01/12/2007	173	ORDER: This matter is before the Court on Plaintiffs' motion for reconsideration of the Court's Order entered December 20, 2006, denying Plaintiffs' request that the Illinois Department of Corrections ("IDOC") be required to supply to United States Magistrate Judge Donald G. Wilkerson a computer disk containing data regarding IDOC's "Gang Intelligence System" disclosed in camera to Magistrate Judge Wilkerson for the purpose of ascertaining whether the data is privileged from discovery (Doc. 170). IDOC has explained the technical difficulties and potential prison security problems entailed in furnishing a copy of the data, including the software used to store it. The Court agrees with IDOC that the data will be most secure if it remains in IDOC's possession pending a decision by Magistrate Judge Wilkerson on the issue of privilege. IDOC's attorneys have represented that the data is being preserved in the form in which it was presented in camera to Magistrate Judge Wilkerson, and the Court has no reason to disbelieve those representations. It is apparent that IDOC's attorneys understand their professional obligations and the need to ensure an adequate record for review of Magistrate Judge Wilkerson's discovery rulings. Therefore, the Court DENIES 170 Motion for Reconsideration re 168 Order affirming 162 Order on Motion to Compel. Signed by Chief Judge G. Patrick Murphy on 1/12/2007. 06/10/2009	259	ORDER: STRIKING 257 Motion for Temporary Restraining Order and 258 Memorandum in Support of Motion brought by James Armstrong. Mr. Armstrong, an inmate at the Tamms Correctional Center (Tamms), requests that the Court grant him equitable relief, citing alleged retaliation against him by authorities at Tamms and violations of his right of procedural due process in connection with his continuing assignment to Tamms. With respect to Mr. Armstrongs allegations of retaliation, the matters alleged are separate from the subject matter of this case and are properly the subject of a separate lawsuit by Mr. Armstrong. As to Mr. Armstrongs allegations concerning deprivations of procedural due process, Mr. Armstrong is a member of the class that has been certified in this case with respect to such claims and for which counsel has been appointed by the Court. A person represented by counsel has no right to file motions on his or her own behalf, and such motions are properly stricken by the Court. See United States v. Gwiazdzinski, 141 F.3d 784, 787 (7th Cir. 1998); Hayes v. Hawes, 921 F.2d 100, 102 (7th Cir. 1990); Pickett v. Detella, No. 03-cv-60-JPG, 2007 WL 3169122, at *1 (S.D. Ill. Oct. 26, 2007). Accordingly, the Court hereby ORDERS that Mr. Armstrongs submissions be STRICKEN. If Mr. Armstrong or any other member of the class certified in this case attempts to file any further submissions regarding the class claims, the Court will instruct the Clerk of Court to refuse to accept those submissions for filing. Signed by Judge G. Patrick Murphy on 6/10/2009.

