3 deny is discretionary. 4 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And there are no 5 circumstances where the board is required to 6 grant a pardon; is that right? 7 A. That is correct. 8 Q. Okay. Are there any limits on 9 what a board member can consider in determining 10 whether or not to grant a pardon? 11 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 12 A. I'm not sure I understand the 13 question. Would you rephrase it? 14 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Are there any 15 factors, information or evidence that a board 16 member is not permitted to consider in 17 assessing a board -- in assessing a pardon 18 application? 19 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 20 A. Not to my knowledge. 21 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) At the bottom of 22 this form there are three different sets of 23 boxes with these reasons for favoring grant.	Page 57 1 make clear what you are answering, maybe talk 2 in general terms. Or if you have -- 3 MS. LANG: You have asked me not 4 to ask about specific members. 5 MS. MESSICK: Right. 6 MS. LANG: And I am honoring that 7 so -- 8 MS. MESSICK: Right. But we also 9 can't assume that the board has -- the board is 10 not a single entity that is unchanging. 11 MS. LANG: Okay. 12 MS. MESSICK: So I think that is a 13 hard question. So I am going to object to the 14 form on it. And if there's any way that you 15 can clarify it, you should. And if there's any 16 way that you can be clear in what information 17 you are giving her, I think that would be 18 helpful. And I'm sorry. Can the court 19 reporter repeat the question so that we are 20 reminded after my interruption? 21 (Record read.) 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Is the

Page 58 1 payment of other outstanding fines or fees an 2 important consideration in determining whether 3 or not to grant a pardon? 4 MS. MESSICK: Same objection. 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) In your experience 7 and in general, is the payment of restitution a 8 more important factor than the payment of other 9 fines and fees? 10 MS. MESSICK: Object to the -- 11 object as outside the scope. 12 MS. LANG: I'm sorry. I do want 13 to ask how that is outside the scope. 14 MS. MESSICK: You asked in his 15 experience. 16 MS. LANG: Oh. 17 MS. MESSICK: So now you are 18 asking him personally. 19 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) In general terms, 20 is the payment of restitution more important 21 than payment of other fines and fees in 22 assessing a pardon application? 23 A. No.	Page 60 1 11:30 a.m. until 11:42 a.m.) 2 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Going back on 3 the record. The time is 11:42 a.m. Central 4 Time. 5 MS. LANG: Thank you, Mr. Cook. 6 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Prior to our 7 break, we were talking about considerations for 8 pardon applications and particularly about 9 various fines and fees that might be 10 considered. One that I forgot to ask you about 11 is fines or fees or other obligations related 12 to misdemeanors. Are those something that 13 might be considered, even if the pardon request 14 is for a felony? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. Okay. Is it the case that a 17 single traffic ticket could lead to the 18 outstanding -- strike that. 19 Is it the case that a single 20 outstanding traffic ticket might lead to the 21 denial of a pardon application? 22 A. No. 23 (Plaintiffs' Exhibit 2 was marked
Page 59 1 Q. In general terms, is it the case 2 that the payment of all legal financial 3 obligations are treated equally for purposes of 4 assessing a pardon application? 5 MS. MESSICK: You can answer. 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Are pardons 8 sometimes denied because of outstanding 9 restitution fines or fees? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. Is that sometimes the only reason 12 a pardon is denied? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. Okay. 15 MS. MESSICK: Can we take a break, 16 please? 17 MS. LANG: Yes. 18 MS. MESSICK: Thank you. 19 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Okay. Stand 20 by. The time is 11:30 a.m. Central Time. We 21 are now off the record. 22 MS. MESSICK: Thank you. 23 (Whereupon, a break was had from	Page 61 1 for identification.) 2 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) I will mark 3 Plaintiffs' Exhibit 2. 4 MS. LANG: I have a copy for you. 5 MR. SINCLAIR: Thank you. 6 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Exhibit 2 has two 7 sides, action sheets on both sides. I want to 8 look at the one with the name John Kevin 9 Parrish at the top. And at the bottom, it 10 says, "Continued to January 9, 2018, to enable 11 opportunity to clear balance owed on 1988 12 traffic case in Houston County." 13 Do you see that? 14 MS. MESSICK: I'm sorry. Yes, you 15 can look at it. Hold on a second. 16 (Off-the-record discussion.) 17 MS. MESSICK: We had an agreement 18 that we weren't going to talk about specific 19 cases. So to the extent that you are asking 20 about like what happened in this case, we would 21 object as inconsistent with our agreement. To 22 the extent that you are just trying to find out 23 generally what might possibly be going on in a

Page 62 1 case like this -- 2 MS. LANG: Yeah, I am trying to 3 use it as an example that might refresh the 4 witness' recollection, since his prior 5 testimony -- as a general matter. Yes. 6 MS. MESSICK: I reserve the right 7 to argue that it is in violation of the 8 agreement that we made. 9 MS. LANG: Okay. 10 MS. MESSICK: Was there a question 11 on the table? 12 MS. LANG: I don't think there 13 was. 14 MS. MESSICK: I think you -- 15 MS. LANG: I asked, "Do you see 16 that," after I read aloud what I believe to be 17 what the note says at the bottom. 18 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) So I will reask. 19 Mr. Cook, do you see a note on the bottom that 20 indicates that this case was continued to 21 enable opportunity to clear a balance owed on 22 1988 traffic case in Houston County? 23 A. Yes.	Page 64 1 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 2 A. No. 3 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And why not? 4 MS. MESSICK: You can answer. 5 A. Because as a board member for nine 6 months, we didn't deny cases -- I didn't deny 7 cases that had traffic cases like this. 8 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. So during 9 your nine-month experience, you did not deny 10 pardons on the basis of a traffic ticket; is 11 that your testimony? 12 MS. MESSICK: You may answer. 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) But is it possible 15 that board members outside of that experience 16 have denied pardon applications on the basis of 17 an outstanding traffic ticket? 18 MS. MESSICK: Are you still 19 talking about this Exhibit 2? 20 MS. LANG: As an example. 21 MS. MESSICK: Then object to the 22 form. 23 A. It is possible.
Page 63 1 Q. Okay. And there are two board 2 members that have signed that they have denied 3 the pardon application; is that also correct? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. Are any other reasons given on 6 this action sheet for the denial of the pardon? 7 A. No. 8 Q. There are initials at the bottom 9 of this note that say, I think -- I don't know. 10 Do you recognize those initials at the bottom 11 of the sheet next to the date? 12 A. One, yes. 13 Q. Okay. And whose initials are 14 those? 15 A. The one right above the 12/5/17 is 16 Sandra Cochran. 17 Q. And who is that? 18 A. The board's secretary. 19 Q. Okay. As a general matter, does 20 this refresh your recollection that it might be 21 the case that traffic offenses and outstanding 22 traffic tickets might lead to the denial of a 23 pardon application?	Page 65 1 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Does it 2 appear that that is what happened in this case? 3 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. 6 MS. MESSICK: Also object to the 7 scope. 8 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) In your 9 experience, are pardon applications often 10 continued based on outstanding payments of -- 11 outstanding fines and fees? 12 MS. MESSICK: Did you start that 13 "in your experience"? 14 MS. LANG: I did. 15 MS. MESSICK: Okay. Then I object 16 as outside the scope. 17 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) You may answer. 18 A. Would you repeat the question, 19 please? 20 Q. In your experience, is it common 21 for pardon applications to be continued if 22 there are outstanding fines and fees? 23 MS. MESSICK: Object as beyond the

Page 66 1 scope. 2 A. I have seen pardon applications 3 continued to give the applicant an opportunity 4 to pay that fine so the board can favorably 5 give him or her more of an opportunity to 6 receive their pardon. 7 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. 8 A. A clean slate. 9 Q. Just to put it back in the scope, 10 I'm going to ask a very similar question 11 without referencing your personal experience. 12 Is it common that pardon applications may be 13 continued if there is an outstanding financial 14 obligation in order to enable the applicant to 15 pay that obligation? 16 MS. MESSICK: You may answer. 17 A. I have seen cases extended. I 18 don't know if I would use the word "common." 19 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Are they -- 20 in those cases, is it the case that they are 21 continued because they would be denied absent 22 payment of those financial obligations? 23 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form.	Page 68 1 our agreement again. I anticipated you asking 2 him what factors the board considers and why 3 they -- because that is what this said. 4 You are asking him to make a group 5 of cases all be treated identically and tell 6 him what -- it is like a group of 7 hypotheticals, so I am going to object to the 8 way it has been phrased as in violation of an 9 agreement that we reached before the deposition 10 and say that he can answer to the best of his 11 ability but -- 12 MS. LANG: This is not a 13 complicated question. 14 MS. MESSICK: It is because you 15 are trying to get a yes -- you are trying to 16 get black and white where everything is gray. 17 MS. LANG: I would actually prefer 18 to get some gray answers, but I can't manage to 19 get them. So I am just asking questions. 20 MS. MESSICK: But your question is 21 seeking -- you have asked him a lot of 22 questions that can't be answered yes or no. 23 And it sounds like you are asking him for a yes
Page 67 1 A. Not necessarily because they would 2 be denied. They are continued because so many 3 times applicants was not aware that they had 4 these fines on their record until they come to 5 the hearing. 6 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) But if it would be 7 granted notwithstanding the payment, why would 8 the board continue the pardon application? 9 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 10 A. Because it is one of the factors 11 that the board is looking at when they are 12 deciding to grant a pardon. They want that 13 situation to be taken care of. 14 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. In those 15 cases, does the board continue the application 16 because the outstanding fine or fee would 17 likely lead to the denial of the application, 18 if decided on that day? 19 MS. MESSICK: Give me a second. 20 MS. LANG: I am going to object. 21 He can answer the question. 22 MS. MESSICK: You can't decide. I 23 am trying to decide if it is inconsistent with	Page 69 1 or no. You are asking him to say that just 2 because they give time to encourage people to 3 pay, that that necessarily means that they 4 would deny if they had to deny today. 5 MS. LANG: I want to end this 6 conversation because I want him to testify 7 about it. So you have made your objection. 8 And I will repeat my question, unless you would 9 like to have it read back. 10 MS. MESSICK: I think it would be 11 better if it was read back. 12 MS. LANG: Okay. 13 (Record read.) 14 MS. MESSICK: The same objection. 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And Mr. Cook, is 17 it common for pardon applicants to have their 18 pardons granted if they have outstanding fines, 19 fees or restitution on their criminal cases? 20 MS. MESSICK: You can answer. 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) You would say that 23 that is common?

Page 70 1 A. Yes. 2 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 3 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) How often -- what 4 percentage of pardon applicants in general -- 5 strike that. 6 What proportion of individuals who 7 receive pardon from the board have outstanding 8 financial obligations? 9 MS. MESSICK: I am going to object 10 as outside the scope. And you can answer as to 11 the best of your ability. 12 A. I don't know. 13 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) More than half? 14 MS. MESSICK: The same objection. 15 A. I don't know. 16 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Well, Mr. Cook, 17 just a moment ago, you testified that it was 18 common for this to occur. So to the best of 19 your knowledge, what proportion of pardon 20 grantees will have outstanding fines and fees? 21 MS. MESSICK: Same objection and 22 also object to the scope -- I mean, I'm sorry, 23 also object to the form.	Page 72 1 here and know exactly the number. But in 2 depositions it is okay to give your best 3 estimate, and you are supposed to give the best 4 information that is available to you. 5 So what is your best estimate of 6 how often this occurred while you were a board 7 member? 8 MS. MESSICK: I am going to object 9 as outside the scope, and I am going to clarify 10 the instruction you are giving to my client. 11 He is not to guess, and he is not to speculate. 12 If he gives an estimate, he should make clear 13 that he is giving an estimate. 14 A. As I stated earlier, I don't know, 15 but I said "a few cases." And the few cases 16 that come to mind in particular are drug cases 17 where there were outstanding fees and the 18 person had shown a history of continuous paying 19 for years. So I don't have an exact number 20 because I have not run any statistical data to 21 get those numbers. So I will say for the 22 record a few cases. 23 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Mr. Cook,
Page 71 1 A. Again, I don't know. 2 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. While you 3 were a member for nine months, how many 4 individuals, approximately, were granted pardon 5 despite having outstanding legal financial 6 obligations? 7 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 8 the scope. 9 A. I am going to answer while I was 10 on the board, there were a few cases that were 11 granted pardons that had outstanding balances. 12 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And by a few, is 13 that more or less than five? 14 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 15 the scope. 16 A. I'm not sure at this time. 17 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Is it more 18 or less than ten? 19 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 20 the scope. 21 A. I'm not sure at this time. 22 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Mr. Cook, I 23 understand that it is impossible for you to sit	Page 73 1 do you know if pardon applicants are advised 2 that they should -- when an applicant applies 3 for a pardon and it is determined that they 4 have outstanding fines and fees, are they 5 advised of that fact prior to the board 6 hearing? 7 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 8 the scope. You can answer the question. 9 A. I can't say definitively in all 10 cases they are or not. 11 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Are they sometimes 12 informed of the outstanding fines and fees? 13 MS. MESSICK: The same objection. 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Do the 16 investigative officers ever recommend granting 17 a pardon if there are outstanding fines, fees 18 or restitution in the pardon applicant's file? 19 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 20 the scope and object to the form. 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And how common is 23 that?

Page 74 1 MS. MESSICK: The same objections. 2 A. I don't know at this time. 3 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Do the 4 board members always document reasons why a 5 pardon application is granted or denied? 6 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 7 A. No. 8 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Is it 9 within the board member's pardoning authority 10 to remit fines or fees? 11 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 12 the scope. 13 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) You can answer. 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. Okay. And what kinds of legal 16 financial obligations can board members remit? 17 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 18 the scope. Object to the form. 19 A. They can remit partial or all of 20 the fees. 21 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) I just want to be 22 a little more precise. Can they remit 23 restitution?	Page 76 1 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Can the board 2 remit supervision fees? 3 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 4 the scope. 5 A. Yes. 6 (Plaintiffs' Exhibit 3 was marked 7 for identification.) 8 MS. LANG: I will mark as 9 Exhibit 3 -- 10 MS. MESSICK: While you are 11 getting that, I don't seem to have a copy of 12 Exhibit 2 for us, just the witness copy, if you 13 have one of those as well? And I will need a 14 copy of this Exhibit 3. 15 MS. LANG: This is Exhibit 2, and 16 we are working on a copy of Exhibit 3. 17 MS. MESSICK: That is why. 18 MS. LANG: What are you missing a 19 copy of? 20 MS. MESSICK: They've handed me 21 down the table -- 22 MS. LANG: Okay. 23 MS. MESSICK: -- 2, so now I just
Page 75 1 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 2 the scope. 3 A. No, I don't think so. 4 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. And can 5 they remit fines that are imposed as part of 6 the punishment? 7 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 8 the scope. 9 A. The board has a statute to remit 10 fines and forfeitures. 11 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Can the 12 board remit court administrative fees or other 13 similar assessments? 14 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 15 the scope. 16 A. The board has authority to remit 17 fines and forfeitures is my understanding. 18 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Can the 19 board remit fines that are imposed at the 20 municipal level? 21 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 22 the scope. 23 A. No.	Page 77 1 need a copy for me of 3. 2 MS. LANG: Okay. 3 MR. SINCLAIR: This is 3. 4 MS. MESSICK: We have all our 5 copies now. Thank you. 6 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Mr. Cook, have you 7 had an opportunity to review Exhibit 3? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. Does this exhibit refresh your 10 recollection as to whether or not supervision 11 fees can be remitted by the board? 12 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 13 the scope. 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And having 16 refreshed your recollection, is it the case 17 that the board can -- has the authority to 18 remit supervision fees? 19 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 20 Object to the form. 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Why on May 23 30th, 2017, did you write an email that said

Page 78 1 that the board "shouldn't be doing that"? 2 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 3 A. I wrote that because there's a 4 process that the board has to go through before 5 they can remit fine or forfeiture. The elected 6 officials and everyone involved has to be 7 legally and properly notified that the action 8 that the board is taking is a remission of fine 9 or a remission of forfeiture. 10 And that process had not been 11 taken care of properly, it appears, or had not 12 gone through the board on that matter. So that 13 is why I was questioning whether that process 14 had been done. 15 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Thank you 16 for clarifying. And has it ever been the case 17 that it was the policy of the board not to 18 remit fines or fees? 19 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 20 the scope. 21 A. No. 22 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. In 23 considering a pardon application, does -- do	Page 80 1 A. I'm not sure on that one. 2 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. If a pardon 3 application -- if a pardon applicant has a 4 federal conviction with outstanding fines, fees 5 or restitution, is that something that a board 6 member would consider? 7 MS. MESSICK: You can answer. 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. But you are 10 not sure if that is the case for out-of-state 11 convictions; is that correct? 12 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 13 A. That's correct. 14 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Does the 15 board have any authority to remit the payment 16 of fines, fees or restitution for out-of-state 17 convictions? 18 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 19 the scope. 20 A. No. 21 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Does the board 22 have authority to remit fines, fees or 23 restitution for federal convictions?
Page 79 1 board members consider outstanding fines, fees 2 or restitution owed on out-of-state 3 convictions? 4 MS. MESSICK: Hold on one second. 5 Could the court reporter read back the 6 beginning of the question? 7 (Record read.) 8 MS. MESSICK: Thank you. You can 9 answer. 10 A. The board has jurisdiction on -- 11 in state cases, and the board looks at the fine 12 or fees on in-state cases. 13 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) So is it your 14 testimony that board members do not consider 15 fines or fees that are outstanding for 16 out-of-state convictions? 17 A. I am actually not sure of that. 18 Q. Okay. For example, if someone -- 19 if someone has both in-state and out-of-state 20 convictions, they are seeking a pardon for an 21 in-state conviction, would out-of-state fines 22 or fees be something the board would consider? 23 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form.	Page 81 1 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 2 the scope. 3 A. I'm not sure about that, but I 4 think no. 5 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Earlier you 6 testified that applicants are not eligible for 7 pardon while they are on probation; is that 8 correct? 9 MS. MESSICK: You can answer. 10 A. Yes. While they are on 11 supervision, yes. 12 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. 13 A. Until some action is filed with 14 the court and the judge releases them. 15 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Are there 16 some individuals who are sentenced to life on 17 probation in the state of Alabama? 18 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 19 the scope. 20 A. No, not to my knowledge, 21 probation. 22 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Do pardon 23 applicants have the right to appeal the

Page 82 1 decision of the Board of Pardons and Paroles to 2 deny their pardon application? 3 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 4 the scope. 5 A. No. 6 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Has there ever 7 been an appeals process for denial of pardon in 8 the state of Alabama? 9 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 10 the scope. 11 A. Not to my knowledge. 12 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Do you know 13 if there's a statutory committee that -- do you 14 know if any statute provides for an appeal of a 15 Board of Pardons and Paroles's denial of a 16 pardon application? 17 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 18 the scope. 19 A. I don't. 20 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) So to your 21 knowledge -- strike that. 22 Since there's no appeals process, 23 the decision of the Board of Pardons and	Page 84 1 and Paroles? 2 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 3 the scope. 4 A. If a pardon applicant misses his 5 or her appointment, normally the probation 6 officer will reach out and reschedule an 7 appointment. But if the officer reaches out 8 and tries to reschedule and the applicant just 9 fails to report, the officer has no recourse 10 but to close that investigation and move to the 11 next one. 12 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Are the 13 reasons for a denial of a pardon application 14 communicated to the applicant during the public 15 hearing? 16 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 17 the scope. 18 A. Would you rephrase your question? 19 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) If a pardon 20 application is denied, will a reason for that 21 denial be provided to the applicant during the 22 public hearing? 23 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside
Page 83 1 Paroles to deny a parole is final; is that 2 correct? 3 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 4 the scope. 5 A. To my understanding, yes. 6 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. If a pardon 7 applicant misses their interview appointment, 8 are they eligible for -- are they -- if a 9 pardon applicant misses their interview 10 appointment with the Board of Pardons and 11 Paroles, is their pardon application still 12 eligible for review? 13 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) If a pardon 16 applicant misses their interview appointment, 17 is their pardon application denied at that 18 time? 19 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 20 A. No. 21 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. What 22 happens if a pardon applicant misses their 23 interview appointment with the Board of Pardons	Page 85 1 the scope. 2 A. At times, yes. 3 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And at times no? 4 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 5 the scope. 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Does the board 8 deliberate on pardon application votes 9 privately or in public? 10 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 11 A. Their deliberation is in a public 12 setting. The victims, the person, the 13 applicant is there. But the conversation 14 between the board is deliberated privately 15 among the three of them. 16 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Just to 17 make sure I understand your testimony, other 18 people can listen in on the deliberations but 19 cannot participate; is that correct? 20 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 21 A. No. That is not what I am saying. 22 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Can you 23 explain to me what you are saying?

Page 86 1 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 2 A. I am saying that the pardons are 3 held in open public -- 4 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Uh-huh. 5 A. -- until it gets to the part where 6 the board is going to deliberate and vet a 7 decision. And at that point, the board's 8 members deliberate privately in the same room 9 and then vet their decision. 10 Q. I understand now. Okay. 11 MS. LANG: Can we take a short 12 break? 13 MS. MESSICK: Of course. 14 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Stand by. The 15 time is 12:18 p.m. Central Time. We are off 16 the record. 17 (Whereupon, a break was had from 18 12:18 p.m. until 12:41 p.m.) 19 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 20 12:41 p.m. Central Time. We are now back on 21 the record. 22 MS. LANG: Thank you, Mr. Cook. 23 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) I just have one	Page 88 1 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) In this letter, an 2 applicant for a pardon is notified that because 3 they have felony convictions in the state of 4 Virginia, they need to apply for a pardon in 5 the state of Virginia before the Alabama Board 6 of Pardons and Paroles would consider a pardon 7 for his Alabama conviction. 8 Is that your understanding of this 9 document? 10 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 11 A. Yes. 12 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. For people 13 with out-of-state convictions, is it an 14 eligibility requirement for a pardon 15 application to apply for a pardon in the state 16 of the -- in the state of conviction? 17 MS. MESSICK: Can you read that 18 back? 19 (Record read.) 20 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 21 You can answer to the best of your ability. 22 A. To the best of my ability, it's my 23 understanding that Alabama authorities have the
Page 87 1 more exhibit that I want to ask you questions 2 about, and I have marked this as Plaintiffs' 3 Exhibit 4. 4 (Plaintiffs' Exhibit 4 was marked 5 for identification.) 6 MS. MESSICK: Thank you. 7 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And I will give 8 you an opportunity to review it. 9 MS. MESSICK: Are you sure this 10 isn't a case that was -- a document that was 11 clawed back as privileged? 12 MS. LANG: We deleted every 13 document that was clawed back as privileged. 14 MS. MESSICK: Before you ask 15 questions about it, would you agree that we 16 can -- 17 MS. LANG: We should redact -- 18 MS. MESSICK: -- redact the 19 original -- 20 MS. LANG: Yeah. Thank you. So 21 Ms. Messick is going to redact the original so 22 that there will be no confidential information 23 in the record. Thank you.	Page 89 1 right to grant pardons to Alabama convictions. 2 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Yes. I will 3 attempt to rephrase my question. This person 4 appears to have applied -- strike that. 5 In this letter, a Board of Pardons 6 and Paroles official writes, "Under current 7 policy, you must first apply for a pardon in 8 Virginia where you have a felony conviction 9 before we will process a pardon for your 10 Alabama convictions." Is that an accurate 11 statement of Alabama Board of Pardons and 12 Paroles's policy? 13 MS. MESSICK: You may answer. 14 A. I'm not sure if it is policy or 15 practice. I think it is policy that if an 16 applicant lives out-of-state, he or she has to 17 apply in that state if they have dual felony 18 convictions in both states. So they have to 19 apply in the state where they are residing 20 first if they have got convictions in that 21 state, and then Alabama will entertain the 22 conviction in the state where they don't 23 reside, is my understanding.

