AN ORDINANCE TO PROHIBIT UNLAWFUL ASSEMBLAGES AND BREACHES OF THE PEACE, TO REGULATE AND CONTROL DEMONSTRATIONS, AND TO PRESERVE LAW AND ORDER.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SELMA AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Definitions: In this ordinance the following words, terms and phrases wherever used in said ordinance shall have the meaning respectively ascribed to them in this section, unless the context indicates a contrary meaning: "Unlawful act," an act contrary to a law of the State of Alabama or the City of Selma punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both; "City," the City of Selma; "Street," any public street or public avenue, public road or public alley or sidewalk of the City; "Unlawful assembly," an assembly which is unlawful according to the common law of England, or Section 407, Title 14, Code of Alabama of 1940 or any other Alabama Act or statute; "Police officer," any member of the Police Department of the City or any member of the Fire Department of the City engaged in assisting policemen in police work, or any other person who at the request of an officer of the City or of a policeman is engaged in assisting policemen in police work.

Section 2. If two or more persons meet together in any street or public place to commit a breach of the peace or to do any unlawful act, each of them shall, on conviction, be punished as herein provided.

Section 3. If three or more persons meet together in any street or public place upon a common cause to violate an ordinance of the City and make advances toward the violation thereof, they shall be deemed guilty of a riot and, on conviction, shall be punished as provided herein.

Section 4. It shall be unlawful for anyone publicly to solicit persons to gather at any place for the purpose of engaging in a parade, procession or other public demonstration on the streets unless a permit for such parade, procession or other public demonstration has been previously secured as required by ordinances of the City.

Section 5. It shall be unlawful for any person or number of persons to stand, loiter, walk or run upon any street so as to obstruct free passage thereon; and it shall be unlawful for any person to stand or loiter upon any street after having been requested by any police officer to move on. It shall be unlawful for any person participating in any demonstration to lie prone on any street or in any public place unless he does so because of sickness or physical incapacity.

Section 6. It shall be unlawful for any person participating in any demonstration on any street or public place to shout, sing, or engage in any boisterous conduct in such manner as to disturb the peace and tranquility of the community.

Section 7. Those who participate in any demonstration on any sidewalk shall be spaced a distance of not less than ten feet apart; and not more than six persons shall demonstrate at any one time before the same place of business or public facility.

Section 8. Where there is an unlawful assembly on any street or in any public place, it shall be the duty of the police officer present to command the persons comprising such unlawful assembly to disperse and retire peacefully to their respective abodes and businesses. If there be more than one such police officer present, the command shall be given by the superior officer or by one or more persons deputed by him to give the command. In no case shall it be necessary to use any set or particular form or words in ordering the dispersion of any unlawful assembly. Nor shall such command be necessary where the person in order to give it would necessarily be put in imminent danger of loss of life or great bodily harm, or where such unlawful assembly or riot is engaged in the commission or perpetration of a felony, or in assaulting or attacking any police officer, or is otherwise engaged in actual violence to any person or property.

Section 9. Any person comprising a part of any unlawful assembly on any street or in any public place, who, after being duly commanded to disperse as hereinabove provided, willfully and intentionally fails to do so shall upon conviction be punished as hereinafter provided.

Section 10. Any person who unlawfully assaults or throws any missile against or at any police officer shall upon conviction be punished as hereinafter provided.

Section 11. When any missile is thrown from an assembly at any police officer, it shall be forthwith be the duty of every person in the assembly for which the missile is thrown, immediately to disperse or retire therefrom, without awaiting any order to do so; and any person who, knowing that a missile has been thrown from any such assembly, fails, without lawful excuse, to retire immediately from such assembly shall upon conviction be punished as hereinafter provided in this ordinance.

