The Court GRANTS the portion of that document that seeks to withdraw Plaintiff's request for a temporary restraining order [3-1]. Plaintiff's alternative request for a preliminary injunction [3-2] remains pending. The Court DENIES WITHOUT PREJUDICE the portion of that document that seeks a hearing date and a briefing schedule on the request for a preliminary injunction. The briefing schedule for that request shall proceed in accordance with the Local Rules—that is, Defendant shall have fourteen days after September 8, 2015, the date on which Plaintiff filed his request, to respond to the request. See N.D. Ga. R. 7.1 B ("Any party opposing a motion shall serve the party's response, responsive memorandum, affidavits, and any other responsive material not later than fourteen (14) days after service of the motion, except that in cases of [a] motion for summary judgment the time shall be twenty-one (21) days after service of the motion."). Plaintiff will then have fourteen days after Defendant responds in which to file a reply in support of the request. See N.D. Ga. R. 7.1 C ("When the movant deems it necessary to file a reply brief, the reply must be served not later than fourteen (14) days after service of the responsive pleading."). The Court will set a hearing on the request for a preliminary injunction after the briefing process is complete and after the Court has an opportunity to review the Parties' briefs. VACATED PER ORDER 91 ORDER: the Court GRANTS Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Injunction 4 . The Court ORDERS as follows: Defendant shall, unless and until otherwise ordered by this Court, comply with the following: (1) Defendant is prohibited from detaining indigent misdemeanor or Calhoun Municipal ordinances arrestees who are otherwise eligible for release but are unable, because of their poverty, to pay a secured or money bail in accordance with the Standing Bail Order.(2) If an arrestee indicates that he or she is unable to pay a secured or money bail, arresting officers, jail personnel, or Municipal Court staff must, as soon as practicable after booking verify the arrestee's inability to pay a secured or money bail by means of an affidavit sworn before an authorized official. The affidavit must give the arrestee sufficient opportunity to swear to his or her financial conditions, including the arrestee's monthly income and expenses, the value of any assets that the arrestee has, including money in bank accounts, real estate, or automobiles, and the amount of any liabilities that the arrestee may have, such as loans, liens, or other obligations, and to the number of individuals living in the arrestee's household. The affidavit also must give the arrestee an opportunity to swear as to the amount of financial security or funds that the arrestee would be able to post or pay up front, from any source, including contributions from family and friends, within twenty-four hours of arrest. Finally, the affidavit shall give the arrestee the opportunity to swear that he or she is indigent, meaning that he or she earns less than 100 percent of the applicable federal poverty guidelines. (3) The standard for making an individualized determination of indigency is, as set forth in the Standing Bail Order, "that established by O.C.G.A. § 36-32-1 (f) and (g), as defined by O.C.G.A. § 17- 12 -2(6)(A) regarding an 'indigent person' charged with a misdemeanor, violation of probation, or a municipal code offense punishable by imprisonment." (Standing Bail Order at 5.) Those provisions "have established an 'indigent person' or 'indigent defendant' for appointed legal counsel as one 'earning less than 100 percent of the federal poverty guidelines, unless there is evidence that the person has other resources that might be reasonably used to employ a lawyer without undue hardship on the person or his or her dependents[.]'" (Id. at 5-6 (alteration in original).) For purposes of this Order, 100 percent of the federal poverty guidelines shall specifically mean the guidelines published in the Federal Register, 82 Fed. Reg. 8831-03, 2017 WL 395763 (Jan. 31,2017), and as may be further promulgated and adopted for subsequent years in the Federal Register. For 2017, the poverty guidelines for the forty-eight contiguous States and the District of Columbia are as follows: (1) for a one-person household, $12,060; (2) for a two-person household, $16,240; (3) for a three-person household, $20,420; (4) for a four-person household, $24,600; (5) for a five-person household, $28,780; (6) for a six-person household, $32,960; (7) for a seven-person household, $37,140; (8) for an eight-person household, $41,320. 82 Fed. Reg. 8831-03, 2017 WL 395963 (Jan. 31,2017). (4) If it appears, from the affidavit sworn by the arrestee, that the arrestee is indigent, according to the above standard, the arrestee shall be subject to release on his or her own recognizance without making a secured bail in accordance with O.C.G.A § 17-6-1 (i), or subject to release on an unsecured bond, with an obligation to pay the amount listed in the bail schedule set forth in the Standing Bail Order if the arrestee fails to appear for a scheduled court date. Either the arresting officer or jail personnel, or, if available, the Municipal Court Clerk or the Judge of the Municipal Court, must conduct a review of the affidavit as soon as practicable, or, at the latest, within twenty-four hours after arrest to determine whether the arrestee meets the indigency requirement set forth in paragraph (3) and is subject to release. (5) An arrestee who is released pursuant to paragraph (4) shall be provided with written notice of the date for the next proceeding or trial. The arrestee has the responsibility of notifying the Clerk of the Municipal Court if he or she has a change of residence or mailing address prior to adjudication and sentencing, to ensure notice of any change in the scheduled proceedings. Arrestees who fail to appear for scheduled court proceedings may, of course, be subject to arrest for failure to appear.(6) As provided in the Standing Bail Order, "[a]ll persons charged with violations of The Code of Calhoun, Georgia who have no outstanding failure to appear arrest warrant from the City of Calhoun, or any other similar governing authority duly established by the Georgia General Assembly or the Constitution of The State of Georgia, shall be released on an unsecured appearance bond in the amount established by the" bail schedule set forth in the Standing Bail Order. (Standing Bail Order at 6-7.)(7) Nothing in this Order prohibits Defendant from detaining an arrestee who is intoxicated, under the influence of drugs, or a danger to himself or herself or others such that said arrestee would not otherwise be eligible for release, until such time as that arrestee becomes eligible for release. Defendant also may detain arrestees who are subject to outstanding active warrants or other holds preventing their release from detention, arrestees who are subject to detention without bond under state or federal law, and arrestees who refuse to cooperate in determining their indigence. Further, nothing in this Order prohibits Defendant from applying the bail schedule set forth in the Standard Bail Order to arrestees who are financially able to post bond in accordance with that schedule.
