The message was forwarded to the Acting Emergency Judge. As best the court can determine, Ms. Tarzian received notice of a class action pending before District Judge Amy St. Eve. Judge St. Eve certified a class of women who were in the custody of the Sheriff of Cook County on or after December 4, 2006 and have been or will be shackled during labor or delivery, or post-delivery recovery. In her message to the court, Ms. Tarzian (who evidently has been in the Sheriff's custody during the relevant time period) has never been pregnant or delivered a baby. The court assures Ms. Tarzian that if she has not and will not give birth in the Sheriff's custody, she is not a member of the class and need not take any action at this time. Counsel in this action are invited to communicate with Ms. Tarzian as appropriate. Mailed notice (etv,) (Entered: 10/04/2010)

12/07/2011	272	MINUTE entry before Honorable Amy J. St. Eve: Certain statements in Defendant Sheriff Dart's Local Rule 56.1(a) Statement of Facts (R. 214) are supported by interrogatory answers that do not comply with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 33(b)(3), namely, that "[e]ach interrogatory must, to the extent it is not objected to, be answered separately and fully in writing under oath." The oath requirement can be satisfied by having the answers sworn to before a notary public or by providing a declaration -- under penalty of perjury -- pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746. The Court directs Defendant Dart to supplement his Rule 56.1(a) Statement of Facts by supporting these statements with properly verified interrogatories by no later than December 14, 2011. Defendant Dart's failure to do so will result in the Court striking these statements as insufficient evidence in support of his Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 56 motion for summary judgment.
