ADMINISTRATIVE MOTION TO CONSIDER WHETHER CASES SHOULD BE RELATED PURSUANT TO N.D. CAL.
CIVIL L.R. 3-12(B)

Date Filed: January 31, 2017

Trial Date:

I. INTRODUCTION

Pursuant to Civil Local Rule 3-12(b), non-party County of Santa Clara (the “County”) respectfully requests that the Court consider whether the actions City and County of S.F. v. Trump et al., Case No. 3:17-cv-00485-WHO (the “San Francisco Action”) and County of Santa Clara v. Trump et al., Case No. 5:17-cv-00574-LHK (the “Santa Clara County Action”) may be related.¹ “An action is related to another when: (1) The actions concern substantially the same parties, property, transaction or event; and (2) it appears likely that there will be an unduly burdensome duplication of labor and expense or conflicting results if the cases are conducted before different Judges.” N.D. Cal. Civ. L.R. 3-12(a).

II. DISCUSSION

The San Francisco and the Santa Clara County Actions challenge the constitutionality of President Donald J. Trump’s issuance of a January 25, 2017 executive order directing reprisals against state, local, and municipal governments deemed to be so-called “sanctuary jurisdictions,” Exec. Order 13768, 82 Fed. Reg. 8799 (Jan. 25, 2017) (the “Executive Order”), albeit on different bases. The San Francisco Action focuses primarily on the constitutionality of 8 U.S.C. § 1373(a), an immigration statute referenced in the Executive Order, as well as San Francisco’s compliance with that statute. See San Francisco Action, Compl. ¶¶ 96–103. It also asserts a cause of action for declaratory and injunctive relief on the grounds that Section 9 of the Executive Order violates the Tenth Amendment to the United States Constitution. Id. ¶¶ 104–07.

In the Santa Clara County Action, the County asserts four causes of action seeking declaratory and injunctive relief on the grounds that the Executive Order violates the Fifth Amendment’s Due Process Clause, the inherent separation of powers set forth in the United States Constitution, and also states a claim for violation of the Tenth Amendment. See Santa Clara County Action, Compl. ¶¶ 118–54.

Both cases name as defendants President Trump, U.S. Department of Homeland Security Secretary John F. Kelly, and Acting Attorney General Dana J. Boente. The Santa Clara County

¹ The complaints in the San Francisco and Santa Clara County Actions are attached as Exhibits A & B, respectively, to the Declaration of Cody S. Harris filed herewith.

1 Action also names as a defendant Acting Director of the Office of Management and Budget Mark
2 Sandy.

3 Given the overlap in parties, factual and legal issues involved, and the relief sought in 4 both Actions, it is possible that conducting the actions in two courts simultaneously may lead to 5 unnecessary duplication of effort and the potential for conflicting results.

6 III. CONCLUSION

7 For the foregoing reasons, the County respectfully requests that the Court consider
8 whether the San Francisco and Santa Clara County Actions are related under Local Rule 3-12.

Case No.

COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

INTRODUCTION

2 1. The City and County of San Francisco (“San Francisco”) seeks declaratory and
3 injunctive relief against the United States of America and the above-named federal officials for 4 violating the Tenth Amendment, U.S. Const. amend. X. San Francisco further seeks a declaration that 5 it complies with Title 8, Section 1373 of the United States Code (“Section 1373”) under the 6 Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C. Sections 2201 and 2202 et seq.

7 2. In blatant disregard of the law, the President of the United States seeks to coerce local 8 authorities into abandoning what are known as “Sanctuary City” laws and policies. To accomplish this
9 objective, on January 25, 2017, the President issued an Executive Order entitled, “Enhancing Public
10 Safety in the Interior of the United States.” Exec. Order No. 13,768, 82 Fed. Reg. 8799 (Jan. 25, 2017)
11 (“Executive Order”). The Executive Order announces that it is the Executive Branch’s policy to 12 withhold federal funds from “sanctuary jurisdictions,” and directs the Attorney General and Secretary
13 of Homeland Security to ensure that sanctuary jurisdictions do not receive Federal grants, and directs
14 the Attorney General to take enforcement action against any local entity that “hinders the enforcement
15 of Federal law.” This strikes at the heart of established principles of federalism and violates the United 16 States Constitution.

17 3. The President and San Francisco agree that San Francisco is a Sanctuary City, but 18 disagree about what that means. San Francisco laws limit when city employees and agencies may 19 assist with the enforcement of federal immigration law. These laws generally prohibit city employees 20 from using city funds or resources to assist in the enforcement of federal immigration law, unless 21 required by federal or state law. They specifically prohibit local law enforcement officers from 22 cooperating with Immigration and Customs Enforcement (“ICE”) detainer requests, which are 23 voluntary, and limit when local law enforcement officers may give ICE advance notice of a person’s 24 release from local jail.

25 4. Like many other cities, San Francisco is a city of immigrants, many of whom are 26 undocumented, who come here to live, work, and raise families. San Francisco is safer when all
27 people, including undocumented immigrants, feel safe reporting crimes. San Francisco is healthier
28 when all residents, including undocumented immigrants, access public health programs. And San

1 Francisco is economically and socially stronger when all children, including undocumented
2 immigrants, attend school. Using city and county resources for federal immigration enforcement
3 breeds distrust of local government and officials who have no power to change federal laws, and can
4 also wrench apart family and community structures that support residents and thus conserve resources.
5 For these reasons, among others, San Francisco has directed its employees and officers not to assist the 6 Federal government in enforcing federal immigration law, with limited exceptions.

7 5. San Francisco faces the imminent loss of federal funds and impending enforcement
8 action if it does not capitulate to the President's demand that it help enforce federal immigration law.
9 At least one jurisdiction has already succumbed to this presidential fiat.

10 6. The Executive Order relies on Title 8, Section 1373 of the United States Code ("Section 11 1373"), which provides that local governments may not prohibit or restrict any government entity or 12 official from "sending to, or receiving from, [federal immigration officials] information regarding the 13 citizenship or immigration status . . . of any individual." San Francisco seeks declaratory relief that its 14 Sanctuary City laws comply with Section 1373. San Francisco does not prohibit or restrict its 15 employees from sharing information about the citizenship or immigration status of any individual with 16 federal immigration officials.

17 7. The Executive Order is a severe invasion of San Francisco's sovereignty. The 18 Executive Order not only interferes with San Francisco's ability to direct the official actions of its 19 officers and employees but also threatens new consequences for failing to comply with 1373. In this 20 action, San Francisco seeks declaratory relief that Section 1373 is unconstitutional on its face and as 21 applied to state and local Sanctuary City laws such as San Francisco's. The Executive Branch may not 22 commandeer state and local officials to enforce federal law.

23 8. The Constitution establishes a balance of power between the state and Federal 24 governments, as well as among the coordinate branches of Federal government, to prevent the 25 excessive accumulation of power in any single entity and reduce the risk of tyranny and abuse from 26 any government office. In so doing, the Tenth Amendment provides that "[t]he powers not delegated 27 to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States
28

1 respectively, or to the people.” This state sovereignty extends to political subdivisions of the State,
2 including cities and counties such as San Francisco.

3 9. This lawsuit is about state sovereignty and a local government’s autonomy to devote 4 resources to local priorities and to control the exercise of its own police powers, rather than being
5 forced to carry out the agenda of the Federal government. Under the Constitution and established
6 principles of federalism, state and local governments have this autonomy. The Executive Order
7 purports otherwise to wrest this autonomy from state and local governments, and a court order is 8 needed to resolve this controversy.

9 10. San Francisco recognizes that there will be additional developments related to the 10 Executive Order in the weeks and months to come. But the consequences threatened by the Executive
11 Order are too severe for San Francisco to wait. The Executive Order threatens the loss of more than $1
12 billion in federal funds that support vital services, the loss of community trust, and the loss of San 13 Francisco’s sovereign authority to set and follow its own laws on matters appropriately and 14 historically within the control of local government. San Francisco has no choice but to seek the 15 intervention of this Court to ensure that its rights and residents are protected, and that the 16 Administration complies with Federal law and the Constitution.

17 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

18 11. The Court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. Sections 1331 and 1346. This Court has 19 further remedial authority under the Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C. Sections 2201 and 2202 et 20 seq.

21 12. Venue properly lies within the Northern District of California because Plaintiff, City
22 and County of San Francisco, resides in this judicial district and a substantial part of the events or

24 PARTIES

25 13. Plaintiff, City and County of San Francisco (“San Francisco”), is a municipal 26 corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of California, and is a 27 charter city and county.

14. Defendant Donald J. Trump is the President of the United States. He is sued in his official capacity.

15. Defendant United States of America is sued under 28 U.S.C. Section 1346.

16. The U.S. Department of Homeland Security (“DHS”) is a cabinet department of the United States Federal government with the primary mission of securing the United States. Defendant John F. Kelly is the Secretary of DHS. Secretary Kelly is responsible for executing relevant provisions of the Executive Order. Secretary Kelly is sued in his official capacity.

17. The Attorney General (“AG”) is a cabinet department of the United States Federal government overseeing the Department of Justice. Defendant Dana J. Boente is the Acting Attorney General. Acting Attorney General Boente is responsible for executing relevant provisions of the Executive Order. Acting Attorney General Dana J. Boente is sued in his official capacity.¹

18. Doe 1 through Doe 100 are sued under fictitious names. Plaintiffs do not now know the true names or capacities of said Defendants, who were responsible for the alleged violations alleged, but pray that the same may be alleged in this complaint when ascertained.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

I. SAN FRANCISCO’S SANCTUARY CITY LAWS

19. San Francisco is a Sanctuary City and has been since 1989. In the 1980s, thousands of Central American refugees fled countries in the midst of violent civil wars to seek legal protection in the United States. Against the backdrop of this humanitarian crisis, San Francisco began enacting the ordinances that, as later amended, make up San Francisco’s Sanctuary City laws.

20. Numerous other municipalities—including New York, D.C., Chicago, Los Angeles, New Orleans, Santa Clara, Minneapolis, and Houston—have also enacted Sanctuary City laws. Although the details of their ordinances differ, all of these jurisdictions have adopted laws or policies that limit using local resources to implement and enforce federal immigration laws.

21. Today, San Francisco’s body of Sanctuary City law is contained in two chapters of San Francisco’s Administrative Code: Chapters 12H and 12I.

¹ Jeff Sessions has been nominated to serve as Attorney General and will replace Acting Attorney General Dana J. Boente, if confirmed.

22. Importantly, these chapters do not protect criminals or prevent people from being prosecuted for illegal acts. Instead, they protect children by ensuring that their parents feel safe taking them to playgrounds, to schools, and to hospitals. They protect families from being split up when parents of children born in the United States are deported. And they protect the safety and health of all residents of San Francisco by helping to ensure that everyone, including undocumented immigrants, feels safe reporting crimes, cooperating with police investigations, and seeking medical treatment. Specifically, Chapters 12H and 12I apply as follows.

23. San Francisco Administrative Code Chapter 12H—the full text of which is attached as Exhibit 1—prohibits San Francisco departments, agencies, commissions, officers, and employees from using San Francisco funds or resources to assist in the enforcement of Federal immigration law or to gather or disseminate information regarding the release status, or other confidential identifying information, of an individual unless such assistance is required by Federal or state law.

24. San Francisco Administrative Code Chapter 12I—the full text of which is attached as Exhibit 2—prohibits San Francisco law enforcement officials from detaining an individual who is otherwise eligible for release from custody on the basis of a civil immigration detainer request issued by the Federal government.

25. Section 287.7 of Title 8 of the Code of Federal Regulations provides that such a detainer “serves to advise another law enforcement agency that the Department seeks custody of an alien presently in the custody of that agency, for the purpose of arresting and removing the alien.” Subsection (d) provides that “[u]pon a determination by the Department to issue a detainer for an alien not otherwise detained by a criminal justice agency, such agency shall maintain custody of the alien for a period not to exceed 48 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays in order to permit assumption of custody by the Department.”

26. A detainer request issued under this section is distinct from a criminal warrant, which San Francisco honors consistent with its Sanctuary City laws. A detainer request is not issued by a judge and is not based on a finding of probable cause. It is simply a request by ICE that a state or local law enforcement agency hold individuals after their release date to provide ICE agents extra time to decide whether to take those individuals into federal custody and then deport them.

27. Complying with such a detainer request requires committing scarce law enforcement personnel and resources to track and respond to requests, detain individuals in holding cells, and supervise and feed individuals during the prolonged detention. And the Federal government has made clear that the local agency bears the financial burden of the detention, providing that “[n]o detainer issued as a result of a determination made under this chapter . . . shall incur any fiscal obligation on the part of the Department.” 8 C.F.R. 287(e).

28. Chapter 12I also prohibits San Francisco law enforcement officials from responding to a federal immigration officer’s request for advance notification of the date and time an individual in San Francisco’s custody is being released, unless the in question meets certain criteria. See Section 12I.3(c), (d).