Page 90 1 MS. MESSICK: And I do think it is 2 outside the scope. So he is explaining his 3 understanding. 4 MS. LANG: Fair enough. 5 MS. MESSICK: I don't think it is 6 an eligibility requirement, is the -- 7 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) On the basis of 8 these out-of-state convictions, the Board of 9 Pardons and Paroles officials indicate that 10 they are closing the case at this time; is that 11 correct? 12 MS. MESSICK: You can answer. 13 A. From this letter, it appears that 14 way, yes. 15 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. So I am 16 trying -- I'm trying to understand what Board 17 of Pardons -- Board of Pardons and Paroles's 18 policy is with respect to people who have both 19 in-state and out-of-state convictions. What is 20 your best understanding or -- no. 21 What is the Board of Pardons and 22 Paroles's policy about eligibility for a pardon 23 if someone has an out-of-state conviction for	Page 92 1 Q. And did you talk to former board 2 members who have served since January 1, 2012, 3 in preparation for this deposition today? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. And can you -- can you tell me who 6 the current board members are, just their 7 names? 8 A. Chairman Lynn Head, Associate 9 Board Member Cliff Walker and Associate Board 10 Member Dwayne Spurlock. 11 Q. And can you tell me the former 12 board members who have served since 2012 who 13 you talked to in preparation for this 14 deposition, other than yourself, of course? 15 A. Board Member Bobby Longshore, Bill 16 Wynn, Terry Davis, Aimee Cobb Smith. 17 Q. Thank you. And you talked to 18 those board members about the factors that they 19 consider in determining whether to grant or 20 deny a pardon, correct? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. Are board members required to list 23 the reasons they deny a pardon?
Page 91 1 which they have not sought a pardon? 2 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form 3 and object to the scope. 4 A. I'm not sure on that. 5 MS. LANG: Okay. No further 6 questions. 7 MS. MESSICK: Thank you. We do 8 have some questions. And since I just redacted 9 on this too, I do think it might be helpful for 10 the record to reflect the letter talks about 11 Virginia convictions and Alabama convictions. 12 I did redact the part that -- the letter is 13 addressed to somebody in North Carolina, so he 14 is apparently not an Alabama resident right 15 now. Do you agree with that statement? 16 MS. LANG: Yes. 17 MS. MESSICK: Okay. Thank you. 18 19 EXAMINATION BY MS. MESSICK: 20 Q. Mr. Cook, did you talk to the 21 current board members in preparation for this 22 deposition today? 23 A. Yes.	Page 93 1 A. Board members have a check-off 2 list where they can indicate, and they should, 3 but not required. 4 Q. But that is a list of reasons to 5 grant, not of reasons to deny, correct? 6 A. Yes, that is a reason to grant. 7 Q. Okay. Is there a checklist for 8 them to indicate why they have denied? 9 A. No. 10 Q. So looking at Exhibit 2, where 11 there are handwritten notes about balances on 12 old -- balances due on old traffic cases, 13 there's not anywhere on that form to enter 14 reasons why it was denied; is that correct? 15 A. That is correct. 16 Q. Have there been nuances about the 17 pardon decision process that haven't been 18 discussed here today? For example, you were 19 asked if fines might ever be the only reason 20 for denial. But there was no discussion or 21 clarification of when that might be the case. 22 Is that true? 23 MS. LANG: Objection, form.

Page 94 1 Q. (BY MS. MESSICK:) You can answer 2 the question. 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. Early on when Ms. Lang was 5 questioning you, she asked about some of the 6 factors that are considered in deciding whether 7 to grant a pardon and then whether those things 8 are in a file. And then she asked about more 9 things in the file. 10 I just want to be clear. Is 11 everything in the file available to the board 12 to consider in making its pardon decision? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. And do the board members consider 15 the pardon file in making their decisions? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. Early on you also talked about 18 eligibility requirements for a pardon. And you 19 mentioned -- and correct me if I am wrong -- 20 you can reapply after a denial of a pardon, but 21 you must wait two years; is that correct? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. If the pardon is -- application is	Page 96 1 ineligible for a pardon if their felony 2 conviction is for impeachment, treason or if 3 they have a death sentence, correct? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. Okay. Are people who otherwise 6 meet the eligibility criteria but whose 7 convictions are only misdemeanors, are they 8 ever eligible for a pardon? 9 A. Misdemeanor conviction -- yes, 10 they are. 11 Q. And under what circumstances would 12 the board consider a pardon for a misdemeanor 13 conviction? 14 A. When an individual is trying to 15 get a business license, i.e., nursing, certain 16 situations that require them to have that, the 17 board will entertain those misdemeanor 18 convictions. 19 Q. Okay. And nursing, that was just 20 an example, right? 21 A. Yes. That was just an example. 22 Q. There are times when people need a 23 pardon in order to facilitate licensing,
Page 95 1 closed for failure to cooperate, does the 2 pardon applicant have to wait two years? 3 A. No. 4 Q. And how long do they have to wait, 5 if any time at all? 6 A. One year. 7 Q. Isn't it true that the Alabama 8 Board of Pardons and Paroles only considers 9 pardon for people who have an Alabama 10 conviction or are Alabama residents or meet 11 both of those criteria? 12 A. Yes. 13 MS. LANG: Objection, form. 14 Q. (BY MS. MESSICK:) When you were 15 answering questions about eligibility, were you 16 speaking generally about eligibility 17 requirements and not specifically addressing 18 the unusual case where someone is arguing 19 innocence? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. A person who has a felony 22 conviction -- okay. Assuming all other 23 eligibility criteria are met, a person is	Page 97 1 bonding -- 2 A. Right. 3 Q. -- education. 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. So if the misdemeanor conviction 6 is causing them some sort of hardship -- 7 A. Yes, the board can entertain. 8 Q. Ms. Lang asked you earlier in a 9 broad way about State assistance. And this 10 came out of the question, about whether 11 somebody was gainfully employed or had 12 legitimate support. Isn't it true that not all 13 State assistance is the same, that there's a 14 difference between somebody who is disabled and 15 can't work and somebody who is on food stamps 16 because they refuse to work? 17 MS. LANG: Objection, form. 18 A. Yes, there's a difference. 19 Q. (BY MS. MESSICK:) And would the 20 board consider those nuances? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. You were asked earlier if there 23 are any factors that the board is not allowed

Page 98 1 to consider; is that correct? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. Let me ask you if the board 4 actually does consider a particular factor. 5 Does the board consider the race of the 6 applicant when deciding whether to grant or 7 deny a pardon? 8 A. No. 9 Q. Ms. Lang asked you if the board 10 always explains to the pardon applicant at the 11 hearing why they have been denied. Is the 12 pardon applicant always present for the 13 hearing? 14 A. No. 15 Q. Ms. Lang asked you questions about 16 an appeal process. And did you understand 17 those questions to mean is there some sort of 18 body above the board that can overrule it? 19 A. Yes, that is what I understood the 20 question to be asking, was there an authority 21 over the board who is the appointing authority, 22 i.e., the governor, the AG's office. 23 Q. Okay. Is there, in fact, a review	Page 100 1 Q. Thank you. 2 MS. MESSICK: I think I need just 3 two minutes to see if I have got anything else. 4 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Did you want to 5 go off the record? 6 MS. LANG: Yes. 7 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Okay. The time 8 is 1:00 p.m. We are off the record. 9 (Whereupon, a break was had from 10 1:00 p.m. until 1:04 p.m.) 11 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Okay. The time 12 is 1:04 p.m. Central Time. We are now back on 13 the record. 14 Q. (BY MS. MESSICK:) I have just got 15 one final question for you. And this was 16 actually in follow-up to a question that 17 Ms. Lang asked that was beyond the scope about 18 people with out-of-state convictions. And I am 19 going to ask you to read this paragraph that 20 describes a policy with respect to that. 21 MS. MESSICK: I am not going to 22 mark this as an exhibit. This is for -- 23 Ms. Jones brought this to trigger her memory.
Page 99 1 committee that can facilitate a case being sent 2 back to the board for further consideration? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. Okay. I am not going to ask you 5 about that because I think it is outside the 6 scope, but I didn't want the testimony to be 7 confusing. 8 (Off-the-record discussion.) 9 Q. (BY MS. MESSICK:) Can you talk to 10 me about why the various -- why the board 11 members might want somebody to pay any 12 court-ordered monies that are due before they 13 grant a pardon? 14 A. Yes. It shows that the person has 15 goodwill if they are capable of paying. It 16 shows that they understand the ramifications of 17 their crime, and it shows that they are 18 remorseful for their crime and want to do the 19 right thing about their previous crime. 20 It additionally shows that they 21 are diligent about taking care of all of their 22 obligations that were a part of that 23 conviction.	Page 101 1 We don't have copies for all of that. But I 2 will hand you this for the moment so that you 3 can read along with him as he tells you what 4 the board policy is. 5 MS. LANG: Objection, form. 6 A. Go ahead? 7 Q. (BY MS. MESSICK:) Yes. Please 8 tell me what the board policy is. 9 A. This is Board of Pardons with 10 restoration of civil and political rights, 11 Section 14.5, third paragraph. And it states, 12 and I quote, "A person convicted in a state 13 other than Alabama should make their initial 14 application for restoration to the state in 15 which they were convicted. 16 "If that state accepts 17 jurisdiction and grant or denies restoration, 18 the action will be valid and binding in 19 Alabama. If the state in which the person was 20 convicted does not accept jurisdiction and 21 takes no action and the person is a legal 22 resident of Alabama, the applicant may then 23 file such request with the Alabama Board of

Page 102 1 Pardons and Paroles." 2 MS. MESSICK: Thank you. 3 MS. LANG: Misty, are you planning 4 on introducing that as an exhibit in Ms. -- in 5 Director Jones's testimony? 6 MS. MESSICK: I don't know that we 7 are. She brought it with her in case she 8 needed to refer to this document. And we went 9 on and made copies this morning in case they do 10 become exhibits. 11 MS. LANG: Okay. 12 MS. MESSICK: But I can't 13 guarantee you that we are going to do that. 14 MS. LANG: Then I would like to 15 mark this as an exhibit. It has been read out 16 loud. 17 MS. MESSICK: Then we are going to 18 have to take another break because we do not 19 have copies of this exhibit. I had asked him. 20 The policy is outside the scope of this. All I 21 did is hand you a courtesy copy so that you 22 could see it while he read it. 23 Do you disagree that he read it	Page 104 1 for identification.) 2 MS. LANG: Thank you. 3 MS. MESSICK: Did you have any 4 questions? 5 MS. LANG: Yes. 6 7 REEXAMINATION BY MS. LANG: 8 Q. Mr. Cook, I -- in response to your 9 counsel's question, you testified that there is 10 a review committee that can -- actually, I'm 11 not clear what it can do. What is the review 12 committee? 13 MS. MESSICK: Outside the -- 14 objection. Outside the scope. 15 A. The review committee is a process 16 by which cases that the board has taken action 17 on can be referred back to the board when there 18 is an issue that the board did not know or need 19 to clarify or need to straighten up on a case. 20 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. And who 21 serves on the review committee? 22 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 23 the scope.
Page 103 1 correctly? 2 MS. LANG: No. But I am holding a 3 copy. Why can't this copy be put into the 4 record? 5 MS. MESSICK: Because it is 6 outside the scope of his deposition. And I 7 gave it to you as a courtesy. 8 So I am done with my questioning. 9 MS. LANG: What document is this, 10 then? Can you like identify the document? 11 MS. MESSICK: No, I can't. And 12 neither can this witness. Well, actually I 13 think he did just identify the document. And I 14 would note for the record that this document 15 appears to be something about fifty pages, and 16 I have asked him for one paragraph. 17 MS. LANG: I don't believe that 18 you can introduce a document, ask questions 19 about it on the record and refuse to put it in 20 as an exhibit. And I would like to mark this 21 copy as Exhibit 5. 22 MS. MESSICK: I can't stop you. 23 (Plaintiffs' Exhibit 5 was marked	Page 105 1 A. The review committee consists of 2 three Board of Pardons and Paroles employees, 3 one of which is a supervisor in the board 4 operation unit. 5 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Is the review 6 committee currently active? 7 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 8 the scope. 9 A. No. 10 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And why is that? 11 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 12 the scope. 13 A. We changed our process and 14 procedures for implementing cases back to the 15 review committee which were -- can be referred 16 with a number of ways, to include the executive 17 director and the chief legal referring cases. 18 And because we have changed some of our 19 operating rules, it is inactive because we have 20 not trained on the new procedures at this time. 21 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. How long 22 has the review committee been inactive? 23 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside

Page 106 1 the scope. 2 A. Since about October of '18. 3 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Was there 4 previously an executive order related to this 5 review committee? 6 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 7 the scope. 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And what was the 10 nature of that executive order? 11 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 12 the scope. 13 A. The executive order put a halt on 14 a lot of our operating procedures as far as 15 granting paroles and the review committee 16 itself and a lot of our board operation 17 practices. 18 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And is that the 19 reason why you revised the policies and 20 procedures for the review committee? 21 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 22 the scope. 23 A. Yes.	Page 108 1 testified as follows: 2 3 EXAMINATION BY MS. LANG: 4 Q. Good afternoon, Director Jones. 5 A. Good afternoon. 6 Q. Can you just state your full name 7 and your current position for the record? 8 A. Askisha Bray Jones. My current 9 position is Division Director for Board 10 Operations. 11 Q. Thank you. And Director Jones, 12 have you ever been deposed before? 13 A. No. 14 Q. Now, you were in the room when I 15 gave some instructions earlier today, but I am 16 going to repeat them quickly. And let me know 17 if you have any questions about them. 18 The first is that I ask that we 19 try not to speak over each other. That often 20 happens in ordinary conversation, but it makes 21 it quite difficult for the court reporter. So 22 I will always wait for you to finish your 23 answer, and I ask that you wait until I have
Page 107 1 MS. LANG: I don't have any 2 further questions. 3 MS. MESSICK: Thank you for your 4 time today. 5 MS. LANG: Thank you. 6 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Stand by. The 7 time is 1:11 p.m. We are off the record. 8 (Testimony of State of Alabama 9 Board of Pardons and Paroles, 10 through Eddie Cook, Jr., 11 concluded at 1:11 p.m.) 12 (Whereupon, a break was had from 13 1:11 p.m. until 2:25 p.m.) 14 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: All right. We 15 are now back on the record. The time is 2:25 16 p.m. Central Standard Time. This continues the 17 deposition of Alabama Pardons and Paroles 18 Board. The witness is Askisha Jones. 19 Reporter, please swear in the witness. 20 21 STATE OF ALABAMA BOARD OF PARDONS AND PAROLES 22 (THROUGH THE ASKISHA JONES), 23 being first duly sworn, was examined and	Page 109 1 fully completed my question. 2 Similarly, we need to make sure 3 that we don't use nonverbal responses like 4 uh-huh or huh-uh or nodding or shaking our 5 heads so that the court reporter can take down 6 a yes or no answer. We can take breaks if you 7 need to take a break, and I imagine that we 8 will. My only request is that if I have asked 9 a question, that you answer that question -- 10 answer that question first before we take the 11 break. 12 Your counsel will occasionally 13 interject objections to my questions. Unless 14 she tells you otherwise, you can go ahead and 15 answer the question and she is preserving her 16 objections for the record. 17 If I ask a question and you don't 18 understand it, please let me know and I will 19 try to rephrase. If you don't ask, I will 20 assume that you understood the question. Do 21 you understand all those instructions? 22 A. I do. 23 Q. And are you on any medications or

Page 110 1 have any other reason why that might affect 2 your ability to tell the truth today? 3 A. I do not have a reason for not 4 telling the truth. 5 Q. Director Jones, can you tell me 6 what your educational background is? 7 A. I have a BS degree in psychology. 8 Q. And how long have you worked for 9 the Board of Pardons and Paroles? 10 A. I began in December of 2003. 11 Q. And when you began at the Board of 12 Pardons and Paroles, what was your position? 13 A. Administrative Support 14 Assistant I. 15 Q. And how long did you hold that 16 position? 17 A. For about a year. 18 Q. And then what was your following 19 position? 20 A. Administrative Support 21 Assistant II. 22 Q. And about how long were you in 23 that position?	Page 112 1 Q. Okay. And what was your next 2 change in position? 3 A. 2016 to division director. 4 Q. Okay. And you have held that 5 position since? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. Okay. Did you hold any prior 8 professional positions prior to joining the 9 Board of Pardons and Paroles in 2003? 10 A. I'm not sure what you mean by 11 professional. 12 Q. Fair enough. What was your 13 employment prior to joining the Board of 14 Pardons and Paroles, if any? 15 A. I worked with BellSouth 16 Communications. 17 Q. And can you describe for me your 18 responsibilities as division director? 19 A. Basically just making sure that 20 legal requirements are met and that proper 21 procedures are followed for the board to 22 consider hearings, have board hearings, conduct 23 hearings.
Page 111 1 A. About a year. 2 Q. Okay. And the following? 3 A. Administrative Support 4 Assistant III. 5 Q. Okay. In what year did you 6 transition from an administrative support 7 position into a new type position? 8 A. In 2006. 9 Q. Okay. And what was that position? 10 A. As a probation and parole officer. 11 Q. And how long were you a probation 12 and parole officer, at whatever level? 13 A. From 2006 until probably 2008. 14 Q. And then what position did you 15 take? 16 A. Probation and Parole Officer 17 Senior in the Pardon Unit. 18 Q. And what was the next time you 19 transitioned your role? 20 A. In 2015. 21 Q. Okay. And what role did you take 22 on at that time? 23 A. Probation and parole manager.	Page 113 1 Q. Okay. Do you also manage the CERV 2 process, the restoration of voting rights? 3 A. There is a manager in that unit 4 that manages the unit but -- 5 Q. Do you supervise that manager? 6 A. Yes. Yes. 7 Q. And what is that manager's name? 8 A. Stephanie Stewart. 9 Q. Prior to becoming division 10 director in 2016, did any part of your 11 responsibilities include pardon applications or 12 CERV applications? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. In what capacity did you work with 15 pardon or CERV applications prior to your role 16 as division director? 17 A. Between the years of 2008 and 18 2012. 19 Q. And what did you do? 20 A. I was a senior officer in -- 21 within the pardon unit itself. 22 Q. And within that unit, did you work 23 with both pardons and CERV's or pardons only?

Page 114 1 A. That is correct, both. 2 Q. Both. Ms. Jones, what did you do 3 to prepare for this deposition today? And I 4 want to preface that with maybe some 5 instructions that your attorney may supplement, 6 which is that I don't want you to tell me 7 anything that your attorneys told you. You are 8 welcome to tell me that you met with them and 9 how many times and for what length of time, but 10 under no circumstances do I want you to tell me 11 any discussions you have had with your legal 12 counsel. 13 With those caveats, could you 14 describe to me the actions you took to prepare 15 for this deposition? 16 A. To prepare, I did meet with legal 17 counsel on numerous occasions. I also spoke 18 with various individuals who may have had 19 understanding and knowledge from the period 20 back from 2012. 21 Q. And who were those individuals? 22 A. I spoke with Gabrelle Simmons. I 23 spoke with Cliff Walker. I spoke with Ken	Page 116 1 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Thank you. 2 I am going to ask you a bunch of basic 3 questions just to get your understanding -- or 4 rather the board's position on a variety of 5 procedural mechanisms of how the certificate of 6 eligibility to register to vote process, CERV, 7 works. And I want to start with -- 8 MS. MESSICK: Actually, before you 9 start, you call them "streamlines," don't you? 10 A. That is correct. 11 MS. MESSICK: Okay. 12 MS. LANG: Okay. 13 MS. MESSICK: Technically, it is a 14 certificate of eligibility to register to vote, 15 and I call them that or the CERV. But I think 16 streamline would be more comfortable for her 17 and easier for you if you don't mind. 18 MS. LANG: I do not mind. Thank 19 you. 20 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) So when I say 21 "streamline," we will all agree that I am 22 referring to the process where you can restore 23 your right to vote without going through the
Page 115 1 Fetzer. I spoke with Quenetta Fenderson. I 2 spoke with Pam Bailey. I spoke with Eric 3 Moore. I spoke with -- 4 Q. If you remember additional names 5 later, you can tell me. 6 A. Okay. 7 Q. I certainly don't expect you to be 8 able to remember every single thing. And I 9 thank you for that diligent preparation. Were 10 you involved at all with the preparation of -- 11 or the gathering of documents to produce in 12 this case? 13 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 14 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Did you assist in 15 any way with the gathering of documents for 16 production in this case? 17 A. Somewhat. 18 Q. In what capacity? 19 MS. MESSICK: Object as beyond the 20 scope. Also object to the form. 21 A. Basically just any -- as far as 22 providing any knowledge, firsthand knowledge of 23 what might be helpful.	Page 117 1 full pardon process? 2 A. Correct. 3 Q. Okay. Great. How does somebody 4 with a past conviction apply for a streamline? 5 MS. MESSICK: Object to -- 6 THE REPORTER: Apply for what? 7 MS. LANG: A streamline. 8 MS. MESSICK: Object. It is 9 outside the scope. 10 MS. LANG: I mean, I don't agree. 11 And I do want to make clear we asked for any 12 formal or informal practice, procedure or 13 methodology recommended, endorsed, promulgated 14 or known to be used by the BPP for determining 15 whether an applicant is eligible for a CERV. 16 Certainly the manner in which 17 applications are collected and the information 18 that is collected is within the scope of that 19 topic. 20 MS. MESSICK: And I disagree. And 21 I think that your questions are asking what the 22 board does, not what information a third party 23 gives them. So that is why I have objected.

