vs.

Ray Hobbs, et al

Defendants

Declaration of Paul Smith

I, Paul Smith, hereby declares:

I have been incarcerated at the Cummins Unit since September 8, 2011. I have been assigned to Administrative Segregation since November 8, 2011. It is common practice for the Classification Committee to assign people for the most mundane of things. Usually when someone is assigned to Ad Seg they must remain there until they reach Class I-C status. Rare indeed is someone ever released on Class 3. I myself am confined until I reach Class I-C status. Then they can give you what is known as a "60 day" set off in which at a 60 day review on Ad Seg status they can decide to leave you back here indefinitely only reviewing you every 60 days.

I verify and affirm under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

Executed at Grady, Arkansas on February 7 2012