29. Finally, as relevant here, Chapter 12I provides that “[l]aw enforcement officials shall not arrest or detain an individual, or provide any individual’s personal information to a federal immigration officer, on the basis of an administrative warrant, prior deportation order, or other civil immigration document based solely on alleged violations of the civil provisions of immigration laws.” See Section 12I.3(e). “Personal information” is defined as “any confidential, identifying information about an individual, including, but not limited to, home or work contact information, and family or emergency contact information.” See Section 12I.2.

30. The legislative findings set forth in Chapter 12I evidence the legitimate local purpose of San Francisco’s Sanctuary City laws. For example, the Legislature declared:

Fostering a relationship of trust, respect, and open communication between City employees and City residents is essential to the City’s core mission of ensuring public health, safety, and welfare, and serving the needs of everyone in the community, including immigrants. The purpose of this Chapter 12I, as well as of Administrative Code Chapter 12H, is to foster respect and trust between law enforcement and residents, to protect limited local resources, to encourage cooperation between residents and City officials, including especially law enforcement and public health officers and employees, and to ensure community security, and due process for all. (See Section 12I.2.)

31. Chapter 12I makes clear that its purpose and effect are limited to matters “relating to federal civil immigration detainers, notification of release of individuals, transmission of personal information, or civil immigration documents, based solely on alleged violations of the civil provisions of immigration laws.” Chapter 12I expressly states that “[i]n all other respects, local law enforcement

1 agencies may continue to collaborate with federal authorities to protect public safety.” See Section
2 12I.4.

3 32. Further underscoring that San Francisco’s Sanctuary City laws arise from San 4 Francisco’s commitment and responsibility to ensure public safety and welfare, the Board of 5 Supervisors, as San Francisco’s legislative body, found that public safety is “founded on trust and 6 cooperation of community residents and local law enforcement.” Section 12I.1. Citing a study by the 7 University of Illinois, which found that at least 40% of Latinos surveyed were less likely to provide 8 information to police because they feared exposing themselves, family, or friends to a risk of 9 deportation, the Legislature stated that “civil immigration detainers and notifications regarding release
10 undermine community trust of law enforcement by instilling fear in immigrant communities of coming 11 forward to report crimes and cooperate with local law enforcement agencies.” Id.; see also id. (“The 12 City has enacted numerous laws and policies to strengthen communities and to build trust between 13 communities and local law enforcement. Local cooperation and assistance with civil immigration 14 enforcement undermines community policing strategies.”).

15 33. The Board of Supervisors also had a public health purpose for its decision to restrict 16 disclosure of confidential information: “To carry out public health programs, the City must be able to 17 reliably collect confidential information from all residents Information gathering and cooperation
18 may be jeopardized if release of personal information results in a person being taken into immigration 19 custody.” Id.

20 34. Finally, the Board of Supervisors determined that enforcing immigration detainer
21 requests would require San Francisco to redirect scarce local law enforcement personnel and 22 resources—noting that the costs of “responding to a civil immigration detainer can include, but [are]
23 not limited to, extended detention time, the administrative costs of tracking and responding to 24 detainers, and the legal liability for erroneously holding an individual who is not subject to a civil 25 immigration detainer.” Id. In short, the Board of Supervisors concluded that “[c]ompliance with civil 26 immigration detainers and involvement in civil immigration enforcement diverts limited local 27 resources from programs that are beneficial to the City.” Id.

35. San Francisco departments have adopted policies and practices consistent with Chapters 12H and 12I.

36. California law incorporates local Sanctuary City laws such as Chapters 12H and 12I. The TRUST Act states that that local law enforcement officials may comply with ICE detainer requests only if (1) the continued detention would not violate any federal, state, or local law, or any local policy, and (2) the defendant's criminal history meets specified conditions. Cal. Gov't Code §§ 7282, 7282.5. Thus, because in San Francisco ICE detentions are prohibited under local law, they are also prohibited under state law.

II. SECTION 1373

37. Section 1373 provides that "a local government entity or official may not prohibit, or in any way restrict, any government entity or official from sending to, or receiving from, [federal immigration officials] information regarding the citizenship or immigration status . . . of any individual." 8 U.S.C. § 1373(a). This restriction exclusively regulates government entities.

38. Section 1373 requires San Francisco to allow its employees to use city resources, including San Francisco tax dollars, to respond to requests for information about citizenship and immigration status.

39. On May 31, 2016, in response to a request from the Office of the Attorney General, the Office of the Inspector General ("OIG") of the Department of Justice issued a memorandum ("OIG Memo") regarding potential violations of Section 1373 by recipients of funding from the Edward Byrne Memorial Justice Assistance Grant Program ("JAG"). Memorandum from Michael E. Horowitz, Inspector Gen., to Karol V. Mason, Assistant Att'y Gen. for the Office of Justice Programs, "Department of Justice Referral of Allegations of Potential Violations of 8 U.S.C. § 1373 by Grant Recipients" (May 31, 2016), <https://oig.justice.gov/reports/2016/1607.pdf>.²

40. In analyzing the local laws and policies of ten selected state and local jurisdictions, the OIG demonstrated how the Federal government interprets Section 1373.

² The authorizing legislation for the JAG program requires that all grant applicants certify compliance with the provisions of the authorizing legislation and all other "applicable federal laws." 42 U.S.C. § 3750 et seq. The U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Justice Programs has recently announced that Section 1373 is an "applicable" law under the JAG authorizing legislation.

41. For example, though Section 1373 does not expressly address immigration detainers, OIG expressed concern that local laws concerning the handling of detainer requests “may have a broader practical impact on the level of cooperation afforded to ICE by these jurisdictions and may, therefore, be inconsistent with at least the intent of Section 1373.” OIG Memo at 7. It went on to state that local laws and policies that “purport to be focused on civil immigration detainer requests [and say nothing about sharing immigration status with ICE] . . . may nevertheless be affecting ICE’s interactions with the local officials regarding ICE immigration status requests.” Id.

42. OIG also stated that such immigration detainer request policies “may be causing local officials to believe and apply the policies in a manner that prohibits or restricts cooperation with ICE in all respects . . . [which], of course, would be inconsistent with and prohibited by Section 1373.” Id. at 8.

43. In the OIG Memo, the Federal government also endorses the view that local jurisdictions hinder the enforcement of Federal immigration law if they do not honor detainer requests or if they place any other limitations on cooperation with ICE. See, e.g., id. at 4 (stating that even though Section 1373 does not specifically address restrictions by state or local entities on cooperation with ICE regarding detainers, “[a] primary and frequently cited indicator of limitations placed on cooperation by state and local jurisdictions with ICE is how the particular state or local jurisdiction handles immigration detainer requests issued by ICE”).

44. In the OIG Memo, OIG recommended that the U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Justice Programs (“OJP”) provide JAG recipients clear guidance on their obligation to comply with Section 1373 and require them to certify that they comply with that section. See id. at 9.

45. In response to these recommendations, in July and October 2016 OJP issued guidance regarding compliance with Section 1373. See Office of Justice Programs, Guidance Regarding Compliance with 8 U.S.C. § 1373, U.S. Dep’t Just. (July 7, 2016) (“OJP July Guidance”); Office of Justice Programs, Additional Guidance Regarding Compliance with 8 U.S.C. § 1373, U.S. Dep’t Just. (October 6, 2016) (“OJP October Guidance”).

46. In the OJP July Guidance, OJP stated that to comply with Section 1373, “[y]our personnel must be informed that notwithstanding any state or local policies to the contrary, federal law does not allow any government entity or official to prohibit the sending or receiving of information about an individual’s citizenship or immigration status with any federal, state or local government entity and officials.” OJP July Guidance at 1 (emphasis added). Accordingly, OJP reads into the law an affirmative obligation to instruct personnel regarding the substance of Section 1373.

47. In the October 2016 Guidance, OIG stated that all JAG applicants must comply with—and certify their compliance with—Section 1373. OJP October Guidance at 1.

48. As a subgrantee of a JAG grant, San Francisco is required to certify its compliance with Section 1373.

III. SAN FRANCISCO COMPLIES WITH SECTION 1373

49. San Francisco complies with Section 1373.

50. The plain language of Section 1373 states that “a local government entity or official may not prohibit, or in any way restrict, any government entity or official from sending to, or receiving from, [federal immigration officials] information regarding the citizenship or immigration status . . . of any individual.” 8 U.S.C. § 1373(a). Nothing in San Francisco Administrative Code Chapters 12H or 12I limits communications regarding citizenship or immigration status in any way.

51. And, indeed, under ICE’s Secure Communities program (also known as “S-Comm”) whenever an individual is taken into custody, the person is digitally fingerprinted and those fingerprints are sent to the California Department of Justice and ultimately the FBI. The FBI forwards the fingerprints to DHS, which allows ICE to determine the immigration status of everyone in San Francisco custody.

52. Under Chapter 12I and the TRUST Act, San Francisco does not enforce detainer requests (see ¶24, supra), and does not respond to notification requests from the Federal government unless certain conditions are met (see ¶28, supra)—but compliance with such requests is not, in fact, required by Section 1373, which speaks only to communications regarding citizenship and immigration status. By contrast, San Francisco does comply with criminal warrants.

53. Also, complying with civil immigration detainer requests alone, in the absence of probable cause for the detainer, would violate the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution and could subject San Francisco to civil liability for this harm. See Arizona v. United States, 132 S. Ct.

2492, 2509 (2012) (noting that “[d]etaining individuals solely to verify their immigration status would raise constitutional concerns”); Morales v. Chadbourne, 793 F.3d 208, 217 (1st Cir. 2015); see also Melendres v. Arpaio, 695 F.3d 990, 1000-01 (9th Cir. 2012) (applying the Fourth Amendment to immigration arrests).

54. San Francisco has affirmatively instructed personnel regarding the substance of Section 1373. For example, in a recent memorandum to all San Francisco employees, the San Francisco Human Resources Director explained: “Although federal law states that a ‘local government entity or official may not prohibit, or in any way restrict, any government entity or official from sending to, or receiving from, the Immigration and Naturalization Service information regarding the citizenship or immigration status, lawful or unlawful, of any individual’ (8 U.S.C. § 1373), Chapters 12H and 12I impose other types of restrictions, which are consistent with federal law and are summarized below.”

IV. THE EXECUTIVE ORDER

55. On January 25, 2017, President Donald J. Trump issued the Executive Order attached as Exhibit 3.³

56. The Executive Order declares that “Sanctuary jurisdictions across the United States willfully violate Federal law in an attempt to shield aliens from removal from the United States. These jurisdictions have caused immeasurable harm to the American people and to the very fabric of our Republic.” Executive Order, at 8799.

57. To address the purported harm caused by Sanctuary Cities, the Executive Order establishes the policy that “jurisdictions that fail to comply with applicable Federal law do not receive Federal funds, except as mandated by law.” Id.

³ On January 27, 2017, President Trump issued a second Executive Order relating to immigration issues entitled, “Protecting The Nation From Foreign Terrorist Entry Into The United States.” The January 27, 2017 Executive Order barred individuals from certain countries from entering the United States. Since its issuance, five courts have issued orders granting temporary relief against the January 27, 2017 Executive Order. See Darweesh v. Trump, United States District Court, Eastern District of New York, Case No. 17 Civ. 480; Tootkaboni v. Trump, United States District Court, District of Massachusetts, Case No. 17-cv-10154; Aziz v. Trump, United States District Court, Eastern District of Virginia, Case No. 1:17-cv-116; Doe v. Trump, United States District Court, Western District of Washington, Case No. 17-cv-00126; Vayeghan v. Trump, United States District Court, Central District of California, Case No. CV 17-0702.

58. Specifically, Section 9(a) of the Executive Order states: “It is the policy of the executive branch to ensure, to the fullest extent of the law, that a State, or a political subdivision of a State, shall comply with 8 U.S.C. 1373.” Id. at 8801.

59. The Executive Order establishes a funding restriction:

In furtherance of this policy, the Attorney General and the Secretary, in their discretion and to the extent consistent with law, shall ensure that jurisdictions that willfully refuse to comply with 8 U.S.C. 1373 (sanctuary jurisdictions) are not eligible to receive Federal grants, except as deemed necessary for law enforcement purposes by the Attorney General or the Secretary. The Secretary has the authority to designate, in his discretion and to the extent consistent with law, a jurisdiction as a sanctuary jurisdiction.

Id. (the “Funding Restriction”).

60. The Funding Restriction imposes new funding conditions on existing federal funds that go beyond the statutory conditions imposed by Congress.

61. Also, the Funding Restriction imposes funding conditions that are not germane to the purpose of the funds insofar as it reaches funds that are unrelated to law enforcement or immigration.

62. The Funding Restriction also imposes conditions so severe that they cross the line distinguishing encouragement from coercion. The Funding Restriction threatens a significant percent of San Francisco’s overall budget, including virtually the entire funding stream for critical programs to its residents, such as Medicaid.

