09/11/2017	217	ORDER FINALLY APPROVING THE SETTLEMENT. The motion to finally approve the settlement, ECF No. 127 , is granted. The settlement is finally approved and is binding on the parties and class members. For purposes of this order, the term "class members" means members of the classes and subclasses certified by the order that was entered on September 23, 2016, ECF No. 78 , except for those listed above who properly opted out. The parties and class members must comply with the settlement agreement. All objections are overruled. These motions are denied as unfounded, unnecessary, or moot: a. Don Ferguson's "motion to object," ECF No. 133 . b. Jon Duke DePriest's "motion for belated objection" and other relief, ECF No. 156 . c. Phillip Collins's "motion to transport or in the alternative for telephonic hearing," ECF No. 159 . d. Raymond Johnson's "motion for joinder of parties," ECF No. 160 , and second "motion for joinder of parties," ECF No. 179 . e. Scott Meyers's affidavit, ECF No. 172 , which is deemed a motion to be added to the damages class. f. Clyde Stokes's motion to extend time, ECF No. 187 , and motion to be added to the damages class, ECF No. 193 . g. Raymond Johnson's "motion to compel a response," ECF No. 194 . h. Jon Duke DePriest's second "motion for belated objection" and other relief, ECF No. 199 . No further relief is granted on these requests or notices, but class counsel should respond as appropriate to inquiries, to the extent that has not already been done. The clerk must enter judgment stating, "The parties and class members are ordered to comply with the settlement agreement. The named plaintiffs and class members are enjoined from initiating or pursuing any claim that has been released under the settlement agreement. The court reserves jurisdiction to enforce the order to comply with the settlement agreement and not to initiate or pursue any claim that has been released under the settlement agreement. All claims in this case are voluntarily dismissed with prejudice under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41." The clerk must close the file. Signed by JUDGE ROBERT L HINKLE on 9/11/2017.