06/22/2009	262	ORDER: DENYING 253 MOTION to Compel filed by Corey A Taylor. Pursuant to Rule 37(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Taylor seeks an order compelling supplemental responses to interrogatories from Defendants Odie Washington, George DeTella, and Jerry Gilmore. Having reviewed carefully Taylors motion and the supporting documentation thereto, together with 261 Response to Motion for an Order Compelling Discovery brought by Washington, DeTella, and Gilmore, the Court concludes that Washington, DeTella, and Gilmore already have responded fully to Taylors interrogatories and that no order to compel further responses to the interrogatories should issue. 06/22/2009	263	ORDER: DENYING 254 Motion for Writs of Habeas Corpus Ad Testificandum brought by Plaintiff Corey A. Taylor. Taylor, an inmate at Tamms Correctional Center (Tamms), seeks writs of habeas corpus ad testificandum to procure at trial on his claim that he was transferred to Tamms in retaliation for exercising his First Amendment rights while an inmate at Pontiac Correctional Center (Pontiac) the testimony of eleven persons who apparently are present or past inmates at Pontiac. These witnesses, according to Taylor, can testify regarding Taylors involvement in litigation against the Illinois Department of Corrections (IDOC) and its employees while at Pontiac and his role in organizing a hunger strike among Pontiac inmates; also, Taylor proposes to offer evidence of the disciplinary records of certain of the witnesses as proof that the stated reason for his transfer to Tamms, his disciplinary record at Pontiac, was pretextual. The factual record regarding Taylors litigation activities and involvement in a hunger strike at Pontiac can be established through Taylors own testimony, while evidence regarding the disciplinary records of Pontiac inmates who were not transferred to Tamms has little, if any, probative value. The Court, having weighed Taylors interest in the testimony of the inmates as to whom writs are sought against IDOCs interest in avoiding the risk and expense of transporting those inmates, see In re Warden of Wis. State Prison , 541 F.2d 177, 179 (7th Cir. 1976), concludes that the presence of the inmates at the trial of Taylors retaliation claim is unnecessary for a full and fair hearing of the claim. See Ford v. Carballo , 577 F.2d 404, 407-08 (7th Cir. 1978); Stone v. Morris , 546 F.2d 730, 737 (7th Cir. 1976). Accordingly, the requested writs of habeas corpus ad testificandum will not issue. Signed by Judge G. Patrick Murphy on 6/22/2009. (lmm)THIS TEXT ENTRY IS AN ORDER OF THE COURT. 06/30/2009	271	ORDER DENYING 255 Motion for Sanctions, or in the Alternative, Motion to Overrule Counsel's Objections to Discovery brought by Plaintiff Corey A. Taylor. Taylor, an inmate at Tamms Correctional Center ("Tamms"), is proceeding pro se on his claim that he was transferred to Tamms in retaliation for exercising his First Amendment rights while an inmate at Pontiac Correctional Center. Taylor seeks sanctions against attorney Alan S. Mills, who represents thirty-one Plaintiffs and the class that has been certified in this case. According to Taylor, Mills has refused to disclose to him materials gathered through discovery that apparently are subject to "attorneys eyes only" protective orders pursuant to the law enforcement investigatory privilege. In permitting Mills to withdraw as Taylor's attorney with respect to Taylor's retaliation claim, the Court directed Mills to turn over to Taylor any materials to which Taylor, as Mills's former client, is entitled, excepting materials subject to the aforementioned protective orders; the Court further directed Mills, if in doubt whether to disclose materials to Taylor, to consult the Court. See Westefer v. Snyder, Civil Nos. 00-162-GPM, 00-708-GPM, 2006 WL 5240411, at *2 (S.D. Ill. Dec. 20, 2006). It was not the Court's intention to create a situation in which, as here, Taylor is directing discovery requests to Mills as though Mills is an adverse party, and seeking sanctions for Mills's alleged failure to respond to such discovery. It is Taylor's responsibility to prepare his own case, without harassing attorneys for other parties who are trying to prepare theirs. Moreover, it appears that