Civil No. 07-cv-3986 (RHK/AJB)

CONSENT DECREE

INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (hereinafter the "Commission" or "EEOC") has filed a complaint captioned EEOC v. Faribault Foods, Inc., alleging that Defendant Faribault Foods, Inc. ("Faribault Foods") discriminated against Francisco Mendez, Walter Perez, Veronica Ortiz, Isabel Cabeza, Moises Alvarez, Jose Rodriguez, Alba Teletor, and Alicia Moreno ("Charging Parties") because of their national origin, Hispanic, in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. It also alleges that Faribault Foods discriminated against a class of Hispanic employees at and applicants to Faribault Foods' operations in Faribault, Minnesota in hiring, promotion, job assignment, testing, discipline and discharge. It seeks relief for these Charging Parties and others similarly situated.

Charging Parties and Santos Augusto Arevalo, Joe Camarillo, Otto Campos, Armida Cerritos, Enrique Chavez, Rosa Lidia Clemente, Yolanda Correa, Diana Escamilla, Salvador Fraire, Lorenzo Garcia, Trinidad Gonzalez, Sergio Heredia, Jesse Hernandez, Liliana Limon, Javier Limon, Efrain Martinez, Valentin Ortiz, Jose Luis Ortiz, Martha Ramirez, Fernando Valdez, Julian Villareal, Juana Villareal Trevino, Catalina Del Valle, Jose Barragan, Abila Corleto, Leticia Duran, Silvia Echeverria, Adalberto Gonzalez, Obed Hernandez, Norma Ledesma, Oscar Mares, Immer Martinez, Maria Sandoval, Diana Valazquez, Mayra Rocha, Daniel Quinonez, and Ramon Mejia-Rivera, (hereinafter collectively "Class Representatives") individually and on behalf of similarly situated persons, filed a class action complaint, captioned Mendez, et al. v. Faribault Foods, Inc., alleging violations of 42 U.S.C. § 1981, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq., and the Minnesota Human Rights Act. The complaint was filed by the Class Representatives on behalf of a putative class. The complaint alleged national origin and race discrimination against current and former Hispanic employees and Hispanic applicants with respect to hiring, promotion, compensation, and terms and conditions of employment at Faribault Foods' Faribault, Minnesota facilities.

The EEOC, the Class Representatives, and Faribault Foods engaged in a significant exchange of information, both during the investigation of the charges by the EEOC and during the process of negotiating this resolution. The parties have obtained sufficient information to assess reliably the relative merits of the claims and defenses.

All parties to this settlement, including the Class Representatives and putative class members, were represented by counsel knowledgeable in the subject matter area. All parties have participated in the drafting of this Consent Decree.

The EEOC, Class Representatives, and Faribault Foods mutually agreed to submit to mediation in an effort to resolve this matter. During the mediation, the parties consented to an additional exchange of information, including an exchange of expert discovery. Under the supervision of the Mediator, these negotiations have been conducted at arms-length and without collusion. All parties were represented by counsel during these proceedings. The mediation discussions culminated in this Decree.

THEREFORE, upon the consent of the parties, and upon review by the Court of these terms, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that the following terms are given approval, subject to a notice to the claimants and a hearing upon the fairness of this proposed Consent Decree as set forth herein:

1. An agenda for the training and identification of the outside trainer will be provided to counsel for the EEOC at least one month before the training, and the EEOC counsel can object to either the agenda or the speaker no later than two weeks prior to the training. VIII. DIVERSITY COMMITTEE

A. Faribault will establish a Diversity Committee of up to 10 people who will serve one-year terms. Faribault will promote the Diversity Committee to its workforce in English and Spanish. Nothing herein will bar Faribault from promoting the Diversity Committee in additional languages.

B. Employees may apply for positions on the Diversity Committee. If more than ten people apply, then members will be chosen randomly, giving preference to non-office workers.

C. The purpose of the Diversity Committee will be to promote and provide feedback regarding diversity efforts of Faribault. The Diversity Committee will meet on a quarterly basis and will report in writing to management on its meetings. The Committee is not intended or authorized to negotiate the terms and conditions of employment or to resolve individual grievances or complaints.