63. Finally, the Funding Restriction imposes new funding conditions that require jurisdictions to act unconstitutionally insofar as Defendants interpret Section 1373 to require San Francisco to detain individuals who would otherwise be released from custody. Such detentions would violate, inter alia, the Fourth Amendment.

64. For all these reasons, the Funding Restriction violates the Tenth Amendment, the Spending Clause, and Article 1, sec. 1 of the United States Constitution.

65. The Executive Order also mandates enforcement action:

The Attorney General shall take appropriate enforcement action against any entity that violates 8 U.S.C. 1373, or which has in effect a statute, policy, or practice that prevents or hinders the enforcement of Federal law.

Id. (the “Enforcement Directive”).

66. The Enforcement Directive commandeers state and local governments by, inter alia, compelling them to enforce federal law under threat of legal action, violating Tenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

V. DEFENDANTS CHARACTERIZE SAN FRANCISCO AS A SANCTUARY CITY THAT WILL LOSE FEDERAL FUNDING

67. In the Executive Order, Defendants equate Sanctuary Cities with jurisdictions that fail to comply with Section 1373.

68. Defendants characterize San Francisco as a Sanctuary City.

69. For example, in a written campaign speech then-candidate Donald J. Trump gave in Phoenix, Arizona on August 31, 2016, he expressly referred to San Francisco as a Sanctuary City. See Donald J. Trump: Address on Immigration, Donald J. Trump for President (Aug. 31, 2016), <https://www.donaldjtrump.com/press-releases/donald-j.-trump-address-on-immigration> (“Another victim is Kate Steinle, gunned down in the Sanctuary City of San Francisco by an illegal immigrant deported five previous times.”).

70. Not only have Defendants made clear that they consider San Francisco a Sanctuary City, but they have also repeatedly indicated that Sanctuary Cities, like San Francisco, violate federal law and should have their federal funding revoked.

- In statements to the Daily Caller on July 7, 2015, Congressman Darrell Issa and Attorney General nominee Senator Jeff Sessions criticized San Francisco and other sanctuary jurisdictions for failing to honor detainers. Attorney General nominee Senator Jeff Sessions stated, “This disregarding of detainers and releasing persons that ICE has put a hold on — it goes against all traditions of law enforcement. Laws and courtesies within departments — if you have somebody charged with a crime in one city, you hold them until you complete your business with them So what was happening was, ICE authorities were filing detainers and sanctuary cities were saying, ‘We’re not gonna honor them. They finished paying for the crime they committed in our city — we’ve released them.’” Kerry Pickett, Sen. Sessions: City Officials Harboring Illegal Immigrant Felons Could Be Charged with Crime, Daily

- In a statement by White House Press Secretary Sean Spicer on January 25, 2017 announcing the issuance of the Executive Order, Spicer stated, “We are going to strip federal grant money from the sanctuary states and cities that harbor illegal immigrants. The American people are no longer going to have to be forced to subsidize this disregard for our laws.” White House, 1/25/17: White House Press Briefing, YouTube (Jan. 25, 2017), <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=OaPriMVvtZA>.

71. In a speech at the GOP Congressional Republican Retreat in Philadelphia on January 26, 2017, President Trump reiterated his views on Sanctuary Cities: “And finally, at long last, cracking down on Sanctuary Cities. It’s time to restore the civil rights of Americans to protect their jobs, their hopes, and their dreams for a much better future. Congress passed these laws to serve our citizens. It is about time those laws were properly enforced. They are not enforced.” See Donald J. Trump, President Trump Remarks at Congressional Republican Retreat, C-Span (Jan 26, 2017), <https://www.c-span.org/video/?422829-1/president-trump-tells-congressional-republicans-now-deliver>.

72. A press release from the Office of the Press Secretary for the White House issued on January 28, 2017 detailing President Trump’s First Week of Action, reads in relevant part: “President Trump signed an executive order to ensure that immigration laws are enforced throughout the United States, including halting federal funding for sanctuary cities.” Press Release, The White House, Office of the Press Secretary, President Trump’s First Week of Action (Jan. 28, 2017), <https://www.whitehouse.gov/the-press-office/2017/01/28/president-trumps-first-week-action>.

73. Defendants’ statements establish their view that Sanctuary Cities, like San Francisco, violate Section 1373 and will lose federal funding—apparently all or almost all federal funding—under the Executive Order.

VI. SECTION 1373 AND THE EXECUTIVE ORDER HARM SAN FRANCISCO

A. Section 1373(a) Impermissibly Intrudes on State Sovereignty

74. Section 1373(a) unconstitutionally regulates “States in their sovereign capacity.” Reno, v. Condon, 528 U.S. 141, 151 (2000). It necessarily regulates governments in their capacities as governments. It does not “subject state governments to generally applicable laws.” New York v. U.S., 505 U.S. 144, 160 (1992). On the contrary, in every possible application, it targets “government entit[ies] or official[s]” for special treatment. 8 U.S.C. § 1373(a).

75. Congress may not command States to provide the Federal government with information “that only state officials have access to,” Printz v. United States, 521 U.S. 898, 932 n.17 (1997). The Federal government must not regulate its fellow governments in their capacities as governments.

76. Also, Section 1373 targets government entities’ and officials’ authority to control their subordinates—an authority at the heart of a government’s existence as a government. “[A] State can act only through its officers and agents.” Nevada v. Hicks, 533 U.S. 353, 365 (2001). “Through the structure of its government, and the character of those who exercise government authority, a State defines itself as a sovereign.” Gregory v. Ashcroft, 501 U.S. 452, 460 (1991).

77. By preventing state and local governments from directing employees how to handle information about citizenship and immigration status, Section 1373 makes it impossible for local jurisdictions freely to choose and clearly to establish how they will handle this information. Under Section 1373, San Francisco cannot legislate or regulate that government officials and employees will never share citizenship or immigration information. Yet Congress has no power “to require the States to govern according to Congress’ instructions.” New York, 505 U.S. at 162 (emphasis added).

78. Section 1373 mandates uncertainty where Sanctuary City laws seek to provide certainty. Because of Section 1373, San Francisco cannot tell the public that it will never share information about citizenship or immigration status. Any attempt to impose a uniform rule is fettered by the individual discretion of over 30,000 employees and officials. This is not the way San Francisco chooses to govern. It is chaos imposed by the Federal government.

79. To the extent the Executive Order incorporates Section 1373(a), it is invalid for all of the reasons described above.

B. Federal Funds Received by San Francisco

80. San Francisco receives in excess of $1.2 billion annually in federal funds. This is approximately 13% of San Francisco’s annual budget.

81. Only a small percentage of all federal funds received by San Francisco relate to immigration or law enforcement.

82. San Francisco receives federal funds for entitlement programs for its residents including Medicaid and Medicare, Temporary Assistance to Needy Families, Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, Foster Care, Child Welfare Programs, and Child Support Services.

83. San Francisco also receives federal grants for infrastructure and transportation projects, public health programs, workforce development, supportive housing, and veterans' services, among other things.

84. Congress has established numerous conditions governing eligibility for these funds. For instance, to receive Medicaid funds, a state must create a state plan that includes assurances to the Federal government that the state will provide specified types of care and that the state regulates health insurance providers to ensure access to medical assistance, among many other requirements. 42 U.S.C. § 1396(a).

85. As with entitlement programs, most federal grants are awarded based on statutory eligibility criteria. For example, HUD Community Development Block Grants fund many projects to combat evictions, maintain stable housing occupancy and supply, and incentivize affordable unit construction. These grants require the grantee to prepare a statement of community development objectives and projected use of funds, provide a citizen participation plan, and certify other enumerated criteria. 42 U.S.C. § 5304.

86. No federal funds received by San Francisco have statutory conditions specifically requiring compliance with Section 1373.

87. San Francisco receives most federal funds as reimbursements. Thus, San Francisco is currently providing services and benefits that the Federal government has agreed to reimburse. The Executive Order calls into question whether the Federal government will in fact reimburse San Francisco for these funds. This presents San Francisco with a Hobson's choice. San Francisco, facing possible reductions, could cut services now, harming the public. Or San Francisco could continue to spend knowing that if cuts come they could come suddenly, outside of the budget process, and the San

1 San Francisco will have to impose service cuts even more radically at that time, given that funds have
2 already been spent in anticipation of federal reimbursement.

3 C. Budget Impact of the Executive Order

4 88. The Executive Order's threat to cut federal funds impairs San Francisco's internal 5 government operations by hampering its budget process. The threatened loss of federal funds renders 6 San Francisco unable to prepare a balanced budget for the next fiscal year.

7 89. San Francisco has already begun the seven-month process of adopting the annual 8 budget for the fiscal year beginning on July 1, 2017. On December 13, 2016, the Mayor and the 9 Controller (San Francisco's chief financial officer) issued budget instructions to all San Francisco
10 departments with detailed guidance on the preparation of departments' budget requests. Public
11 hearings have begun to consider departmental budget proposals. Most San Francisco departments must 12 submit their budget requests for the coming fiscal year to the Controller by February 21. The 13 Controller must submit a consolidated budget proposal to the Mayor by March 1, the Mayor must 14 submit budget proposal to the Board of Supervisors by June 1, and the Board must approve a balanced
15 budget by August 1.

16 90. The Executive Order's threat to cut federal funds is manifestly coercive. This is why at 17 least one jurisdiction has already changed its policy about immigration detainers in response to the 18 Executive Order. The day after the Executive Order was issued, Miami-Dade County Mayor Carlos
19 Gimenez instructed the county's interim corrections director to "fully cooperate" with the Federal 20 government and comply with all immigration detainer requests, eliminating a previous federal 21 reimbursement requirement. "It's really not worth the risk of losing millions of dollars to the residents
22 of Miami-Dade County in discretionary money from the feds," said Mayor Gimenez. Ray Sanchez, 23 Trump's Sanctuary Crackdown, CNN Politics (Jan. 27, 2017, 6:34 PM ET),
24 <http://www.cnn.com/2017/01/27/politics/miami-dade-mayor-sanctuary-crackdown/>. There is little 25 doubt that is exactly what the President intends in his promise to end sanctuary cities.

26 D. Community Relations Impact of the Executive Order

27 91. The Executive Order fosters an atmosphere of fear and distrust between undocumented
28 immigrants and local government officials in San Francisco.

92. By heightening undocumented immigrants' concerns that any interaction with San Francisco officials will lead to their information being turned over to ICE, the Executive Order discourages undocumented immigrants from reporting crimes, seeking public health services, and otherwise engaging with San Francisco programs and services. This threat harms public safety, public health, and San Francisco's ability to act in what San Francisco has determined to be the best interest of its residents, consistent with federal and state law.

93. The Executive Order undermines San Francisco's ability to provide critical services not just to undocumented immigrants, but to all residents. When witnesses and crime victims will not talk to the police, law enforcement suffers and the entire community is less safe. When children are not vaccinated or the sick are not treated for communicable diseases, illness spreads throughout the community. The United States Constitution guarantees states and local governments, such as San Francisco, that they may make those decisions and do not have to carry out the Federal government's immigration programs.

94. San Francisco has been forced to expend its tax dollars educating San Francisco officials and reassuring residents in response to the Executive Order.

95. As a result, the Executive Order causes the very harms San Francisco's Sanctuary City laws were designed to prevent. The Executive Order destroys rather than "foster[s] respect and trust between law enforcement and residents," wastes rather than "protect[s] limited local resources," and discourages rather than "encourage[s] cooperation between residents and City officials, including especially law enforcement and public health officers and employees." San Francisco Administrative Code Ch. 12I.1.

CAUSES OF ACTION

COUNT ONE

DECLARATORY RELIEF – SAN FRANCISCO COMPLIES WITH 8 U.S.C. § 1373

96. Plaintiffs repeat and incorporate by reference each allegation of the prior paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

97. San Francisco contends that it complies with Section 1373. San Francisco Administrative Code Chapters 12H and 12I do not prohibit, or in any way restrict, any government entity or official from sending to, or receiving from, the Immigration and Naturalization Service information regarding the citizenship or immigration status, lawful or unlawful, of any individual.

98. Defendants contend that San Francisco does not comply with Section 1373.

99. An actual controversy presently exists between San Francisco and Defendants about whether San Francisco complies with Section 1373.

100. A judicial determination resolving this controversy is necessary and appropriate at this time.

COUNT TWO
TENTH AMENDMENT – 8 U.S.C. § 1373(a) IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL

101. Plaintiffs repeat and incorporate by reference each allegation of the prior paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

102. On its face, Section 1373 commandeers state and local governments in violation of the Tenth Amendment to the Constitution by, inter alia, regulating the “States in their sovereign capacity,” Reno, 528 U.S. at 151, limiting state authority to regulate internal affairs and determine the duties and responsibilities of state employees, Gregory, 501 U.S. at 460, and ultimately forcing States to allow their employees to use state time and state resources to assist in the enforcement of federal statutes regulating private individuals, Reno, 528 U.S. at 151, and to provide information that belongs to the State and is available to them only in their official capacity, Printz, 521 U.S. at 932-33 & n.17.