the discovery materials sought by Taylor are within the scope of the pertinent protective orders, and Taylor has shown the Court no grounds for re-drawing those orders. In any event, the Court fails to see how the discovery materials at issue are either relevant or likely to lead to evidence relevant to the issue of whether unlawful retaliation against Taylor substantially motivated the decisionmaker responsible for Taylor's assignment to Tamms. See Westefer v. Snyder, 472 F. Supp. 2d 1034, 1039 (S.D. Ill. 2006) (citing Mt. Healthy City Sch. Dist. Bd. of Educ. v. Doyle, 429 U.S. 274, 287 (1977)). Signed by Judge G. 06/30/2009	272	ORDER DENYING 256 Motion for Leave to Call Witnesses brought by Plaintiff Corey A. Taylor. Taylor, an inmate at Tamms Correctional Center ("Tamms"), is proceeding pro se on his claim that he was transferred to Tamms in retaliation for exercising his First Amendment rights while an inmate at Pontiac Correctional Center. In the instant motion Taylor proposes to call no fewer than eighty-eight persons as witnesses at the trial of his retaliation claim. The Court considers this absurdly large number of proposed witnesses prima facie evidence that the motion is brought in bad faith. Also, careful review of the motion discloses that the testimony of the proposed witnesses, as outlined in the motion, is unlikely for the most part to shed light on the issue critical to Taylor's claim, namely, whether unlawful retaliation against Taylor substantially motivated the decisionmaker responsible for Taylor's assignment to Tamms. Accordingly, the motion to call witnesses will be denied. The Court is willing to entertain a further request for leave to call witnesses by Taylor, provided that the request is reasonable and tailored to elicit relevant evidence at trial. Signed by Judge G. Patrick Murphy on 06/30/09. (njr) THIS TEXT ENTRY IS AN ORDER OF THE COURT. NO FURTHER DOCUMENTATION WILL BE MAILED. (Entered: 06/30/2009)

07/23/2009	281	ORDER: DENYING 279 Motion for Stay Pending Review brought by Plaintiff Corey Taylor. Taylor seeks a stay of proceedings in this Court with respect to his claim that he was transferred to Tamms Correctional Center in retaliation for exercising his First Amendment rights pending resolution of a petition for a writ of mandamus that he has filed in the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. Generally in determining whether to issue a stay pending appeal a court must consider the following: (1) whether the stay applicant has made a strong showing that he or she is likely to succeed on the merits; (2) whether the applicant will be irreparably injured absent a stay; (3) whether issuance of the stay will substantially injure the other parties interested in the proceeding; and (4) where the public interest lies. See Fed. R. App. P. 8; Hilton v. Braunskill, 481 U.S. 770, 776 (1987); Glick v. Koenig, 766 F.2d 265, 269 (7th Cir. 1985); EEOC v. Laidlaw Waste, Inc., 934 F. Supp. 286, 288 (N.D. Ill. 1996). As Taylor has not made the requisite showing with respect to any of the relevant factors, the Court will not issue the requested stay. Signed by Judge G. Patrick Murphy on 7/23/2009. 08/26/2009	297	ORDER: GRANTING in part and DENYING in part 296 Corey A Taylor proposed witness list, construed by the Court as a motion for leave to call witnesses. Although Taylors request to call witnesses is untimely, the Court has examined his proposed witness list carefully and finds with respect to the inmate witnesses on the list that much of the proposed testimony of these witnesses is cumulative. Having considered the matter carefully, the Court will grant Taylor leave to call the following inmate witnesses: Shabazz Muhammad (IDOC # B05049); Anthony Wilkerson (IDOC # N60045); Robert M. Reed (IDOC # B62725); and Bobby Brown (IDOC # A10474).

