10/03/2014	50	MINUTES of Proceedings: On October 3, 2014, the Court conferred briefly with counsel concerning Plaintiff's stated intention to seek leave to file a Third Amended Complaint notwithstanding that Defendants' Motion 40 to Dismiss (against Plaintiff's Second Amended Complaint) is pending Defendants' Reply and the Court's consideration. Although the Court is willing to deem the Motion 40 withdrawn and to grant Plaintiff leave to file the Third Amended Complaint, Defendants' counsel requested time to consider the matter more fully. Accordingly, no later than October 14, 2014, Defendants shall file either (a) their Reply in further support of the Motion, in which case the Court will consider the merits of the Motion and any Motion by Plaintiff for leave to file a Third Amended Complaint, or (b) Defendants' consent that Plaintiff file his Third Amended Complaint and Defendants' withdrawal of their Motion 40 with leave to refile similar arguments in response to the Third Amended Complaint. 10/10/2014	52	ORDER by Judge Anna J. Brown. Granting Unopposed Motion to Extend Deadline to Reply or Respond Concerning Proposed Amendment of Complaint 51 . No later than 11/4/2014, Defendants shall file either (a) their Reply in further support of the Motion, in which case the Court will consider the merits of the Motion and any Motion by Plaintiff for leave to file a Third Amended Complaint, or (b) Defendants' consent that Plaintiff file his Third Amended Complaint and Defendants' withdrawal of their Motion 40 with leave to refile similar arguments in response to the Third Amended Complaint. 11/05/2014	54	Order by Judge Anna J. Brown. The Court has reviewed Defendants' Notice 53 and, in light thereof, GRANTS Plaintiff leave to file his Third Amended Complaint no later than 11/14/14. In the exercise of its case-management discretion, the Court also GRANTS Defendants until 1/14/15 to file their Answer or other responsive pleadings to the Third Amended Complaint. Accordingly, it appears to the Court that the filing of such Third Amended Complaint will render moot the Motion 40 of some Defendants to dismiss Plaintiff's Second Amended Complaint and, unless the Court receives by 11/14/14 a justification to maintain Motion #40 on the docket, the Court will strike Motion #40 as moot as of that date. 01/14/2015	57	ORDER by Judge Anna J. Brown. The Court GRANTS in part and DENIES in part the Official-Capacity Defendants' Unopposed Motion 56 for Stay, or in the Alternative, Extension of Time. The Court agrees it is appropriate for the Official-Capacity Defendants to reconsider Plaintiff's DHS TRIP inquiry under new procedures, but the Court finds a stay is unnecessary to permit Defendants to do so. In addition, the Court notes this case is now over 18 months old and has not yet proceeded beyond the pleading stage. Accordingly, no later than March 9, 2015, Defendants shall complete a substantive reconsideration of Plaintiff's DHS TRIP inquiry consistent with Defendants' newly-created procedures and shall notify Plaintiff of the result of Defendants' reconsideration. No later than March 16, 2015, the parties shall submit a single, Joint Status Report in which they present their recommendations for the next steps in this case, including whether it is appropriate for Plaintiff to be permitted to file a Fourth Amended Complaint that takes into account Defendants' newly-created procedures before Defendants file their responsive pleading to Plaintiff's operative Complaint. The Joint Status Report shall specify an efficient schedule to advance this action past the initial pleadings and to make progress toward a final resolution without further delay. The Court will review the Joint Status Report upon its receipt and set a final case-management schedule shortly thereafter. (bb) (Entered: 01/14/2015)

04/02/2015	61	Order by Judge Anna J. Brown. Upon review of Plaintiffs Fourth Amended Complaint 60 , the Court notes Plaintiffs procedural due-process claim (Claim Six) still does not allege the denial of any specific protected liberty or property interest. Plaintiffs previous failure in his First Amended Complaint to plead and specifically to identify in his procedural due-process claim the protected liberty or property interest that he contends has been denied was the basis for the Courts dismissal of that claim without prejudice and with leave to amend. See Opin. and Order 36 at 28-29. Notwithstanding any other challenges Defendants may assert against Plaintiff's Fourth Amended Complaint and in the interest of advancing this almost two-year-old litigation that has not yet moved beyond the pleading stage, the Court exercises its discretion and hereby GRANTS to Plaintiff leave to file a Corrected Fourth Amended Complaint to address this issue if Plaintiff chooses to do so no later than April 8, 2015. The Court does not intend to grant to Plaintiff any further leave to amend his procedural due-process claim. (bb) (Entered: 04/02/2015)