Page 118 1 But Director Jones is, of course, going to 2 answer your question. 3 MS. LANG: Okay. 4 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) How does one apply 5 for a streamline to the Board of Pardons and 6 Paroles? 7 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 8 A. An applicant may visit one of our 9 probation and parole offices to apply in 10 person. They may also submit written 11 correspondence to us by mail that has the 12 required information. They may contact the 13 pardon unit directly by calling the pardon unit 14 to apply over the phone. And they can also 15 submit the written -- the written requirements 16 through an email to our pardons email directly. 17 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. And does 18 the Board of Pardons and Paroles promulgate a 19 specific application form for the CERV that 20 applicants can use? 21 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 22 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Streamline. 23 A. Yes. We have an application in	Page 120 1 Object to the form. 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Are you aware of 4 other government officials creating an 5 application form outside of the Board of 6 Pardons and Paroles? 7 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 8 A. I'm not sure I understand what you 9 mean by governmental. 10 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) That is fair 11 enough. I think it will be easier if I show 12 you an example. I am going to mark as 13 Exhibit 6 a form from the Montgomery Election 14 Center, the office of Probate Judge Steven 15 Reed. 16 (Plaintiffs' Exhibit 6 was marked 17 for identification.) 18 MS. LANG: And we are looking on 19 finding a copy for you. Fun job I have given 20 Ms. Bowie as we picked up our copies this 21 morning. 22 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) You will see that 23 there's an application form for a streamline
Page 119 1 our office. Application. 2 Q. And how is that application made 3 available to the public? 4 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 5 A. That is an interdepartmental form. 6 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And what do you 7 mean by that? 8 A. That means that when they apply in 9 person, they can complete it there. If they do 10 not wish to apply in person, the required 11 information may be submitted, as I just 12 answered. 13 Q. You don't have an application form 14 that folks can mail in? 15 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 16 A. They may mail the requirements, 17 the required information in. 18 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) But I think I 19 understand your testimony is that the Board of 20 Pardons and Paroles doesn't have a ready-made 21 form to fill out unless the person comes in in 22 person; is that correct? 23 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope.	Page 121 1 that the probate judge has created; is that 2 correct? 3 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form 4 and object to the scope. 5 A. It appears that. 6 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Are you 7 aware of any nonprofit organizations creating 8 similar forms to guide the application process? 9 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. And does 12 your office accept those forms if they have the 13 required information? 14 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Are you aware of 17 your office ever requiring a, quote, wet 18 signature on an application? 19 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 20 A. I don't understand what a wet 21 signature is. 22 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Meaning like an 23 actual -- are you aware of any requirement that

Page 122 1 an application for a streamline have a physical 2 signature on it? 3 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 4 Object to the form. 5 (Off-the-record discussion.) 6 A. Could you repeat the question? 7 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Sure. Is there 8 any requirement when someone applies for a CERV 9 that the application have a physical signature 10 on it? 11 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 12 Object to the form. 13 A. If they apply by email, we would 14 not have that. 15 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Right. 16 A. And so I am inclined to say no 17 because they have so many ways that they can 18 apply without a signature. 19 Q. Right. Okay. Thank you. Are you 20 aware of any organizations that help people 21 with past convictions apply for streamline? 22 MS. MESSICK: Objection to the 23 scope.	Page 124 1 A. Once we receive it in the Central 2 Office, we assign it out to the field office in 3 the county that the conviction was from. We 4 assign a due date for that office, thirty days 5 for them to complete the investigation, the 6 streamline investigation, and return it to our 7 office. 8 Q. Okay. If an application is sent 9 directly to a local field office, does it go to 10 your office first for a due date or does it -- 11 does that -- do you skip that step? 12 A. No. It comes into the Central 13 Office -- 14 Q. Okay. 15 A. -- for the assignment of the due 16 date -- 17 Q. Okay. 18 A. -- and for to make sure that we 19 are in receipt of that application. 20 Q. Okay. So all streamline 21 applications come through Central Office, even 22 if they are first turned into a field office; 23 is that right?
Page 123 1 A. Yes, I know they exist. 2 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. And does 3 your organization accept applications that they 4 collect and submit on behalf of those 5 individuals? 6 MS. MESSICK: Objection. It is 7 outside the scope, and object to the form. 8 A. We have. 9 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Are those treated 10 any differently than any other application? 11 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 12 A. The only difference is that when 13 we receive -- the date that we receive them. 14 Sometimes different -- different entities will 15 hold the applications. So the date that we 16 receive them, that is the only thing. We still 17 stamp them as we would. But other than that, I 18 am not aware of -- 19 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. That makes 20 sense. Thank you. Once you receive an 21 application for a streamline, can you describe 22 to me the process that that application goes 23 through?	Page 125 1 A. That is the procedure that should 2 be followed. 3 Q. Okay. You mentioned that there is 4 a manager who is in charge of the streamline 5 process in Central Office. Is there anyone 6 else in Central Office that is assigned to 7 doing -- to working on streamline? 8 A. Yes. Yes. 9 Q. And who are those people? 10 A. You have Eddie Sharp, who is an 11 officer -- Sr. You have Shnekiyea Phillips, 12 who is a specialist. You have Venus Peterson. 13 You also have Anna Berkowitz, Sara Beth Taylor, 14 James Carpenter, Shayla Thomas. That is all 15 that I can remember at this time. 16 Q. Impressive. How many field 17 offices do you have? 18 A. Because we have so many 19 transitions with new offices, my best 20 recollection at this time is sixty-five. 21 Q. Okay. And is there one person in 22 each of those offices that is in charge of the 23 streamline process?

Page 126 1 A. No, that varies from office to 2 office. 3 Q. Okay. Is there at least one 4 person in each field office that is assigned to 5 working on the streamline applications? 6 A. There are some districts that have 7 smaller offices. It may not be, per se, a 8 person assigned in a particular small one-man 9 office but one person that handles it for a 10 district that encompasses several offices. 11 Q. Uh-huh. What are the steps -- 12 once it is sent out to the field office for 13 investigation, what are the steps that those 14 officers take to complete the streamline 15 investigation? 16 A. They review the required 17 information that was on the application, and 18 that is the information -- it is necessary 19 because that -- those are the identifiers that 20 they use to do a background check -- 21 Q. Uh-huh. 22 A. -- to ensure that there are no 23 criminal felony offenses pending --	Page 128 1 in the field office completes their 2 investigation, what happens next? 3 A. Once it is completed, they sign 4 and date it. And they submit it back to the 5 Central Office once it has gone through a tier 6 of approvals from the officer in charge, which 7 is the senior officer and the district manager. 8 Q. I'm sorry. Does the senior 9 officer and district manager review happen 10 before it goes to Central Office or after? 11 A. Yes, ma'am. It is before. 12 Q. It is before? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. Okay. So just to make sure I have 15 it straight, first the officer completes the 16 review, then it is reviewed by both the senior 17 officer and the district manager, and then it 18 is sent to Central Office; is that correct? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. And does all of that need to 21 happen within the thirty-day due date? 22 (Off-the-record discussion.) 23 A. Yes.
Page 127 1 Q. Uh-huh. 2 A. -- to get a true picture of how 3 many, if there are one or more felonies that 4 are involved. 5 They do a search of the AOC 6 database as well as the National Information -- 7 the National Crime Information Center database. 8 Q. Are those the only two databases 9 that they use? 10 A. As far as databases. There may -- 11 they also review the records from the DA's 12 office. They may consult the circuit clerk's 13 office. They also review departmental files 14 that may be in a local office due to the age of 15 the case. And AlaCourt as well. 16 Q. AlaCourt, can you describe what 17 AlaCourt is? 18 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 19 the scope. 20 A. AlaCourt is a resource that we are 21 able to actually review images of court 22 documents. 23 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) After the officer	Page 129 1 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 2 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Where does the 3 application go after it is submitted to Central 4 Office? 5 A. Once it is submitted to Central 6 Office, that is where it is processed by a 7 person within the pardon unit. 8 Q. Can anyone in the pardon unit 9 process the streamline at that point? 10 A. Not anyone. 11 Q. Okay. 12 A. Not just everyone, I mean. 13 Q. Uh-huh. So who does the next 14 review after it is submitted to Central Office? 15 A. It would be a specialist or a 16 senior officer. 17 Q. Okay. And what kind of review of 18 the streamline do they do at that point? 19 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 20 the scope. Honestly, I think all the process 21 questions are outside the scope, but she can 22 answer. 23 A. It is just an overview to make

Page 130 1 sure that they are eligible, that it is a 2 disqualifying offense. 3 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Does the 4 specialist or senior officer check the 5 background information like the AOC database or 6 rely on -- solely on the information in the 7 streamline application? 8 A. That would be on a case-by-case 9 basis. I can't say -- 10 Q. Okay. 11 A. -- definitively. 12 Q. After specialists or a senior 13 officer has reviewed the CERV, read the 14 streamline, what happens? 15 A. A certificate is generated. 16 Q. And how is that done? I mean, 17 does someone just -- I mean, it could be quite 18 obvious, I understand, but -- 19 A. Yes. It is generated from AOC, 20 actually. 21 Q. Okay. Does that mean that AOC -- 22 what do you mean by it is generated by AOC? 23 A. We put in the information for	Page 132 1 A. No. The certificates are 2 generated. That is not the end of the process. 3 Q. Okay. What is the next step in 4 the process after the certificate is generated? 5 A. The files are brought to my 6 office. 7 Q. Okay. And then? 8 A. I do a review as well. 9 Q. And then? 10 A. And then they go to the executive 11 director or his or her designee for the 12 signature. 13 Q. Does Mr. Cook have a person that 14 he has designated for this task or does he do 15 it himself? 16 A. It depends on who is there. If he 17 is there and available, he will. If he isn't, 18 it is assigned to one of the assistant 19 executive directors for a signature. 20 Q. Okay. After the CERV is signed, 21 what happens next? 22 A. We have someone with our 23 administrative staff to go and retrieve those
Page 131 1 it to -- there are certain codes that we use 2 for it to generate a certificate. 3 Q. Okay. 4 A. And, of course, the information, 5 the county, the sentence, the offense itself, 6 all of those things that are relevant to a 7 certificate are printed on there. That has to 8 be inputted so that when we print the 9 certificate, that information, the court that 10 it was held in, all of that pertinent 11 information will be on the certificate. 12 Q. If I recall correctly, the statute 13 calls for either the executive director or 14 the -- of the BPP or a designee affirms the 15 streamline application and issues the CERV; is 16 that correct? 17 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And so are the 20 individuals in the pardon unit that review and 21 process the applications considered the 22 executive director's designees for that 23 purpose?	Page 133 1 certificates and mail them out and to make 2 copies. 3 Q. How many copies do they make? 4 A. One copy is placed in the ledger, 5 one copy is placed in the file, and the 6 original goes to the applicant. 7 Q. And how is the original sent? 8 A. By U.S. Mail. 9 Q. Regular U.S. Mail or certified? 10 A. Regular. 11 Q. Can the streamlines ever be sent 12 by email, or are they ever sent by email? I 13 suppose "can" is a -- 14 MS. MESSICK: You are asking about 15 the certificate, not the application, right? 16 MS. LANG: Yes. 17 A. To an applicant? 18 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Yes. 19 A. The initial one? 20 Q. The -- yes, or a copy. 21 A. You are asking me can they? 22 They -- technically, they could, but that is 23 not the common practice.

Page 134 1 Q. Okay. Do they ever that you know 2 of? 3 A. I don't know if ever. 4 Q. Okay. And you mention that 5 there's a thirty-day timeline for the process 6 of the original office. What is the timeline 7 for the process once it is returned to Central 8 Office? 9 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 10 A. That depends on when we receive 11 it, if it is after the thirty days. If we 12 receive it on or before, we process it on or 13 before the thirty days. If it is processed 14 afterwards, then, of course, our time frame is 15 limited. If they adhere to the thirty days, 16 then we have fourteen additional days, for a 17 total of forty-four days. 18 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Now, we have been 19 talking about the streamline process and how it 20 works, assuming that the person is eligible. 21 If the person in the field determines -- in the 22 field office determines that an applicant is 23 not eligible, are the same layers of review in	Page 136 1 Q. Okay. 2 A. And once it reaches the Central 3 Office, there is administrative staff there to 4 review the reason for the closure and to 5 escalate it if need be. If not, to make sure 6 that is it closed properly. 7 Q. Is each closure reviewed by 8 someone in Central Office to determine if it 9 was properly -- if the application was properly 10 closed? 11 A. It does come to Central Office for 12 a review for closure, before closure. 13 Q. Okay. So every closure of a 14 streamline application should be reviewed by 15 someone in Central Office; is that correct? 16 A. It should be. 17 Q. Okay. Does that submission to 18 Central Office and the review happen after the 19 denial notice is sent to the applicant? 20 A. In some offices, they may submit a 21 closure letter directly to the applicant. And 22 then in some, that letter is sent out to the 23 applicant directly from the Central Office.
Page 135 1 place? 2 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 3 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And by that I mean 4 when a field officer determines that an 5 applicant is eligible, that determination is 6 reviewed by a senior -- the senior officer and 7 the district manager in the field office, by a 8 specialist or senior officer in the pardon 9 unit, and then by -- and then by you. 10 And is a determination that a 11 person is not eligible for a streamline 12 reviewed by the same set of people? 13 A. Not ordinarily. It doesn't go 14 that far. 15 Q. Okay. What are the layers of 16 review, if any, if the field officer determines 17 that the person is not eligible for a 18 streamlined application? 19 A. If the person is determined at the 20 field office level that the person is 21 ineligible, that process still has to be 22 submitted. The closure needs to be submitted 23 up their chain to the Central Office.	Page 137 1 Q. Okay. Are there -- are there 2 specific counties that always rely or specific 3 field offices that always send out their own 4 closure letters? 5 A. There are certain ones that have, 6 as we have discussed before, about the ones 7 that have particular people that are assigned 8 to deal with them in their district that 9 only -- that that is what they do, is handle 10 the pardons and the CERV. So in those few 11 areas, they might. 12 Q. And what are some examples of 13 those field offices where there are dedicated 14 staffs that handle the closure letters 15 themselves? 16 A. From my recollection, I know that 17 Mobile County was during my time there because 18 I was that person. I'm not certain how it is 19 currently. But Jefferson County has also had a 20 specialized person dedicated to that. It is 21 normally the larger offices that are able to 22 specialize like that and dedicate one person or 23 two to handle those.

Page 138 1 Q. Right. And so, so long as they 2 have the staff to do so, field officers can 3 send closure letters as soon as they determine 4 that an applicant is ineligible; is that 5 correct? 6 A. They have that capability. 7 Q. Okay. Approximately -- 8 approximately how many staff throughout the 9 Board of Pardons and Paroles are dedicated to 10 working on the streamline process? 11 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 12 the scope. Also objection to the form. 13 A. I'm not sure. 14 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. I just want 15 to walk through how field officers make certain 16 eligibility determinations. Prior to the 17 passage of the 2017 bill defining crimes 18 involving moral turpitude and the specific 19 lists of felony convictions, did your office 20 have a position as to what crimes definitely 21 did not involve moral turpitude? 22 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 23 A. Possession of marijuana,	Page 140 1 Q. And where could field officers 2 find those lists? 3 A. In policy, in the policy manual. 4 Q. In the policy manual. 5 A. The field officers also had the 6 capacity to submit anything up their chain of 7 command all the way up to legal, if need be. 8 Q. And if an officer came upon a 9 conviction that wasn't on any of those lists, 10 what was the guidance for the field officer to 11 do in that circumstance? 12 A. He or she could obtain guidance 13 from his immediate supervisor. And, as stated 14 before, it could come all the way to the 15 Central Office up until the legal division, if 16 need be. 17 Q. And was that field officer 18 required to do that every time he or she came 19 up on a conviction that wasn't on a described 20 list? 21 A. I would not say it was a 22 requirement, but rather a standard procedure. 23 Q. Are you aware of any circumstance
Page 139 1 possession of a controlled substance, felony 2 DUI. 3 MS. MESSICK: She said felony DUI. 4 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) So possession of 5 marijuana, possession of a controlled substance 6 and felony DUI were all convictions that your 7 office did not consider to be involving moral 8 turpitude; is that right? 9 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 10 A. That is correct. That is all I 11 can remember at this time. 12 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Outside of 13 those three types of convictions, did the field 14 officers or anyone else at the Board of Pardons 15 and Paroles make an individualized 16 determination about whether or not a given 17 conviction was disqualifying for every 18 streamlined application? 19 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 20 A. There were guidelines. 21 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Issued by whom? 22 A. There were lists that were in 23 policy.	Page 141 1 in which a board -- a Board of Registrars told 2 a potential voter that a possession of a 3 controlled substance conviction was 4 disqualifying, despite the board's position 5 that it was not disqualifying? 6 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 7 the scope. 8 A. That is possible. 9 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Was it an issue 10 that was ever raised in your office? 11 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 12 A. That is possible. 13 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) But is it 14 something that the Board of Pardons and Paroles 15 has considered at the time? 16 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 17 the scope. 18 A. I'm not sure I understand. 19 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) I understand your 20 testimony to be that it is possible that 21 someone could apply for a streamline, be told 22 they don't need one because their crime is not 23 disqualifying, but then apply to a Board of

Page 142 1 Registrars and be told that their crime is 2 disqualifying; is that correct? 3 A. That is possible, that -- 4 Q. And in your experience, has 5 that -- are you aware of that ever happening? 6 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 7 A. I am aware of applicants receiving 8 notification that they do not have a 9 disqualifying offense and having difficulty at 10 the Board of Registrars. 11 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And what, if 12 anything, did the Board of Pardons and Paroles 13 do to assist those individuals? 14 A. In instances where I was involved 15 personally, I may have spoken with someone at 16 the Board of Registrars. I -- usually if they 17 call an officer, the officer verifies that the 18 letter did originate from our office to try to 19 clarify that we did send the letter. 20 Q. Uh-huh. Will your office ever 21 issue a streamline despite the board's position 22 that their crime is not disqualifying? 23 A. I don't think that that is common.	Page 144 1 circumstance where the person only has 2 convictions that the board believes are 3 disqualifying but that the registrar has 4 indicated -- or that the board believes are not 5 disqualifying but the registrar has indicated 6 are disqualifying? 7 A. I'm not aware of that. 8 Q. Okay. After the passage of the 9 bill in 2017 defining what felonies involve 10 moral turpitude, what did your office do to 11 implement that law? 12 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 13 A. There were revisions to the forms 14 to make sure that we were in compliance with it 15 changing from disqualifying cases, the list 16 that specified which convictions were now. We 17 also established a form for the 18 disqualification, the voter disqualification 19 form, so that anyone under supervision would be 20 educated, number one, and -- 21 Well, they would be first informed 22 that they had forfeited their right to vote at 23 the time of sentencing and conviction and
Page 143 1 Q. Okay. Do you know if that has 2 ever happened? 3 A. Repeat that question. 4 Q. Do you know -- so my question 5 is -- I am trying to think about the 6 circumstance of an individual who is caught 7 between the rock and hard place, the Board of 8 Registrars saying you need your rights restored 9 and the Board of Pardons and Paroles saying 10 that your kind is not disqualifying, you don't 11 need a streamline. 12 In those circumstances, does the 13 Board of Pardons and Paroles have the authority 14 to issue a streamline, even though, according 15 to the board, the person does not have a 16 disqualifying felony conviction? 17 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Calls 18 for a legal conclusion. 19 A. The certificate itself is not the 20 right to register to vote. It is a right for 21 the person to be able to reregister. 22 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Right. But would 23 your office ever issue a certificate in the	Page 145 1 educated about what they could do once they had 2 successfully completed probation or parole to 3 get those rights reinstated. 4 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Uh-huh. 5 A. We also did a revision to the 6 investigation for the streamline and both -- we 7 did training to encompass both of the laws 8 changing throughout the state. We also 9 established literature that was to be 10 distributed in the county jails, each of our 11 offices, the Board of Registrar's office and 12 the Department of Criminal Justice facilities 13 throughout the state. 14 Q. For the purposes of investigation 15 of a streamline application, does your office 16 now have a list of disqualifying felony 17 convictions that it uses? 18 A. Yes. Every office has that 19 literature. 20 Q. And is there a list that includes 21 the corresponding AOC codes for each 22 disqualifying conviction? 23 A. Those were not originated from our

Page 146 1 office, but they were -- there were some codes 2 that were distributed. 3 Q. And where did those originate 4 from? 5 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 6 the scope. 7 A. The Secretary of State's office. 8 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Did your office 9 create a list of disqualifying convictions? 10 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 11 the scope and to form. 12 A. Our office came up with the 13 signage that has a list of all of the 14 disqualifying offenses. 15 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Is there a list in 16 the manual for the Board of Pardons and 17 Paroles? 18 A. We have currently been working on 19 a manual to adopt all of the changes. 20 Q. Okay. So the current manual does 21 not reflect the changes yet; is that correct? 22 A. Revisions have been submitted. 23 I'm not sure that they have been legally	Page 148 1 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And who is 2 included on that executive leadership team? 3 MS. MESSICK: Object. Outside the 4 scope. You have to answer. 5 A. The personnel director, the 6 assistant executive directors, the director, 7 director of IT division and the director of the 8 accounting. 9 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Who drafted the 10 revisions of the manual? 11 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 12 the scope. 13 A. Each -- 14 MS. MESSICK: I also object to the 15 form. Do you mean to limit the question to 16 just the list? 17 MS. LANG: Yes. 18 MS. MESSICK: Because the manual 19 is large. 20 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Well, who drafted 21 the revision to the manual with respect to the 22 passage of the 2017 law defining the list of 23 disqualifying convictions?
Page 147 1 approved and disseminated. 2 Q. Who does -- who do you have to 3 submit those revisions to? 4 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 5 the scope. 6 A. They go through the executive 7 leadership. 8 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And who approves 9 that? 10 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 11 the scope. 12 A. Executive leadership. 13 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And what do you 14 mean by executive leadership? Is that the 15 executive director? 16 MS. MESSICK: Object. Outside the 17 scope. 18 A. Not him alone. 19 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Who else? 20 MS. MESSICK: Object. Outside the 21 scope. 22 A. There is an executive leadership 23 team and legal.	Page 149 1 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 2 the scope and object to the form. 3 A. Myself and my supervisor at the 4 time, Sarah Still. 5 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Anyone else? 6 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 7 the scope. 8 A. No. 9 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. 10 (Plaintiffs' Exhibit 7 was marked 11 for identification.) 12 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) I am going to mark 13 Exhibit 7, hand this to you. A moment ago -- I 14 apologize. I think there's a second -- 15 MS. MESSICK: This has pages -- 16 of 4, and I just wrote on one. 17 MS. LANG: I'm sorry. We can 18 probably find the additional copies. Yeah, 19 just give us one moment. Well, that can be 20 your copy. 21 MS. MESSICK: So I have scribbled 22 out where I have written a 7 on Page 2 because 23 I thought that was my copy of Page 1.