		With respect to Taylors proposed list of non-inmate witnesses, in its order entered April 6, 2009 (Doc. 239), the Court directed Taylor, if he wished to call non-inmate witnesses at trial to furnish a list of their names and a brief description of the testimony each witness is expected to provide. As Taylor has not done so, his request to call non-inmate witnesses is denied. Signed by Judge G. Patrick Murphy on 8/26/2009. (lmm)THIS TEXT ENTRY IS AN ORDER OF THE COURT. 09/11/2009	313	ORDER denying 306 Motion in Limine brought by Plaintiff Corey A. Taylor. Taylor, an inmate of the closed super maximum security facility at Tamms Correctional Center ("Tamms") who alleges that he was assigned to Tamms in retaliation for exercising his First Amendment rights, seeks to exclude in limine before trial on his retaliation claim evidence concerning the crime for which he was originally incarcerated and his disciplinary record after his assignment to Tamms. The Court cannot conclude that the evidence at issue is inadmissible for any purpose and believes that the better practice is to address questions of the admissibility of the subject evidence at trial. See Juracek v. City of O'Fallon, Ill. Police Dep't , Civil No. 05-787-GPM, 2007 WL 3407367, at 2-3 (S.D. Ill. Nov. 14, 2007). Signed by Judge G. Patrick Murphy on 9/11/2009. (jhs) THIS TEXT ENTRY IS AN ORDER OF THE COURT. NO FURTHER DOCUMENTATION WILL BE MAILED. (Entered: 09/11/2009)
09/11/2009	314	ORDER denying 303 Motion for Extension of Time brought by Plaintiff Corey A. Taylor. The motion is moot in light of the Court's order entered August 26, 2009, granting Taylor leave to call four inmate witnesses at trial on Taylor's claim that he was retaliated against by prison officials for exercising his First Amendment rights. Signed by Judge G. Patrick Murphy on 9/11/2009. (jhs) THIS TEXT ENTRY IS AN ORDER OF THE COURT. NO FURTHER DOCUMENTATION WILL BE MAILED. (Entered: 09/11/2009)
09/11/2009	315	ORDER denying 304 Motion for Limited Pretrial Discovery brought by Plaintiff Corey A. Taylor. The Court fails to see how the evidence as to which Taylor seeks discovery, specifically, lists of inmates considered for transfer to Tamms Correctional Center ("Tamms"), unspecified regulations and directives of the Illinois Department of Corrections, and an orientation video shown to new Tamms inmates, is likely to help Taylor prove that his assignment to Tamms was in retaliation for Taylor's exercise of his First Amendment rights. Signed by Judge G. Patrick Murphy on 9/11/2009. (jhs) THIS TEXT ENTRY IS AN ORDER OF THE COURT. NO FURTHER DOCUMENTATION WILL BE MAILED. (Entered: 09/11/2009)
09/11/2009	316	ORDER denying 305 Motion for Pretrial Conference brought by Plaintiff Corey A. Taylor. The Court concludes in its discretion that a pretrial conference would not be helpful in this instance. To the extent Taylor's motion is a request for appointment of counsel, the request is denied. See Westefer v. Snyder , No. 00-162-GPM, 2008 WL 131166 (S.D. Ill. Jan. 9, 2008). Signed by Judge G. Patrick Murphy on 9/11/2009. (jhs) THIS TEXT ENTRY IS AN ORDER OF THE COURT. NO FURTHER DOCUMENTATION WILL BE MAILED. (Entered: 09/11/2009)
09/11/2009	317	ORDER denying 307 Motion for Subpoenas Duces Tecum brought by Plaintiff Corey A. Taylor. Concerning Taylor's request that the Court issue a subpoena duces tecum to Illinois Assistant Attorney General Martin Green, the Court fails to see how evidence regarding Green's investigation of a retaliation claim asserted by Taylor while he was an inmate at Pontiac Correctional Center is relevant to the issue of whether Taylor's assignment to Tamms Correctional Center ("Tamms") was retaliatory, particularly in view of the fact that Taylor does not aver that Green's investigation uncovered retaliation. With regard to Taylor's request that the Court issue a subpoena duces tecum to John Barwick, Supervisor of the Records Office at Tamms, requiring Barwick to bring Taylor's inmate master file to the trial on Taylor's claim that his assignment to Tamms was retaliatory, Taylor has not identified the relevant evidence that he believes is contained in his inmate master file and the Court is reasonably certain that allowing Taylor to conduct a fishing expedition as to the contents of his master file would seriously compromise prison security. Signed by Judge G. Patrick Murphy on 9/11/2009. (jhs) THIS TEXT ENTRY IS AN ORDER OF THE COURT. NO FURTHER DOCUMENTATION WILL BE MAILED. (Entered: 09/11/2009)