03/16/2016	97	ORDER by Judge Anna J. Brown. The Court has reviewed Plaintiff's Motion 84 for Relief FRCP 60(B), which, although docketed as pertaining to the Court's Opinion and Order 83 issued November 4, 2015, appears, in fact, to challenge the Court's Opinion and Order 81 issued on that same day. The Court GRANTS Plaintiff's Motion to the extent that the Court reconsiders its Opinion and Order 81 . Having reconsidered Plaintiff's arguments, however, the Court adheres to its conclusion that Plaintiff lacks standing to seek declaratory relief on Plaintiff's Claim Fifteen brought under the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution. Accordingly, the Court declines to alter or to amend its November 4, 2015, Opinion and Order 81 . (bb) (Entered: 03/16/2016)

05/09/2016	99	Order by Judge Anna J. Brown. In light of Defendants' Notice 98 Regarding Plaintiff's Status in which Defendants advise the Court that Plaintiff has been removed from the No-Fly List, the Court directs the parties to confer and to file no later than May 16, 2016, a single, joint status report in which the parties set out their positions regarding the effect that Plaintiff's removal from the No-Fly List has on Defendants' pending Motion 90 to Dismiss Plaintiff's Fifth Amended Complaint and Plaintiff's Unopposed Motion 91 to Stay Due Process Claims and, in particular, that specifies which portions of the pending Motions now are moot and which portions are unaffected by the Notice. 05/20/2016	101	Order by Judge Anna J. Brown. The Court concludes additional oral argument on Motion 90 is unnecessary so long as the parties have a fair opportunity to file supplemental briefs. No later than 5/27/2016, the parties must file a Stipulation confirming their agreement(s). If the parties reach any additional agreements, they should be included in the Stipulation. No later than 6/23/2016, the parties must file simultaneous supplemental memoranda(not to exceed 20 pages of substance) that (a) state and support their positions as to the effect of Plaintiffs Notice 98 and this Courts decisions to date in Latif on the efficacy of Plaintiffs Fifth Amended Complaint in light of the Motion 90 to Dismiss it, and (b) summarize concisely, with references to the existing briefing on Motion #90, all of their arguments in support or opposition thereof. The Court will then take Motion 90 under advisement on 6/23/2016. With respect to Plaintiff's Unopposed Motion 91 to Stay Due Process Claims, the Court proposes to deny that Motion as premature with leave to renew in the context of a proposed case-management schedule to be set after the Court resolves Motion 90 to Dismiss. If the parties do not jointly agree with this approach, they must file no later than 5/27/2016, a joint statement expressing the reasons for their disagreement. See attached. 02/26/2019	124	Scheduling Order by Judge Anna J. Brown. The Court has reviewed the parties' Joint Case Management Proposal (# 123) and, in the exercise of its case management discretion, directs the parties to proceed as follows: Plaintiff's anticipated motion for leave to amend his complaint is due no later than March 15, 2019. Defendants' response to that motion is due no later than March 29, 2019. Plaintiff's reply in support of his Rule 15 motion is due no later than April 5, 2019. The Court will endeavor to rule on Plaintiff's Rule 15 motion on an expedited basis and Plaintiff should be prepared to file any amended complaint consistent with the Court's order no later than 10 days after the Court rules on the Rule 15 motion. Defendants' anticipated motion to dismiss will be due 30 days after Plaintiff files his amended complaint or, in the event that the Court denies leave to amend altogether, 30 days after the Court rules on Plaintiff's Rule 15 motion. The Court will set a full briefing schedule for Defendants' anticipated Rule 12 motion after such motion is filed. The Court also concludes the anticipated discovery issues in this matter are too complex to allow the discovery process to begin before the Court determines which of Plaintiff's claims can go forward. Accordingly, in order to promote the just, speedy, and inexpensive resolution of this matter pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 1, the Court directs that discovery not begin until after all Rule 15 and Rule 12 litigation is complete.