103. As applied to invalidate state and local Sanctuary City laws, like San Francisco Administrative Code Chapters 12H and 12I, which were enacted to further legitimate local interests grounded in the basic police powers of local government and related to public health and safety, Section 1373(a) commandeers state and local governments and violates the Tenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

COUNT THREE
TENTH AMENDMENT – EXECUTIVE ORDER SECTION 9(A)’S ENFORCEMENT DIRECTIVE IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL

104. Plaintiffs repeat and incorporate by reference each allegation of the prior paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

105. Executive Order Section 9(a) contains an Enforcement Directive stating: “The Attorney General shall take appropriate enforcement action against any entity that violates 8 U.S.C. 1373, or which has in effect a statute, policy, or practice that prevents or hinders the enforcement of Federal law.” Executive Order, at 8801.

106. The Federal government has taken the position that a state or local jurisdiction that fails to affirmatively assist federal immigration officials—by, for example, refusing to comply with a detainer request issued under Section 287.7 of Title 8 of the Code of Federal Regulations—hinders the enforcement of federal law and violates Section 1373.

107. Accordingly, the Enforcement Directive commandeers state and local governments, violating Tenth Amendment to the United States Constitution by, inter alia, compelling them to enforce a federal program by imprisoning individuals subject to removal at the request of the Federal government when those individuals would otherwise be released from custody.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Wherefore, San Francisco prays that the Court grant the following relief:

1. Declare that 8 U.S.C. Section 1373(a) is unconstitutional and invalid on its face;
2. Enjoin Defendants from enforcing Section 1373(a) or using it as a condition for receiving federal funds;
3. Declare that Section 1373(a) is invalid as applied to state and local Sanctuary City laws, like San Francisco Administrative Code Chapters 12H and 12I, which were enacted for legitimate local purposes related to public health and safety;
4. Enjoin Defendants from enforcing Section 1373(a) against jurisdictions that enact Sanctuary City laws for legitimate local purposes;
5. Declare that San Francisco complies with Section 1373;
6. Enjoin Defendants from designating San Francisco as a jurisdiction that fails to comply with Section 1373;
7. Enjoin unconstitutional applications of the Enforcement Directive in Executive Order Section 9(a);
8. Award San Francisco reasonable costs and attorney’s fees; and

9. Grant any other further relief that the Court deems fit and proper.

(Added by Ord. 375-89, App. 10/24/89)

SEC. 12H.2. USE OF CITY FUNDS PROHIBITED.

No department, agency, commission, officer, or employee of the City and County of San Francisco shall use any City funds or resources to assist in the enforcement of Federal immigration law or to gather or disseminate information regarding release status of individuals or any other such personal information as defined in Chapter 12I in the City and County of San Francisco unless such assistance is required by Federal or State statute, regulation, or court decision. SEC. 12I.1. FINDINGS.

The City and County of San Francisco (the "City") is home to persons of diverse racial, ethnic, and national backgrounds, including a large immigrant population. The City respects, upholds, and values equal protection and equal treatment for all of our residents, regardless of immigration status. Fostering a relationship of trust, respect, and open communication between City employees and City residents is essential to the City's core mission of ensuring public health, safety, and welfare, and serving the needs of everyone in the community, including immigrants. The purpose of this Chapter 12I, as well as of Administrative Code Chapter 12H, is to foster respect and trust between law enforcement and residents, to protect limited local resources, to encourage cooperation between residents and City officials, including especially law enforcement and public health officers and employees, and to ensure community security, and due process for all.

The United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement ("ICE") is responsible for enforcing the civil immigration laws. ICE's programs, including Secure Communities and its replacement, the Priority Enforcement Program ("PEP"), seek to enlist local law enforcement's voluntary cooperation and assistance in its enforcement efforts. In its description of PEP, ICE explains that all requests under PEP are for voluntary action and that any request is not an authorization to detain persons at the expense of the federal government. The federal government should not shift the financial burden of federal civil immigration enforcement, including personnel time and costs relating to notification and detention, onto local law enforcement by requesting that local law enforcement agencies continue detaining persons based on non-mandatory civil immigration detainers or cooperating and assisting with requests to notify ICE that a person will be released from local custody. It is not a wise and effective use of valuable City resources at a time when vital services are being cut.

ICE's Secure Communities program (also known as "S-Comm") shifted the burden of federal civil immigration enforcement onto local law enforcement. S-Comm came into operation after the state sent fingerprints that state and local law enforcement agencies had transmitted to the California Department of Justice ("Cal DOJ") to positively identify the arrestees and to check their criminal history. The FBI would forward the fingerprints to the Department of Homeland Security ("DHS") to be checked against immigration and other databases. To give itself time to take a detainee into immigration custody, ICE would send an Immigration Detainer – Notice of Action (DHS Form I-247) to the local law enforcement official requesting that the local law enforcement official hold the individual for up to 48 hours after that individual would otherwise be released ("civil immigration detainers"). Civil Immigration detainers may be issued without evidentiary support or probable cause by border patrol agents, aircraft pilots, special agents, deportation officers, immigration inspectors, and immigration adjudication officers.

Given that civil immigration detainers are issued by immigration officers without judicial oversight, and the regulation authorizing civil immigration detainers provides no minimum standard of proof for their issuance, there are serious questions as to their constitutionality. Unlike criminal warrants, which must be supported by probable cause and issued by a neutral magistrate, there are no such requirements for the issuance of a civil immigration detainer. Several federal courts have ruled that because civil immigration detainers and other ICE "Notice of Action" documents are issued without probable cause of criminal conduct, they do not meet the Fourth Amendment requirements for state or local law enforcement officials to arrest and hold an individual in custody. (Miranda-Olivares v. Clackamas Co., No. 3:12-cv-02317-ST *17 (D.Or. April 11, 2014) (finding that detention pursuant to an immigration detainer is a seizure that must comport with the Fourth Amendment). See also Morales v. Chadbourne, 996 F. Supp. 2d 19, 29 (D.R.I 2014); Villars v. Kubiowski, No. 12-cv-4586 *10-12 (N.D. Ill. filed May 5, 2014).)

On December 4, 2012, the Attorney General of California, Kamala Harris, clarified the responsibilities of local law enforcement agencies under S-Comm. The Attorney General clarified that S-Comm did not require state or local law enforcement officials to determine an individual's immigration status or to enforce federal immigration laws. The Attorney General also clarified that civil immigration detainers are voluntary requests to local law enforcement agencies that do not mandate compliance. California local law enforcement agencies may determine on their own whether to comply with non-mandatory civil immigration detainers. In a June 25, 2014, bulletin, the Attorney General warned that a federal court outside of California had held a county liable for damages where it voluntarily complied with an ICE request to detain an individual, and the individual was otherwise eligible for release and that local law enforcement agencies may also be held liable for such conduct. Over 350 jurisdictions, including Washington, D.C., Cook County, Illinois, and many of California's 58 counties, have already acknowledged the discretionary nature of civil immigration detainers and are declining to hold people in their jails for the additional 48 hours as requested by ICE. Local law enforcement agencies' responsibilities, duties, and powers are regulated by state law. However, complying with non-mandatory civil immigration detainers frequently raises due process concerns.

According to Section 287.7 of Title 8 of the Code of Federal Regulations, the City is not reimbursed by the federal government for the costs associated with civil immigration detainers alone. The full cost of responding to a civil immigration detainer can include, but is not limited to, extended detention time, the administrative costs of tracking and responding to detainers, and the legal liability for erroneously holding an individual who is not subject to a civil immigration detainer. Compliance with civil immigration detainers and involvement in civil immigration enforcement diverts limited local resources from programs that are beneficial to the City.

The City seeks to protect public safety, which is founded on trust and cooperation of community residents and local law enforcement. However, civil immigration detainers and notifications regarding release undermine community trust of law enforcement by instilling fear in immigrant communities of coming forward to report crimes and cooperate with local law enforcement agencies. A 2013 study by the University of Illinois, entitled "Insecure Communities: Latino Perceptions of Police Involvement in Immigration Enforcement," found that at least 40% of Latinos surveyed are less likely to provide information to police because they fear exposing themselves, family, or friends to a risk of deportation. Indeed, civil immigration detainers have resulted in the transfer of victims of crime, including domestic violence victims, to ICE.

The City has enacted numerous laws and policies to strengthen communities and to build trust between communities and local law enforcement. Local cooperation and assistance with civil immigration enforcement undermines community policing strategies.

In 2014, DHS ended the Secure Communities program and replaced it with PEP. PEP and S-Comm share many similarities. Just as with S-Comm, PEP uses state and federal databases to check an individual's fingerprints against immigration and other databases. PEP employs a number of tactics to facilitate transfers of individuals from local jails to immigration custody.

First, PEP uses a new form (known as DHS Form I-247N), which requests notification from local jails about an individual's release date prior to his or her release from local custody. As with civil immigration detainers, these notification requests are issued by immigration officers without judicial oversight, thus raising questions about local law enforcement's liability for constitutional violations if any person is overdetained when immigration agents are unable to be present at the time of the person's release from local custody.

Second, under PEP, ICE will continue to issue civil immigration detainer requests where local law enforcement officials are willing to respond to the requests, and in instances of "special circumstances," a term that has yet to be defined by DHS. Despite federal courts finding civil immigration detainers do not meet Fourth Amendment requirements, local jurisdictions are often unable to confirm whether or not a detention request is supported by probable cause or has been reviewed by a neutral magistrate.

The increase in information-sharing between local law enforcement and immigration officials raises serious concerns about privacy rights. Across the country, including in the California Central Valley, there has been an increase of ICE agents stationed in jails, who often have unrestricted access to jail databases, booking logs, and other documents that contain personal information of all jail inmates.

The City has an interest in ensuring that confidential information collected in the course of carrying out its municipal functions, including but not limited to public health programs and criminal investigations, is not used for unintended purposes that could hamper collection of information vital to those functions. To carry out public health programs, the City must be able to reliably collect confidential information from all residents. To solve crimes and protect the public, local law enforcement depends on the cooperation of all City residents. Information gathering and cooperation may be jeopardized if release of personal information results in a person being taken into immigration custody.

In late 2015, Pedro Figueroa, an immigrant father of an 8-year-old U.S. citizen, sought the San Francisco Police Department's help in locating his stolen vehicle. When Mr. Figueroa went to the police station to retrieve his car, which police had located, he was detained for some time by police officers before being released, and an ICE agent was waiting to take him into immigration custody immediately as he left the police station. It was later reported that both the Police Department and the San Francisco Sheriff's Department had contact with ICE officials while Mr. Figueroa was at the police station. He spent over two months in an immigration detention facility and remains in deportation proceedings. Mr. Figueroa's case has raised major concerns about local law enforcement's relationship with immigration authorities, and has weakened the immigrant community's confidence in policing practices. Community cooperation with local law enforcement is critical to investigating and prosecuting crimes. Without the cooperation of crime victims – like Mr. Figueroa – and witnesses, local law enforcement's ability to investigate and prosecute crime, particularly in communities with large immigrant populations, will be seriously compromised.

SEC. 12I.3. RESTRICTIONS ON LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICIALS.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b), a law enforcement official shall not detain an individual on the basis of a civil immigration detainer after that individual becomes eligible for release from custody.

(b) Law enforcement officials may continue to detain an individual in response to a civil immigration detainer for up to 48 hours after that individual becomes eligible for release if the continued detention is consistent with state and federal law, and the individual meets both of the following criteria:

(1) The individual has been Convicted of a Violent Felony in the seven years immediately prior to the date of the civil immigration detainer; and

Evidence of rehabilitation or other mitigating factors to consider includes, but is not limited to: the individual's ties to the community, whether the individual has been a victim of any crime, the individual's contribution to the community, and the individual's participation in social service or rehabilitation programs.

This subsection (b) shall expire by operation of law on October 1, 2016, or upon a resolution passed by the Board of Supervisors that finds for purposes of this Chapter, the federal government has enacted comprehensive immigration reform that diminishes the need for this subsection (b), whichever comes first.

Presidential Documents

Enhancing Public Safety in the Interior of the United States

By the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and the laws of the United States of America, including the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) (8 U.S.C. 1101 et seq.), and in order to ensure the public safety of the American people in communities across the United States as well as to ensure that our Nation's immigration laws are faithfully executed, I hereby declare the policy of the executive branch to be, and order, as follows:

Section 1. Purpose. Interior enforcement of our Nation's immigration laws is critically important to the national security and public safety of the United States. Many aliens who illegally enter the United States and those who overstay or otherwise violate the terms of their visas present a significant threat to national security and public safety. This is particularly so for aliens who engage in criminal conduct in the United States.

Sanctuary jurisdictions across the United States willfully violate Federal law in an attempt to shield aliens from removal from the United States. These jurisdictions have caused immeasurable harm to the American people and to the very fabric of our Republic.