Page 150 1 MS. LANG: Okay. 2 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) A moment ago you 3 mentioned a list that included AOC codes and 4 testified that it came from the Secretary of 5 State's office. Is Exhibit 7 the list that you 6 were referring to? 7 A. It appears to be. 8 Q. And has this list been 9 disseminated to all of the field offices? 10 A. The list was disseminated to the 11 district managers to cover the areas. 12 Q. Limiting ourselves just to Alabama 13 convictions for the moment, when an 14 investigator or when an officer is doing an 15 investigation of a streamline application, I 16 believe you testified that they use the AOC 17 database to search for Alabama felony 18 convictions; is that correct? 19 A. That is correct. 20 Q. Can you describe to me how that 21 database works and once you put in the 22 identifiers, what information is provided to 23 the officer?	Page 152 1 Q. What policies, if any, does your 2 office have in place to make sure that the 3 field officer is identifying convictions to 4 have a proper identity match to the person who 5 has applied for a streamline? 6 A. The requirements are that we have 7 the required information that we ask for. 8 Oftentimes, we receive incomplete applications 9 that make it difficult for us to adequately 10 perform our duties, especially when they are 11 coming from outside entities. 12 But we make sure that we have that 13 required information. If they apply in person, 14 there's a screening that usually takes place by 15 the person accepting that application to make 16 sure that it is accurate and it is complete. 17 Q. Uh-huh. 18 A. Secondly, that is just a resource. 19 That isn't the only incumbent thing that we 20 check. That is just an additional layer of 21 what we check to make sure. 22 Q. All right. Thank you. Is it the 23 case that in order to determine that a felony
Page 151 1 MS. MESSICK: To the extent you 2 are asking about how the entire AOC database 3 works, it is beyond the scope. 4 MS. LANG: I am not asking that. 5 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) I just want to 6 have a sense when an investigator sits down at 7 their computer, puts in identifying information 8 about a streamline applicant, what information 9 do they receive and in what format? 10 A. The information that they receive 11 is depending upon what they enter. The 12 database has the capacity to do a name search. 13 That is why it is important to have the name 14 that the person was convicted under and also 15 the true name. They can do a search using the 16 person's -- the applicant's Social Security 17 number. 18 They can also do a search -- the 19 name search, Social Security search. And they 20 can do just a name browse with partial parts of 21 the name, if they should have a common name, 22 that also has the date of birth associated with 23 it, with the offense.	Page 153 1 conviction that shows up in the database is a 2 conviction of the applicant, that all of the 3 identifying information has to match exactly 4 between the database and the application? 5 A. Oftentimes it will not -- 6 Q. Right. 7 A. -- which will -- that is why I 8 said that is an additional resource. They also 9 do the database through the national 10 information, that crime center. 11 Q. Uh-huh. 12 A. Because that is based on the 13 Social Security number, the race and sex and 14 the date of birth. It has more specific 15 information than AOC. AOC is just an added 16 search. 17 Q. Okay. 18 A. A resource. 19 Q. But you use both the NCIS -- 20 A. NCIC. 21 MS. MESSICK: "NCIS" is a show. 22 NCIC database. 23 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) NCIC. Do you use

Page 154 1 both the NCIC and the AOC database to make sure 2 that they corroborate each other? Is that 3 correct? 4 A. Right. And we also do a file 5 review, anything that is pertaining in the file 6 that has identifying information. 7 Q. Okay. That is all very helpful. 8 Are there any kind of rules about how much 9 information has to match between one record and 10 another for you to consider it a match for 11 purposes of the investigation? 12 For example, I know that in other 13 states that I have worked in, there's kind of 14 rules that it has to have at least the 15 database -- the date of birth and the name or 16 at least the last four of the Social and the 17 first and last name or whatnot. There's 18 sometimes rules and guidelines about how much 19 information has to match between two records. 20 Does your office have that -- 21 those kinds of guidelines? 22 A. We rely heavily on NCIC because 23 NCIC not only gives you the true name, it lists	Page 156 1 disqualifying by your office? 2 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 3 Are you still operating with Alabama 4 convictions? 5 MS. LANG: Yes, Alabama 6 convictions. Thank you. 7 A. Could you rephrase the question, 8 please? 9 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Sure. So to give 10 you at least a little background of what I am 11 thinking, for whatever that is worth, the 12 actual statute does not include all the 13 specific code sections that are here. It has a 14 list of crimes sometimes, and it doesn't have 15 these charge codes in it. But it appears that 16 the Secretary of State has created this 17 document based on the statute. 18 So my question is, when the 19 investigating officer identifies a felony 20 conviction in the AOC database or the NCIC 21 database, an Alabama felony conviction, and it 22 is not one for any of these section codes or 23 charge codes, is it still possible that your
Page 155 1 all of the aliases. It also gives you a list 2 of date of births that the offender may have 3 used in the past that were not accurate as well 4 as Social Security numbers. 5 Q. Thank you. 6 MS. LANG: Misty, if you want a 7 copy. 8 MS. MESSICK: Thank you. I am 9 just going to switch out the Page 2s so the 10 record will be cleaner. 11 MS. LANG: Thank you. 12 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) The list that the 13 Secretary of State provided with AOC codes, is 14 that the list that your investigators rely upon 15 in determining whether or not a felony is 16 disqualifying or not? 17 A. This list is an additional 18 resource as to how it may -- how they may find 19 it coded in AOC. 20 Q. Okay. Would it ever be the case 21 that an officer would determine that a felony 22 that does not match these charge codes and 23 sections would be determined to be	Page 157 1 office would determine that that conviction was 2 disqualifying? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. And when would that be the case? 5 A. There may not be a code entered. 6 Sometimes there isn't a code. 7 Q. Okay. But does your office 8 consider this list of disqualifying convictions 9 with these sections to be the exclusive list of 10 disqualifying convictions? 11 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Does the 14 NCIC database provide you information about 15 out-of-state convictions as well as Alabama 16 convictions? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. And does it provide information 19 about federal convictions in addition to 20 Alabama state convictions? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. If an applicant has an 23 out-of-state conviction, how do your officers

Page 158 1 go about determining whether or not that 2 out-of-state conviction is disqualifying under 3 the Alabama law? 4 MS. MESSICK: And to be clear, you 5 mean the 2017 list? 6 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) The 2017 list. 7 A. If the details of that offense 8 is -- coincide with the details of what is 9 needed for these offenses in this state, that 10 is the guideline, if it would -- if it would be 11 disqualifying if it occurred in this state. 12 Q. Okay. And who makes that 13 determination in the first instance of whether 14 or not an out-of-state conviction details lead 15 it to be -- would make it such that it would be 16 disqualifying if it was an Alabama conviction? 17 A. The person that is completing the 18 streamline investigation. 19 Q. The field officer, is that 20 correct? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. Are field officers typically 23 lawyers?	Page 160 1 A. Just that if it had occurred in 2 this state. 3 Q. Okay. Does the NCIC database 4 provide the statutory text for the out-of-state 5 convictions that are identified? 6 A. I'm not sure I understand your 7 question. 8 Q. When you put in my name, if I had 9 a conviction in Delaware and it says I am 10 guilty of theft in Delaware, would it provide 11 information about what the statute of theft is 12 in Delaware in the NCIC database? 13 A. The actual statute? 14 Q. Yes. 15 A. It would just list mainly the name 16 of the crime. 17 Q. So ordinarily the only information 18 provided is the name of the offense; is that 19 correct? 20 A. No. 21 Q. What other information about the 22 offense is included? 23 A. The date of the arrest.
Page 159 1 (Off-the-record discussion.) 2 A. Typically, no. 3 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. What level 4 of education is required to be a field officer? 5 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 6 the scope. 7 A. They have to have a bachelor's 8 degree. 9 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Has your office 10 provided any training on how to match the 11 details, as you say, an out-of-state offense to 12 the details of the disqualifying offenses under 13 the 2017 law? 14 A. Yes. Particularly the same 15 guidance applies. They can refer to their 16 immediate supervisor all the way up to our 17 legal staff. 18 Q. Okay. Outside of that general 19 guidance, is there any specific guidance about 20 how to do the matching between the details of 21 an out-of-state offense and the in-state 22 offenses that are disqualifying under the 2017 23 law?	Page 161 1 Q. What other details about the type 2 of offense is included, other than the name of 3 the offense? 4 A. That would -- 5 Q. That is it? 6 A. That is all that I can remember at 7 this time. 8 Q. Okay. Do field officers have 9 access to legal resources like LexisNexis or 10 Westlaw? 11 A. Some of them, yes. 12 Q. Which ones have access and which 13 ones do not? 14 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 15 the scope. 16 A. The officers in the Central 17 Office, we have LexisNexis. I'm not sure 18 about -- I'm not sure anywhere. 19 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. When you 20 identify a federal offense in the NCIC 21 database, is it also true that only the name of 22 the offense appears and no additional 23 information about the type of offense or the Page 162 1 detail of the offense? 2 A. Repeat that. 3 Q. When you identify a federal 4 conviction in the NCIC database, is it the case 5 that the only information about the type of 6 offense and the details of what kind of offense 7 was committed is the name of the conviction? 8 A. I'm still not sure I understand 9 your question. 10 Q. A moment ago I think you -- I 11 think you testified that really the only 12 information that is available about what kind 13 of offense was committed for an out-of-state 14 conviction is the name of the conviction, like 15 theft in the first degree or similar names of 16 crimes. 17 Is that also true for federal 18 convictions? 19 A. You are talking about -- you are 20 asking me specifically about when they do the 21 NCIC? 22 Q. Yes. 23 A. What is listed?	Page 164 1 the elements of the crime. 2 Additionally, if it was not 3 federal, just out-of-state, we contact the 4 clerk's office. Any agency or entity that 5 would be able to give us more information or 6 elements of the crime that would help us 7 further to determine whether it is or not 8 disqualifying, we exhaust all of those measures 9 for all of our resources. 10 Q. Thank you. That is helpful. As I 11 understand it, your testimony is the first kind 12 of -- the first way to conduct this analysis is 13 to see if the names of the crimes match; is 14 that correct? 15 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 16 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) So if the 17 out-of-state conviction is for robbery in the 18 third degree in Delaware, would that mean that 19 that crime is disqualifying because robbery in 20 the third degree in Alabama is disqualifying? 21 (Off-the-record discussion.) 22 MR. SINCLAIR: Is disqualifying. 23 MS. LANG: Is disqualifying.

Page 163 1 Q. Yes. 2 A. The name of the offense. 3 Q. Okay. Do you know if the 4 statutory code is listed? 5 A. Not to my information. 6 Q. What about the statutory text? 7 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 8 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Is that listed? 9 A. Not to my recollection. 10 Q. Are the elements of the crime 11 listed in the NCIC database? 12 A. Not to my recollection. 13 Q. What other resources would field 14 officers use to determine the elements of an 15 out-of-state or federal offense? 16 A. Ordinarily, the crimes and the 17 names, as I stated before, will coincide with 18 one another. If they do not, they can always 19 obtain additional information. 20 If it is a federal offense, we 21 call the federal Probation and Parole Office in 22 which they were supervised to obtain more 23 information to get more details about what were	Page 165 1 THE REPORTER: Thanks. 2 A. Normally, yes. May I take a 3 break? 4 MS. MESSICK: Yeah, we do need a 5 break, please. 6 MS. LANG: Most assuredly. 7 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Stand by. The 8 time is 3:48 p.m. We are off the record. 9 (Off-the-record discussion.) 10 (Whereupon, a break was had from 11 3:48 p.m. until 4:04 p.m.) 12 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now back 13 on the record. The time is 4:04 p.m. Central 14 Time. 15 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Director Jones, 16 did you want to clarify something about your 17 last answer? 18 A. Yes. I did want to clarify the 19 fact that when an officer or a specialist does 20 an investigation in the field about the actual 21 names and if it is an out-of-state conviction, 22 if the names coincide, if it is a robbery third 23 conviction in another state, then we process it

Page 166 1 as a disqualifying. Because we have a robbery 2 third on our list of being a disqualifying 3 offense. 4 So if there's a -- as far as the 5 name goes, if there's a parallel charge from 6 out of state to our state, then we go ahead and 7 process it. However, there are times and 8 instances when another state or Federal Court 9 may have a charge that is not -- that does not 10 coincide with any that we have here. 11 In those instances, we contact 12 whatever that sentencing entity is to get the 13 details and get more -- obtain more information 14 to see if we could compare it to the elements 15 that would constitute it being a disqualifying 16 offense in our -- in our state. I just wanted 17 to clarify that. 18 Q. Thank you. That is probably -- 19 that is a very good summary. For what it is 20 worth, that is what I understood your testimony 21 to be. 22 A. Okay. 23 Q. But I appreciate your putting it	Page 168 1 misdemeanors? 2 MS. MESSICK: Object to outside 3 the scope. Object to the form. 4 A. It is not customary for a felony 5 conviction to come out of a municipal case. 6 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. In addition 7 to searching for past convictions, does the 8 field officer search for pending warrants or 9 pending charges against -- let me -- let me 10 un-compound that. 11 When conducting an investigation 12 of a streamline applicant, does the field 13 officer search for pending warrants against 14 that person? 15 A. Yes. Because pending criminal 16 felonies is a requirement. So they do. 17 Q. Okay. And if you identify an 18 arrest warrant in the -- if a field officer 19 identifies an arrest warrant through this 20 process, what steps do they take? 21 A. First -- 22 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 23 And to the extent it goes beyond the process of
Page 167 1 all together for me. Okay. 2 When you look at the NCIC 3 database, does it include information about 4 whether or not a specific conviction is a 5 felony or a misdemeanor? 6 A. No, it does not. To my 7 recollection at this time, it does not. 8 Q. Okay. 9 A. Oh, I'm sorry. I think that it 10 does. I think that it does list in some 11 instances what type of charge it is. I do 12 think it is visible. 13 Q. Okay. Sometimes, is that right? 14 A. Uh-huh, that is correct. 15 Q. Not all times? 16 A. No. 17 Q. Okay. We talked about the NCIC 18 database and the AOC database. Do either of 19 those databases include municipal level crimes? 20 A. Yes, they do. 21 Q. Okay. And are there any -- excuse 22 my ignorance. Are there any municipal felonies 23 in the state of Alabama or is that only	Page 169 1 the CERV, object to the scope. You can answer. 2 A. We would determine whether or not 3 that warrant is active. 4 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And if the warrant 5 is active, what steps would the field officer 6 take? 7 MS. MESSICK: Same objections. 8 A. If the warrant is active for a 9 CERV applicant -- 10 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Yes. 11 A. -- then they would be notified 12 that they have an active warrant. If it is a 13 felony warrant, then that case will be 14 considered closed due to the pending case -- 15 Q. Okay. 16 A. -- with that outstanding warrant. 17 Q. So if there's a felony warrant, 18 they will receive a notice that their 19 application is being closed because they are 20 ineligible for a streamline; is that correct? 21 A. That is correct. 22 Q. And if there's any kind of active 23 warrant for this individual, that person would

Page 170 1 be notified of that fact; is that correct, as 2 well? 3 A. Yes. As a reason. 4 Q. What about if it is a misdemeanor 5 warrant? 6 A. Currently, if it is an active 7 warrant, it is likely to be closed. 8 Q. Okay. And why is that? 9 A. They would not -- they would -- if 10 it is an active warrant for a felony 11 conviction, they would close it because it is 12 pending. 13 Q. Right. But if there's a warrant 14 for a misdemeanor, for example, what would be 15 done in that circumstance? 16 A. If it is a misdemeanor case or 17 even if it is a nondisqualifying case, in those 18 instances, we would continue. 19 Q. Okay. And would the law 20 enforcement authority that had issued the 21 warrant be notified of the streamline 22 application and that applicant's information? 23 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside	Page 172 1 for identification.) 2 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) I am going to mark 3 as Exhibit 8 what I believe to be a sample form 4 letter from your office. Do you recognize this 5 document? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. And can you explain to me what 8 this letter -- what the purpose of this letter 9 is? 10 MS. MESSICK: You may answer. 11 A. This is a letter that we send to 12 applicants in an effort to obtain additional 13 information regarding the required information 14 that we need to see if they are eligible if 15 some of it is missing. 16 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And would you send 17 this -- would the board send this letter if the 18 information in the NCIC database was 19 insufficient for the purposes of your 20 investigation? 21 A. This information would -- this 22 letter would be sent after there had been an 23 exhaustive search, not only of AOC or NCIC, but
Page 171 1 the scope. 2 A. That would depend on the 3 independent -- the individual that is working 4 it. 5 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. But the law 6 enforcement agency might be notified; is that 7 correct? 8 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 9 the scope. 10 A. May or may not. 11 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. If there 12 was a warrant for unpaid fines and fees, would 13 that warrant -- would the field officer notify 14 the law enforcement of that application? 15 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 16 the scope. 17 A. That would depend on the 18 individual. 19 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. 20 A. I am not aware of that being a 21 common practice. 22 Q. Okay. 23 (Plaintiffs' Exhibit 8 was marked	Page 173 1 it would -- this is a result of no additional 2 information being available. 3 Q. Thank you. How far back do the 4 records in the AOC database go? 5 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 6 the scope. 7 A. I can't answer for certain. 8 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Approximately. 9 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 10 the scope. 11 A. I want to understand if you are 12 asking me -- rephrase the question. 13 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Sure. How far 14 back in time are convictions in Alabama 15 recorded in the AOC database? 16 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 17 the scope and to the form. 18 A. I have seen convictions listed as 19 old as 1960s. 20 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Is it 21 particular -- does the board sometimes have 22 difficulty obtaining records or information 23 about particularly old convictions?

Page 174 1 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Older convictions 4 are harder to investigate; is that correct, as 5 a general matter? 6 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 7 A. I would say that they require -- 8 they likely would require more time to obtain 9 the information. 10 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) One of the 11 requirements for the CERV is that you have 12 completed your sentence for any disqualifying 13 conviction; is that right? 14 A. Yes, it is. 15 Q. And what is your understanding of 16 the requirement to complete the sentence, 17 putting aside the payment of fines and fees, 18 which we will discuss in a moment? 19 A. You are no longer under 20 supervision for probation, for parole, you have 21 successfully completed three years or the term 22 of your sentence has expired or you have been 23 released by the ordering entity.	Page 176 1 calculated based on whether they are earning 2 good time or not. 3 Q. Okay. If an individual is 4 convicted at the same time of both 5 disqualifying and nondisqualifying offenses, 6 how do field officers determine whether or not 7 the sentence is complete as to the 8 disqualifying offense? 9 A. That computation can -- we have 10 the ability to contact the Department of 11 Corrections anytime that we need a manual 12 computation that is different from the 13 computation on the time sheet. 14 Q. Okay. Can a person's parole or 15 probation be extended if they don't pay 16 supervision fees or other required 17 legal/financial obligations? 18 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 19 the scope. 20 A. I have not -- I have no knowledge 21 of probation or parole being extended because 22 of financial obligations. 23 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. What
Page 175 1 Q. Okay. Is that information about 2 whether or not a sentence is complete included, 3 for Alabama convictions, in the AOC database? 4 A. Yes, there are terms where the end 5 of sentence is listed in AOC. 6 Q. For Alabama convictions, what 7 other sources, if any, do field officers rely 8 upon to determine if the sentence is complete, 9 meaning completion of all supervision? 10 A. There are departmental records. 11 There are also time sheets from the Department 12 of Corrections that they rely upon. 13 Q. Can you tell me what time sheets 14 are from the Department of Corrections? 15 A. When an inmate is assigned an AIS 16 number or identification number when they are 17 placed in the custody or admitted into the 18 custody of the Department of Corrections, a 19 time sheet is generated which identifies that 20 individual and each of the offenses in which 21 they are currently serving for. 22 And it also has a minimum release 23 date and a maximum release date that is	Page 177 1 resources -- does the NCIC database indicate 2 when a sentence -- when a felony sentence is 3 complete for an out-of-state conviction? 4 A. NCIC typically states what the 5 sentence is. 6 Q. Okay. But does it state whether 7 or not the person has been released from 8 custody? 9 A. No, it does not. 10 Q. Does it state if the person has 11 been released early? 12 A. Not typically, no. 13 Q. What other sources of information 14 do the field officers rely upon for determining 15 if an out-of-state conviction sentence is 16 complete? 17 A. That sentencing entity itself is 18 contacted -- 19 Q. Okay. 20 A. -- for clarification and 21 verification. 22 Q. Is that the case for federal 23 convictions as well?

Page 178 1 A. Yes, ma'am. 2 Q. Okay. What is your understanding 3 of what legal, financial -- what is your 4 understanding of what fines, fees or 5 restitution have to be paid on a disqualifying 6 conviction before a person is eligible for a 7 streamline? 8 MS. MESSICK: Object as outside 9 the scope and object to the form. And I think 10 it would help if you would clarify whether you 11 mean now or before the recent law change. 12 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. As of 13 today, what fines, fees or restitution have to 14 be paid in order for an individual to be 15 eligible for a streamline? 16 A. As of today, it has to -- the 17 fines, fees, court-ordered costs, victim 18 restitution must be paid for the disqualifying 19 offenses that were ordered at the time of 20 sentencing. 21 Q. And so what type of fines or fees 22 are excluded from that requirement? 23 A. As of today, there may be	Page 180 1 restitution for both nondisqualifying and -- 2 nondisqualifying and disqualifying offenses. 3 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And did it include 4 supervision fees or other types of fees imposed 5 after sentencing is filed, prior to the passage 6 of the 2016 law? 7 A. Yes, it did. 8 Q. Okay. What sources are available 9 to field officers in determining whether or not 10 outstanding fines, fees or restitution for 11 disqualifying convictions exist? 12 A. We always can revert back to the 13 ordering entity. If there's some discrepancy, 14 we can always go to the source itself for 15 clarification. 16 Resources would be, of course, 17 AOC. As I mentioned before, AlaCourt gives us 18 an actual image so that we can see the 19 breakdown and what they mean. 20 All of the clerk's, circuit 21 clerk's records can help us to identify those 22 as well. 23 Q. Thank you. In any of those data
Page 179 1 supervision fees; there may be delinquent fees 2 for payments; there may also be a subsequent 3 warrant. And that is all I can remember at 4 this time. 5 Q. Okay. Has the type of fines and 6 fees and restitution that is required to be 7 eligible for a streamline changed over time? 8 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) When did those 11 requirements change? In or around when did 12 those requirements change? 13 A. Those requirements changed with 14 the passage of 2016-387. 15 MS. MESSICK: I was just going to 16 say, would you like a document to -- 17 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And what was the 18 requirement for what fines, fees or restitution 19 had to be paid in order to be eligible for a 20 streamline prior to the passage of that bill? 21 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 22 A. Prior to that bill, it was any 23 court-ordered cost, fines, fees, victim	Page 181 1 sources, is the balance due reflected for each 2 individual outstanding fine or fee or 3 restitution? 4 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 5 A. There is a -- there is a screen 6 that will have each individual charge -- will 7 have the charges listed and categorized 8 individually -- 9 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. 10 A. -- for review. 11 Q. And a screen in AlaCourt, is that 12 what you are referring to when you say a 13 screen? 14 A. There is a case summary screen in 15 AlaCourt, and there's also a fee screen, a 16 criminal fee screen in AOC. 17 (Off-the-record discussion.) 18 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. So first 19 talking about the AOC database, the criminal 20 fee screen, does that list each individual 21 fine, fee or restitution imposed for a 22 disqualifying conviction? 23 MS. MESSICK: You can answer.