10/19/2009	380	ORDER granting in part and denying in part 364 Plaintiffs' Motion in Limine to Exclude at Trial Evidence of Gang Affiliation and Activities. The Court directs counsel for Defendants to submit to the Court before trial on the retaliation claims asserted in this matter any evidence Defendants' counsel may intend to introduce at trial on the retaliation claims regarding the alleged gang affiliations or activities of the retaliation Plaintiffs so that the Court may conduct an in camera review of the said evidence. This Order applies only to those particular Plaintiffs for whom gang affiliation is a reason asserted for their transfer to the closed maximum security prison at Tamms, Illinois. Signed by Judge G. 10/19/2009	381	ORDER denying 336 Motion for a New Trial brought by Plaintiff Corey A. Taylor. On September 15, 2009, the Court conducted a trial on Taylor's claim that he was transferred to the closed maximum security prison at Tamms, Illinois, in retaliation for exercising his First Amendment rights; the jury returned a verdict for Defendants Odie Washington, George DeTella, and Jerry Gilmore. Pursuant to Rule 59(a)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure Taylor now has moved for a new trial, charging that Defendants' counsel deliberately withheld from him until after the trial a document styled "Offender Tracking System Transfer Report" that is dated August 10, 1998. It appears that the document at issue in fact was introduced into evidence by Taylor as Exhibit 1 at the trial on his retaliation claim. See Doc. 325. Also, the document does not seem to contain any information that would have allowed Taylor to prevail at trial. Accordingly, Taylor's request for a new trial is denied. Signed by Judge G. Patrick Murphy on 10/19/2009. (jhs) THIS TEXT ENTRY IS AN ORDER OF THE COURT. NO FURTHER DOCUMENTATION WILL BE MAILED. (Entered: 10/19/2009)

The Court declines to continue the trial on the retaliation claim asserted in this matter by Plaintiff Bennie Cunningham currently scheduled to begin December 7, 2009, at the United States Courthouse in Benton, Illinois, before Judge G. Patrick Murphy. However, the Court grants Defendant Hartwig's request to testify by video at a specific time from California. Counsel for Hartwig will make the necessary arrangements for Hartwig to testify by video and advise the Court of the time and manner Hartwig will so testify. Signed by Judge G. Patrick Murphy on 10/21/2009. (jhs) THIS TEXT ENTRY IS AN ORDER OF THE COURT. NO FURTHER DOCUMENTATION WILL BE MAILED. (Entered: 10/21/2009)

10/22/2009	388	ORDER denying 385 Motion to Consolidate Cases. Milton Smith, who is currently incarcerated at Tamms Correctional Center in Tamms, Illinois, and who was formerly a party Plaintiff in this matter, requests that the Court consolidate Smith v. Walker , Civil No. 07-340-MJR (S.D. Ill. filed May 14, 2007), with this matter. In Case No. 07-340 District Judge Reagan held that because Smith has three "strikes" for purposes of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g), specifically, Smith v. Peters , Civil No. 95-432-WDS (S.D. Ill. July 25, 1995) (order dismissing action as frivolous), Smith v. Welborn , Civil No. 99-494-GPM (S.D. Ill. Sept. 27, 2000) (order dismissing action for failure to state a claim upon which relief may be granted), and Smith v. Stephens , Case No. 99-533-GPM (S.D. Ill. Dec. 18, 2001) (order dismissing action as frivolous), Smith could not proceed in Case No. 07-340 without paying the required filing fee. The docket in Case No. 07-340, which the Court can judicially notice, see Spano v. Boeing Co., Employee Benefits Plans Comm. , No. 06-cv-743-DRH, 2007 WL 2688456, at *2 (S.D. Ill. Sept. 10, 2007), does not reflect that Smith has paid any part of the filing fee in Case No. 07-340 and in fact Case No. 07-340 was dismissed on the merits on August 15, 2007, and judgment was duly entered. Accordingly the Court denies Smith's request to consolidate Case No. 07-340 with this matter. See Walls v. Dretke , Civil Action No. H-06-0961, 2006 WL 1714742, at *2 (S.D. Tex. June 20, 2006) (a prisoner cannot use the procedural device of consolidation to evade the requirements of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g)). Signed by Judge G. Patrick Murphy on 10/22/2009. For the reasons stated on the record at the hearing conducted in this case on November 6, 2009, to the extent the motion is not moot in view of the jury's verdict on the retaliation claims of Plaintiffs Sorrentino, Knox, Bivens, and Burrell, the motion is denied. 