Tens of thousands of removable aliens have been released into communities across the country, solely because their home countries refuse to accept their repatriation. Many of these aliens are criminals who have served time in our Federal, State, and local jails. The presence of such individuals in the United States, and the practices of foreign nations that refuse the repatriation of their nationals, are contrary to the national interest.

Although Federal immigration law provides a framework for Federal-State partnerships in enforcing our immigration laws to ensure the removal of aliens who have no right to be in the United States, the Federal Government has failed to discharge this basic sovereign responsibility. We cannot faithfully execute the immigration laws of the United States if we exempt classes or categories of removable aliens from potential enforcement. The purpose of this order is to direct executive departments and agencies (agencies) to employ all lawful means to enforce the immigration laws of the United States.

Sec. 2. Policy. It is the policy of the executive branch to:

(a) Ensure the faithful execution of the immigration laws of the United States, including the INA, against all removable aliens, consistent with Article II, Section 3 of the United States Constitution and section 3331 of title 5, United States Code;

(b) Make use of all available systems and resources to ensure the efficient and faithful execution of the immigration laws of the United States;

(c) Ensure that jurisdictions that fail to comply with applicable Federal law do not receive Federal funds, except as mandated by law;

(d) Ensure that aliens ordered removed from the United States are promptly removed; and

(e) Support victims, and the families of victims, of crimes committed by removable aliens.

Sec. 3. Definitions. The terms of this order, where applicable, shall have the meaning provided by section 1101 of title 8, United States Code.

Sec. 4. Enforcement of the Immigration Laws in the Interior of the United States. In furtherance of the policy described in section 2 of this order, I hereby direct agencies to employ all lawful means to ensure the faithful execution of the immigration laws of the United States against all removable aliens.

Sec. 5. Enforcement Priorities. In executing faithfully the immigration laws of the United States, the Secretary of Homeland Security (Secretary) shall prioritize for removal those aliens described by the Congress in sections 212(a)(2), (a)(3), and (a)(6)(C), 235, and 237(a)(2) and (4) of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1182(a)(2), (a)(3), and (a)(6)(C), 1225, and 1227(a)(2) and (4)), as well as removable aliens who:

- (a) Have been convicted of any criminal offense;
- (b) Have been charged with any criminal offense, where such charge has not been resolved;
- (c) Have committed acts that constitute a chargeable criminal offense;
- (d) Have engaged in fraud or willful misrepresentation in connection with any official matter or application before a governmental agency;
- (e) Have abused any program related to receipt of public benefits;
- (f) Are subject to a final order of removal, but who have not complied with their legal obligation to depart the United States; or
- (g) In the judgment of an immigration officer, otherwise pose a risk to public safety or national security.

Sec. 6. Civil Fines and Penalties. As soon as practicable, and by no later than one year after the date of this order, the Secretary shall issue guidance and promulgate regulations, where required by law, to ensure the assessment and collection of all fines and penalties that the Secretary is authorized under the law to assess and collect from aliens unlawfully present in the United States and from those who facilitate their presence in the United States.

Sec. 7. Additional Enforcement and Removal Officers. The Secretary, through the Director of U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, shall, to the extent permitted by law and subject to the availability of appropriations, take all appropriate action to hire 10,000 additional immigration officers, who shall complete relevant training and be authorized to perform the law enforcement functions described in section 287 of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1357).

Sec. 8. Federal-State Agreements. It is the policy of the executive branch to empower State and local law enforcement agencies across the country to perform the functions of an immigration officer in the interior of the United States to the maximum extent permitted by law.

(a) In furtherance of this policy, the Secretary shall immediately take appropriate action to engage with the Governors of the States, as well as local officials, for the purpose of preparing to enter into agreements under section 287(g) of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1357(g)).

(b) To the extent permitted by law and with the consent of State or local officials, as appropriate, the Secretary shall take appropriate action, through agreements under section 287(g) of the INA, or otherwise, to authorize State and local law enforcement officials, as the Secretary determines are qualified and appropriate, to perform the functions of immigration officers in relation to the investigation, apprehension, or detention of aliens in the United States under the direction and the supervision of the Secretary. Such authorization shall be in addition to, rather than in place of, Federal performance of these duties.

(c) To the extent permitted by law, the Secretary may structure each agreement under section 287(g) of the INA in a manner that provides the most effective model for enforcing Federal immigration laws for that jurisdiction.

Sec. 9. Sanctuary Jurisdictions. It is the policy of the executive branch to ensure, to the fullest extent of the law, that a State, or a political subdivision of a State, shall comply with 8 U.S.C. 1373.

(a) In furtherance of this policy, the Attorney General and the Secretary, in their discretion and to the extent consistent with law, shall ensure that jurisdictions that willfully refuse to comply with 8 U.S.C. 1373 (sanctuary jurisdictions) are not eligible to receive Federal grants, except as deemed necessary for law enforcement purposes by the Attorney General or the Secretary. The Secretary has the authority to designate, in his discretion and to the extent consistent with law, a jurisdiction as a sanctuary jurisdiction. The Attorney General shall take appropriate enforcement action against any entity that violates 8 U.S.C. 1373, or which has in effect a statute, policy, or practice that prevents or hinders the enforcement of Federal law.

(b) To better inform the public regarding the public safety threats associated with sanctuary jurisdictions, the Secretary shall utilize the Declined Detainer Outcome Report or its equivalent and, on a weekly basis, make public a comprehensive list of criminal actions committed by aliens and any jurisdiction that ignored or otherwise failed to honor any detainers with respect to such aliens.

(c) The Director of the Office of Management and Budget is directed to obtain and provide relevant and responsive information on all Federal grant money that currently is received by any sanctuary jurisdiction.

Sec. 10. Review of Previous Immigration Actions and Policies. (a) The Secretary shall immediately take all appropriate action to terminate the Priority Enforcement Program (PEP) described in the memorandum issued by the Secretary on November 20, 2014, and to reinstitute the immigration program known as “Secure Communities” referenced in that memorandum.

(b) The Secretary shall review agency regulations, policies, and procedures for consistency with this order and, if required, publish for notice and comment proposed regulations rescinding or revising any regulations inconsistent with this order and shall consider whether to withdraw or modify any inconsistent policies and procedures, as appropriate and consistent with the law.

(c) To protect our communities and better facilitate the identification, detention, and removal of criminal aliens within constitutional and statutory parameters, the Secretary shall consolidate and revise any applicable forms to more effectively communicate with recipient law enforcement agencies.

Sec. 11. Department of Justice Prosecutions of Immigration Violators. The Attorney General and the Secretary shall work together to develop and implement a program that ensures that adequate resources are devoted to the prosecution of criminal immigration offenses in the United States, and to develop cooperative strategies to reduce violent crime and the reach of transnational criminal organizations into the United States.

Sec. 12. Recalcitrant Countries. The Secretary of Homeland Security and the Secretary of State shall cooperate to effectively implement the sanctions provided by section 243(d) of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1253(d)), as appropriate. The Secretary of State shall, to the maximum extent permitted by law, ensure that diplomatic efforts and negotiations with foreign states include as a condition precedent the acceptance by those foreign states of their nationals who are subject to removal from the United States.

Sec. 13. Office for Victims of Crimes Committed by Removable Aliens. The Secretary shall direct the Director of U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement to take all appropriate and lawful action to establish within U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement an office to provide proactive, timely, adequate, and professional services to victims of crimes committed by removable aliens and the family members of such victims. This office shall provide quarterly reports studying the effects of the victimization by criminal aliens present in the United States.

Sec. 14. Privacy Act. Agencies shall, to the extent consistent with applicable law, ensure that their privacy policies exclude persons who are not United States citizens or lawful permanent residents from the protections of the Privacy Act regarding personally identifiable information.

Sec. 15. Reporting. Except as otherwise provided in this order, the Secretary and the Attorney General shall each submit to the President a report on the progress of the directives contained in this order within 90 days of the date of this order and again within 180 days of the date of this order.

Sec. 16. Transparency. To promote the transparency and situational awareness of criminal aliens in the United States, the Secretary and the Attorney General are hereby directed to collect relevant data and provide quarterly reports on the following:

(a) the immigration status of all aliens incarcerated under the supervision of the Federal Bureau of Prisons;

(b) the immigration status of all aliens incarcerated as Federal pretrial detainees under the supervision of the United States Marshals Service; and

(c) the immigration status of all convicted aliens incarcerated in State prisons and local detention centers throughout the United States.

Sec. 17. Personnel Actions. The Office of Personnel Management shall take appropriate and lawful action to facilitate hiring personnel to implement this order.

Sec. 18. General Provisions. (a) Nothing in this order shall be construed to impair or otherwise affect:

(i) the authority granted by law to an executive department or agency, or the head thereof; or

(ii) the functions of the Director of the Office of Management and Budget relating to budgetary, administrative, or legislative proposals.

(b) This order shall be implemented consistent with applicable law and subject to the availability of appropriations.

(c) This order is not intended to, and does not, create any right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law or in equity by any party against the United States, its departments, agencies, or entities, its officers, employees, or agents, or any other person.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTORNEYS COMPLETING CIVIL COVER SHEET FORM JS-CAND 44

Authority For Civil Cover Sheet. The JS-CAND 44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved in its original form by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the Clerk of Court to initiate the civil docket sheet. Consequently, a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows:

- I. a) Plaintiffs-Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.
 - b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing. (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the “defendant” is the location of the tract of land involved.)
 - c) Attorneys. Enter the firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section “(see attachment).”
- II. Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(a), which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place an “X” in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below.
- (1) United States plaintiff. Jurisdiction based on 28 USC §§ 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here.
 - (2) United States defendant. When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an “X” in this box.
 - (3) Federal question. This refers to suits under 28 USC § 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked.
 - (4) Diversity of citizenship. This refers to suits under 28 USC § 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; NOTE: federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases.)
- III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS-CAND 44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.
- IV. Nature of Suit. Place an “X” in the appropriate box. If the nature of suit cannot be determined, be sure the cause of action, in Section VI below, is sufficient to enable the deputy clerk or the statistical clerk(s) in the Administrative Office to determine the nature of suit. If the cause fits more than one nature of suit, select the most definitive.
- V. Origin. Place an “X” in one of the six boxes.
- (1) Original Proceedings. Cases originating in the United States district courts.
 - (2) Removed from State Court. Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 USC § 1441. When the petition for removal is granted, check this box.
 - (3) Remanded from Appellate Court. Check this box for cases remanded to the district court for further action. Use the date of remand as the filing date.
 - (4) Reinstated or Reopened. Check this box for cases reinstated or reopened in the district court. Use the reopening date as the filing date.
 - (5) Transferred from Another District. For cases transferred under Title 28 USC § 1404(a). Do not use this for within district transfers or multidistrict litigation transfers.
 - (6) Multidistrict Litigation Transfer. Check this box when a multidistrict case is transferred into the district under authority of Title 28 USC § 1407. When this box is checked, do not check (5) above.
 - (8) Multidistrict Litigation Direct File. Check this box when a multidistrict litigation case is filed in the same district as the Master MDL docket.
- Please note that there is no Origin Code 7. Origin Code 7 was used for historical records and is no longer relevant due to changes in statute.
- VI. Cause of Action. Report the civil statute directly related to the cause of action and give a brief description of the cause. Do not cite jurisdictional statutes unless diversity. Example: U.S. Civil Statute: 47 USC § 553. Brief Description: Unauthorized reception of cable service.
- VII. Requested in Complaint. Class Action. Place an “X” in this box if you are filing a class action under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23.
- Demand. In this space enter the actual dollar amount being demanded or indicate other demand, such as a preliminary injunction.
- Jury Demand. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether or not a jury is being demanded.
- VIII. Related Cases. This section of the JS-CAND 44 is used to identify related pending cases, if any. If there are related pending cases, insert the docket numbers and the corresponding judge names for such cases.
- IX. Divisional Assignment. If the Nature of Suit is under Property Rights or Prisoner Petitions or the matter is a Securities Class Action, leave this section blank. For all other cases, identify the divisional venue according to Civil Local Rule 3-2: “the county in which a substantial part of the events or omissions which give rise to the claim occurred or in which a substantial part of the property that is the subject of the action is situated.”
- Date and Attorney Signature. Date and sign the civil cover sheet.

2 1. This lawsuit challenges President Donald J. Trump’s January 25, 2017 executive
3 order directing reprisals against state, local, and municipal governments that he deems to be so-
4 called “sanctuary jurisdictions.” Exec. Order 13,768, 82 Fed. Reg. 8799 (Jan. 25, 2017) (the 5 “Executive Order”). The Executive Order is patently unconstitutional under the Constitution’s
6 plain text, as well as settled United States Supreme Court precedent. The Executive Order throws
7 Plaintiff County of Santa Clara’s current budgetary and planning process into chaos, and also 8 poses a real risk to the health, welfare, and safety of thousands of County residents.

