BRITTON v. FOLSOM (DALLAS, TEXAS)
(Northern District of Texas-Dallas Division)

CCA	November 30, 1960	CCA reverses DC approval of Plan No. 3, and directed DC to approve Plan No. 1 (grade/year) beginning with the first grade September 1961. Also directed DC to retain jurisdiction and govern its future decisions by Brown v. Topeka "all deliberate speed" concept, placing burden on defendants to show need for 12 years to desegregate completely. 285 F. 2d 43 (C.A. 5, 1960)

CCA July 2, 1965

DC denied plaintiff's motion and approved the desegregation resolution without alteration (elementary 65-66; junior high schools 66-67; senior high schools 67-68; single or unitary attendance areas.) Plaintiffs filed notice of appeal.