Section 12. Whenever the chief of police has good reason to believe that an unlawful assembly on a street or in a public place is in progress, or is planned to be held, it shall be lawful for the chief of police, if he has good reason to believe that it is necessary to prevent a breach of the peace, a disorder or a riot, to prohibit for the time being persons from occupying or passing on any street, or public place where such breach of the peace, disorder or riot is threatened or is believed by the chief of police likely to occur, and to otherwise regulate passage or occupancy upon such street and place. In the absence of the chief of police from the police headquarters in the City Hall the officer in Command of the said headquarters in the absence of the chief of police shall have all authority conferred by any section of this ordinance on the chief of police. In order to be absent within the meaning of this ordinance it shall not be necessary that the chief of police be absent from the City or that he be off duty. If he is not physically present in said headquarters then that officer in command of said headquarters while the chief of police is not present therein shall have all authority conferred by this ordinance on the chief of police.

The Chief of Police, or in his absence the officer mentioned in the next foregoing sentence, may deputize any member of the police department to impose the prohibitions or regulations upon occupying or passing on streets or public places hereinabove provided for. Any person after being duly informed of such prohibition or regulation who willfully and intentionally, without lawful excuse, attempts to go after being warned not to do so, or who remains on any such street, or public place and fails to depart after being warned to do so, shall upon conviction be punished as hereinafter provided in this ordinance.

Section 13. The chief of police may if he deems it advisable prescribe a reasonable distance in the vicinity of any jail or other place where prisoners are held within which persons shall not come without the permission of the officer in charge of such jail or place; and any person who knowingly and willfully, without lawful excuse, coming within such limits without the aforesaid permission, and refusing to retire after being ordered to do so by a police officer of the City of Selma shall upon conviction be punished as hereinafter provided in this ordinance.

Section 14. It shall be unlawful for any person to take part in or otherwise participate in any demonstration within any public building.

Section 15. This ordinance shall apply within the City of Selma and the police jurisdiction thereof.

Section 16. This ordinance shall not be construed to repeal any ordinance of the City or to authorize or permit any act prohibited by the laws of the State of Alabama or of the City.

Section 17. Any person who violates any provision of this ordinance or does any act made unlawful hereunder or fails to perform any duty or do any act required by this ordinance shall upon conviction be punished within the limits of and as provided by Section 489 of the Code of City of Selma of 1954.

Section 18. Should any provision of this ordinance be held invalid it shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions.

TABLE E

INDEX TO ARREST RECORDS
(July 4-9, 1964)

The purpose of this table is to provide an index for the location of exhibits pertaining to the arrest of persons in connection with civil rights activities during the week of July 4 through July 9, 1964. The index is arranged by incident.

All but one^{1/} of the arrested persons were lodged in the county jail. Their names were entered on the Register of Prisoners Committed to County Jail (Pl. Ex. 20) and case numbers were assigned to them in order of such entry. They were also booked on county booking sheets,^{2/} each of which has a "Booking No." identical to the case number in the Register of Prisoners.

JUVENILE COURT OF DALLAS COUNTY
DALLAS COUNTY, ALABAMA

In the Matter of

Ollie Mae Williams (8/2/51)

A child under sixteen years of age

To the JUVENILE COURT OF DALLAS COUNTY:

The petition of Joe Lewis and Carrie Williams respectfully represents
to the Court:

That your petitioner resides at Route 2, Box 184 street, in the city of Orrville, Alabama, in said county of Dallas and by occupation is a farmer and orderly at Memorial Hospital

That Ollie Mae Williams is a female child of the age of 12 years and is now a resident of or actually within the said county of Dallas that the place of residence of the said child is Dallas County

That the name of the father of the said child is Marion C. Parker and his place of residence is Mobile, Alabama that the name of the mother of the said child is Earline Williams Effinger and that her place of residence is deceased

That the name of the person having the guardianship, custody, control and supervision of the said child is no one and that the place of residence of such person is ----

That said child should be adjudged a ward of the State and in need of its care and protection, in that he so deports himself, or is in such condition or surroundings, or is under such improper or insufficient guardianship or control as to endanger the morals, health or general welfare of said child.