Page 182 1 A. That screen specifically lists 2 what the charges are for that individual 3 conviction. 4 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Right. I 5 understand. But once you -- there's a bunch of 6 different ways in which your officers have to 7 disaggregate this information. 8 So from what I understand, you 9 have explained that they can see the fines and 10 fees attached to each individual conviction. 11 So if somebody has both a disqualifying 12 conviction and a nondisqualifying conviction, 13 they can see the amount of money assigned to 14 the disqualifying conviction; is that right? 15 A. That's correct. 16 Q. Okay. So now zeroing in just on 17 the disqualifying conviction, can -- does that 18 fee screen show each individual fine or fee 19 that was -- that had been imposed, or is it all 20 in one lumped category? 21 A. There are court-ordered costs that 22 are listed individually. 23 Q. Okay.	Page 184 1 MS. MESSICK: Thank you. 2 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) When a voter -- 3 when a person with past convictions has -- is 4 on a payment plan with the circuit -- with -- 5 when an individual is on a payment plan with 6 the court, do you know how their payments are 7 allocated towards their various fines, fees, 8 restitution and other obligations? 9 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 10 the scope. 11 A. I have an idea that I am not 12 certain about -- 13 Q. Okay. 14 A. -- for different counties. 15 Q. Okay. And what is your sense for 16 the counties that you make -- you have some 17 sense of how fines or fees are allocated as 18 they are paid? 19 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 20 the scope. 21 A. They may be applied according to 22 specific orders from the judge in the order, 23 the chronological order in which they are.
Page 183 1 A. They are listed individually. 2 Q. Okay. And then are the balances 3 owed also listed individually? 4 A. There is a column for each of the 5 ones that are listed individually. There's a 6 total column for the balance of what is owed, 7 what has been paid. 8 Q. Okay. For each individual cost or 9 fine or fee, there is a balance owed column; is 10 that correct? 11 A. That's correct. 12 Q. Okay. Is that also true of the 13 information in AlaCourt, or is that level of 14 detail only available on the AOC database? 15 A. To the best of my recollection at 16 this time, it is -- it is in columns. And I 17 think that it may not be separated that way in 18 AlaCourt. I think that it is -- 19 Q. Thank you. 20 MS. MESSICK: Were you finished 21 answering? 22 MS. LANG: I apologize. 23 A. Yes.	Page 185 1 There are some instances where the judge may 2 order for the victim restitution to come in a 3 certain chronological order. 4 Other than that, their payments 5 may be applied to the most -- to the earliest 6 conviction. If they have multiple convictions, 7 most of their payments will be applied to the 8 older or the most delinquent. 9 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Do you know if 10 people can ask the courts to apply their 11 payments to their disqualifying LFOs first? 12 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 13 the scope. Also objection to the form. 14 A. I'm not one hundred percent 15 certain of that. 16 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Are you familiar 17 with any discussion about allowing people to 18 reprioritize costs to pay off their 19 disqualifying LFOs? 20 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 21 the scope and objection to the form. 22 A. I do recall that being a topic. 23 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Do you know -- let

Page 186 1 me mark as Plaintiffs' Exhibit 9. And this 2 document is labeled a request to reprioritize 3 costs issued by the Alabama Office of Courts. 4 (Plaintiffs' Exhibit 9 was marked 5 for identification.) 6 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Do you know if 7 this form has been implemented -- 8 MS. MESSICK: Object. 9 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) -- for people to 10 reprioritize costs? 11 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 12 the scope. 13 A. I'm sorry. Repeat the question. 14 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Fair enough. Let 15 me just back up. Do you recognize this 16 document? 17 A. Well -- 18 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 19 the scope. And I am sorry I spoke over you. 20 Did you get her answer? 21 (Record read.) 22 MS. MESSICK: Sounds like you 23 didn't get the answer. So would you please	Page 188 1 Q. How does your office determine 2 whether or not the required fines, fees and 3 restitution have been paid for federal 4 convictions? 5 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 6 A. Officers ordinarily contact the 7 ordering entity themselves for clarification. 8 Most of the federal probation and parole 9 offices have a separate department of finance 10 that is contacted about financial obligations. 11 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Is that 12 something -- are the federal entities always 13 able to provide account balances based on each 14 individual fine or fee or restitution that was 15 assessed? 16 A. I would not say always. 17 Q. What are some circumstances in 18 which they are not able to do that? 19 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 20 the scope. 21 A. Where there -- due to the age of 22 the case, there may be no available 23 documentation.
Page 187 1 restate your answer, Director Jones? 2 A. No. 3 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Were you 4 consulted about the creation of this document 5 or this system in which people can ask to 6 reprioritize costs? 7 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 8 the scope. 9 A. No, the form is not familiar. 10 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Did you speak to 11 anybody at the State of Alabama Unified 12 Judicial System or at the Alabama Office of 13 Courts about putting this type of system into 14 place? 15 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form 16 and object to the scope. 17 A. Not to my recollection at this 18 time. 19 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Given your 20 prior testimony, is it fair to say that this is 21 not a document that your office distributes to 22 people who are seeking streamline applications? 23 A. I am not aware that it is.	Page 189 1 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Is it your 2 testimony that federal entities ordinarily have 3 individualized balances for each fine or fee 4 imposed rather than just one total balance for 5 all the fines and fees imposed for a case? 6 A. It is my testimony that officers 7 contact those entities, the federal entities, 8 to see what the balances are and to the best of 9 their ability question the people there about 10 what those balances entail. 11 Q. Okay. And is the same process in 12 place for out-of-state convictions? 13 MS. MESSICK: You may answer. 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Does your 16 office -- do officers at the Board of Pardons 17 and Paroles sometimes have difficulty getting 18 the answers they need from out-of-state 19 entities or federal entities? 20 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 21 A. Sometimes. 22 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) How often? 23 A. I know that it occurs. I mean,

Page 190 1 sometimes they do. 2 Q. And what does your office do in 3 those circumstances? 4 A. Exhibit 8 is one of those. We go 5 back to the applicant. Once we have exhausted 6 all of our means, if the ordering entity is 7 not -- is not able to be a resource itself, our 8 last resort is to resort to the applicant 9 themselves to see if they have any supporting 10 documentation that will allow us to continue or 11 proceed. 12 Q. Uh-huh. If the applicant 13 indicates that they believe that they have paid 14 all of their fines and fees but they have no 15 supporting documentation, what would your 16 office do at that stage? 17 A. Without the required information 18 that is necessary that should be on a 19 certificate of eligibility to register to vote, 20 we would not be able to proceed. 21 Q. Okay. So it is your office's 22 position that there must be support from 23 either -- let me back up.	Page 192 1 is that correct? 2 A. That is correct. 3 Q. On average, do you know what 4 percentage of streamline applications are 5 granted? 6 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 7 the scope. 8 A. That is fluid because the number 9 that we receive that apply from year to year 10 fluctuates. 11 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Would you say on 12 average that over fifty or under fifty percent 13 of streamline applications are granted? 14 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 15 the scope. 16 A. I believe that the most recent 17 annual report reflects twenty-two percent. 18 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. What is the 19 most common reason why a streamline application 20 is denied? 21 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 22 the scope. 23 A. I think that there are two most
Page 191 1 You require either confirmation 2 from the sentencing entity or supporting 3 documentation to prove that fines and fees have 4 been paid for out-of-state or federal 5 convictions? 6 A. The law requires that those are 7 paid for disqualifying offenses at the time of 8 sentencing. 9 Q. Right. And I am asking what forms 10 of proof your office requires. What I think is 11 your testimony, but I would like you to tell me 12 if that is true, is the forms of proof that can 13 be used are either confirmation from the 14 sentence -- let me back up. 15 The forms of proof for payment of 16 LFOs for out-of-state or federal convictions 17 are either confirmation from the sentencing 18 entity or supporting documentation from the 19 applicant; is that correct? 20 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 21 A. That is correct. 22 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And if neither of 23 those can be obtained, the CERV will be denied;	Page 193 1 common reasons. 2 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. 3 A. One is that the applicant applies, 4 believing that a case that he or she has been 5 convicted of is disqualified when it is not as 6 of today. Also, as of today, the disqualifying 7 offense may still have unpaid court ordered 8 costs, fines, fees or victim restitution. 9 Q. Are there periods of time in which 10 your office sees increases in the number of 11 streamline applications that it receives? 12 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 13 the scope. 14 A. Primarily during years when we 15 have presidential elections. 16 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Did you see an 17 increase in applications, streamline 18 applications, in 2017? 19 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 20 the scope. 21 A. To the best of my recollection, it 22 has been not an influx, just a -- it has been a 23 steady stream. There was not in 2017.

Page 194 1 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. My 2 understanding is that in 2017 there was an 3 increase in groups that were doing work around 4 voting rights restoration, including Alabama 5 Legal Services and the ACLU of Alabama as well 6 as the SPLC Alabama Voting Rights Project. Did 7 those programs lead to an increase in 8 streamline applications? 9 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form 10 and object to the scope. 11 A. To the best of my recollection at 12 this time, there has not been a significant 13 increase. 14 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Did your office 15 have procedures in place prior to elections to 16 handle the increased influx of streamlined 17 applications during those periods? 18 MS. MESSICK: Object. Outside the 19 scope. 20 A. There are -- repeat the question, 21 please. 22 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Does your office 23 have contingency plans in place for handling	Page 196 1 streamlines/voting rights from political groups 2 being received in bulk I am requesting the 3 following changes for the pardon unit," and you 4 ask for three additional specialists and one 5 Board of Pardons and Paroles manager as well as 6 additional office space. Were these requests 7 granted? 8 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 9 the scope. 10 A. The manager, we do have a manager 11 dedicated specifically to pardon. 12 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Uh-huh. 13 A. And also I would like to add that 14 the email says "in anticipation." 15 Q. Right. 16 A. We have added the additional 17 specialists. There has been an addition of 18 specialists dedicated. The office space, that 19 unit has moved but was -- it is not fully 20 compensating the entire unit -- 21 Q. Fair enough. Is it fair to say 22 that some of these requests were granted but 23 not all?
Page 195 1 the influx of streamline applications prior to 2 elections? 3 MS. MESSICK: Object. Outside the 4 scope. 5 A. Previously with the significant 6 increase, the staff has been allowed to work 7 overtime to deal with the influx of 8 applications. 9 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Thank you. 10 (Plaintiffs' Exhibit 10 was marked 11 for identification.) 12 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) I am going to mark 13 Plaintiffs' Exhibit 10. 14 MS. MESSICK: Thank you. 15 MS. LANG: You are welcome. 16 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And this is an 17 email, I believe, from you to Mr. Cook from 18 September 28th, 2017; is that right? 19 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 20 A. It appears to be sent from me. I 21 guess that is my -- 22 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And you write, "In 23 anticipation of the influx of	Page 197 1 A. That's correct. 2 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 3 the scope. 4 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Thank you. 5 In the past, has your office ever struggled to 6 meet the forty-four-day deadline for processing 7 streamline applications? 8 A. There are instances where that has 9 been challenging. 10 Q. Do you have field officers provide 11 you regular lists of -- do you have your field 12 officers provide you "past due lists" for 13 voting rights? 14 A. Help me understand what you are 15 asking. 16 Q. Fair enough. There's some 17 materials in the record -- and I am going to 18 provide you one in just a moment -- that 19 referred to past due lists that are provided to 20 you of -- and I am wondering what those are. 21 What are past due lists for voting rights? 22 MS. MESSICK: Since the question 23 is still asking about her personally, I object

Page 198 1 to the scope. If your question is just what is 2 the list, I have no objection. 3 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) What is the list 4 that is provided to you as director? 5 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 6 the scope. 7 MS. LANG: She is the director of 8 the department. I mean -- 9 MS. MESSICK: I know she is. If 10 the question is what is a past due list for 11 streamlines within the board, that is fine. 12 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Well, then, what 13 is a past due list that it must be submitted to 14 the director of the division? I mean -- 15 MS. MESSICK: She can answer the 16 question. 17 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) What are past due 18 voting lists that are submitted to you? 19 A. We like to identify areas where 20 the thirty-day requirement or due date that we 21 assign to the field offices is -- if there are 22 areas where there is a pattern -- 23 Q. Uh-huh.	Page 200 1 month. 2 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. And you 3 also refer in this email to ASAPs. What are 4 ASAPs? 5 MS. MESSICK: You can answer the 6 question. 7 A. ASAPs may include instances where 8 applicants have applied because -- they have 9 applied and they have indicated that there is a 10 disability that is related to a necessity of 11 life that we would expedite. If they are 12 applying for things such as housing or food 13 stamps, those types of things, we would 14 expedite those in order for the pardons to go 15 through a quicker process because of the 16 necessity of life. 17 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. So someone 18 ends up on the ASAPs list by explaining in 19 their part of the application that they need a 20 pardon in order to obtain some necessity of 21 life; is that correct? 22 A. That is one, yes. 23 Q. What are other ways that people
Page 199 1 A. -- of delinquency, and those lists 2 are provided to me to notify. 3 (Plaintiffs' Exhibit 11 was marked 4 for identification.) 5 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And I am marking 6 Exhibit 11, which is an email from you that 7 refers to past due voting lists. 8 How often do you ask for these 9 lists to be delivered to you? 10 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 11 the scope. 12 A. These lists are ordinarily 13 requested before district managers meetings so 14 that I can notify the district managers if 15 there are anything, not only just voting 16 rights, but anything that has been assigned to 17 their districts that has not been received in a 18 timely fashion. 19 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And how often do 20 you have district managers meetings? 21 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 22 the scope. But you can answer the question. 23 A. Ordinarily, they are every other	Page 201 1 could be put on the ASAPs list? 2 A. An applicant can identify that 3 they are at the point where they are in their 4 education where they are trying to get admitted 5 to a particular school, whether it be pursuing 6 a career in education, the healthcare 7 profession, even law enforcement and law. 8 Q. Who decides who goes on the ASAPs 9 list? 10 A. That determination is ordinarily 11 at the Central Office level after documentation 12 has been provided to support that. 13 Q. And who at Central Office makes 14 those determinations? 15 A. There may be a variety of people. 16 The manager can do that with supporting 17 documentation, the specialists there, myself 18 and other executive staff members. 19 Q. Okay. Are individuals ever put on 20 the ASAPs list because an elected official asks 21 for them to be put on the ASAPs list? 22 MS. MESSICK: You may answer. 23 A. Yes.

Page 202 1 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Are people 2 ever put on the ASAPs list because other VIPs 3 have asked for them to be put on the ASAPs 4 list? 5 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) What would be an 8 example of a not elected official that could 9 ask for someone to be put on the ASAPs list? 10 A. A board member could request it. 11 Q. All right. Can you provide some 12 other examples of people who have asked for 13 individuals to be put on the ASAPs list 14 successfully? 15 A. Outside of -- 16 Q. Other than board members or 17 elected officials. 18 A. That is the best of my 19 recollection at this time. 20 Q. Okay. And what are PSIs, the last 21 one, issue that you referenced, PSIs? 22 MS. MESSICK: You are referring 23 back to Exhibit 11?	Page 204 1 manager's meeting. 2 Q. Okay. But on average, I mean, a 3 hundred, two hundred, fifty? I understand that 4 it will vary. But in total, statewide, when 5 you received these lists, approximately how 6 many people's applications are on the past due 7 list? 8 A. Typically, it doesn't exceed more 9 than twenty collectively. 10 Q. If the voter -- if the applicant 11 disputes some sort of -- some determination by 12 your office about eligibility, what process is 13 available for them to appeal that 14 determination? 15 MS. MESSICK: Could you repeat the 16 question, please? 17 MS. LANG: Yes. 18 MS. MESSICK: I'm sorry. I meant 19 the court reporter. I just want to hear 20 exactly what it was. 21 (Record read.) 22 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 23 the scope. But you can answer if you know the
Page 203 1 MS. LANG: Yes. 2 MS. MESSICK: You may answer. 3 A. Those are presentence and 4 postsentence investigation. 5 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. When you 6 received these past-due lists on an 7 every-other-month basis, are there usually 8 individuals on those lists that have not 9 received a response to their streamline 10 application within the forty-four days 11 required? 12 MS. MESSICK: I object to the 13 form. You may answer if you can. 14 A. Specifically, these usually 15 require the thirty-day limit. 16 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. 17 A. These are streamlines that we are 18 receiving after the due date of thirty days. 19 Q. Okay. And about how many are on 20 that list every other month that you receive? 21 A. They are statewide. So, I mean, 22 it fluctuates from district to district from 23 district manager's meeting to district	Page 205 1 answer. 2 A. They may inform our office of what 3 the discrepancy is that they think that we 4 made. We would be happy to review it to make 5 sure that the determination is an accurate one. 6 If it isn't, we will make sure that we correct 7 it. 8 If the result is that a 9 certificate should be issued, we will do that. 10 If it is that the determination was accurate, 11 that it was, in fact, not a discrepancy, then 12 the case will stay as it is. 13 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Is there any 14 formal appeals process available to an 15 applicant that disagrees with the determination 16 made by your office? 17 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 18 the scope. 19 A. For the streamline process, an 20 applicant can reapply anytime anything changes. 21 There is no waiting period. 22 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Thank you. But to 23 be clear, if nothing changes but the applicant

Page 206 1 disagrees with the factual determination that 2 your office has made, is there a formal appeals 3 process available to them? 4 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 5 the scope. 6 A. No. 7 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. If the 8 voter -- if the applicant raises a concern 9 about a factual determination by your office, 10 are you the final arbiter of their complaints? 11 A. I wouldn't think so, no. 12 Q. Who would be the final 13 decision-maker with respect to their complaints 14 about the decision made by your office? 15 A. If there was a discrepancy or 16 something that I did not think that it was 17 and -- I would refer it up to our legal 18 division and up my chain of command. 19 Q. All right. 20 (Plaintiffs' Exhibit 12 was marked 21 for identification.) 22 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) I am going to mark 23 Exhibit 12. Do you recognize this document?	Page 208 1 there was a back and forth between your office 2 and the Secretary of State, as the sign itself 3 indicates by saying it was prepared in 4 conjunction with the Alabama Secretary of 5 State. 6 My question is, obviously after 7 the passage of the law in 2017, there was a 8 decision to revamp this poster to reflect the 9 new law. Who created the first draft of this 10 poster with the new law's requirement? 11 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 12 the scope. 13 A. I did. 14 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Did your office 15 create any other literature or public education 16 materials about the new law, other than this 17 poster? 18 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 19 the scope. 20 A. To the best of my recollection at 21 this time, it was this and the disqualification 22 voter form for those under supervision. 23 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And are you aware
Page 207 1 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 2 the scope. 3 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) I know it is 4 not -- this copy is not particularly easy to 5 read. But do you recognize the document? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. Okay. And what is this document? 8 MS. MESSICK: Objection. It is 9 outside the scope. 10 A. This document is the signage that 11 was created in compliance with the passage of 12 2017-378. 13 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Who 14 drafted -- who created the first draft of that 15 signage? 16 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 17 the scope. 18 A. Are you referring to this exhibit 19 itself? 20 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Yes. 21 A. This isn't the first draft. 22 Q. No, but who -- well, I don't know. 23 I have seen some documents that suggest that	Page 209 1 of any public education materials that the 2 Secretary of State has about the new law, other 3 than the two documents you just referenced? 4 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 5 the scope. 6 A. Not particularly, no. 7 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And this poster or 8 this PDF is available on your website; is that 9 right? 10 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 11 the scope. 12 A. That's correct. 13 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Where else 14 did you distribute this poster? 15 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 16 the scope. Also objection to the form. 17 A. This poster was distributed to the 18 Secretary of State for each of the board of 19 registrar's offices. 20 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. 21 A. It was distributed to the district 22 managers to be posted in each of the probation 23 and parole offices throughout the state. It

Page 210 1 was also delivered to the Department of 2 Corrections for posting in all of the statewide 3 Department of Corrections's facilities. And 4 the district managers also distributed it to 5 the county jails within their districts -- 6 Q. Okay. 7 A. -- throughout the state. 8 Q. Okay. Thank you. When your 9 office sends a certificate to an applicant, 10 does your office also send a voter registration 11 form? 12 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 13 the scope. 14 A. Our office sends a cover letter 15 and the certificate of eligibility to register 16 to vote. 17 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And what does the 18 cover letter say? Maybe I can find you one. 19 MS. MESSICK: We have a document 20 that she has brought in case she needed to rely 21 on it. It includes a sample cover letter and 22 certificate, if you would like to use these 23 (handing document).	Page 212 1 Exhibit 14 a sample, I believe, of such a 2 letter. 3 (Plaintiffs' Exhibit 14 was marked 4 for identification.) 5 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Is that the form 6 letter that officers use and then fill in the 7 precise reason for denial? 8 MS. MESSICK: Is your question is 9 this the only form that would ever be used? 10 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) No. Is this a 11 sample form that is used to send a denial of a 12 streamline application? 13 A. This is a form letter advising the 14 applicant of the reason why they are not 15 eligible. 16 Q. Okay. And does Central Office 17 provide those form letters to field -- to field 18 officers? 19 MS. MESSICK: Objection to the 20 form. 21 A. These are ordinarily drafted for 22 uniformity and sent up the chain for approval. 23 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay.
Page 211 1 MS. LANG: Sure. Thank you. And 2 it appears that all the confidential 3 information has been redacted. 4 MS. MESSICK: I believe it has. 5 MS. LANG: Okay. 6 MS. MESSICK: That's three copies. 7 (Plaintiffs' Exhibit 13 was marked 8 for identification.) 9 MS. LANG: Okay. I'm going to 10 mark this as Plaintiffs' Exhibit 13, then. 11 Thank you. 12 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And is this a 13 sample of the cover sheet that you just 14 referenced? 15 A. Yes, it is. 16 Q. Okay. I don't think I will have 17 any other questions about that. Thank you. 18 When your office sends a denial of 19 a streamline application, does it always 20 include a reason for the denial? 21 A. When we send out a letter, the 22 form letter does state the reason. 23 Q. Okay. And I will mark as	Page 213 1 A. And yes. 2 Q. So just so I understand the 3 process, your office at the Central Office will 4 draft form letters to create uniformity. Those 5 will be approved by whom before they are sent 6 out to the field offices? 7 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 8 the scope. 9 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Who has to approve 10 the form letter? 11 A. Most forms -- 12 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 13 the scope. 14 A. Most forms are approved up through 15 my chain and up through legal. 16 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. And by 17 through your chain and through legal, is it 18 legal that has to sign off on each form letter? 19 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 20 the scope. 21 A. Yes, for it to be used. 22 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. 23 (Pause.)