IX. JOB DESCRIPTIONS AND ADVERTISEMENTS

A. Faribault will review job descriptions and, to the extent not already done, specify English proficiency requirements for each position.

B. Faribault will advertise open positions in a publication targeted at ethnically diverse communities.

D. Successful completion of relevant language classes will be considered as a positive achievement in an employee's annual evaluation.

XI. STATEMENT TO EMPLOYEES

Faribault Foods' President will publish a statement to Faribault's employees affirming Faribault's commitment to treating all employees with respect and dignity, regardless of race or national origin.

XII. TEMPORARY TO REGULAR EMPLOYEES

A. In the event that Faribault hires temporary employees, it will identify those employees who are holding "temporary to regular" positions and those who are hired for "temporary" positions.

B. Upon completion by "temporary to regular" employees of a temporary period of not more than ninety days, Faribault will provide a written evaluation and determine whether the employee's employment with Faribault will continue as regular employment at will, or, in the alternative, be terminated. Upon request, Faribault will translate the performance evaluation into Spanish.

C. No "temporary to regular" employee at Faribault will be denied regular employment status after the temporary period because of lack of English proficiency unless English proficiency is an appropriate requirement for the position in accordance with UGESP. Faribault will notify the EEOC within ten working days if a "temporary to regular" Faribault employee's employment is terminated because of lack of English proficiency.

D. At least annually, Faribault will supply the Diversity Committee with a statement of the national origin and race of all "temporary to regular" employees hired for non-office positions within the preceding year who were not transferred to regular employment status following the temporary employment period of no longer than 90 days.

E. Nothing in this Consent Decree is intended to alter any employee's status as an "at will" employee.

XIII. TRANSLATION OF DOCUMENTS

All written communications with the Class Members pursuant to the terms of this Decree, including all notices issued pursuant to this Decree, will be in English and Spanish. Faribault Foods will pay the cost of the translation services.

XIV. MONETARY REMEDY

A. Faribault Foods will make monetary payments in resolution of this matter, as described in the remainder of this Section XIV.

B. Faribault Foods will make a monetary payment of $465,000 ($900,000, less fees and costs for Class Counsel) to be allocated to the Claims of the Class Representatives. Prior to the hearing of the Final Approval of this Decree, the EEOC and undersigned Class Counsel will jointly submit proposed distributions to these persons to a third-party neutral decision-maker, who will have the authority to revise the distributions. Costs associated with the third-party neutral decision-maker shall be borne by the Class Representatives. Fifty percent of these amounts will be paid subject to tax withholdings based on the Employee's claimed exemptions on file. Faribault Foods shall issue a form 1099 to each Class Representative for the remaining Fifty percent of these payments.

C. Faribault Foods will pay each Class Member, other than the Class Representatives, who has worked at Faribault, on Faribault Foods' payroll, at any time on or after September 14, 2001 through October 9, 2007 (the "Employee Class"), who timely files a Claim Form as described in Section XV, an amount based on the Employee Class Member's term of service with Faribault Foods between September 14, 2001 and October 9, 2007 as follows:

Employee Class Member's Term of Service on Faribault's Payroll Between September 14, 2001 and October 9, 2007	Payment to Employee Class Member

At Least One but Less than Two Years	$2,000.00
At Least Two but Less than Three Years	$2,500.00
Three or More Years	$3,500.00

Fifty percent of these amounts will be paid subject to tax withholdings based on the Employee's claimed exemptions on file. Faribault Foods shall issue a form 1099 to each Employee Class member for the remaining Fifty percent of these payments.

D. Faribault Foods will pay each Applicant Class Member, other than the Class Representatives, who files a timely and complete Applicant Class Member Claim Form, as described in paragraph XV, the sum of $100.00. "Applicant Class Members" are all individuals who (1) applied to work at or worked through a temporary agency at Faribault between September 14, 2001 and October 9, 2007, (2) do not appear on Faribault's payroll between September 14, 2001 and October 9, 2007, and (3) are not Class Representatives. A form 1099 shall be issued to each member of the Applicant Class who files a valid Claim Form as described in Section XV.