11/06/2009	425	ORDER granting in part and denying in part 418 Second Motion in Limine brought by Defendants Donald Snyder, Odie Washington, Michael V. Neal, George DeTella, Michael O'Leary, Thomas Page, Dwayne Clark, Rodney Ahitow, and Jerry Gilmore. For the reasons stated on the record at the hearing conducted in this case on November 6, 2009, Defendants' motion is granted with respect to the portions of Defendant Ahitow's deposition testimony challenged as irrelevant in the motion. The motion also is granted with respect to evidence concerning the results of previous trials in this case. The motion is denied as to evidence and argument that Plaintiffs Robert Felton, Vincente Rodriguez, George Harper, and Eugene Horton have filed their claims against Defendants seeking one dollar or that a verdict for Plaintiffs will only cost Defendants one dollar, as the Court is certain Plaintiffs' counsel does not intend to offer any such evidence or argument. For the reasons stated on the record at the hearing conducted in this case on November 6, 2009, the Court finds that evidence concerning conditions of confinement at Pontiac Correctional Center has been properly disclosed to counsel for Plaintiffs and the class and will not cause them unfair surprise. 11/10/2009	448	ORDER denying 409 Motion in Limine brought by Plaintiff Bennie Cunningham. Trial currently is set for December 7, 2009, on Cunningham's claim that he was assigned to the closed maximum security prison ("supermax prison") at Tamms Correctional Center ("Tamms") in retaliation for exercising his First Amendment rights. Cunningham seeks to exclude in limine before trial four categories of evidence, specifically: evidence concerning Cunningham's criminal record and the crime for which he currently is incarcerated; evidence concerning the criminal records of the inmate witnesses Cunningham intends to call at trial and the crimes for which they currently are incarcerated; a summary from the Cook County State's Attorney dated March 24, 1983; and evidence concerning Cunningham's disciplinary record after his transfer to the supermax prison at Tamms. The evidence from the Cook County State's Attorney is not before the Court, and therefore it is impossible for the Court to rule on

		the admissibility of the subject evidence before trial. See Latham v. Edelbrock Corp. , Civil No. 07-713-GPM, 2009 WL 3156546, at *2 (S.D. Ill. Sept. 26, 2009) ("[W]here the inadmissibility of evidence is not clear before trial, the better practice is to address questions of the admissibility of the subject evidence at trial."). Evidence concerning Cunningham's criminal record and the crime for which he currently is incarcerated and evidence concerning Cunningham's disciplinary record after his transfer to the supermax prison at Tamms seems to the Court to have obvious potential relevance to the issue of why Cunningham was sent to Tamms and why he remains imprisoned there. Finally, with respect to evidence of the criminal histories of Cunningham's inmate witnesses, the Court will perform any analysis of the admissibility of this evidence that may be required under Rule 609 of the Federal Rules of Evidence at the appropriate time during trial. See Westefer v. Snyder , Civil Nos. 00-162-GPM, 00-708-GPM, 2009 WL 3672500, at *1 (S.D. Ill. Oct. 30, 2009). Signed by Judge G. Patrick Murphy on 11/10/2009. (jhs) THIS TEXT ENTRY IS AN ORDER OF THE COURT. 11/12/2009	450	ORDER granting in part and denying in part 439 Motion for Issuance and Service of Subpoenas brought by Plaintiff Bennie Cunningham. It appears from the inmate locator on the website of the Illinois Department of Corrections ("IDOC"), which the Court can judicially notice, see Bova v. U.S. Bank, N.A. , 446 F. Supp. 2d 926, 930 n.2 (S.D. Ill. 2006), that Carmichael Morrison, IDOC # A90539, is no longer in IDOC custody, and therefore the Court will not issue a writ of habeas corpus ad testificandum as to Morrison. The Court will issue such a writ as to Karl E. Jackson, IDOC # N03040; by order entered November 10, 2009, the Court already has ordered writs to issue as to Vincent Patterson, IDOC # N33032, and Henry Scates, IDOC # N73933. The Court will arrange to make Michelle Baggott