9 2. The Executive Order purports to seize for the President and his subordinate
10 executive officers—namely, the Attorney General and the Secretary of Homeland Security—the 11 power to declare any “sanctuary jurisdiction” ineligible to receive any federal funds. The 12 Executive Order nowhere defines the term “sanctuary jurisdiction.” The Secretary of Homeland
13 Security has plenary authority to designate any state, city, county, or other entity as a “sanctuary 14 jurisdiction,” despite that term having no defined meaning.

15 3. The Executive Order fails to provide any state or local government designated as a 16 “sanctuary jurisdiction” with a right to challenge the designation through judicial review or any 17 other means. Indeed, the Executive Order does not even require the federal government to 18 provide notice to a state or local government that it has been designated a “sanctuary
19 jurisdiction.” Accordingly, the Executive Order gives the President and his executive agents 20 unfettered, unreviewable discretion to strip any state or local government of its right to obtain any 21 federal money, at any time or for any purpose, including money Congress has already 22 appropriated and directed be paid.

23 4. The Executive Order does not stop there. It also directs the Attorney General to 24 “take appropriate enforcement action” not only against so-called “sanctuary jurisdictions,” but 25 also any “entity” that “has in effect a statute, policy, or practice that prevents or hinders the 26 enforcement of Federal law.” The Executive Order does not define what constitutes “preventing”
27 or “hindering” enforcement of federal law. As a result, this broadly and carelessly worded
28 directive requires our nation’s top law-enforcement officer to take reprisals against any state, city,

1 county, or other municipality that he may decide, in his sole and unreviewable discretion, has
2 taken any act that he believes “hinders” any interest set forth in the vast body of federal law. An
3 aggrandizement of executive power of this magnitude has rarely been attempted in the history of 4 the Republic.

5 5. The Executive Order also grants the Attorney General authority to commandeer
6 local law enforcement officers to carry out the President’s immigration agenda. It further
7 obligates the Attorney General to retaliate against a local government whose law enforcement
8 officers fail to provide what he considers “full compliance,” in his sole and unreviewable
9 discretion.

10 6. The Executive Order contains other enormous and obvious problems. Section 5, 11 for example, vastly expands federal immigration enforcement priorities by prioritizing for 12 removal undocumented immigrants who, inter alia, have allegedly “committed acts that 13 constitute a chargeable criminal offense,” “abused any program related to receipt of public
14 benefits,” or who, “[i]n the judgment of an immigration officer, otherwise pose a risk to public
15 safety or national security.” Executive Order, Sec. 5(c), (e), (g) at 8800. These standardless
16 provisions encourage and sanction arbitrary, subjective, and discriminatory enforcement. And 17 Section 6 of the Executive Order requires assessment of “fines and penalties” against not only 18 undocumented persons but anyone who “facilitate[s] their presence in the United States.” This 19 undefined and unbounded category may include anyone who unknowingly rents a room to or 20 conducts business with an undocumented person, medical personnel who provide essential or 21 even life-saving services to an undocumented person, or even a lawyer defending such a person in 22 immigration proceedings.

23 7. Through this lawsuit, the County of Santa Clara (“the County”) challenges only
24 those aspects of the Executive Order’s unconstitutionality that directly injure the County’s
25 interests and are ripe for judicial review. Other challenges by other plaintiffs are sure to follow.
26 This action alleges that the Executive Order is unconstitutional for the following independent 27 reasons.

1 8. First, the Executive Order seizes for the President and the executive branch the
2 power of the federal purse, which belongs exclusively to Congress under Article I, section 8,
3 clause 1 of our federal Constitution. Only Congress has the power to appropriate and spend
4 federal dollars. This power includes the right to determine who is eligible to receive federal
5 funds, as well as which conditions, if any, they must fulfill to receive those funds. The President
6 has no power to appropriate funds or unilaterally place conditions on eligibility for receipt of 7 federal money, much less to bar by fiat a state, city, or county from receiving any federal money
8 whatsoever. Yet that is what the Executive Order purports to do.

9 9. In fact, the Executive Order is so unconstitutionally overbroad that it claims
10 spending power for the President and the executive branch that even Congress lacks. Under a
11 long and unbroken line of United States Supreme Court precedent, Congress's power to place
12 conditions on the receipt of federal funds is limited in several fundamental respects. Once it
13 provides money to a state, county, or city and the money is accepted, Congress is barred from 14 imposing new conditions. Nor may Congress impose conditions on federal money that are 15 unrelated to the federal interest furthered by the appropriated funds. And Congress cannot 16 impose a condition that is so coercive that it amounts to "a gun to the head," leaving the state or 17 local government with no real choice but to buckle to a federal demand. The Executive Order
18 attempts to do all these things. Accordingly, even if the Executive Order were an Act of 19 Congress, or authorized by one, it would be unconstitutional.

20 10. Congress has not only failed to grant the President the spending power he now
21 claims, but it also considered and rejected the very policy the Executive Order now seeks to 22 impose by dictate. Indeed, Senator Jeff Sessions—the man tapped to become the Attorney
23 General referenced in the Executive Order—introduced a Senate bill in 2015 that would have 24 conditioned the receipt of certain, law-enforcement-related federal funds on compliance with 25 federal immigration enforcement directives and priorities. The bill died in committee, as did its 26 counterpart in the House of Representatives. After Mr. Sessions failed to achieve his policy ends
27 through the legislative process, the President simply imposed them through the Executive Order,
28 which repeats portions of Mr. Sessions's failed bill verbatim. A long line of Supreme Court precedent makes clear that when the President acts in derogation of the “expressed or implied will of Congress, his power is at its lowest ebb.” Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co. v. Sawyer, 343 U.S. 579, 637 (1952) (Jackson, J., concurring). That is the case here. The President cannot enact Mr. Sessions’s bill by executive order, especially when Congress itself declined the opportunity.

11. Second, the Executive Order is unconstitutional because it is too vague to provide the County with reasonable notice of what it must do to comply with its terms and avoid unspecified “enforcement actions.” The Executive Order requires states, cities, and counties to refrain from “hinder[ing]” any enforcement of any federal law. Because this standard is nowhere defined in the Executive Order and its application is left up entirely to the sole and unreviewable discretion of the Attorney General, a state, city, or county could suffer whatever reprisals deemed appropriate by the Attorney General for any act deemed insufficiently supportive of federal law enforcement. Such a vague order cannot stand.

12. Third, the Executive Order denies the County the procedural due process protections afforded to it by the Fifth Amendment. The Executive Order provides the County no clue as to which acts would trigger the “hindrance” standard, and no opportunity to contest the Attorney General’s decision or have that decision reviewed by an independent tribunal. Indeed, the Executive Order fails to guarantee that the County will even receive notice that it has been designated a “sanctuary jurisdiction” subject to deprivation of federal funds and unspecified enforcement actions. Because it fails to provide affected jurisdictions with reasonable notice or any opportunity to be heard, the Executive Order violates the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

13. Fourth, the Executive Order violates the Tenth Amendment and the federalism principles that animate our governmental structure. By requiring that County officials take unspecified actions to avoid “prevent[ing] or hinder[ing]” the federal government in the enforcement of “Federal law,” the Executive Order commandeers state and local officials, transforming them into federal apparatchiks and severing the bonds of political accountability inherent in our federal system.

14. It is no exaggeration to say that the Executive Order contravenes centuries of constitutional law establishing the separation of powers between the legislative and executive branches of the federal government. It likewise flouts basic principles of federalism that prevent the federal government from invading the sovereignty of state and local governments. It is a naked grab for power that never has, does not, and cannot belong to the President or the executive branch. It is wholly unconstitutional and must be struck down.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

15. The Court has federal question jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 because this action arises under the Constitution and the laws of the United States. The Court also has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1346 because this is a civil action or claim against the United States founded upon the Constitution, an Act of Congress, and an executive regulation. Finally, this Court has mandamus jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1361, which provides that “[t]he district courts shall have original jurisdiction of any action in the nature of mandamus to compel an officer or employee of the United States or any agency thereof to perform a duty owed to the plaintiff.”

16. Venue is proper in this District under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(e) because Defendants are officers and employees of the United States or any agency thereof acting in their official capacities, Plaintiff resides in this District, and a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to this action are occurring in this District.

17. The Court is authorized to award the requested declaratory, and preliminary and permanent injunctive relief, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201–2202.

INTRADISTRICT ASSIGNMENT

18. Pursuant to Civil L.R. 3-2(c), this case should be assigned to the San Jose Division of this Court because the action arises in Santa Clara County.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

A. The County Relies on Federal Funding.

1. 1.9 million residents depend upon the County for essential services.

25. The County was established in 1850 as one of the first counties in California statehood. Today, 1.9 million people reside in the County, and rely on it to provide essential services, such as law enforcement, health and hospital care, education, care for youth and elderly, and social services. Many of the County's programs serve the neediest County residents, such as abused and neglected children, indigent and uninsured individuals requiring health care, persons who are mentally ill or substance dependent, and persons who are physically or mentally disabled.

26. The County also oversees most regional public health and public safety functions, including emergency planning and services, disease control and prevention, and criminal justice administration, in addition to operating roads, airports, parks, libraries, election systems, fire departments, and many other critical functions.

¹ The President has nominated Senator Jeff Sessions to serve as Attorney General, and, if confirmed, Senator Sessions will replace Acting Attorney General Boente.

² The President has nominated Congressman Mick Mulvaney to serve as Director of the Office of Management and Budget and, if confirmed, Representative Mulvaney will replace Acting Director Sandy.

2. The County relies on federal funds to provide essential services and meet its budget.

27. The County receives approximately $1 billion annually in federal funds, representing about 15% of its $6 billion annual budget. Only a small fraction of the federal funding the County receives relates to immigration or law enforcement. Much of the federal funding the County receives is passed through the State of California.

28. As discussed below, the vast majority of federal funding the County receives is used to provide essential safety-net programs and social services to its residents. Without these federal funds, the County would be forced to make extraordinary cuts to critical services—and in some cases totally eliminate key County services and functions. The elimination, or even reduction, of federal funding would require the County to fundamentally and globally reallocate funds and services. And, because the Executive Order purports to withdraw all federal funds from “sanctuary jurisdictions,” the County is forced to determine now whether and how much to cut services, and whether a global reallocation of resources is necessary.

Santa Clara Valley Medical Center

29. Santa Clara Valley Medical Center (“SCVMC”) is the only safety-net healthcare provider in the County. Wholly owned and operated by the County, SCVMC provides healthcare services to indigent and underserved patients whom other healthcare providers often refuse to serve. It operates a 574-bed hospital, specialized centers that provide trauma, burn and rehabilitation, renal and ambulatory care, ten ambulatory care clinics, and four medical and dental units.

30. Approximately seventy percent of SCVMC’s $1.4 billion annual budget comes from direct federal funding, as well as funds from other sources that are dependent on the existence of a federal funding stream, and would not be provided in the absence of federal funds. Together, these funds help pay for the full suite of health care that SCVMC provides, including critical ambulatory primary and specialty care, women’s and children’s health services, neonatal and pediatric intensive care, comprehensive adult and pediatric specialty services, comprehensive oncology services, comprehensive trauma and emergency services, and other essential medical

1 services, as well as emergency and acute psychiatric services. Federal funds also allow SCVMC
2 to invest in research, programs, and technologies that benefit all patients and society more 3 broadly.

4 31. If SCVMC were to lose the funding that it receives from federal grants and 5 reimbursements, hundreds of thousands of patients—including infants and children, the elderly,
6 and those with chronic disease—would be left without viable healthcare options. This would 7 create an untenable healthcare crisis in the community.

8 Social Services Agency

9 32. The County's Social Services Agency ("SSA") provides a wide array of services
10 to the County's most vulnerable residents, including child welfare and child protective services,
11 aid to needy families, services and support to disabled children and adults, services and protection
12 to elderly individuals, and administration of many public benefits programs.

13 33. The SSA receives over $300 million in federal funding each year—approximately 14 40% of its budget—to support these essential safety-net services. Nearly all of the County's SSA
15 funding is reimbursement-based, requiring the County to front the money necessary to provide 16 services to its residents now based on the federal government's promise to reimburse the County
17 later.

18 34. The County relies on these federal funds to provide critical social services to its 19 neediest residents—including child welfare services, in-home care and nutrition services for the 20 elderly, and time-limited assistance to the County's lowest-income families. Furthermore,
21 because a substantial amount of SSA's federal funding pays for service providers, cutting those 22 funds would threaten the jobs of approximately 23,000 workers who perform social work, home
23 health care, and food services.

24 Behavioral Health Services Department

25 35. The County's Behavioral Health Services Department provides essential services
26 to residents struggling with mental illness and substance abuse. It offers a broad range of services 27 including mental health urgent care, crisis intervention, housing and support services, psychiatric 28

1 services, residential treatment programs, substance abuse treatment and services, jail diversion
2 programs, and substance abuse prevention and education services.