Page 214 1 A. May I clarify something about the 2 last statement? 3 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Please do. 4 A. Because the forms are disseminated 5 throughout the state, there may be a variation 6 of the form that has not been approved. There 7 is a possibility. 8 Q. Absolutely. I understand. We 9 have touched on this a couple of times but not 10 discussed it directly, which is what type of 11 training is provided to officials who handle 12 the streamline applications. What training 13 must officials undergo before they are in 14 charge of investigations for streamline 15 applications? 16 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 17 the scope and objection to the form. 18 A. That varies from office to office 19 about the type of training that they receive, 20 of course. 21 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Is there -- 22 A. We had -- 23 Q. Go ahead. Sorry.	Page 216 1 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) What was the 2 format of the 2018 training? 3 MS. MESSICK: Objection, outside 4 the scope. 5 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) In person -- 6 A. In person. 7 Q. How long was that? 8 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 9 the scope. 10 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Approximately. 11 A. Maybe four hours. 12 MS. MESSICK: Same objection. 13 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) I'm sorry? She 14 didn't hear your answer, if you would just 15 repeat it. 16 A. Give or take four hours. 17 Q. Okay. Have you had -- have any 18 Board of Pardons and Paroles officials had any 19 disciplinary action taken against them for 20 patterns of errors in the streamline 21 application process? 22 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 23 the scope.
Page 215 1 A. Go ahead. 2 Q. Is there any mandatory training 3 that is provided on a statewide basis for 4 streamline applications? 5 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 6 the scope. 7 A. Mandatory training was conducted 8 throughout the state in 2018. Additionally, 9 the pardon unit is always receptive and 10 responsive to any request for additional 11 training that any district needs at any time 12 that we'll be willing to travel there. 13 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Was 2018 the first 14 time that you had mandatory training for 15 officials that work on streamline applications? 16 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 17 the scope. 18 A. No. That was the first time that 19 I conducted training throughout the state. 20 With the passage of each new law each time, the 21 district managers were obligated or required to 22 provide that information to the officers in 23 their district.	Page 217 1 A. Yes. 2 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And who are those 3 individuals? 4 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 5 the scope. 6 A. Japonica Dennis. 7 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Anyone else? 8 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 9 the scope. 10 A. To the best of my recollection at 11 this time, that's it. 12 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And what 13 disciplinary action was taken? 14 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 15 the scope. 16 A. I believe a reprimand. 17 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And what was the 18 behavior that led to the reprimand? 19 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 20 the scope of topics provided for this 21 deposition. 22 A. Delay in reviewing incoming 23 information.

Page 218 1 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Are there other 2 repeated errors that you have identified in the 3 streamline process that you have tried to 4 resolve -- 5 MS. MESSICK: Hold on. Give me a 6 second. 7 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) -- in your 8 position as director? 9 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 10 the scope. 11 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) You can answer. 12 A. Repeat your question. 13 Q. Are there areas of repeated errors 14 in the streamline process that you have tried 15 to resolve or improve in your position as 16 director? 17 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 18 the scope. 19 A. Not per se areas, but improvement 20 on the understanding of the changing of the 21 law. 22 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. What kind? 23 Can you explain to me how you have tried to	Page 220 1 MS. MESSICK: Did you say 18? 2 MS. LANG: 15. Am I wrong? 3 MS. MESSICK: I didn't have a 14 4 in front of it, but it looks like she has got 5 it. So 15 would be correct, it appears. 6 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Can you explain to 7 me what this form is? 8 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 9 the scope. 10 A. This form is the voter 11 disqualification form that was originated to be 12 in compliance with 2017-378. 13 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And so how does 14 your office use this form? 15 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 16 the scope. 17 A. This is used throughout the field 18 offices throughout the state at the time of 19 instruction with offenders that are under their 20 supervision to inform them that they've lost 21 their right to vote and to identify why they 22 have, what type of conviction. 23 It also is used to educate them
Page 219 1 improve the understanding of the law and what 2 types of potential misunderstandings you were 3 trying to correct? 4 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 5 the scope. 6 A. Primarily to rely on materials 7 that they have -- that the staff has read 8 individually themselves to comprehend and get 9 an understanding of the law for themselves, 10 rather than to rely on what they have heard or 11 what the past has been. 12 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Were there 13 incidences where staff were not changing their 14 practice in light of the new laws? 15 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 16 the scope. 17 A. There may have been. 18 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) All right. I 19 think you have referred to this document before 20 in your testimony, and I am going to mark it as 21 Exhibit 15. 22 (Plaintiffs' Exhibit 15 was marked 23 for identification.)	Page 221 1 into understanding what will be required of 2 them once they complete their sentence, how 3 they may pursue the restoration of those 4 rights. 5 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. And is this 6 given to the offender at the time that it is 7 communicated? 8 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 9 the scope. 10 A. It is my understanding that this 11 is provided to the offender to sign, along with 12 other instructional forms, at the time of 13 instruction under their supervision -- 14 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. 15 A. -- when they first come under 16 supervision. 17 Q. That was going to be my next 18 question. So this is given to offenders at the 19 time that they come into supervision rather 20 than leave supervision; is that correct? 21 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 22 the scope. 23 A. That is my understanding.

Page 222 1 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. If an 2 individual is released directly from Department 3 of Corrections and has no term of supervision, 4 do you know if the Department of Corrections 5 provides this form to those offenders? 6 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 7 the scope. 8 A. I'm not certain. I don't think 9 so. 10 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And let me just 11 ask the question another way that may show my 12 ignorance. It is correct that there are people 13 who serve their maximum term of sentence and 14 are released from incarceration without ever 15 going through supervision and to the Board of 16 Pardons and Paroles; is that correct? 17 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 18 the scope. 19 A. There are instances that does 20 happen. 21 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. You 22 mentioned other materials. Are there other 23 materials relating to loss of voting rights or	Page 224 1 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 2 the scope. 3 A. Yes. This form is forwarded to 4 the Board of Registrars. 5 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. So this 6 same form is forwarded to the Boards of 7 Registrars; is that correct? 8 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 9 the scope. 10 A. That is my understanding. 11 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Do you know if 12 people are informed upon their conviction and 13 sentencing of whether or not their conviction 14 is disqualifying? 15 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 16 the scope. 17 A. Excuse me. I'm sorry. 18 MS. MESSICK: Also objection to 19 the form. 20 A. Repeat the question. 21 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Do you know -- and 22 I will fairly admit this is a question of your 23 personal knowledge. And if you don't know --
Page 223 1 voting rights restoration that are given to 2 offenders at the same time as this form? 3 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 4 the scope. 5 A. Not to my recollection at this 6 time. 7 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Do you know 8 if offenders receive information about their 9 outstanding legal financial obligations at the 10 same time they receive this form for 11 outstanding fines, fees and restitution? 12 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 13 the scope and objection to the form. 14 A. The conditions of parole and 15 probation are discussed. So that may also be 16 discussed as well as a part of the conditions 17 of parole or probation. 18 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. In addition 19 to sharing this information and -- with the 20 offender, do you share information about 21 individuals who are identified as having 22 disqualifying convictions with the Boards of 23 Registrars?	Page 225 1 A. Okay. 2 Q. -- I understand -- if people 3 receive information about whether or not their 4 felony is disqualifying at the time that they 5 are convicted or sentenced -- 6 A. Oh. 7 Q. -- rather than the time that they 8 go into supervision? 9 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope 10 and also object to the form. It might help if 11 you -- I don't know if she can answer it or 12 not, but some timeline might be helpful. Your 13 question could apply to like the 1920s, so -- 14 MS. LANG: Right. 15 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) As we speak today, 16 do you know if offenders are notified at the 17 time of their conviction or sentencing of 18 whether or not their felony is disqualifying 19 and thus they are losing their right to vote? 20 A. I do not. 21 MS. MESSICK: Objection to the 22 scope. 23 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Your office

Page 226 1 produced in this case a database that tracks 2 streamline applications and pardon 3 applications. Are you familiar with that 4 database? 5 MS. MESSICK: You may answer. 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. My 8 understanding is that that database is 9 constantly being updated. So if someone 10 applies once and then applies another time, the 11 information from the prior application will be 12 rewritten to show the most recent information 13 for that applicant; is that correct? 14 MS. MESSICK: Objection to the 15 form. 16 A. Yes, it is updated. 17 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Who is in 18 charge of the upkeep of that database and the 19 constant updating of that database? 20 MS. MESSICK: Please answer. 21 A. That is -- it is multiple people 22 at the Central Office. Once they are 23 completing an investigation, as they are	Page 228 1 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 2 A. There are uniform codes as far as 3 what the end result was for each of the 4 investigations. However, there is also a free 5 text field that may or may not contain 6 additional information regarding the outcome. 7 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And does your 8 office have like a key that shows those uniform 9 codes and what they mean? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. Okay. Has your office ever had 12 any trouble with the data kept in the CERV and 13 pardon database and its accuracy? 14 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 15 the scope. You can answer if you know. 16 A. Yes, there's -- yes. 17 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) What kind of 18 difficulties have you had? 19 MS. MESSICK: Same objection. 20 A. Duplication of records without 21 reason, which could create a number of 22 duplicated records. That is the best of my 23 recollection at this time.
Page 227 1 completing investigations, the entire time it 2 is going through that process, it is being 3 updated. So there's multiple people that are 4 inputting data into that database. 5 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Are the field 6 officers putting information into that database 7 or only Central Office staff members? 8 A. Only Central Office staff members. 9 Q. Okay. Is there a uniform set of 10 reasons for denial that staff is supposed to 11 put into that database? 12 A. Yes, there are results, unified 13 results. 14 Q. And are those unified results 15 written down anywhere? 16 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 17 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) I am just trying 18 to understand. So I have looked at the 19 database, and some of it had lots of different 20 explanations in it. I am wondering if there is 21 a code or a key or some policy that sets forth 22 the different status -- statuses that might be 23 put into that database.	Page 229 1 (Plaintiffs' Exhibit 16 was marked 2 for identification.) 3 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) I am going to mark 4 Exhibit 16. 5 MS. LANG: There you go. 6 MS. MESSICK: Thank you. 7 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) This is a 8 checklist for a streamline application; is that 9 correct? 10 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 11 A. As of today, it is. 12 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. And is 13 every streamline application that is processed 14 by the Board of Pardons and Paroles -- does 15 every streamline application that is processed 16 by the Board of Pardons and Paroles have a 17 checklist associated with it? 18 MS. MESSICK: I'm sorry. Yes, you 19 can answer. 20 A. It should. 21 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. And how 22 long are those checklists kept and stored? 23 MS. MESSICK: You can answer.

Page 230 1 A. These checklists become a part of 2 the records, the applicant's file that is 3 created at the time that they apply. 4 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. And does 5 that mean that they are kept indefinitely, or 6 for what period of time are they kept? 7 A. I believe our -- 8 MS. MESSICK: Let me object to the 9 scope on that. Then you can answer to the best 10 of your ability. 11 A. I'm not certain about that, 12 indefinitely. 13 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. But you are 14 not aware of a time period at which those files 15 are destroyed or removed or -- 16 MS. MESSICK: Objection to the 17 scope. 18 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) -- deleted? 19 MS. MESSICK: Objection to the 20 scope and objection to the form. 21 A. I cannot say for certain, but I 22 believe -- I believe they may be retained. If 23 there is a time period, it is thirty years.	Page 232 1 MS. MESSICK: Yeah. You can 2 answer if you know the answer. I wondered if 3 you needed a form. 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Is a waiver 6 of liability and authority for release required 7 for a streamline application as well? 8 MS. MESSICK: You can answer. 9 A. No. 10 MS. LANG: I need more exhibit 11 stickers. 12 THE REPORTER: Oh, sorry. 13 MS. LANG: That is okay. 14 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) I am going to mark 15 Exhibit 17. 16 (Plaintiffs' Exhibit 17 was marked 17 for identification.) 18 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And in this email 19 you are receiving a question from a Mr. William 20 Riggins. Who is Mr. Riggins? 21 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 22 the scope. And also object to the form. And I 23 would like the witness to have a chance to look
Page 231 1 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Are any 2 communications to or from the applicant also 3 put in the file for that applicant? 4 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 5 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) You testified -- 6 MS. MESSICK: I'm sorry. Strike 7 that. I was trying to object to the scope, and 8 now I am trying to remember if it is in there. 9 MS. LANG: There's a whole topic 10 about documentation. 11 MS. MESSICK: Okay. No objection. 12 But could the court reporter read the question 13 back? 14 (Record read.) 15 MS. MESSICK: Okay. That is 16 actually different from the topic, so outside 17 the scope -- objection, outside the scope. But 18 you can answer the question. 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. For pardon 21 applications, an applicant has to sign a waiver 22 of liability and an authority for release of 23 information; is that correct? You can answer.	Page 233 1 at the entire document. 2 MS. LANG: You object to the form 3 of who is Mr. Riggins? 4 MS. MESSICK: I object to the 5 characterization that this is an email from 6 Mr. Riggins. This is two emails, the second 7 one of which goes on for another two and a half 8 pages. 9 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. I am 10 referring to the email from Mr. Riggins at the 11 top of this document. Who is Mr. Riggins? 12 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 13 the scope. 14 A. Mr. Riggins is a probation and 15 parole officer senior. 16 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And you are 17 welcome to look at the whole document, although 18 I am not -- I'm only asking about the email at 19 the top of the first page. And he is asking 20 you whether or not attempted murder with a 21 charge code of 13A-004-002 is a disqualifying 22 conviction -- is a disqualifying conviction. 23 Is that correct?

Page 234 1 A. Rephrase the question, please. 2 Q. In this email, Mr. Riggins notes 3 that attempted murder with the charge code 4 AMER 13A-004-002 is not on the list that we 5 referred to earlier that is marked as 6 Exhibit -- 7 MS. MESSICK: 8? It is 7. 8 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Exhibit 7. And he 9 asks you to check into this for him; is that 10 correct? 11 MS. MESSICK: And your question 12 is, is that what the email says? You are not 13 asking her to check as we are sitting here? 14 MS. LANG: Yeah. 15 A. No. 16 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) That is not what 17 the email says? 18 A. No. 19 Q. Okay. Can you explain to me what 20 you understand that Mr. Riggins is asking of 21 you in this email? 22 A. It is my understanding that he is 23 referencing Exhibit 15 instead.	Page 236 1 MS. LANG: Thank you. 2 (Pause.) 3 A. To the best of my recollection at 4 this time, the form has not been revised to 5 include attempted murder. 6 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Thank you. 7 (Plaintiffs' Exhibit 18 was marked 8 for identification.) 9 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) I am going to mark 10 Exhibit 18, give that to you and give you a 11 moment to review it. 12 MS. MESSICK: Thank you. She is 13 ready. 14 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Who is 15 TaShondrea Moton? 16 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 17 the scope. 18 A. At this particular time when the 19 email was sent, TaShondrea Moton was an officer 20 within the pardon unit. 21 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. And in this 22 email, she appears to be -- she says, "Although 23 you gave such beautiful and concise explanation
Page 235 1 Q. Okay. And did you check into that 2 for him? 3 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 4 the scope. 5 A. To the best of my recollection at 6 this time, I did. 7 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And what was your 8 conclusion? 9 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 10 the scope. 11 A. I think that it may have been 12 referred to our field services division and up 13 the chain. 14 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Do you know what 15 the ultimate determination was about what to do 16 about attempted murder as a disqualifying or 17 nondisqualifying conviction? 18 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 19 the scope. 20 A. May I please refer to 2017-378? 21 MS. MESSICK: So she brought this 22 document with her in case she needed to refer 23 to it. And I am giving you a copy of it.	Page 237 1 in the remarks (LOL), Sarah said it needs to 2 show zero before we process his voting rights. 3 You complete it. I do not make the rules, 4 girl. LOL -- LOL." 5 What kind of difficulty was she 6 referring to in this email? 7 MS. MESSICK: Objection to the 8 scope and to the form. 9 A. I cannot answer specifically for 10 this particular email. 11 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Uh-huh. 12 A. But there are instances when 13 officers contact the circuit clerk's office 14 when there is a discrepancy and they explain 15 that it may have a balance, that -- and they 16 give an explanation as to why that balance is 17 or is not valid. And those are put into the 18 remarks, once the streamline is sent up to the 19 Central Office. 20 Q. So there's a discrepancy 21 between -- between what? Discrepancy between 22 which things? 23 A. In the review that the Central

Page 238 1 Office staff does, they look to see if all the 2 legal requirements have been met as far as the 3 fines being paid. If there is an outstanding 4 balance, they have not communicated with that 5 entity, it is the responsibility of the person 6 that is completing that streamline to provide 7 an explanation as to if there is a balance, if 8 it is not valid or if there is some discrepancy 9 to explain. 10 So when they receive it, they 11 already have that documentation. 12 Q. Okay. I think I understand, but 13 I'm going to put it in my own words. And can 14 you tell me if I am getting it wrong? It may 15 be that even though the circuit clerk or some 16 database is showing that there's an outstanding 17 balance, there's some reason why, in fact, the 18 person is eligible and that balance in the 19 database is incorrect. 20 And so a field officer should 21 explain that in the remarks so that when the 22 Central Office person checks the application 23 and sees in the database that there's some	Page 240 1 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 2 6:25 p.m. Central Time. We are now back on the 3 record. 4 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) When your office 5 sends closure letters explaining ineligibility 6 for a streamline application because of 7 outstanding fines and fees, do those letters 8 typically include the amount of outstanding 9 fines, fees or restitution? 10 MS. MESSICK: Objection to the 11 form. 12 A. Typically, they do have the 13 balance. 14 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And is it the 15 policy of the board to include the amount of 16 only the disqualifying fines, fees or 17 restitution or the total amount due for that 18 conviction? 19 MS. MESSICK: Objection to the 20 form. 21 A. I think that it can be sent with 22 the total balance or with just the 23 disqualifying.
Page 239 1 outstanding balance, they will have an 2 explanation as to why. Is that what you were 3 trying to describe? 4 A. That is somewhat accurate. 5 Q. How is it inaccurate? 6 A. The investigating officer is the 7 one who is having a conversation with the other 8 entity. 9 Q. Uh-huh. 10 A. So if there is any reason for 11 further explanation as to why it may not 12 proceed smoothly through the Central Office, it 13 can be documented whether it is -- regardless 14 of whether it is valid or invalid. 15 Q. Okay. Thank you. 16 MS. MESSICK: Can we take a break 17 soon? 18 MS. LANG: Right now is fine. 19 MS. MESSICK: Okay. Thank you. 20 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Stand by. The 21 time is 6:06 p.m. We are off the record. 22 (Whereupon, a break was had from 23 6:06 p.m. until 6:25 p.m.)	Page 241 1 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Are you aware of 2 times when it is sent with the total balance 3 rather than the disqualifying balance? 4 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 5 A. I am. 6 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And when just the 7 total balance is sent, is there any explanation 8 that that whole balance might not be required 9 to be paid in order to be eligible for a 10 certificate? 11 A. That would only apply to after the 12 passage of the new laws. 13 Q. After the passage of the new laws 14 related to fines, fees and restitution 15 requirements, do the board's rejection letters 16 only include outstanding disqualifying debt? 17 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 18 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Or do they 19 sometimes include the total balance? 20 A. Sometimes. 21 Q. And if they include the total 22 balance, is there any explanation that that may 23 not be the amount due in order to be eligible

Page 242 1 for a certificate? 2 A. I don't believe so. 3 Q. And so the result could be a 4 rejection letter that indicates a higher 5 outstanding balance than what is required in 6 order to be eligible to vote; is that correct? 7 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 8 A. The letter is reflective of what 9 balance is shown. 10 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. How can a 11 person who receives a letter with the total 12 balance determine what part of that balance 13 must be paid in order to be eligible for a 14 certificate? 15 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 16 A. A person who receives any 17 correspondence from us are always welcome to 18 contact us back for clarification. In 19 addition, most of those letters provide the 20 case number, the county of the conviction. And 21 they may contact that clerk's office with that 22 information. It is provided so that they will 23 have the exact case number, the county and that	Page 244 1 error had to be corrected? 2 MS. MESSICK: Could you repeat the 3 question, please, Madam Court Reporter? 4 (Record read.) 5 MS. MESSICK: You can answer. 6 A. There have been times where a 7 determination was made based on the screen. 8 But after further investigation, it may have 9 ended up that the determination was made based 10 on what was visible at that time. 11 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) What do you mean 12 by "visible at that time"? Is there -- can you 13 explain further why there might be a 14 discrepancy between what is visible and what is 15 correct? 16 A. Could you repeat the question 17 before? 18 Q. Sure. I am trying to understand. 19 I will just -- I will rephrase. You said that 20 there's been errors where there was a denial on 21 the basis of nondisqualifying debt because 22 someone went on the basis of what was on the 23 screen. And I am trying to understand what
Page 243 1 information. 2 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) But those letters 3 don't explain the difference between 4 disqualifying and nondisqualifying fines, fees 5 or restitution -- 6 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 7 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) -- do they? 8 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 9 A. The letters are reflective of the 10 balances. 11 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) But do they 12 include an explanation of what types of 13 balances are disqualifying and what types of 14 balances are not disqualifying? 15 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 16 A. I don't believe they do. 17 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. We have 18 talked about a lot of complicated 19 investigations that your staff have to do to 20 determine the eligibility of certain applicants 21 for streamline applications. Are you aware of 22 times when an applicant was denied on the basis 23 of nondisqualifying outstanding debt and that	Page 245 1 that means and why it might be that going by 2 what is on the screen would lead to an error. 3 A. If subsequently an applicant was 4 denied and there was a charge that was visible 5 that was not old, the applicant went to the 6 circuit clerk's office to clear that matter up 7 and then they would let us know that that 8 matter has been rectified, then we would reopen 9 that investigation. 10 Q. I am sorry. I don't understand. 11 I asked are there times when your office makes 12 a mistake and sends a denial of a letter saying 13 that outstanding fines and fees are not paid 14 but, in fact, the outstanding debt was not 15 disqualifying. And I believe that you 16 testified that yes, sometimes that happens. Is 17 that correct? 18 A. Yes, sometimes that does. 19 Q. And then I am trying to understand 20 under what circumstances those errors occur. 21 A. There can be instances in which -- 22 my last answer was based on the only 23 recollection that I could come up with at that

