04/26/2018	56	ORDER granting 55 Stipulated Motion for Extension of Time. The 53 Court's Order, dated 3/8/2018, is modified as follows: 6/8/2018: End of conferral period regarding written discovery requests, draft Rule 30(b)(6) deposition notice, and draft third-party subpoenas; 7/6/2018: Deadline for the filing of motions to compel and motions for protective order regarding written discovery requests, draft Rule 30(b)(6) deposition notice, and draft third-party subpoenas. The parties remain required, within ten days of the resolution of all discovery disputes, whether by agreement or court order, to propose to the Court a new timetable for the completion of any remaining discovery and the remaining briefing on the Defendant NSA's motion for judgment on the pleadings. Signed by Magistrate Judge Dustin B. Pead on 4/26/18. (dla) (Entered: 04/26/2018)
05/01/2018	57	ORDER: In March 2017, Defendant National Security Agency filed a 43 Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings. Ten days later, the individual Defendants filed a 44 Motion to Dismiss and Motion for Summary Judgment. Because the parties have been and remain engaged in jurisdictional discovery, responses to those motions have not yet been filed over a year later. As recently as last week Judge Pead granted a stipulated motion extending deadlines for the discovery process the parties are utilizing. Given the length of time that has passed since the pending Motions were filed, and the present state of the ongoing discovery, the court DENIES the pending Motions without prejudice to refile the Motions, as written or amended, no later than 30 days after completion of jurisdictional discovery. In the meantime, the individual Defendants need not answer or otherwise respond to the Amended Complaint. Save for contemplating the refiling of the Motions, this Order does not otherwise affect Judge Pead's recent scheduling order. This Order preserves all issues and defenses raised by the filing of the Motions in the first instance. Signed by Judge Robert J. Shelby on 5/1/18. (dla) (Entered: 05/01/2018)
