THIS MATTER having been opened to the Court upon joint application by H. Curtis Meanor, Essex County Counsel, attorney for the Essex County Executive and Administrative Defendants, and Alfred A. Slocum, New Jersey Public Defender (By T. Gary Mitchell, Deputy Public Defender), attorney for plaintiffs, for a postponement and rescheduling of the date the County

Defendants are to deposit an aggregate of $1,905,300 with the Court into a Population Sanctions and Remedies account and $1,521,380 into a Recreation Sanctions and Remedies account due to the fact counsel for both parties are currently engaged in extensive negotiations as to how and when the above fines shall best be used to remediate conditions at County Jail facilities and have made substantial progress towards resolving same, and for good cause shown;

IT IS ON THIS 11th day of December, 1989,

ORDERED that the date the Essex County Defendants are to deposit an aggregate of $1,905,300 with the Court into a Population Sanctions and Remedies account and $1,521,380 into a Recreation Sanctions and Remedies account is hereby postponed and rescheduled from December 11, 1989 to Dec. 22 ,1989 .
