THE WITNESSES

This table sets forth information concerning each of the thirty witnesses who testified at the hearing, other than the registrars. 1/ Each of these witnesses applied on one or more occasions since the Order of the Court on November 15, 1962. For each of these witnesses this Table sets forth certain background information, an analysis of the applications for registration filed by the witness since November 15, 1962 and references to parts of their testimony relating to the completion of their application forms.2/

The witnesses are listed alphabetically by race. They are found in this Table in the following order:

Negro Witnesses

Name	Page	Name	Page
Black, Freddie	A-2	Martin, Rosa Pearl	A-15

Exhibit Number	Description of Plaintiff's Exhibits
Pl. Ex. 40	This exhibit contains copies of official records relating to voter registration in Perry County which have been compiled since November 15, 1962 and which are listed below. The pages of this exhibit are numbered from B-1 through B-206. The "Daily Record of Those Applying to Register" is set forth on pages B-1 through B-5. It lists the names, race, and other information concerning those persons who applied for registration to vote from January 27, 1964 through March 16, 1964. The "Names of Registered Voters, 1964" is set forth on pages B-6 through B-154. This list consists of four registration books which set forth the names and race and other information concerning all persons who are registered to vote in Perry County. These registrants are listed according to the precinct in which they are registered. The "List of Qualified Voters for Perry County, Ala. for 1964" is set forth on pages B-155 through B-206. This list includes the names and race of all persons who are qualified to vote in Perry County during 1964. These registrants are arranged according to their voting precinct and box.
Pl. Ex. 41	This exhibit was marked for identification but was not accepted in evidence. It is an unsigned letter dated June 24, 1963 which reads as follows:

Pl. Ex. 43	This exhibit is entitled "Appendix A - Supplemental List of Persons To Be Registered" and contains the names of sixty-seven Negro applicants who applied for registration and were rejected between September 16, 1963 and March 10, 1964. This list supplements the list of rejected Negro applicants filed by the plaintiff on March 10, 1964 setting forth the names of certain rejected Negro applicants which the plaintiff has requested this court to order registered.
Pl. Ex. 44	This exhibit consists of a list of those rejected Negro applicants whom the plaintiff has requested the Court to order to be registered to vote and who pursuant to 42 U.S.C.1971(e) have also written letters to the Court requesting that they be registered to vote.

B. Defendant's Exhibit

Exhibit Number	Description of Defendant's Exhibit
Def.'s Ex.2 [2/]	This exhibit consists of a sample application form taken by a registrar from Louise McCreary on June 14, 1963.

2/ Defendant's Exhibit number 1 was used to identify an exhibit introduced into evidence by the defendant on October 26, 1962 at the hearing on plaintiff's motion for a preliminary injunction.

RACE IDENTIFICATION OF APPLICANTS

November 15, 1962 through March 16, 1964

This Table lists the source for the race identification of all applicants who have applied for registration to vote and whose application forms have been acted upon by the Board of Registrars from November 15, 1962 through March 16, 1964. [1/]

The applicants are listed in this Table alphabetically according to their race. The dates of the applications and the number of the copies of these applications as found in Plaintiff's Exhibit 10 are listed for all of the applicants.

The sources found in the evidence in this case which give the race identification of the applicants as cited in this Table are: (a) registration books found in Plaintiff's Exhibit 40, (b) notations of race on the application forms, (c) the listing on the application form by a Negro applicant of a spouse, reference or supporting witness who are identifiable as Negro, (d) the schools attended by the applicant or the employment of the applicant as listed on the application form, (e) letters filed with the Court by rejected Negro applicants pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 1971(e), (f) race identification made by certain witnesses.

1/ The race of eight rejected applicants is not identified by any of the registration records or other evidence. These persons are: Jeanette Averette (Pl. Ex. 10-D3, 1-31-64); John W. Crews (Pl. Ex. 10-D17, 1-29-64); Levoid Gooden (Pl. Ex. 10-B118, undated); Webster Gooden (Pl. Ex. 10-B119, undated); Clarence A. Parker (Pl. Ex. 10-D34, undated); Thomas W. Smith (Pl. Ex. 10-D35A, 1-28-64); Agnes Stevens (Pl. Ex. 10-D36, 1-31-64); and Jessie M. Wade (Pl. Ex. 10-D39, 1-31-64).

TABLE D

CHRONOLOGY OF APPLICATION FORMS FILED WITH THE BOARD OF REGISTRARS

November 15, 1962 through March 20, 1964

Part A of this Table lists by the dates of application appearing on the application forms the Plaintiff's Exhibit 10 numbers of the application forms. Plaintiff's Exhibit 10 includes copies of all applications filed with and acted upon by the Board of Registrars from November 15, 1962 through February 17, 1964.

The applications filed on each day are grouped in this Table according to the race of the applicant and the action of the Board on the application. The total number of applications for each group and for the day are listed in parentheses. An explanation of the determination of race of these applicants is set forth in Table C.

Part B of this Table lists chronologically the names of fifty-three additional applicants who applied during March 1964. Their applications were pending on March 20, 1964. Thirty-six of these forms were filed by Negroes and seventeen were filed by white persons. The action of the Board on these applications is indicated for those which have been listed in the March Report of the Board filed with the Court.

5/ Five additional application forms were filed on Feb. 17, 1964. Two of the applicants were Negroes and three were white persons. These forms were pending on March 20, 1964 when the plaintiff last photographed the Board's records. These forms are not in evidence. However, the applications of Armistead Bolling and Elmer Lolley, white persons, were accepted according to the Board's Report for March 1964. Accordingly, they are included in the total White Accepted and Total Applied figures.

B. APPLICATIONS FILED DURING MARCH 1964

The applications listed below were filed on March 2 and March 16, 1964. The Board's Report for the month of March, filed with the court on April 8, 1964, reflects the Board action shown in this table, except the report does not cover pending applications. The forms which are listed as pending were inspected by the plaintiff on March 20, 1964 at which time they were listed by the Board as pending. They apparently had not been acted upon as of April 8, 1964. Copies of the applications listed below are not in evidence. The originals of all the application forms listed below were subpoenaed by the plaintiff but were not produced by the defendants at the hearing and the court denied the plaintiff's request to order their production.