E. Faribault Foods will make a monetary payment (the "Attorneys' Fees Payment") of $435,000 to pay the fees and costs of Class Counsel. Class Counsel in this matter is the following:

James H. Kaster
Nichols Kaster & Anderson, PLLP
4600 IDS Center
80 South Eighth Street
Minneapolis, MN 55402-2242

A form 1099 shall be issued to Nichols Kaster & Anderson for this amount. In recognition of this payment, a form 1099 shall also be issued to each member of the Settlement Class for a pro rata share of the Attorneys' Fees Payment based on the individual's fraction of the total payment to all of the Settlement Class Members.

XV. CLAIM PROCEDURE

A. Within 30 calendar days after the Court's preliminary approval of this Decree, Faribault Foods will transmit to Class Counsel a computer disk containing information in Excel format from its payroll database including the full name, social security number, last known phone number and last known address for each Class Member appearing in Faribault's payroll database.

B. Within 10 calendar days of the receipt of the employee data, Class Counsel will mail to all known Class Members at their last known address via first class postage, (1) a Notice of Settlement; and (2) an Employee Claim Form or an Applicant Claim Form, depending upon whether the Class Member is an Employee Class Member or an Applicant Class Member (collectively "original Notice of Settlement and Claim Form"). For all returned mail, Class Counsel will conduct a search for the most recent address. If the search yields a new address, Class Counsel will also mail the Notice of Settlement and Claim Form to the most recent address. Class Counsel will not be required to continue to mail the Notice of Settlement and Claim Form for returned mail after 80 days of the postmarked date of the original Notice of Settlement and Claim Form. In addition, Class Counsel will send a release form to the Class Representatives in a form consistent with Section II.C above.

1. The Notice to be sent will be in the form of Exhibit B, and approved (or modified) by the Court. It is intended to include:

(a) a description of the claims;

(b) the terms of the settlement, including factors that will be considered in distributing the funds;

(c) a statement that the Court will hold a hearing at which time the Court will consider the fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness of the proposed settlement;

(d) a statement that, before the Fairness Hearing, Class Members will be notified of their final distribution, which will be filed with the Court;

(e) instructions regarding opting out; and

(f) a Claim Form and instructions.

2. The Employee Class Member Claim Form will be in the form of Exhibit C. The Applicant Class Member Claim Form will be in the form of Exhibit D.

C. Within 30 calendar days after the Court's preliminary approval of this Decree, Class Counsel will cause to be published, in a periodical designated by EEOC and the Class Representatives as likely to be read by members of the Settlement Class, a notice ("Published Notice") in the form of Exhibit A, inviting individuals who may be members of the Applicant Class to contact Class Counsel for additional information. If any individual responds to the Published Notice, Class Counsel will, within ten days of receipt of the inquiry, mail to such individual an original Notice of Settlement and Claim Form, as described in Section XV.B., above. Class Counsel will provide the EEOC and counsel for Faribault Foods with copies of the Applicant Claims Forms received by Class Counsel. If Counsel for Faribault Foods or the EEOC believe that a particular individual is not a member of the Settlement Class, Counsel for Faribault Foods or the EEOC must notify Class Counsel of this belief within 10 business days of receiving the Claims Forms from Class Counsel. At that time, Class Counsel, the EEOC and counsel for Faribault Foods will consult in a good-faith effort to determine whether such individual is a member of the Settlement Class. If Class Counsel, the EEOC, and counsel for Faribault Foods cannot agree as to whether an individual is a member of the Settlement Class, the dispute will be submitted to the Court. Unless Class Counsel and counsel for Faribault Foods mutually determine otherwise, any person who receives notice solely pursuant to this subsection will be treated for all purposes under this Consent Decree as a member of the Applicant Class, and will be eligible to receive a monetary payment pursuant to Section XIV.D.