Page 246 1 time. I can't think of any other situation at 2 this time. But my answer would be yes, there 3 have been times. 4 Q. Okay. There are -- the task -- in 5 my opinion, the tasks before your investigative 6 officers can be quite challenging. Would you 7 agree? 8 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form 9 and object to the scope. 10 A. It may be at times. 11 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And the 12 complications of out-of-state convictions, 13 federal convictions, disqualifying debt, 14 nondisqualifying debt, charges versus final 15 convictions, etcetera, creates plenty of 16 opportunities for errors; is that also correct? 17 MS. MESSICK: Object to scope. 18 A. It creates opportunity, yes. 19 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And as a result, 20 the office has made a fair number of errors in 21 its conclusions about who is eligible for 22 streamline applications; isn't that also 23 correct?	Page 248 1 savvy as to all the legal requirements for a 2 streamline application? 3 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form 4 and the scope. 5 A. Some are and some are not. 6 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) So in your 7 opinion, does this process create opportunities 8 for people to be erroneously denied and not 9 identify those errors for themselves? 10 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form 11 and to the scope. 12 A. I think that any process in any 13 agency would create an opportunity for errors 14 to be made where there is a human component of 15 there being a reasonable amount of discretion 16 that has to be made. 17 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Earlier today when 18 I was talking to Mr. Cook about the pardon 19 process, I understood him to be saying that 20 there is a vetting process for eligibility for 21 pardon applicants that occurs prior to the 22 pardon hearings that the board attends; is that 23 correct?
Page 247 1 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form 2 and to the scope. 3 A. I think that our agency does a 4 good job. 5 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) I am not -- my 6 question was not to challenge that proposition, 7 for what it is worth. I -- so my question is, 8 despite the fact that your office may do a very 9 good job with a hard task, there have been a 10 fair number of errors in determining the 11 eligibility of people for streamline 12 applications; is that correct? 13 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope 14 and form. 15 A. I was not -- I didn't complete my 16 sentence. 17 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) I apologize. 18 A. And what I was about to say, that 19 is correct. Errors have been made. We are not 20 perfect. 21 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And are all of the 22 people who are applying for streamline 23 applications -- for streamlines to your office	Page 249 1 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form 2 and object to the scope insofar as we put up a 3 different witness on eligibility. 4 MS. LANG: But you told me that as 5 to process questions, as to the process, you 6 specifically told me to ask Director Jones. 7 MS. MESSICK: Okay. I still 8 object to the form. 9 MS. LANG: Okay. 10 A. What was the question? 11 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) When a pardon 12 application is received, who -- let me start it 13 from the beginning. 14 When a pardon application is 15 received, what happens? 16 MS. MESSICK: You can answer. 17 A. When a pardon application is 18 received, the date and the time that it is 19 received is recorded. It is also -- if it is 20 taken in person at the Probation and Parole 21 Office, in the field office, they complete it, 22 send it to us, to the Central Office. 23 The Central Office then assigns a

Page 250 1 due date of four months for the pardon 2 investigation to be completed in the field. 3 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And what does that 4 investigation process look like? 5 MS. MESSICK: You can go ahead and 6 answer. 7 A. That entails the officer receiving 8 the due date and sending correspondence 9 directly to the applicant at the mailing 10 address that is indicated on the application, 11 providing them with a fifteen-day period to 12 contact them to schedule an interoffice 13 interview with them. 14 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) What other steps 15 are taken in the investigation process? 16 A. A thorough background check is 17 conducted. They run NCIC. They use all 18 available resources as to prior criminal 19 history. They also ask the applicant to 20 provide verification of the identifying 21 information with a birth certificate, vital 22 statistic records, such as that, Social 23 Security card, driver's license.	Page 252 1 is that correct? 2 A. Yes, that is correct. 3 Q. Some applications are closed if 4 the applicant is determined to be ineligible 5 for a pardon. Is that why? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. Okay. 8 (Plaintiffs' Exhibit 19 was marked 9 for identification.) 10 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) I am going to mark 11 Exhibit 19. 12 MS. MESSICK: Okay. Again, this 13 appears to -- 14 MS. LANG: We should redact the 15 confidential information, yes. You want to do 16 it on there, that version? 17 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Is this a letter 18 closing a pardon application based on 19 ineligibility for a pardon? 20 A. It appears to be. 21 Q. And the basis for that closing is 22 an active failure to pay warrant; is that 23 correct?
Page 251 1 In addition to that, they gather 2 information regarding their personal and social 3 history. And they also do a DNA swab of the 4 cheek and enter that information, if need be. 5 Q. Is there outreach to the victims 6 if there are victims of the crime? 7 MS. MESSICK: You can answer. 8 A. Those are basically done at the 9 time that the hearing is going to be scheduled. 10 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. 11 A. We are required to send them 12 notification out. 13 Q. Okay. What is the current 14 timeline from application to hearing for a 15 pardon application? 16 A. To the best of my knowledge right 17 now, at the present time, I think we are 18 processing within the year of 2016. 19 Q. Okay. So approximately three 20 years? 21 A. Somewhat. 22 Q. Not all pardon applications make 23 it to a Board of Pardons and Paroles hearing;	Page 253 1 A. That is what is stated on here, 2 yes. 3 Q. And it appears to be an active 4 failure to pay warrant for a traffic offense; 5 is that correct? 6 A. That is correct. 7 Q. Is it board policy that failure to 8 pay warrants, including for traffic offenses, 9 make an individual ineligible for a pardon? 10 MS. MESSICK: Could you read back 11 the first part of that question, please? 12 (Record read.) 13 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 14 A. If an active warrant -- it appears 15 that it was closed for an active warrant. 16 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. If your 17 pardon application is closed because of 18 ineligibility, is there a waiting period for 19 reapplying for a pardon? 20 A. If it is due to an error, then it 21 is not. 22 Q. If it is not due to an error, is 23 there a waiting period for reapplying for a

Page 254 1 pardon? 2 A. A person, an applicant, would have 3 to wait a year for a closure. 4 Q. Okay. 5 (Plaintiffs' Exhibit 20 was marked 6 for identification.) 7 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) I am going to mark 8 Plaintiffs' Exhibit 20. And this is a letter 9 from a Board of Pardons and Paroles to a pardon 10 applicant advising that applicant of an 11 outstanding balance for a domestic violence 12 case in this particular example. 13 And the letter states: "Please 14 rectify this balance before your scheduled 15 hearing, as it will be a significant factor in 16 the determination of your request." 17 Is that correct? Do you see that? 18 A. I do see that. 19 Q. Okay. Is it board policy to send 20 notifications to pardon applicants when 21 outstanding balances are identified prior to 22 their board hearings? 23 MS. MESSICK: You can answer.	Page 256 1 A. I'm not sure I understand your 2 question. 3 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) The board informs 4 pardon applicants that outstanding balances 5 will be a significant factor in their 6 determination -- in the determination of their 7 pardon request? 8 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 9 Asked and answered. 10 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) You can answer. 11 A. That is what that particular 12 form -- that particular form says. 13 Q. Is there a form letter that has 14 been approved by Central Office that refers to 15 outstanding balances prior to board hearings? 16 A. Repeat the question, please. 17 Q. Is there a form letter approved 18 Central Office -- by the Central Office for the 19 purpose of informing pardon applicants of 20 outstanding balances? 21 A. I believe so. 22 Q. When an application for a 23 remittance is received, who reviews those
Page 255 1 A. Yes, that is a common practice, to 2 inform the applicant of any outstanding fees 3 that we find. 4 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And is this 5 language about it being a significant factor in 6 the determination of your request form language 7 that is regularly used by the board in these 8 letters? 9 A. I can't -- I don't know. 10 Q. Is it your understanding that 11 outstanding balances often are a significant 12 factor in the determination of pardon requests? 13 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 14 That was a question for Mr. Cook, so it is 15 outside the scope of the topics that we are 16 putting this witness up on. You can answer if 17 you have knowledge of that. 18 A. That would be up to the discretion 19 of the board. 20 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. But that is 21 what the board informs pardon applicants; isn't 22 that right? 23 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form.	Page 257 1 applications in the first instance? 2 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 3 the scope. 4 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. You can 5 answer. 6 A. The application itself? 7 Q. Yes. 8 A. It depends on how they -- if they 9 go in person, it is going to be the person 10 taking the application in the field office. 11 Q. Who is in charge of doing the 12 investigation for any remittance application? 13 MS. MESSICK: Object. Outside the 14 scope. 15 A. The officer -- the field officers 16 and staff as well. 17 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And similar to 18 ordinary pardon applications, if the field 19 officer determines that a person is not 20 eligible for a remittance, will that 21 application be closed? 22 MS. MESSICK: Objection to the 23 scope and the form.

Page 258 1 A. That application is typically 2 forwarded to the Central Office. 3 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. And if the 4 Central Office agrees that that person is 5 ineligible, then would their application be 6 closed? 7 MS. MESSICK: Objection to the 8 scope. 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) What is your 11 understanding of the scope of the board's 12 authority to remit fines, fees or restitution? 13 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 14 And since you said scope of the board's 15 authority, I am objecting to the scope insofar 16 as this goes beyond the listed topics. 17 A. The board has the authority to 18 remit fines and forfeitures. 19 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Does it have the 20 authority to remit supervision fees? 21 MS. MESSICK: Objection. Outside 22 the scope. Also object to the form. 23 A. May I refer to 15-22-36.1?	Page 260 1 authority to remit court-ordered costs? 2 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope 3 and object to the form. 4 A. The board has the authority to 5 remit fines, court-ordered fines. And the 6 board has the authority to remit forfeitures. 7 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Right. So I will 8 take that as a no. Is that right? 9 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope 10 and to the form. 11 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) There are fines, 12 which are statutory fines. There are 13 forfeitures. There are also court-ordered 14 costs. Is that within the scope of the board's 15 authority to remit? 16 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 17 Object to the form. 18 A. Can you rephrase the question? 19 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Sure. 20 MS. MESSICK: And when you do so, 21 I think that there's also a difference between 22 costs that have been imposed by Alabama, by the 23 State of Alabama, and costs that might have
Page 259 1 MS. MESSICK: I am giving the 2 witness a copy of Alabama Code Section 3 15-22-36.1 which she brought with her today in 4 case she needed to refer to it. And I have 5 provided you with a copy as well. 6 MS. LANG: I think I might have 7 the statute. 8 (Off-the-record discussion.) 9 MS. MESSICK: And I am now 10 providing copies of Alabama Code Section 11 15-22-36. 12 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) I can reask the 13 question, which is whether or not the board has 14 the authority to remit court-ordered -- or to 15 remit supervision fees. 16 MS. MESSICK: And my objections 17 stand. 18 A. Supervision fees may be exempted 19 by staff members of the board. 20 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. 21 A. By a variety of members, staff 22 members at the board, at the agency. 23 Q. And does the board have the	Page 261 1 been imposed by somebody else. And I think 2 that -- 3 MS. LANG: Now you have lost me. 4 MS. MESSICK: I don't think the 5 State of Alabama can remit a fine that has been 6 imposed by a Nebraska court. 7 MS. LANG: No. I'm not asking -- 8 I'm asking about -- 9 MS. MESSICK: So I want to be very 10 clear about that too. 11 MS. LANG: Fair enough. I think 12 that that's -- 13 MS. MESSICK: I think you may have 14 assumed it, and she may as well. 15 MS. LANG: I have assumed it. I 16 am talking about only in-state, 17 in-state-ordered costs. And I would refer, I 18 guess, to -- I believe it's -- it's one of the 19 first -- it is one of the exhibits from 20 Mr. Cook's deposition. It is an email from 21 Director Jones. 22 MS. MESSICK: Exhibit 3? Oh, 23 no --

Page 262 1 MS. LANG: Yes. 2 MR. SINCLAIR: This one? 3 MS. LANG: Yes. It is Exhibit 3. 4 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) It is an email 5 from you. There is in this chain an email from 6 you to Executive Director Cook saying that you 7 have heard that the board has remitted 8 supervision fees and/or court-ordered costs. 9 And so I ask -- I hope maybe this refreshes 10 your recollection. 11 Is it your understanding that the 12 board has the authority to remit court-ordered 13 costs? 14 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 15 A. May I clarify what is being 16 explained? 17 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Please do, yes. 18 A. Notification about the action 19 being considered was the concern -- 20 Q. Okay. 21 A. -- rather than -- 22 Q. So is it your position that you 23 don't know if court-ordered costs are something	Page 264 1 the Board of Pardons and Paroles represented on 2 that committee? 3 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 4 A. I believe Gabrelle Simmons and 5 Clifford Walker were. 6 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Did you 7 participate in any of the activities preparing 8 for that committee? 9 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 10 THE REPORTER: Any of the what? 11 MS. LANG: Activities preparing 12 for that committee. 13 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 14 A. No. 15 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. As part of 16 the board's committee involvement, did the 17 board recommend automatic restoration of voting 18 rights excluding the requirement of payment of 19 court monies? 20 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 21 A. I don't know. 22 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Would it save 23 money for the board if there was an automatic
Page 263 1 that the board can remit or not? 2 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope 3 and object to the form. 4 A. It is my understanding that the 5 board has the authority to remit a fine and 6 remit forfeiture only. 7 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Therefore, 8 to the extent that court-ordered costs are not 9 fines or forfeitures, the board did not have 10 the authority to remit them; is that correct? 11 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 12 A. That is my understanding. 13 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Does the 14 board have the authority to remit restitution? 15 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 16 A. No. 17 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Ms. Jones, 18 are you familiar with the exploratory committee 19 related to restoration of rights formed by the 20 Secretary of State in 2015? 21 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 22 A. Somewhat. 23 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Was anyone from	Page 265 1 restoration process instead of the streamlined 2 application process that is currently in place? 3 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 4 A. I'm not certain. 5 MS. LANG: Can I have a couple of 6 minutes? And then hopefully we will be able to 7 wrap up. 8 MS. MESSICK: Thank you. Sure. 9 MS. LANG: Okay. 10 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Okay. Stand 11 by. The time is 7:06 p.m. Central Time. We 12 are off the record. 13 (Whereupon, a break was had from 14 7:06 p.m. until 7:33 p.m.) 15 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 16 7:33 p.m. Central Time. We are now back on the 17 record. 18 MS. LANG: Thank you, Director 19 Jones. I am almost finished. I have one 20 question. 21 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) When a CERV is 22 granted, a certificate is granted and sent out 23 to the applicant, is the local Board of

Page 266 1 Registrars also made aware of the grant of the 2 certificate of eligibility to register to vote? 3 MS. MESSICK: It is arguable, but 4 go ahead and answer. 5 A. When the certificate is mailed, it 6 is mailed to the applicant. 7 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Is there 8 any system in place by which the Board of 9 Pardons and Paroles and the Boards of 10 Registrars share information about applicants 11 who have received certificates of eligibility 12 to register to vote? 13 MS. MESSICK: I am going to object 14 to the scope. 15 A. Could you repeat? 16 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Is there any 17 systems by which the Board of Pardons and 18 Paroles and the Boards of Registrars can share 19 information about individuals who have received 20 certificates of eligibility to register to 21 vote? 22 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope 23 and object to the form.	Page 268 1 they provide information about whether or not 2 an individual has received a CERV or not? 3 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 4 A. Sometimes. 5 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Other times when 6 the board would not provide that information? 7 MS. MESSICK: Object as beyond the 8 scope. 9 A. None that I can think of at this 10 present time. 11 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Does the 12 Board of Registrars have any access to 13 information about who has received a pardon 14 from the Board of Pardons and Paroles? 15 MS. MESSICK: Object as beyond the 16 scope. 17 A. I'm not certain what access they 18 may have. 19 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. You are not 20 aware of any mechanism by which the board 21 provides information to registrars about who 22 has received a pardon? 23 MS. MESSICK: Object as beyond the
Page 267 1 A. The system, the Board of 2 Registrars gets notified when the applicant 3 goes there with a certificate. 4 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Outside of 5 the applicant presenting the Board of 6 Registrars with the certificate, would there be 7 any way for a Board of Registrars to know that 8 a certificate had been issued to an applicant? 9 A. If they inquired. 10 Q. Okay. But there is no direct 11 communication between the Board of Pardons and 12 Paroles and the Board of Registrars as to who 13 has been issued a CERV? 14 A. No. 15 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 16 A. No. 17 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Do county 18 registrars on occasion contact the board about 19 whether an applicant has received a CERV? 20 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope. 21 A. Sometimes. 22 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And if your office 23 was contacted by the Boards of Registrars, do	Page 269 1 scope. 2 A. That is correct. 3 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Do you 4 sometimes receive requests from applicants for 5 copies of their certificates that have been 6 previously issued to them? 7 MS. MESSICK: You can answer. 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) And does your 10 office charge to produce additional copies of 11 the certificates to those individuals? 12 MS. MESSICK: I'm sorry. Object 13 to the form, but you may answer. 14 A. Repeat the question. 15 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) If someone 16 requests an extra copy of their certificate of 17 eligibility to register to vote, does the Board 18 of Pardons and Paroles charge for that copy? 19 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) How much -- how 22 much does a copy of a CERV cost? 23 MS. MESSICK: Object to the scope.

Page 270 1 A. To the best of my recollection at 2 this time, it is a dollar per page. 3 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) A dollar per page, 4 is that correct? 5 A. Yes. 6 MS. LANG: Okay. I don't have any 7 further questions, Director Jones. Thank you 8 so much for all of your time. 9 I do want to say on the record, I 10 know I asked a number of questions about 11 inconsistencies or errors, and none of that was 12 to suggest or malign the hard work that your 13 office does, but rather just to create a record 14 of problems that occur in any human process, as 15 you explained. 16 And I want to thank you for all 17 the work that your office does to assist people 18 in navigating the process. And I don't want 19 anything that I have asked today to suggest 20 anything but appreciation for that hard work 21 that I know you and your office do to help 22 folks in navigating what is a complicated 23 process. So thank you.	Page 272 1 Sarah Still? 2 A. Yes, I did. 3 Q. And did you also speak with Greg 4 Lee? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. And did you also speak with 7 Stephanie Stewart? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. You were asked earlier about a wet 10 signature. And by that we mean a signature 11 written in pencil or in ink, ink being wet. 12 And your testimony was that you were inclined 13 to say that a wet signature is not required 14 because there are so many ways to apply without 15 a signature; is that correct? 16 A. That is accurate. 17 Q. That is what you testified to 18 earlier? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. Okay. When a person applies for a 21 certificate of eligibility to register to vote, 22 for a streamline, and does so in person, are 23 they working with a field officer to get that
Page 271 1 2 EXAMINATION BY MS. MESSICK: 3 Q. Director Jones, I'm sorry, but 4 despite the late hour, I do have questions for 5 you. Hopefully, they won't take too long. 6 MS. MESSICK: And I am going to 7 need a handful of exhibit stickers, please. 8 Q. (BY MS. MESSICK:) Director Jones, 9 I am handing you what I have marked as 10 Defendants' Exhibit 1. 11 (Defendants' Exhibit 1 was marked 12 for identification.) 13 Q. (BY MS. MESSICK:) Do you 14 recognize this document? 15 A. Yes, I do. 16 Q. Did you refer to this document and 17 specifically to Attachment A when you were 18 preparing for this deposition here today? 19 A. Yes, I did. 20 Q. You were asked earlier to name the 21 people who you spoke with in trying -- in 22 preparing for this deposition. And you listed 23 a number of people. Did you also speak with	Page 273 1 application completed? 2 MS. LANG: Objection to the form. 3 A. Yes. Typically, there is a 4 clerical staff at the receptionist window that 5 will assist them with that form. 6 Q. (BY MS. MESSICK:) Is the -- do 7 you know if it is typical that the person who 8 is applying would be asked for identification 9 of some sort? 10 A. It is a common practice with our 11 agency that when they apply in person, that 12 they also ask for a copy of their driver's 13 license. 14 Q. Okay. 15 A. May I also add one other thing? 16 In some instances, it is not -- it is not 17 uncommon for some of the offenders to not be 18 able to read or write. And we will -- our 19 staff there will also aid them in completing 20 the form for those reasons as well. 21 Q. Thank you. 22 (Defendants' Exhibit 2 was marked 23 for identification.)