3 36. The Behavioral Health Services Department receives approximately $131 million
4 in direct federal funding annually, accounting for over 30% of its operating budget.

5 37. Without this federal funding, the County would be forced to drastically reduce the 6 quantity and quality of behavioral health services it provides, and would be forced to significantly
7 cut staff. In turn, residents would lose access to critical behavioral health services, making them
8 more vulnerable to crises or decompensation, relapse, and increased risk of homelessness,
9 addiction, criminal activity, incarceration, and death.

10 Public Health Department

11 38. The County's Public Health Department protects and promotes the health of the 12 County's residents through programs to identify, treat, and stop the spread of communicable and 13 potentially lethal diseases; to provide disease and injury prevention; to offer immunizations for 14 children and travelers; and to provide health education. The fifteen cities within the County lack 15 their own public health departments and depend entirely on the County's Public Health
16 Department to provide these services.

17 39. Federal funds comprise approximately $40 million of the Public Health
18 Department's $100 million annual budget.

19 40. The loss of federal funds would have a devastating impact on the County's ability
20 to continue providing core public health services for the communities most in need. The County
21 depends on these federal funds to support, among other things: the prevention of communicable 22 diseases; maternal, child, and adolescent health care; food benefits, breastfeeding support, and 23 nutrition education for low-income mothers and their children; medical care for uninsured and 24 underinsured individuals living with HIV/AIDS; services for severely disabled children with 25 chronic diseases; immunization support and vaccination services for children and schools; and 26 programs to prepare for and respond to public health emergencies and potential terrorism.

27 Office of Emergency Services
28

41. The County's Office of Emergency Services ("OES") is responsible for facilitating the County's preparation for, response to, and recovery from disasters of all types—from severe weather events to terrorism to major earthquakes. Among its responsibilities, OES provides emergency management training exercises; engages in region-wide hazard planning; operates the Santa Clara County Emergency Operations Center during emergency incidents; and coordinates regional efforts to recover following emergency incidents.

42. For fiscal year 2016, OES has been awarded more than $5 million in federal funding, representing almost two-thirds of its budget. All of this funding is provided by the federal government on a reimbursement basis, with several million in grant funding currently outstanding—i.e., the funds have been awarded by the federal government, but the County has not yet been reimbursed.

43. These federal funds are critical to keeping the local community safe during natural disasters, man-made emergencies, acts of terrorism, and other large-scale catastrophic events. Furthermore, these funds are essential to the County's community- and region-wide emergency planning and preparedness.

Other Federal Funding

44. Despite their broad reach, the funding streams described above represent only a fraction of the County's federal funding sources. Numerous other County departments and agencies rely on federal funding to provide essential health, safety, and welfare services to the community, including the Consumer and Environmental Protection Agency, the Office of Supportive Housing, the Roads and Airports Department, the Facilities and Fleet Department, the Department of Child Support Services, the Probation Department, the Sheriff's Office, the Department of Parks and Recreation, and the Office of the County Executive.

45. Without federal funding, these departments and agencies would have to roll back their support of programs that comprise the very fabric of the community, including housing and community development, housing stability and supportive services for the chronically homeless, highway planning and construction, water quality improvement, agricultural pest management, child support, juvenile justice, security and intelligence initiatives, and multifaceted crime

1 prevention. It is a near certainty that the County's federal funding touches each and every one of 2 its 1.9 million residents in some way or another.

3 3. The County must make budgetary decisions today for future services.

4 46. Each year, as required by the County Charter, the County Executive develops a
5 recommended budget for approval by the Board of Supervisors. To develop that budget, County
6 staff carefully analyzes and weighs a multitude of factors including anticipated revenues, specific
7 service needs for diverse subsets of County residents, salary and benefits costs for the County's 8 18,000 employees, and an array of local priorities.

9 47. The County is currently in the process of formulating its budget for the fiscal year
10 beginning on July 1, 2017.

11 48. Reliable access to federal funding plays a critical role in the County's budgeting
12 process. The County receives federal funds in several different forms. For example, many of the 13 federal funds the County receives are provided as reimbursements, under which the County first 14 expends its own funds, and later seeks partial or complete reimbursement from the federal 15 government. Other federal revenues are provided on a fee-for-service basis, under which the 16 County must expend its own resources to deliver services, and then subsequently seek fee-based 17 payments from the federal government. Still other federal funds are provided to the County in the 18 form of direct, upfront grants. The County receives all federal funding either directly from the 19 federal government, or passed through the State of California or other government entities.

20 49. The Executive Order has thrown the County's budget process into chaos, as the 21 County suddenly faces the possibility that more than $1 billion of its anticipated revenues could 22 disappear at the executive branch's whim. The County's contingency reserve is approximately 23 $130 million, so there is no means by which the County could possibly absorb the resulting 24 shortfall. Because the County's federally funded programs operate continuously, the County 25 must decide whether to continue incurring hundreds of millions of dollars in costs that may never 26 be reimbursed by the federal government, or instead discontinue basic safety-net services 27 delivered to its most vulnerable residents.

4. County policies and practices regarding cooperation with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (“ICE”) conflict with the President’s stated policies.

50. The County is responsible for operating numerous criminal justice agencies, including the County Sheriff’s Office, Department of Correction, District Attorney’s Office, Public Defender’s Office, Probation Department, and Office of Pretrial Services. These agencies investigate and prosecute crimes; provide criminal defense to indigent defendants; provide services to arrestees during the pretrial phase as well as post-sentencing to reduce flight and recidivism; and ensure the safety and security of all residents of the County, including those in custody in the County jail system, which is the fifth largest in California.

51. As part of their responsibility to apprehend and detain those suspected or convicted of committing criminal offenses, the County Sheriff’s Office and Department of Correction have had significant experience with ICE “civil detainer requests” and other immigration enforcement mandates.

52. An ICE civil detainer request asks a local law enforcement agency to continue to detain an immigrant inmate—who is generally being held in a local jail for violations or suspected violations of state criminal laws—for up to 48 additional hours after his or her regularly scheduled release date so that ICE can decide whether to take the individual into custody and initiate removal proceedings.

53. Prior to late 2011, the County Sheriff’s Office and Department of Correction regularly responded to ICE civil detainer requests and other inquiries from federal immigration officials. As a result of ICE civil detainer request, during this period, the County was holding on average 135 additional inmates at a time, at a daily cost of $159 per person.

54. In a public exchange of letters from August through October 2010, then-County Counsel Miguel Márquez asked ICE to clarify, among other things, (i) whether ICE viewed detainer compliance as compulsory, and (ii) whether the federal government would indemnify and reimburse the County for the costs associated with civil detainer requests. ICE responded that detainees are “requests,” but that ICE would neither reimburse detention costs nor indemnify localities for any liability arising from responding to detainer requests.

1 55. Over the next several months, a task force convened by the County Board of
2 Supervisors, and comprised of officials from each of the County criminal justice agencies listed
3 above, carefully reviewed the County's history of compliance with ICE detainer requests, placing
4 special focus on the impact on public safety in the community. The task force determined that a
5 tailored approach of honoring ICE detainer requests only for individuals with serious or violent
6 felony convictions, as defined under California law, would best protect public safety in the 7 County.

8 56. When the Board of Supervisors formally adopted this position in the County Civil 9 Detainer Policy in October 2011, it also included a provision stating that the County would honor
10 ICE detainer requests for individuals with the requisite convictions only if ICE would enter into a
11 prior written agreement "by which all costs incurred by the [C]ounty in complying with the ICE
12 detainer shall be reimbursed." To date, ICE has refused to enter into a reimbursement agreement
13 with the County, so the County has not honored any detainer requests since October 2011.
14 Although the precise scope and meaning of the undefined term "sanctuary jurisdictions" is 15 unknown and the executive branch's discretion to declare a state or local government to be such a
16 jurisdiction is boundless, the County reasonably anticipates that its practices would place it on the 17 Department of Homeland Security's weekly list of jurisdictions "that ignored or otherwise failed
18 to honor any detainees." Executive Order, Sec. 9(b) at 8801.

19 57. Additionally, in 2010, the County Board of Supervisors adopted a Resolution
20 affirming the separation between County services and the enforcement of federal civil 21 immigration law. The Resolution prohibits County employees, including law enforcement 22 officers, from initiating an inquiry or enforcement action based solely on an individual's actual or 23 suspected immigration status, national origin, race/ethnicity, or English-speaking ability. It also 24 prohibits the use of County funds or resources to investigate, question, apprehend, or arrest an 25 individual solely because of an actual or suspected violation of immigration law, or to transmit to
28

1 ICE for purposes of federal immigration enforcement information collected by the County in the
2 course of providing critical social services.³

3 58. The County's policies relating to involvement in federal immigration enforcement
4 were specifically designed to advance public safety. County law enforcement officials rely on 5 members of the local community—including those who lack lawful immigration status—to report
6 crimes, come forward as witnesses, aid in apprehending individuals with bench warrants, and 7 assist with criminal prosecutions.

8 59. When local law enforcement officers are perceived as immigration enforcers, the 9 result is a dangerous chilling effect on trust and cooperation from the community. Individuals are 10 less likely to seek police officers' help for fear of being questioned about their immigration status.
11 Crimes go unreported. Victims and witnesses are hesitant to offer testimony. And communities
12 are less safe. The view that involving local officials in federal immigration enforcement
13 undermines public safety is not unique to the County of Santa Clara. Indeed, local law
14 enforcement agencies around the country echo the County's experience.

15 60. The Executive Order wrongly suggests that only maximum cooperation with 16 federal immigration enforcement priorities by local law enforcement agencies can protect public
17 safety. In fact, forcing local governments such as the County to engage in immigration
18 enforcement—whether by requiring them to honor ICE civil detainer requests or, more broadly,
19 by compelling them to act as federal immigration officers—drives a wedge between local law
20 enforcement officers and the communities they serve and protect, undercutting law enforcement's
21 core public safety mandate.

22 61. Compelling the County to engage in immigration enforcement also threatens the 23 County's fiscal stability. First, civil detainer requests impose significant costs that the federal

24 ³ Starting in 2016, two federal grant programs in which the County had participated—the State
25 Criminal Alien Assistance Program (SCAAP) and Edward Byrne Memorial Justice Assistance
26 Grant (JAG)—required the County to certify its compliance with “all applicable federal laws.”
27 On July 7, 2016, the U.S. Department of Justice issued guidance explaining that 8 U.S.C. § 1373, 28 which relates to sharing of immigration status information, is now considered an “applicable federal law” for purposes of SCAAP and JAG funds, and that state and local governments with any restrictions on information-sharing with ICE would be viewed as noncompliant. To retain its discretion, the County decided in October 2016 not to apply for or accept future SCAAP or JAG funds from the federal government.

1 government refuses to reimburse. Although a civil detainer request formally asks a local law
2 enforcement agency to maintain custody of an individual for an additional 48 hours beyond when
3 he or she would otherwise be released, individuals subject to civil detainers typically are held for 4 much longer than they would absent the detainer—largely because the existence of a detainer
5 request makes an individual highly unlikely to be offered a bail bond to facilitate his or her
6 release from custody pending trial. The costs associated with compliance with ICE detainer
7 requests can quickly skyrocket, diverting County resources away from critical public safety
8 functions to federal civil immigration enforcement.

9 62. Second, honoring civil detainer requests would expose the County to substantial
10 liability for constitutional violations. Federal courts around the country have held that honoring
11 ICE civil detainer requests exposes local law enforcement agencies to liability under the Fourth
12 Amendment. E.g., Morales v. Chadbourne, 793 F.3d 208, 215-16 (1st Cir. 2015); Miranda-
13 Olivares v. Clackamas County, No. 3:12-cv-02317-ST, 2014 WL 1414305, at *11-12 (D. Or.
14 Apr. 11, 2014). The federal government has made clear that it will not indemnify local law
15 enforcement agencies against constitutional claims, even when they arise directly out of actions
16 the local agency has taken at the federal government’s behest.

17 63. In addition, the County is currently a defendant in a class action lawsuit alleging
18 Eight and Fourteenth Amendment violations relating to significant overcrowding in the County
19 jails. Substantially increasing the jail population by honoring ICE detainers would directly and 20 immediately compound the County’s potential liability.

21 64. Even if the County rescinded its policies governing local participation in federal 22 immigration enforcement, as the Executive Order seeks to compel, the County would still be 23 required to comply with state laws that also significantly constrain its participation in federal 24 immigration enforcement activities. California’s Transparency and Responsibility Using State
25 Tools (TRUST) Act, Cal. Gov. Code § 7282.5, permits local law enforcement agencies to honor
26 ICE detainer requests only with respect to individuals in their custody who have specific prior 27 criminal convictions or criminal charges as to which a judge has made a finding of probable
28 cause. Moreover, the pending “California Values Act,” Senate Bill 54, would (a) prohibit state

1 and local law enforcement agencies and school police from using public resources to investigate,
 2 interrogate, detain, detect, or arrest anyone solely for immigration enforcement purposes, and (b)
 3 require state agencies to ensure that information collected from individuals in the course of 4 service delivery is limited to that necessary to provide services and is not used or disclosed for 5 any other purpose.