D. Claim Forms will be returnable to Class Counsel. Claim Forms must be actually received by Class Counsel within ninety (90) days of the postmarked date of the original Notice of Settlement and Claim Form. Class Counsel will include the specific date in the Notice of the proposed decree by which the executed Claim Form must be received by the Class Counsel. Any Claim Form received after that date will not be considered timely. Failure to submit a timely Claim Form will disqualify the Class Member from the receipt of any relief under Section XIV of this Decree. Claim Forms must be mailed to:

Nichols Kaster & Anderson, PLLP
Attn: James H. Kaster
4600 IDS Center
80 South Eighth Street
Minneapolis, MN 55402

Class Counsel shall make Claim Forms available to Faribault Foods for review upon request.

E. If any Class Representative opts out of this settlement, he or she will not be entitled to recover an award pursuant to Section XIV.B., and this Decree shall be voidable at the sole option of Faribault Foods.

XVI. HEARING ON CONSENT DECREE

A. The Court will conduct a hearing on the fairness of this Decree on March 20, 2008, at 8:00 a.m.

B. Thirty (30) days before the hearing, the EEOC and Class Counsel will submit to the Court a list of all proposed claimants and proposed monetary distribution for its review and approval as part of the hearing on the fairness of this Decree. Class Counsel will also notify each claimant of the amount of their proposed distribution and the right to file objections to the proposed Consent Decree.

C. If any person wishes to object to the entry of this Decree, the objector must file with the Court a detailed written statement of the objection. The objections may be in Spanish or in English. The objector must file the original objection with the Court and send copies to each of the representatives of the parties listed below, postmarked within twenty-one (21) days after mailing of the notice of the amount of the proposed distribution and the right to file objections:

Holly M. Robbins
Faegre & Benson, LLP
2200 Wells Fargo Center

80 South Eighth Street
Minneapolis, MN 55402

Laurie A. Vasichuk
Equal Employment Opportunity Commission
330 Second Avenue South, Suite 430
Minneapolis, MN 55401

D. The undersigned parties will have the right to respond to any objections. The parties' responses may be filed with the Court no later than seven (7) days before the hearing.

E. If the Court disapproves any major substantive provision of this Decree, or of the amount of the distributions to the claimants, the parties will not be bound by this proposed Consent Decree in any way and will be free to litigate the issues raised in the Commission's or the Class Representatives' Complaint or to renegotiate any other settlement agreement.

F. If the Court approves this Decree, Class Counsel will mail a Release to the Class Representatives in the form provided for in Section II.C. within seven (7) business days. The Class Representatives will have thirty (30) calendar days to review, execute the Release, and mail it back to the Class Counsel. If any Class Representative fails to sign the Release, he or she will not be entitled to recover an award pursuant to Section XIV, and the Consent Decree will be voidable at the sole option of Faribault Foods.

G. Upon expiration of the time for submission of Release forms, Class Counsel will notify Faribault of the distribution of the Consent Decree proceeds. Faribault will, within twenty-one (21) business days, mail the checks for each identified Class Member in the amount of the proposed distribution, less applicable withholdings, to Class Counsel. Class Counsel will, within twenty-one (21) business days, mail checks to each Class Member. At the same time that Faribault mails the checks for each identified Class Member, Faribault will also mail a check to Class Counsel representing its allocated portion of the settlement proceeds.

XVII. PRE-MEDIATION AND MEDIATION AGREEMENTS; CONFLICTS

A. During the course of this litigation and settlement negotiation, Class Counsel and Faribault Foods' counsel entered into a Pre-Mediation Confidentiality Agreement. Further, Class Counsel, the EEOC and Faribault Foods' counsel entered into an Expert Information Exchange Agreement. The parties agree that these agreements shall remain in effect and are enforceable by this Consent Decree. Documents will be returned to the parties as required by these agreements.

B. Class Counsel agree that during the term of this Consent Decree they will not represent any Class Member who is allowed to opt out of the provisions of this Consent Decree in any litigation against Faribault Foods that arises out of, or is related to, Class Claims asserted in this case prior to the expiration of this Consent Decree, because such representation would create a conflict of interest.