Page 274 1 Q. (BY MS. MESSICK:) I'm handing you 2 what I am marking as Defendants' Exhibit 2. 3 MS. MESSICK: And for the record, 4 my information is -- well, never mind. I was 5 going to give you the Bates number, but that is 6 not the number that I have in front of me. 7 Q. (BY MS. MESSICK:) Have you seen 8 the email in Defendants' Exhibit 2 before 9 today? 10 A. No, I have not. 11 (Defendants' Exhibit 3 was marked 12 for identification.) 13 Q. (BY MS. MESSICK:) I am also going 14 to hand you Defendants' Exhibit 3. Do you 15 remember ever seeing this Defendants' Exhibit 3 16 before today? 17 A. Not to my recollection at this 18 time. 19 Q. Okay. And -- 20 MS. LANG: Misty, let's make 21 sure we -- there's very sensitive data on here, 22 so we just need to make sure that it is removed 23 and redacted.	Page 276 1 lawyer in this case, submitting an application 2 for a streamline on behalf of somebody who is 3 or was a plaintiff in this case. Do you agree 4 that that is what this appears to be? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. And do you see at the bottom of 7 Defendants' Exhibit 3 where the document, the 8 typewritten document is signed 9 "Sincerely/S/Anna Reynolds"? 10 A. Yes. 11 (Defendants' Exhibit 4 was marked 12 for identification.) 13 Q. (BY MS. MESSICK:) I am now going 14 to hand you what I am marking as Defendants' 15 Exhibit 4 and ask you to take a look at this 16 document and tell me if you definitively 17 remember seeing it before today. 18 A. No, I do not. 19 Q. Now, in this document, Defendants' 20 Exhibit 4, there are two emails in this email 21 chain, correct? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. And the first-in-time email, which
Page 275 1 MS. MESSICK: Okay. So on 2 Defendants' Exhibit 3, I am going to redact the 3 Social Security number and the date of birth 4 and the current physical address. The mailing 5 address is for her counsel, so I was going to 6 leave that. 7 MS. LANG: That is fine. 8 MS. MESSICK: I'm not sure if the 9 home telephone number is for her or for 10 counsel, so we will redact that. Is there 11 anything else that you believe -- 12 MS. LANG: No, that is it. Thank 13 you. 14 MS. MESSICK: Okay. Now, we have 15 a problem with electronic discovery where 16 sometimes you gets lots of multiple copies of 17 things. So I cannot guarantee that 2 and 3 18 came in together, although based on the number 19 in the system, they probably did. And if they 20 didn't, documents that look just like this did. 21 MS. LANG: Sure. 22 Q. (BY MS. MESSICK:) So what we have 23 here is an email from Mitch McGuire, who is a	Page 277 1 starts at the bottom of Page 1, is from Paul 2 Mitchell to Mitch McGuire. Is or was he at the 3 time -- was Paul Mitchell -- is Paul Mitchell 4 an employee of the Board of Pardons and Paroles 5 or was he at the time of this email? 6 A. Paul Mitchell is an employee. At 7 that time, he was in the pardon unit. He has 8 since -- he is no longer in the pardon unit. 9 He is still employed with the agency. 10 Q. And the email from Paul Mitchell 11 that starts at the beginning of Page 1 says, 12 starting with the second sentence, "It is the 13 opinion of our attorney that you must have the 14 applicant sign the -- actually sign the 15 applications. Electronic signatures will not 16 be accepted. 17 "We have no problem sending the 18 completed certificate to you, but you must 19 resubmit the applications with legal signatures 20 of the actual applicants. You may have 21 completed this process this way before, but it 22 was not legal, according to the opinion of our 23 attorney."

Page 278 1 Do you see that? 2 A. Yes, I do. 3 Q. Do you know as you sit here today 4 whether that continues -- whether that is the 5 opinion of the attorney? Do you have personal 6 knowledge of what the opinion is of the general 7 counsel's office with respect to whether a wet 8 signature is required? 9 A. I do not. 10 Q. Thank you. I would like you to 11 look for just a minute at Exhibit -- 12 Plaintiffs' Exhibit 8. And that was a sample 13 letter that you discussed with Ms. Lang. 14 Is this document used for pardons 15 or for streamlines or for both? 16 A. It may be used for both. 17 Q. I earlier passed out a copy of 18 Alabama Code Section 15-22-36.1. And that was 19 not marked as an exhibit at the time, and I 20 would like to now mark it as Defendants' 21 Exhibit 5. 22 (Defendants' Exhibit 5 was marked 23 for identification.)	Page 280 1 felony charge is not for a disqualifying 2 felony, that the board has, in fact, put that 3 streamline through the process, they haven't 4 held it up for a pending felony, that it would 5 not itself be disqualifying. Is that -- I want 6 to be absolutely clear that that is something 7 that the board has done, that is the way the 8 board has interpreted that statute. 9 A. The board has in the past done 10 that. That is accurate. 11 Q. Okay. We can put that exhibit 12 aside. You have talked earlier with Ms. Lang 13 about court-ordered monies, the fines, fees, 14 restitution and court costs that can be 15 assessed in a criminal conviction. 16 If -- when you answered Ms. Lang's 17 questions about what you can see on the screen 18 earlier, were you assuming that each case only 19 involved one conviction, that there were not 20 multiple convictions with a single case number? 21 MS. LANG: Objection, form. 22 A. That is correct. 23 Q. (BY MS. MESSICK:) So if I were to
Page 279 1 Q. (BY MS. MESSICK:) And I would 2 like to ask you to focus your attention on 3 Section A-4. And specifically A-4-C says, "The 4 person has successfully completed probation or 5 parole and has been released from compliance by 6 the ordering entity." Do you see that there? 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. If you testified earlier that 9 somebody had to have three good years on parole 10 for a streamline, would that have been a 11 mistake? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. That would have -- the three good 14 years of parole is for a pardon; right? 15 A. That is correct. 16 Q. Sticking with the same section of 17 the law, Section 15-22-36.1, A-2 provides that 18 somebody is eligible for a streamline if "the 19 person has no criminal felony charges pending 20 against him or her in any state or Federal 21 Court." 22 You testified earlier that if 23 somebody has a pending felony charge but that	Page 281 1 be charged with multiple -- if I were to be 2 convicted of multiple crimes, at least one of 3 which is a disqualifying felony, and the 4 conviction was all within one case number, 5 could you tell simply from computer screens 6 whether fines and fees and restitution and 7 such, whether they had been applied -- where 8 they had been imposed with respect to one of 9 the specific convictions, or would you need to 10 look into the paper records? 11 MS. LANG: Objection as to form. 12 A. Yes. We would definitely have to 13 decipher further. We would not be able to tell 14 that just from the computer screen. 15 Q. (BY MS. MESSICK:) And to decipher 16 further, you would look -- for instance, one 17 thing you might do would be to look at the 18 AlaCourt images you talked about earlier? 19 MS. LANG: Objection as to form. 20 A. That is correct. That would be 21 one, one method. 22 Q. (BY MS. MESSICK:) Are there other 23 things that you would do to -- if that wasn't

Page 282 1 definitive, are there other ways that you might 2 try to ascertain which monies apply to the 3 disqualifying felonies? 4 A. Yes. In lots of instances, we may 5 contact the circuit clerk's office themselves 6 to try to decipher how the fees were. We may 7 look at the actual sentencing order. We would 8 also look to see if there was anything that was 9 stated in the -- at the time of sentencing, 10 anything that may be contained in the 11 departmental file for that particular case. 12 Q. The departmental -- which 13 department's file? 14 A. Our departmental file. 15 Q. Okay. 16 A. For the actual conviction itself. 17 Q. You were asked earlier about those 18 pardon files. Isn't it true that at some point 19 the pardon files leave the Board of Pardons and 20 Paroles and go to archives, the Alabama 21 Department of History and Archives or Archives 22 and History? 23 A. That is correct. All of the files	Page 284 1 Q. I believe you were asked earlier 2 if Plaintiffs' Exhibit 16 is the streamline 3 application. Is this, in fact, the application 4 or is this something else? 5 MS. LANG: Objection as to form. 6 A. No. This particular form is 7 actually the streamline investigation. 8 Q. (BY MS. MESSICK:) So this is to 9 document the investigation conducted by the 10 field officer? 11 A. That is correct. 12 Q. Okay. And I don't know that we 13 have a copy of it here today. But the 14 application that you were referring to is a 15 document that often says -- often says at the 16 top "internal communication or internal 17 memorandum in re pardon request," slash or 18 comma, "request for remission of fine or 19 forfeiture," right? 20 A. That is correct. 21 MS. LANG: Objection as to the 22 form. 23 Q. (BY MS. MESSICK:) That same
Page 283 1 are not kept on-site. At some point, once they 2 are closed, we send them off to archives for a 3 period of time. 4 Q. You were asked earlier if a 5 CERV -- if a streamline would be denied if you 6 were unable to get verification that a person 7 meets all of the eligibility requirements. 8 Isn't it true that the board is 9 only going to issue a certificate if they have 10 been able to affirmatively determine that the 11 person is, in fact, eligible? 12 MS. LANG: Objection as to form. 13 A. Yes. We do our best to verify the 14 information. 15 Q. (BY MS. MESSICK:) And if you 16 don't know if the person is eligible or not, 17 you don't issue the certificate, correct? 18 A. That is correct. 19 Q. I would like to ask you to please 20 look at Plaintiffs' Exhibit Number 16. Do you 21 have that in front of you, the checklist for 22 voting rights restoration and investigation? 23 A. Yes, ma'am.	Page 285 1 document is what is used for the streamline to 2 record a request? 3 A. That is correct. 4 Q. And isn't it true that the board 5 routinely treats pardon applications to also 6 encompass a streamline application? That is, 7 somebody doesn't have to specifically say I 8 want the streamline. If somebody asks for a 9 pardon, you are going to also see if they are 10 eligible for the streamline, correct? 11 A. That is a common practice, that 12 when they apply, we make sure to see if they 13 are eligible for voting rights, regardless of 14 whether they ask for them or not. 15 Q. I think the testimony may be a 16 little inconsistent on one point. The -- a 17 pardon application -- a pardon request may be 18 closed because the applicant is ineligible, 19 correct? 20 A. That is correct. 21 Q. But a pardon application can also 22 be closed without ever going to the board 23 because the applicant failed to cooperate; is

Page 286 1 that also correct? 2 A. That is correct. 3 Q. If somebody is -- applies for a 4 pardon and the board denies the pardon, do they 5 have to wait for two years before they can 6 reapply? 7 A. Any action taken by the board, 8 even if the board grants a pardon, a partial 9 pardon that has restrictions or does not -- 10 fails to relieve them of -- or reinstate all of 11 their rights, any action by the board, they 12 have to wait two years. 13 Q. Okay. And so what you are talking 14 about there is there are a whole lot of rights 15 that can be lost, and the board might grant 16 some and deny -- 17 A. (Nodding.) 18 Q. -- restoration of others. And so 19 even though that is not a full denial and they 20 have gotten something, that is still a board 21 action that requires -- 22 A. That is correct. 23 Q. We saw earlier in Plaintiffs'	Page 288 1 eligible, I believe you testified earlier that 2 there is a one-year waiting period. 3 Was that testimony possibly in 4 error? 5 A. Yes. Because in some instances, 6 they may be ineligible. If they are 7 ineligible -- 8 Q. Well, is there any statute or 9 policy or rule that imposes a waiting period in 10 that situation? 11 MS. LANG: Objection as to form. 12 A. No. 13 Q. (BY MS. MESSICK:) If somebody was 14 ineligible because their crime was treason, is 15 there any limitation on how soon they can ask 16 for a pardon again? 17 MS. LANG: Objection. 18 A. No. 19 Q. (BY MS. MESSICK:) If somebody is 20 ineligible -- if somebody is ineligible because 21 they did not have three good years of parole or 22 they were still on probation at the time that 23 their application was considered, is there a
Page 287 1 Exhibit 2 a board action where a hearing was 2 continued in order to allow somebody an 3 opportunity to pay a balance in a traffic case. 4 Is that a board action that would 5 cause a two-year waiting period? 6 MS. LANG: Objection to form. 7 A. A continuation? 8 Q. (BY MS. MESSICK:) Right. 9 A. No. 10 Q. So they can continue it for a 11 month or three months to give somebody time to 12 pay a fine or a fee, etcetera, correct? 13 A. That's correct. 14 Q. And they can also continue a 15 pardon hearing without triggering a two-year 16 delay in order to allow an applicant to seek 17 relief from fines and fees, etcetera, from the 18 court; isn't that correct? 19 A. That is correct. 20 MS. LANG: Objection, form. 21 Q. (BY MS. MESSICK:) If a -- if 22 interest in a pardon is closed without ever 23 going to the board because the person is not	Page 289 1 waiting period before they can apply again? 2 A. No. 3 MS. MESSICK: I don't have any 4 further questions, but I believe Ms. Lang has 5 some more in follow-up. 6 MS. LANG: I do, but it is going 7 to be very quick. 8 9 REEXAMINATION BY MS. LANG: 10 Q. Can you quickly refer to -- I'm 11 not sure which exhibit number it is, but the 12 exhibit that is the Board of Pardons and 13 Paroles poster that we have referred to? 14 MS. MESSICK: Plaintiffs' 15 Exhibit 12, if that helps you find it. 16 A. Okay. 17 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Applicants can 18 apply for a streamline by phone; is that right? 19 THE REPORTER: For a streamline -- 20 MS. MESSICK: By phone. 21 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) By phone. Is that 22 right? 23 A. Yes.

Page 290 1 Q. And applicants can apply for a 2 streamline by email; is that correct? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. And I believe you testified 5 earlier that for mailed-in applications, there 6 is no official application form that is 7 distributed by the Board of Pardons and 8 Paroles; is that correct? 9 A. That is. 10 Q. So there's no form that has a 11 signature line at the bottom of it for an 12 individual to sign; is that correct? 13 A. Not from our agency, no. 14 Q. Okay. And on the left-hand column 15 of this poster, there is a list of information 16 that must be provided in order to apply for a 17 streamline; is that right? 18 A. That is correct. 19 Q. And is a signature on that list? 20 A. No. 21 Q. Okay. Ms. Messick asked you some 22 follow-up questions about the CERV eligibility 23 requirement that you not have any felony	Page 292 1 and there are nondisqualifying felonies, right? 2 If you do lose your right to vote 3 due to a disqualifying felony conviction, one 4 of the requirements to get a streamline is that 5 you not have a felony pending against you. 6 I understand your testimony to be 7 that at times the board has interpreted that to 8 mean only if you have a felony charge that is 9 on that list of disqualifying crimes; is that 10 correct? 11 A. I want to make sure I understand 12 the question. 13 Q. Okay. 14 MS. MESSICK: Would you like the 15 court reporter to read it back? 16 A. Yes, I think that would be 17 helpful. 18 MS. MESSICK: I'm not trying to 19 burden the court reporter, but sometimes when 20 we rephrase, we end up with a different 21 question. So I am hoping it is faster and more 22 accurate. 23 (Record read.)
Page 291 1 charges pending against you. And she wanted to 2 make clear that the board has interpreted that 3 to only bar streamlines if a disqualifying 4 felony charge is pending. 5 Do you remember that line of 6 questioning? 7 A. I do. 8 Q. And your testimony said that 9 they -- the board has done that in the past, I 10 believe. Is that still the policy of the Board 11 of Pardons and Paroles? 12 MS. MESSICK: Object to the form. 13 A. I don't know specifically how 14 recent that has happened. 15 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. Is it 16 sometimes the case that it has been interpreted 17 to be any felony charge, regardless of whether 18 or not it is disqualifying, if it was a 19 conviction would bar a streamline application? 20 Let me back up and try to see if I 21 can -- there is the question of whether or not 22 you lose your right to vote. And that is a 23 question -- there are disqualifying felonies	Page 293 1 A. I still don't understand that 2 question. 3 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) Okay. One of the 4 requirements for a streamline is that you not 5 have pending felony charges; is that correct? 6 A. That is correct. 7 Q. Does that mean any pending felony 8 charge is disqualifying for a streamline? 9 A. No. 10 Q. What pending federal charges -- 11 MS. MESSICK: Felony charge. 12 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) -- felony 13 charges -- 14 MS. MESSICK: Strike federal. 15 MS. LANG: Strike federal. 16 Q. (BY MS. LANG:) What pending 17 federal charges are not disqualifying for the 18 purpose of applying for a streamline? 19 A. It is my recollection at the 20 present time that the board has processed some 21 streamlines in the past where the person or the 22 applicant has a pending felony offense that 23 would be nondisqualifying.

Page 294 1 Q. Okay. I understand that. Is it 2 the case that sometimes the board does not 3 process a streamline application if there is a 4 pending federal charge, even if that pending 5 felony would not be a disqualifying conviction? 6 MS. MESSICK: And you said federal 7 again, but you mean felony? 8 MS. LANG: I mean felony. 9 MS. MESSICK: So that we are all 10 on the same page. 11 MS. LANG: Thank you. 12 A. That is possible as well. 13 MS. LANG: Okay. No further 14 questions. 15 MS. MESSICK: Okay. 16 17 REEXAMINATION BY MS. MESSICK: 18 Q. I have got to go back to the wet 19 signature. First of all, the poster where it 20 lists information required, do you consider a 21 signature to be information? Is that something 22 that you would normally think of as 23 information?	Page 296 1 Q. (BY MS. MESSICK:) Do you know 2 what the board would do if -- strike that. 3 I can email the board and ask for 4 a streamline for myself, correct? 5 A. That is correct. 6 Q. Do you know what the board would 7 do if I sent an email and asked for a 8 streamline for a list of fifteen different 9 people? 10 MS. LANG: Objection. Outside the 11 scope. 12 MS. MESSICK: Hold on. Let me -- 13 I do think that everything about the -- this 14 piece is outside. But you have asked so many 15 questions that are outside the scope, that I 16 believe that we will be able to successfully 17 argue that you have, in fact, deposed Director 18 Jones and not just the board. And so I don't 19 want to leave this on the table. 20 MS. LANG: Okay. I also believe 21 that it is outside the scope of redirect, so it 22 is both outside the scope of the 30(b)(6) 23 deposition and it is argumentative as to what
Page 295 1 A. No, it is not. 2 Q. You have said applicants can apply 3 by phone or by email, correct? 4 A. That's correct. 5 Q. Have you ever had a situation 6 where -- well, do you know for certain what the 7 board would do if somebody called and said I 8 would like to apply for a streamline for 9 somebody else, so I am not -- say I call but I 10 don't want a streamline -- you have said I can 11 call and ask for a streamline for myself, 12 correct? 13 A. That is correct. 14 Q. Do you know what the board would 15 do if I called and I asked for a streamline for 16 Mr. Sinclair? 17 A. Not particularly. 18 Q. Do you know what the board would 19 do if I called and I asked for a streamline for 20 everybody in my Sunday school class? 21 MS. LANG: Objection. 22 A. No. We would not be able to 23 process that.	Page 297 1 you think I would like to use certain evidence 2 for. But all I have asked is about whether or 3 not certain -- signatures are required. 4 MS. MESSICK: Okay. But you have 5 argued that they are not because you can apply 6 by email. 7 MS. LANG: I have not argued 8 anything. 9 MS. MESSICK: So I have said -- 10 Q. (BY MS. MESSICK:) Establishing 11 your testimony -- taking as established your 12 testimony to Ms. Lang that I can personally 13 email and ask for a CERV for myself, do you 14 know what the board would do if I sent an email 15 and asked for a CERV for fifteen different 16 people? 17 MS. LANG: Objection to the form. 18 A. We would not be able to process 19 that in an email form. 20 MS. MESSICK: Thank you. 21 MS. LANG: No further questions. 22 MS. MESSICK: All right. Thank 23 you very much for your time today.

Federal Rules of Civil Procedure

Rule 30

(e) Review By the Witness; Changes.

(1) Review; Statement of Changes. On request by the deponent or a party before the deposition is completed, the deponent must be allowed 30 days after being notified by the officer that the transcript or recording is available in which:

(A) to review the transcript or recording; and

(B) if there are changes in form or substance, to sign a statement listing the changes and the reasons for making them.

(2) Changes Indicated in the Officer's Certificate. The officer must note in the certificate prescribed by Rule 30(f)(1) whether a review was requested and, if so, must attach any changes the deponent makes during the 30-day period.

DISCLAIMER: THE FOREGOING FEDERAL PROCEDURE RULES ARE PROVIDED FOR INFORMATIONAL PURPOSES ONLY.

THE ABOVE RULES ARE CURRENT AS OF APRIL 1, 2019. PLEASE REFER TO THE APPLICABLE FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE FOR UP-TO-DATE INFORMATION.

*Re: Thompson, et al., v. Merrill, et. al., Civil Action No. 2:16-cv-783-ECM-SMD
(M.D. Ala. pending).*

Dear Danielle:

I write to produce documents and follow up on outstanding issues with respect to Plaintiffs' discovery obligations.

State Defendants' Document Production

Though all deadlines in this case remain continued generally, doc. 125, we are producing documents by today shipping a CD via FedEx to Bryan Power. The CD is password protected, and the password is $R*n3a The production consists of 9,918 documents with a Bates range of D200075 through D262586.

It came to our attention that two of the (then¹) Members of the Board of Pardons and Paroles used personal email accounts for Board business. We gained access to those accounts and loaded nearly 30,000 documents into Summation. Fewer than 200 were part of a family that had at least one item responsive to the agreed search string, and many of those pre-dated the relevant Board Member's service on the Board. We have marked three emails and their attachments (for a total of 30 documents) as responsive and included them in today's production. We do not intend to voluntarily update this search.

Additionally, we have determined that 49 documents which were previously withheld pursuant to the Pardon File Privilege should have been produced, and we are producing them now. We have included an Excel file which cross-references the Bates numbers for the withheld documents to the Bates numbers for the produced documents.

Plaintiffs' Document Production

Please advise us of the status of your search for documents responsive to our Request for Production 49. We served this Request (and others) in March and you responded on April 17, 2019. You generally objected and refused to provide any documents beyond the limited documents previously provided either as Initial Disclosures or in response to earlier Requests.² With respect to Request 49, however, you did agree to “use reasonable diligence to locate and produce responsive non-privileged documents, based on an examination of those sources that may reasonably be expected to yield such documents.” Seven months later, we have yet to receive any documents or any statement that you have looked and do not have anything. Given the topic – non-litigation efforts to revise the Suffrage and Elections Article of the Alabama Constitution – I would expect that quick conversations with your clients would confirm that nearly all of them have had no involvement and thus have nothing to search. Thus, any responsive documents, should they exist, would likely be very limited. This is especially true by contrast to the document productions we have made. Accordingly, please confirm that you have completed your search and found nothing, or that you will promptly send any responsive documents.

Plaintiffs' Initial Disclosures

We request that you review your Initial Disclosures and supplement them, if appropriate. As you know, we have supplemented our Initial Disclosures seven times thus far. You have not supplemented your Initial Disclosures in the approximately 21 months since you first served them in February 2018.³ If you have additional documents, you should provide them. If you have additional witnesses, you should tell us. Further, your Initial Disclosures listed all of the Boards of Registrars. Since there are generally three Registrars in each of the 67 counties, you listed approximately 200 people, which is effectively the same as identifying no one. When we have listed all of a group of officeholders in other litigation, we have specified over time as we developed the witnesses we would actually rely upon. You should do the same. Failure to supplement prevents us from moving forward as time allows, and will likely result in matters proceeding slower down the road than you would like.

Sincerely,

Misty S. Fairbanks Messick
Assistant Attorney General

² Your continuing refusal to produce documents is destined to slow the pace of this litigation once we have heard from the court as to which claims, if any, should go forward.

³ In April 2019, Jason Hipp emailed that your Initial Disclosures would be supplemented to document your decision not to rely on Synethia Pettaway. No supplement was (or is) required for that, and no supplement was provided.
