03/06/1997	1617	ORDER that defendant Alabama Department of Transportation submit to the court by 4:00 p.m. 4/30/97 a final report for backpay for all lines of progression, as of 3/28/97; the final report should be structured such that the backpay issues related to parttime employees to the extent that they are to be compared to full-time employees, employees who "worked or applied" within a line of progression, and use of whole or partial years in the backpay calculation, may be resolved separately; with the report, the court will immediately enter an order for final payment to those lines of progression for payment to the plaintiff class within 60 days of 3/28/97; the Department of Transportation's report and the court's final payment order are subject to the condition set out in the court's order of 10/22/96 (doc. no. 1302), and modified by a companion order entered 12/5/96 (doc. no. 1404); those orders state that, if an anticipated determination or distribution of backpay is delayed by some legal action--such as a motion for reconsideration or correction or an appeal--the backpay would then extend through the resolution of that legal action, until 60 days before the actual distribution of backpay to the plaintiff class; therefore, for example, if there is an appeal and if the appellate court should determine that plaintiffs are entitled to backpay (either as determined by this court or with modifications), backpay would include the time of the appeal and the time on remand, until 60 days before there is

10/26/2005	7902	ORDER The Report and Recommendation on the Intervenor's first interim request for feesand expenses recommends that the Intervenor's be paid for "all work undertaken by theIntervenor's from the review of the Defendants' request for a stipulation of compliancethrough and including the required mediation [..]" Docket 7827 at 15. In reviewing theparties' recent filings, there is an obvious and material disagreement regarding when themediation on Article VIII concluded. According to the Defendants, a compliance request under Article VIII wassubmitted in 2004 and a mediation conducted on September 2, 2004. The Defendantsacknowledge that a second mediation on Article VIII was held March 11, 2005. Docket 7896 at 2-3. The Intervenor's, on the other hand, assert "that the final mediation on Article VIII was last conducted before Judge Carroll on April 28, 2005." Docket 7900 at 3.To properly allocate the Intervenor's time between that which is currentlycompensable and that which should be held in abeyance, the date of the final mediationof Article VIII needs to be established. It can be either March 11 or April 28 but notboth.Counsel are directed to review their records, confer, and agree on the date whenArticle VIII mediation ended. Dean Carroll's billing invoice for the period in questionmay be instructive. Counsel shall report the appropriate date by Friday, October 28,2005.. Signed by C.A. Gonzalez on 10/26/05.