XVIII. REPORTING

A. Faribault will submit to the EEOC on a semi-annual basis a certification of compliance with this Decree. The EEOC may review compliance of the Decree during the term of this Decree upon written notice to Faribault Foods' attorney of record at least ten (10) business days in advance of any inspection of Faribault's documents or premises. Upon such notice, Faribault will allow representatives of the Commission to review Faribault's compliance with this Decree by inspecting and photocopying relevant documents and records, interviewing employees and management officials on their premises, and inspecting their premises.

B. Semi-annually during the term of this Decree, Faribault will notify the EEOC of any complaints of national origin discrimination or retaliation, the name and address of the person making the complaint, and the disposition of the complaint. Faribault will submit to the EEOC any documents that the EEOC requests relating to the complaint.

XIX. THE WORK CONNECTION

The EEOC and Class Representatives Alicia Moreno, Jose Barragan, Joe Camarillo, Enrique Chavez, Diana Escamilla, Jesse Hernandez, Liliana Limon, Veronica Venegas Ortiz, Abila Corleto, Leticia Duran, Silvia Echeverria, Lorenzo Garcia, Oscar Mares, Maria Sandoval, Diana Velasquez, Mayra Rocha, and Daniel Quinonez (hereinafter "TWC Class Representatives") have also filed class action lawsuits against The Work Connection, entitled EEOC v. The Work Connection, Case Number 07-cv-3977 and Moreno, et al. v. The Work Connection, Case Number 07-cv-3985 (hereinafter "the TWC Lawsuits"). The Work Connection, the EEOC, and the TWC Class Representatives have agreed to enter into a Consent Decree to resolve the TWC Lawsuits. If the TWC Lawsuits Consent Decree in the TWC Lawsuits is not entered by the Court, then this Consent Decree is voidable by Faribault Foods.

XX. STATEMENT REGARDING MEDIATION

Pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 572.35, the parties acknowledge that they were, and hereby are again, advised in writing (1) that the mediator has no duty to protect their interests or to provide them with information about their legal rights; (2) that signing a mediated settlement agreement may adversely affect their legal rights; and (3) that they should consult an attorney before signing a mediated settlement agreement if they are uncertain of their rights.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

1. Why did I get this notice?

You have been identified as a Hispanic individual who has worked or applied to work in a position at a Faribault Foods' Faribault, Minnesota facility between September 14, 2001 and October 9, 2007.

You have been sent this notice because you have a right to know about a proposed settlement of two class action lawsuits, and about your options, before the Court decides whether to approve the settlement. If the Court approves this settlement and after any objections and appeals are resolved, payments will be made as approved by the Court. You will be informed of the progress of the settlement.

This notice explains the lawsuits, the settlement, your legal rights, what benefits are available, who is eligible for them, and how to get them.

Two lawsuits have been brought against Faribault Foods, Inc. The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC") brought one of the lawsuits. The EEOC's lawsuit is called EEOC v. Faribault Foods, Inc., Case No. 07-cv-3976. The EEOC is the United States government agency that is responsible for enforcing the federal laws that make it illegal to discriminate on the basis of race and national origin.

Forty-five current and former Faribault Foods employees and applicants brought the second lawsuit. This case is known as Mendez et al. v. Faribault Foods, Inc., Case No. 07-cv-3986.

In these cases, the EEOC and the people who sued are called "Plaintiffs." The company the Plaintiffs sued, Faribault Foods, Inc., is called the Defendant. The EEOC is one of the Plaintiffs. The following individuals are also Plaintiffs: Santos Augusto Arevalo, Moises Alvarez, Isabel Cabeza, Joe Camarillo, Otto Campos, Armida Cerritos, Enrique Chavez, Rosa Lidia Clemente, Yolanda Correa, Diana Escamilla, Salvador Fraire, Lorenzo Garcia, Trinidad Gonzalez, Sergio Heredia, Jesse Hernandez, Liliana Limon, Javier Limon, Efrain Martinez, Francisco Mendez, Alicia Moreno, Valentin Ortiz, Jose Luis Ortiz, Veronica Ortiz Venegas, Walter Perez, Martha Ramirez, Jose Rodriguez, Alba Teletor, Fernando Valdez, Julian Villarreal, Juana Villarreal Trevino, Catalina Del Valle, Jose Barragan, Abila Corleto, Leticia Duran, Silvia Echeverria, Adalberto Gonzalez, Obed Hernandez, Norma Ledesma, Oscar Mares, Immer Martinez, Maria Sandoval, Diana Velazquez, Mayra Rocha, Daniel Quinonez, and Ramon Mejia-Rivera.

