The Court finds, in agreement with several other district courts that have addressed this issue, that public agencies may be held liable for negligent hiring, supervision, training, or retention under Cal. Govt Code § 845.6 to the extent [a] [p]laintiffs claims are based on the [public agencies] alleged negligence in supervising and training their employees regarding the summoning of medical care. Pajas v. Cnty of Monterey, 2016 WL 3648686, at *14 (N.D. Cal Jul. 8, 2016). Additionally, Plaintiff may bring a claim for negligence against the County to the extent the negligence claim is based upon a violation of Section 845.6 for failure to summon medical care. Id. at *17. The Court therefore DENIES the Countys motion for summary judgment on Plaintiffs 12th and 13th claims. IT IS SO ORDERED. (TEXT ENTRY ONLY) (Vine, H) (Entered: 03/17/2017)

The parties are ordered to comply with the Courts Amended Pretrial Conference Order (ECF No. 264 at 2:1417) and submit a joint statement of the case no later than 8:30 a.m. Monday, May 1, 2017. 04/28/2017	373	MINUTE ORDER: After reviewing Defendants County of Sacramento and Scott Jones (collectively, Defendants) Ex Parte Application for an order to continue the trial, ECF No. 365, the Court denies their request. Defendants read too much into Tech-Bilt, Inc. v. Woodward-Clyde & Assocs., 38 Cal. 3d 488 (1985). Tech-Bilt did not hold that it is procedurally improper to have trial before evaluating whether a settlement agreement was reached in good faith. The court held that when a court determines whether parties made a good-faith settlement under California Code of Civil Procedure section 877.6, the court must apply a proportionate liability test (i.e., the settlement must be within the reasonable range of the settling tortfeasors share of liability for the plaintiffs injuries). Tech-Bilt, 38 Cal. 3d at 499. Equally important, all parties were aware of the settlement between Plaintiffs and Regents since at least March 31, 2017 (the pretrial conference hearing date). Yet no party said anything at the conference about the possibility of continuing this trial until the settlement was approved by this Court. To raise this issue on the eve of trial causes the Court significant concern that the motion is made as a tactical maneuver. Such maneuvers are not well received by this Court. As for Plaintiff Mayfields Application to Shorten Time on Determination of Good Faith Settlement, ECF No. 363, for the reasons stated above, the Court also denies his request. Trial will commence May 1, 2017. IT IS SO ORDERED. (TEXT ENTRY ONLY) (Vine, H) (Entered: 04/28/2017)