Petitioner further says the mother was not married to the father of said child; said child has grown up in the home of maternal relatives since birth; that petitioners who are maternal uncle and aunt of said child and who now have said child in their home can provide adequate care and want legal custody of said child.

Wherefore, the petitioner prays that summons issue to the said child and to the said

requiring them to show cause why said child should not be adjudged a ward of the State and dealt with according to the provisions of the law.

Date this 30th day of July, 1964

THE STATE OF ALABAMA,
JUVENILE COURT OF DALLAS COUNTY
DALLAS COUNTY, ALABAMA

In the Matter of Caldonia Roberson (6-24-49)

A child under sixteen years of age

To the JUVENILE COURT OF DALLAS COUNTY:

The petition of Augusta L. Wilkinson respectfully represents
to the Court:

That your petitioner resides at 124 Russell Drive street, in the city of Selma, in said county of Dallas and by occupation is a Director, Department of Pensions and Security

That Caldonia Roberson is a fe male child of the age of 15 years and is now a resident of or actually within the said county of Dallas that the place of residence of the said child is 1207 Fairview, Selma, Alabama

That the name of the father of the said child is West Roberson (deceased) and his place of residence is that the name of the mother of the said child is Emma Roberson and that her place of residence is 1207 Fairview, Selma, Alabama

That the name of the person having the guardianship, custody, control and supervision of the said child is Emma Roberson and that the place of residence of such person is 1207 Fairview, Selma, Alabama

That said child should be adjudged a ward of the State and in need of its care and protection, in that he so deprives her self, or is in such condition or surroundings, or is under such improper or insufficient guardianship or control as to endanger the morals, health or general welfare of said child.

Petitioner further says Caldonia has been involved in several thefts and has also been immoral. She has been expelled from school for cutting classes and her attitude in school. No one has been able to control her.

Wherefore, the petitioner prays that summons issue to the said child and to the said

requiring them to show cause why said child should not be adjudged a ward of the State and dealt with according to the provisions of the law.

Date this 10th day of December, 19 49

Petitioner.

_____ day of _____, 19____.

This day came defendant in open Court in his own proper person and the Court then and there:

1. Informed defendant that defendant had been indicted in this case by the Grand Jury of Dallas County.
2. Explained to the defendant the nature, character and elements of the offences included in the indictment.
3. Informed defendant that he had the right to a fair and impartial public trial before a jury selected according to law.
4. And with the right to defendant to be heard by counsel and witnesses and by defendant.
5. That defendant has the right to hire and have counsel of his own choosing to represent defendant in this case if defendant elects to do so.
6. That if defendant does not hire an attorney, and is not able to hire counsel, of his own choosing that it will be the duty of the Court to appoint counsel to represent defendant and that the Court will do so if requested by the defendant.
7. That all defendants are presumed to be innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt and that defendant will enter on the trial with this presumption in his favor.
8. That defendant has the right to plead not guilty and not guilty by reason of insanity and defendant has the right to plead guilty, if he elects so to do; and that defendant has the right to plead not guilty even though defendant is guilty.

Judge Presiding

_____ day of _____, 19____.

After the Court explained to defendant the rights given to defendants as set out above the defendant herein now informs the Court on this day that he does not have counsel to represent him herein or funds with which to employ one and asks the court to appoint counsel to represent defendant herein and in response to such request the court hereby appoints Hon. _____ a practicing and duly licensed attorney of _____, Alabama, to represent defendant in this case and said attorney accepts such appointment and agrees to represent defendant in this case as his attorney whereupon defendant and his attorney go into private consultation.

Judge Presiding

_____ day of _____, 19____.

After the explanation of the rights defendants have to this defendant as heretofore shown defendant in open court informs the Court that defendant understands the rights given to defendants in this character of case and that defendant does not want to be represented by an attorney and asks court not to appoint one for him.