The Court responsible for these cases is the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota. The judge's name is U.S. District Court Judge Richard H. Kyle. He is responsible for overseeing this class action.

2. Why is this a class action?

The individual Plaintiffs listed above are also "Class Representatives." The Class Representatives sued on behalf of people with similar claims. Together those people are a "Class" or "Class Members."

In a class action, Class Representatives sue on behalf of the Class. One court resolves the issues for all Class Members, except for those who exclude themselves from the Class.

The Court decided that this lawsuit can be a class action and be settled because it meets the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, which governs class actions in federal court.

3. What are these lawsuits about?

In the lawsuits, the Plaintiffs claimed that Faribault Foods discriminated against current and former Hispanic employees and applicants at Faribault Foods' Faribault, Minnesota facility on the basis of national origin and race with respect to hiring, promotion, compensation, and other terms and conditions of employment. More information about federal laws prohibiting job discrimination can be found at the website of the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, www.eeoc.gov.

Faribault Foods denies that it discriminated unlawfully or did anything wrong. The settlement is not an admission of wrongdoing or an indication that any law was violated.

The Plaintiffs sought to obtain money for persons that they believed were discriminated against by Faribault Foods, Inc. because they were Hispanic and to take steps to prevent discrimination against Hispanic workers at Faribault Foods, Inc.

The EEOC, the Class Representatives, and their attorneys believe the settlement described in this notice accomplishes the goals of their lawsuits.

4. Why is there a settlement?

The Court did not decide in favor of the EEOC, the Class Representatives, or the Defendants. Instead, all parties agreed to a settlement. The EEOC, the Class Representatives and their attorneys think the settlement is best for everyone who they claim was injured by or exposed to discrimination.

WHO IS IN THE CLASS

To see if you may receive money as a result of this settlement, you first have to decide if you are a Class Member.

5. How do I know if I am part of the Class?

Judge Kyle decided that everyone who fits this description is a Class Member: All current and former Hispanic Faribault Foods' employees who have been on the Faribault Foods' payroll at Faribault Foods' Faribault, Minnesota facilities at any time between September 14, 2001 and October 9, 2007, and all Hispanic applicants who completed an application through a temporary service or directly through Faribault Foods to work in positions at Faribault Foods' Faribault, Minnesota facilities at any time between September 14, 2001 and October 9, 2007.

For more information, you may also visit the website of the attorneys for the class, www.nka.com/ff. THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS

7. What does the settlement provide?

The parties have agreed to a monetary settlement based on the time period that Class Members were on Faribault Foods' payroll for its Faribault, Minnesota operations. If you return a valid Claim Form, you will receive a settlement amount, less tax withholding, based on the following:

Employee Class Member's Term of Service on Faribault Foods' payroll between September 14, 2001 and October 9, 2007	Payment
Less than 60 days	$500.00
At least 60 days, but less than 1 year	$1,500.00
At least 1, but less than 2 years	$2,000.00
At least 2, but less than 3 years	$2,500.00
Three or more years	$3,500.00

If you applied to work for Faribault Foods in Faribault or worked for Faribault Foods in Faribault through a temporary agency but were never on Faribault Foods' payroll and if you return a valid Claim Form, you will receive a settlement amount of $100.00.

Class Counsel will ask the Court for attorneys' fees in the amount of $ 345,000 and reimbursement for costs in the approximate amount of $ 90,000. The Named Plaintiffs in the lawsuit will not receive the payments indicated above. Instead, $ 900,000 less attorneys' fees and costs will be shared and distributed among them based upon the facts of their claims.

