03/25/2016	105	MOTION for Reconsideration re 100 Order by Stanley Chairs. (rah) (Entered: 03/25/2016)
03/28/2016	106	ORDER denying 105 Motion for Reconsideration. Plaintiff asks the Court to reconsider its ruling denying his motion for a default judgment and granting Defendant Butler's request for an extension. Plaintiff has provided no new legal grounds, facts, or extraordinary circumstances that would justify reconsideration. In fact, Plaintiff's main argument is that he filed "first," and prior to consolidation. This is not accurate; Plaintiff's case was consolidated on 3/7/16, three days before he alleges he filed the motion. Nor was Butler's motion for an extension untimely as she had until 3/8/16 to file an answer, and requested an extension on that day. Plaintiff's argument that he was "first" is also unavailing; the Court may rule on motions in any order at its discretion. If Plaintiff wishes to leave the class action, he may file a motion on that point, but it is unlikely that the Court would appoint him an attorney in those circumstances. Signed by Magistrate Judge Stephen C. Williams on 3/28/2016. (jcp)THIS TEXT ENTRY IS AN ORDER OF THE COURT. NO FURTHER DOCUMENTATION WILL BE MAILED. (Entered: 03/28/2016)

		performed by the Orange Crush Tactical Team at Menard Correctional Center. The Complaint is similar to the pleading in Ross v. Gossett, Case No. 15-cv-309-SMY-SCW, which was filed in this Court on March 19, 2015. Due to similarities between the two cases and the need to consolidate judicial resources concerning Orange Crush cases, this matter is hereby CONSOLIDATED with the lead case, Ross v. Gossett et al., 15-cv-309. The currently scheduled Final Pretrial Conference and trial settings are hereby VACATED. Further, Defendants' motion for summary judgment (Doc. 39) is DENIED without prejudice and may be refiled in accordance with Judge Williams' scheduling and case management orders in 15-cv-309. All future documents shall be filed in the aforementioned case. A copy of this order shall be filed in both cases. The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to consolidate the two cases. 03/22/2017	274	Minute Entry for proceedings held before Magistrate Judge Stephen C. Williams: Discovery Dispute Conference held on 3/22/2017. Sarah Grady and Sam Hippell for Plaintiff. Susannah Price for Defendants. The Court discussed with the parties ongoing ESI production by Defendants. The Court divided the ESI production into three groups: (1) email production for identified supervisors for the time period surrounding the shakedown, with priority given to 10 of these individuals; (2) email production from 10 individuals during time period after suit was filed; and (3) production of personal communications for 10 individuals after suit was filed. Defendants indicated there has been a higher than expected number of documents that have come to fruition as a result of their email search. As to Group 1, they have completed production as to one of the prioritized individuals and have roughly 5000 documents for two other individuals. Defendants sought three weeks to examine the 5000 documents as to these two individuals to search for sensitive information that, in IDOC's opinion, should be redacted. Defendants shall produce the 5000 batch documents no later than April 12, 2017. This matter is set for a Discovery Dispute Conference on April 20, 2017 at 3:15 p.m. The parties shall give an update as to production for the other two groups at that conference. Instructions for placing the conference call are as follows: Call toll free 888-684-8852; when prompted, enter Access Code 6049846; and when prompted again enter Security Code 9467.(Court Reporter Laura Esposito.) 09/07/2017	399	ORDER striking 398 Motion for Order. Plaintiff Miller has again filed a pro se motion with this Court regarding money taken from his trust fund account to pay his filing fee. (Plaintiff claims this document is not a motion; however, he clearly seeks relief from what he alleges to be too much money being taken from his account.) He attempted to file the motion in his original case, 3:16-cv-416; however, since that matter has been consolidated with this suit, all pleadings filed in 16-416 are to be filed in this case. Plaintiff is represented by counsel in this matter, and has twice already been told he shall not file motions, such as the one before the Court, pro se. (See Docs. 383, 387). Again, the Court will make this very clear: Since he proceeds represented by counsel, other than pleadings seeking dismissal of his current counsel, Plaintiff Miller SHALL NOT file documents pro se, either in this case, 15-309, or in 16-416. Plaintiff Miller is reminded that he could be subject to sanctions, personally, for disobeying an order of the Court. If he feels there is an issue with the amount of money being taken from his trust fund account, Plaintiff may consult his attorneys regarding the issue. The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to STRIKE the Motion at Doc. 398. Signed by Magistrate Judge Stephen C. Williams on 9/7/2017. (rms2)THIS TEXT ENTRY IS AN ORDER OF THE COURT. NO FURTHER DOCUMENTATION WILL BE MAILED. (Entered: 09/07/2017)

05/09/2018	450	Minute Entry for proceedings held before Magistrate Judge Stephen C. Williams: Discovery Dispute Conference held on 5/9/2018. Sarah Grady, Sam Heppell, and Adair Crosley for Plaintiffs. Emma Steimel for Defendants. Upon an in camera review of the redacted documents provided, the Court is unable to make a determination as to their relevancy. Therefore, for the documents provided to the Court, Defendants shall produce said documents, unredacted, to counsel at

		Loevy and Loevy in accordance with the attorneys eyes only provisions of the protective order. Additionally, after reviewing the documents, the parties shall meet and confer and attempt to reach an agreement on which documents, if any, may be retained by Plaintiffs' counsel. Should the parties be unable to reach an agreement, they shall contact the Court. The documents may be retained by Plaintiffs' counsel for a period of 90 days. After the 90 day period, Plaintiffs' counsel shall return or destroy any documents the parties have not agreed are to be retained. Plaintiffs, however, may seek to review any of the documents again in the future, should counsel have a good faith basis to believe that factual developments have rendered relevant previously non-retained documents. The Court's ruling today also applies to a separate set of similar documents with security redactions that were not reviewed by the Court. In addition, the Court will conduct an in camera review of redactions to the TACT team training manual. This matter is set for a Discovery Dispute Conference on May 16, 2018 at 3:45 p.m.. 05/16/2018	452	Minute Entry for proceedings held before Magistrate Judge Stephen C. Williams: Discovery Dispute Conference held on 5/16/2018. Sarah Grady and Sam Heppell for Plaintiffs. Emma Steimel for Defendants. The Court has reviewed the redacted and unredacted copies of the TACT team manuals. The sections of the manual relating to the use of formations shall remain fully redacted and undisclosed. All other redactions contain information that is either potentially relevant or highly relevant, and all other sections of the manual shall therefore be produced unredacted. The TACT manual, however, is subject to the attorneys' eyes only protective order already put in place. In addition, Defendants raised an oral motion asking the Court to reconsider a portion of its May 9, 2018 ruling (Doc. 450). Defendants asked that the documents relating to STGs ordered produced in the Court's May 9 ruling be retained by defense counsel at their Chicago office while allowing access to Plaintiffs' counsel to review the documents. The motion is DENIED. While the Court understands Defendants' concerns regarding security, the Court has no reason to believe that Plaintiffs' counsel do not take their obligations under the attorneys' eyes order seriously. To require Plaintiffs' counsel to have to come to defense counsels' office at prearranged times in order to view the documents in question is overly burdensome and potentially prejudicial to Plaintiffs. Finally, the Court GRANTS the parties request to extend the deadline for class certification briefing. A Motion for Class Certification shall be filed no later than July 22, 2018.