available at trial on Cunningham's claim of retaliation in violation of his First Amendment rights. With respect to Jerry Gilmore and Michael O'Leary, it will be Cunningham's obligation to locate them and to procure their presence at trial on the retaliation claim. Gilmore and O'Leary have not previously been named as parties to the claim, nor does Cunningham explain what relevant testimony he expects to elicit from Gilmore and O'Leary at the trial on that claim. Also, while Cunningham may be experiencing some difficulty in securing the presence of non-inmate witnesses at trial, Cunningham easily could have anticipated these difficulties before he forced Richard D. Murray, Jr., his Court-appointed counsel, to withdraw from continued representation of Cunningham. Signed by Judge G. Patrick Murphy on 11/12/2009. (jhs) THIS TEXT ENTRY IS AN ORDER OF THE COURT. NO FURTHER DOCUMENTATION WILL BE MAILED. (Entered: 11/12/2009)
11/12/2009	451	ORDER granting 408 Motion for Leave to Substitute Richard Murray's Witness and Exhibit List Dated August 17, 2009, for Plaintiff's Witness and Exhibit List brought by Plaintiff Bennie Cunningham. To the extent it is necessary for Cunningham to supplement the witness and exhibit list for the trial on Cunningham's claim of retaliation in violation of his First Amendment rights, Cunningham may do so in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Federal Rules of Evidence. Signed by Judge G. Patrick Murphy on 11/12/2009. (jhs) THIS TEXT ENTRY IS AN ORDER OF THE COURT. NO FURTHER DOCUMENTATION WILL BE MAILED. (Entered: 11/12/2009)
11/12/2009	452	ORDER denying 436 Combined Motion to Continue December 7, 2009 Trial and for Emergency Conference brought by Plaintiff Bennie Cunningham. Cunningham seeks to continue the trial currently set to begin December 7, 2009, on his claim that he was retaliated against in violation of his First Amendment rights on the grounds that Richard D. Murray, Jr., Cunningham's Court-appointed counsel, recently withdrew from representation of Cunningham on the retaliation claim. According to Murray's motion to withdraw as Cunningham's counsel, Murray was forced to withdraw from representation of Cunningham on the retaliation claim because Cunningham insisted that Murray pursue frivolous claims and threatened to sue Murray for malpractice if he did not pursue those claims. The Court sees no reason to doubt Murray's representations in the motion to withdraw and likewise sees no reason why Cunningham should be rewarded for such conduct by continuing the trial on his retaliation claim. Also, the Court is certain that Cunningham is perfectly familiar with the facts and law pertinent to his retaliation claim and, to the extent he is not, a continuance will not ameliorate the problem. Accordingly, the Court finds no cause for either a continuance of the trial or a status conference as to Cunningham's retaliation case. Signed by Judge G. Patrick Murphy on 11/12/2009. (jhs) THIS TEXT ENTRY IS AN ORDER OF THE COURT. NO FURTHER DOCUMENTATION WILL BE MAILED. (Entered: 11/12/2009)

Cunningham's motion is granted insofar as it requests the last known address of Carmichael Morrison, which address is as follows: 6425 S. Washtenaw, 2d Floor, Chicago, IL 60629. The motion is denied to the extent that it requests the last known addresses of Defendants Jerry Gilmore and Michael O'Leary; however, the IDOC has agreed to ensure that Gilmore and O'Leary are present and available to testify at the trial on Cunningham's retaliation claim scheduled to begin December 7, 2009, at 8:00 a.m at the United States District Courthouse in Benton, Illinois, Judge G. Finally, Cunningham's motion, to the extent it requests appointment of counsel, is denied, as Cunningham has not made even the threshold showing of reasonable efforts to secure counsel without the Court's aid. See Westefer v. Cunningham's request to amend his witness list to include John Barwick, the Supervisor of the Records Office at Tamms Correctional Center, as a foundation witness is denied, as the parties are willing to stipulate to the authenticity of certain documents, obviating the need for foundation testimony by Barwick. Cunningham's request to amend his exhibit list to include Cunningham v. Illinois , No. 99CC1542 (Ill. Ct.