Additionally, the parties have agreed that Faribault Foods will take certain actions in the workplace to help prevent discrimination on the basis of national origin or race. These actions include the establishment by Faribault Foods of a diversity committee and other steps.

HOW YOU GET A PAYMENT—SUBMITTING A CLAIM FORM

8. How can I get a payment?

To qualify for payment, you must send in a claim form. A claim form is attached to this Notice. You may also get a claim form on the Internet at www.nka.com/ff. Read the instructions carefully, fill out the form, include all the documents the form asks for, sign it, and mail it postmarked no later than [CORRECT DATE TO BE FILLED IN BY COUNSEL]. Follow all the instructions on the claim form.

9. When would I get my payment?

The Court will hold a hearing on March 20, 2008, to decide whether to approve the settlement. If Judge Kyle approves the settlement, after that, there may be appeals. Resolving appeals can take time, perhaps more than a year. Everyone who sends in a claim form will be informed of the progress of the settlement. Please be patient.

10. What am I giving up to get a payment or stay in the Class?

Unless you exclude yourself, you are staying in the Class, and that means that you cannot sue, continue to sue, file a charge with the EEOC, or be part of any other lawsuit against Faribault Foods about the legal issues in this case. It also means that all of the Court's orders will apply to you and legally bind you. If you sign the Claim Form, you will release your claims. The Claim Form describes the legal claims you give up if you get settlement benefits.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT

If you do not want a payment from this settlement, but you want keep the right to sue or continue to sue Faribault Foods, on your own, about the legal issues in this case, then you must take steps to exclude yourself from the settlement. Excluding yourself from the settlement is sometimes referred to as opting out of the settlement Class.

11. How do I get out of the settlement?

To exclude yourself from the settlement, you must send a letter by mail saying that you want to be excluded from Mendez et al. v. Faribault Foods, Inc. Be sure to include your name, address, telephone number, and your signature. To ensure that your exclusion letter is received, it is recommended that you send it via certified mail. You cannot exclude yourself on the phone or by email.

If you ask to be excluded, you will not get any settlement payment and you cannot object to the settlement. You will not be legally bound by anything that happens in this lawsuit. You may be able to sue (or continue to sue) Faribault Foods in the future.

12. If I don't exclude myself, may I sue Faribault Foods for the same thing later?

No. Unless you exclude yourself, you give up the right to sue Faribault Foods for the claims that this settlement resolves. If you have a pending lawsuit against Faribault Foods, speak to your lawyer in that lawsuit immediately. You must exclude yourself from this Class to continue your own lawsuit. Remember, the exclusion deadline is [CORRECT DATE TO BE FILLED IN BY COUNSEL].

13. If I exclude myself, may I get money from this settlement?

No. If you exclude yourself, do not send in a claim form to ask for any money. If you exclude yourself, you may sue, continue to sue, or be part of a different lawsuit against Faribault Foods.

14. If I am not a part of the Class, do I have to exclude myself?

No. If you are not a part of the class, you do not need to exclude yourself. You can either return a Claim Form to see if you are a part of the Class, or you may do nothing.

15. Do I have a lawyer in this case?

The Court decided that the law firm of Nichols Kaster & Anderson PLLP in Minneapolis, Minnesota is qualified to represent you and all Class Members. The law firm is called Class Counsel. You will not be charged for these lawyers. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, you may hire one at your own expense. More information about Class Counsel is available at www.nka.com.

You may tell the Court that you do not agree with the settlement or some part of it. You may make your objections in Spanish.

17. How do I tell the Court that I do not like the settlement?

The Court will consider your views. To object, you must send a letter saying that you object to Mendez et al. v. Faribault Foods, Inc. Be sure to include your name, address, telephone number, your signature, and the reasons you object to the settlement. Objections must be made in writing.

Excluding yourself is telling the Court that you do not want to be part of the Class. If you exclude yourself, you have no basis to object because the case no longer affects you.

You cannot speak at the hearing if you excluded yourself.

IF YOU DO NOTHING