6 65. Indeed, in a memorandum issued by the Department of Justice's Office of the 7 Inspector General (OIG) relating to 8 U.S.C. § 1373, the OIG called out the entire State of 8 California as a jurisdiction that does not fully comply with federal immigration enforcement
 9 priorities.⁴ Because much of the County's federal funding is passed through agencies of the State
 10 of California, these active questions about the continuation of federal funding streams to the State
 11 of California as a whole substantially exacerbate the County's fiscal uncertainty.

12 B. The President's Executive Order Regarding "Sanctuary Jurisdictions" is 13 Unconstitutional.

14 1. The Executive Order constitutes an unprecedented attempt to expand 15 executive power.

16 66. On January 25, 2017, President Donald J. Trump issued Executive Order 13768, 17 entitled "Enhancing Public Safety in the Interior of the United States." That Executive Order was 18 published in the Federal Register on January 30, 2017, at Vol. 82, No. 18. It is available on the 19 White House public website (https://www.whitehouse.gov/the-press- 20 office/2017/01/25/Presidential-executive-order-enhancing-public-safety-interior-united), and is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

21 67. The Executive Order represents a gross overreach of executive power. This power
 22 grab comes at the expense of powers constitutionally vested in the Congress, as well as state and 23 local governments.

24 68. Section 1 of the Executive Order announces the order's "[p]urpose." Executive 25 Order, Sec. 1 at 8799. It declares that "Sanctuary jurisdictions across the United States willfully

 27 ⁴ Memorandum from Michael E. Horowitz, Inspector Gen., to Karol V. Mason, Assistant Att'y

 Potential Violations of 8 U.S.C. § 1373 by Grant Recipients," at 13 (May 31, 2016),

1 violate Federal law in an attempt to shield aliens from removal from the United States. These 2 jurisdictions have caused immeasurable harm to the American people and to the very fabric of our 3 Republic.” Id.

4 69. Section 2 of the Executive Order sets forth the “policy of the executive branch.”
 5 Id. Sec. 2 at 8799. It describes that policy as, among other things, “[e]nsur[ing] that jurisdictions
 6 that fail to comply with applicable Federal law do not receive Federal funds, except as mandated 7 by law.” Id. Sec. 2(c) at 8799.

8 70. Section 3 of the Executive Order is titled “Definitions,” but contains no specific 9 definitions applicable to the order. Id. Sec. 3 at 8799. Instead, it states that “the terms of this 10 order, where applicable, shall have the meaning provided by” 8 U.S.C. § 1101. Id.

11 71. In a sharp break with past practice, Section 5 of the Executive Order expands the 12 federal government’s immigration enforcement priorities well beyond any threshold needed to 13 protect public safety. Section 5 calls upon the Department of Homeland Security to “prioritize 14 for removal those aliens” who are removable on a large number of grounds, including that they:

- 15 i) have criminal charges that have not been resolved;
- 16 ii) “have committed acts that constitute a chargeable criminal offense” even if 17 no charges have been filed;
- 18 iii) are arriving without prior admission (e.g., asylum-seekers);
- 19 iv) have “abused any program related to receipt of public benefits”; or
- 20 v) “otherwise pose a risk to public safety or national security” in the judgment
 21 of “an immigration officer,” not an immigration judge. Executive Order, Sec. 5 at 8800.

22 72. These vague categories sweep in millions of individuals who have not been 23 convicted of any criminal offense, let alone a serious or violent one. For example, “acts that 24 constitute a chargeable criminal offense” could include a wide range of ordinary and 25 nonthreatening conduct. Leaving unbridled discretion in the hands of immigration officers to 26 brand individuals as “criminals” or “risks to public safety or national security”—without any 27 clear standards or criteria—raises serious due process concerns.

73. Section 6 of the Executive Order is equally vague and subject to arbitrary and discriminatory enforcement. Section 6 purports to impose “fines and penalties” upon not only “aliens unlawfully present in the United States,” but also upon “those who facilitate their presence in the United States.” Executive Order, Sec. 6 at 8800 (emphasis added). This undefined phrase could result in attempts by the executive branch to impose penalties upon County employees who provide essential or even lifesaving services to immigrants who are unlawfully present; their friends and family members; churches and other religious organizations that assist them; landlords, co-workers, or employers; or even attorneys who represent them in immigration proceedings.

2. Section 9 of the Executive Order purports to vest the President with legislative powers that even Congress does not lawfully possess.

74. Section 9 of the Executive Order concerns the so-called “Sanctuary Jurisdictions” that are the subject of the order, as noted in Section 1. The Executive Order includes no clear definition of that phrase, nor is that phrase defined in 8 U.S.C. § 1101.

75. Section 9(a) purports to vest executive branch officials with broad authority and unlimited, unreviewable discretion to deny federal funds to whichever jurisdictions they deem to be Sanctuary Jurisdictions, and to take unspecified enforcement action against them. It begins with an unconstitutional provision allowing the executive branch to strip federal funding from such purported Sanctuary Jurisdictions:

[T]he Attorney General and the Secretary [of Homeland Security], in their discretion and to the extent consistent with law, shall ensure that jurisdictions that willfully refuse to comply with 8 U.S.C. 1373 (sanctuary jurisdictions) are not eligible to receive Federal grants, except as deemed necessary for law enforcement purposes by the Attorney General or the Secretary. The Secretary has the authority to designate, in his discretion and to the extent consistent with law, a jurisdiction as a sanctuary jurisdiction.

Executive Order, Sec. 9(a) at 8801 (the “Defunding Provision”).

76. The Defunding Provision places entirely new and amorphous conditions on jurisdictions, like the County, which rely on federal funds to provide services to their residents. Under the Executive Order, if the Attorney General and Secretary of Homeland Security determine (in their unbounded discretion) that a jurisdiction is “willfully refus[ing] to comply with 8 U.S.C. 1373,” then those jurisdictions will be rendered “not eligible to receive Federal grants.”⁵ Id.

77. Section 1373 provides, inter alia, that local governments may not prohibit or restrict “any government entity or official from sending to, or receiving from, the Immigration and Naturalization Service information regarding the citizenship or immigration status . . . of any individual.” 8 U.S.C. § 1373(a). It further forbids any person or agency from prohibiting or restricting any government entity from sending, maintaining, or exchanging such information with federal immigration officials. Id. § 1373(b).⁶

78. The Defunding Provision includes no process or procedure by which a state or local government may review, challenge, or even receive notice regarding its designation as a “sanctuary jurisdiction.”

79. The Defunding Provision makes no mention of any statutory authority for the new conditions it imposes on the affected jurisdictions. Indeed, it makes no reference to Congress or Congressional action whatsoever. Rather, it grants the power to impose the new conditions—as well as to determine if those conditions have been met and to deny funding on that basis—solely to executive branch officials.

80. The Defunding Provision is incredibly broad. On its face, it appears to apply to existing and expected federal funds. It makes no distinction between block grants provided to states or municipalities, funds disbursed as reimbursements for previous or expected expenditures, funds disbursed under a fee-for-service model, or funds provided to state and local governments through entitlements such as Medicare or Medicaid.

81. Section 9(c) of the Executive Order makes clear that the Defunding Provision is intended to apply to all federal funds. Section 9(c) orders the Director of the Office of

⁶ The federal government has expanded on its view of what Section 1373 requires through various memoranda and guidance documents. See, e.g., Horowitz Memo; Office of Justice Programs, Guidance Regarding Compliance with 8 U.S.C. § 1373, U.S. Dep’t of Justice (July 7, 2016); Office of Justice Programs, Additional Guidance Regarding Compliance with 8 U.S.C. § 1373, U.S. Dep’t Just. (October 6, 2016).

1 Management and Budget “to obtain and provide relevant and responsive information on all
 2 Federal grant money that currently is received by any sanctuary jurisdiction.” Executive Order,
 3 Sec. 9(c) at 8801 (emphasis added). On its face, the order targets “all” federal funds, whatever
 4 their source, and includes funds that affected jurisdictions—including the County—have 5 “currently received.” Id. It is therefore unbounded in both scope and time. Furthermore, the 6 notion that the federal government may, pursuant to this order, attack County funds retroactively
 7 is no hypothetical scenario. For each type of funding the County receives, the federal government
 8 may attempt to claw back those funds.

9 82. By executive fiat, the Defunding Provision imposes new funding conditions that 10 Congress could not constitutionally have imposed. The Defunding Provision applies to all 11 “Federal grants,” regardless of whether those grants have any connection, relation, or nexus to 12 immigration. Executive Order, Sec. 9(a) at 8801. Such an untethered condition far exceeds 13 Congress’s power under the Spending Clause.

14 83. The order provides a mechanism by which certain monies “deemed necessary for 15 law enforcement purposes” may be exempted from the blanket Defunding Provision. Id. That 16 exemption gets the law exactly backwards, because funds related to law enforcement bear at least 17 some connection to compliance with 8 U.S.C. § 1373, and are arguably the only funds that 18 Congress could conceivably have tied to such compliance in a constitutional manner. See S.
 19 1640, 114th Cong. § 114(d) (2015); H.R. 1148, 114th Cong. § 114(d) (2015). But Congress has 20 never imposed any such restriction, and in fact has specifically considered and rejected similar 21 restrictions. See id.

22 84. By threatening all of a jurisdiction’s federal funding, the Defunding Provision goes
 23 beyond encouragement and becomes unduly coercive. It is, in effect, “a gun to the head.” Nat’l
 24 Fed’n of Indep. Bus. v. Sebelius (“NFIB”), 132 S. Ct. 2566, 2604 (2012). The point of the threat 25 is to compel each affected jurisdiction to “adopt a federal regulatory system as its own,” which is 26 “contrary to our system of federalism.” Id.

27 85. The new spending conditions are also constitutionally infirm. Section 1373 itself
 28 raises a host of constitutional issues, particularly under the Tenth Amendment. And to the extent that the executive branch determines that compliance with 8 U.S.C. § 1373 requires jurisdictions to detain individuals who would otherwise be released from custody, the Executive Order forces jurisdictions to violate the Fourth, Eighth, and Fourteenth Amendment rights of individuals within those jurisdictions, thereby risking civil liability, including personal liability against individual law enforcement officers.

86. The Executive Order not only claims the power to strip affected jurisdictions of the federal funding they rely on to govern, but also promises unspecified enforcement action against those jurisdictions:

The Attorney General shall take appropriate enforcement action against any entity that violates 8 U.S.C. 1373, or which has in effect a statute, policy, or practice that prevents or hinders the enforcement of Federal law.

Executive Order, Sec. 9(a) at 8801 (the “Enforcement Provision”).

87. Like the Defunding Provision, the Enforcement Provision is both extremely broad and entirely vague in its wording. It promises enforcement action against any jurisdiction that “prevents or hinders the enforcement of Federal law.” Id. By its terms, this provision applies to all federal law—all 54 titles of the U.S. Code, and presumably the entire Code of Federal Regulations to boot. Nor is it limited to violations of federal law; it targets any jurisdiction that has a “statute,” “policy,” or “practice” that simply “hinders” enforcement of those laws. The Enforcement Provision does not define what “hinders” means, vesting entirely in the executive branch the power to make that determination and offering no judicial review or other recourse to any jurisdiction deemed to have violated it.

88. Taken at face value, the Enforcement Provision reworks the entire structure of our federal republic, granting the federal executive branch untrammelled discretion to punish state and local governments for taking any action—or simply having a policy or practice—that the federal government finds inconvenient. The Enforcement Provision thus violates the anti-commandeering aspect of the Tenth Amendment, as well as federalism principles more generally.

89. The Executive Order makes no attempt to ground the vast new authority it seizes for the executive branch in any specific constitutional or statutory authority. The only sources of authority President Trump has claimed for the sweeping and unprecedented order are “the

1 authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and laws of the United States of America,
 2 including the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) (8 U.S.C. 1101 et seq.),” as well as “Article
 3 II, Section 3 of the United States Constitution and section 3331 of title 5, United States Code.”
 4 Executive Order, Secs. 1, 2 at 8799.

5 90. None of these cited provisions grants the President any of the powers he has taken
 6 for his own. Justifying itself by reference to the “authority vested” in the President by the 7 Constitution and federal law, the Executive Order begs the question of whether the President has 8 such authority in the first place. The INA says nothing about withdrawing or restricting federal 9 funds from jurisdictions that fail to comply with 8 U.S.C. § 1373, or imposing “appropriate
 10 enforcement action” against certain jurisdictions. Indeed, the phrase “sanctuary jurisdiction” is 11 found nowhere in the Act. Article II, Section 3 of the Constitution is the “Take Care” clause, 12 which by its terms requires the President to follow and execute the law Congress enacted, not to 13 seize legislative power for himself. That clause has never been interpreted to allow the power
 14 grab the President is attempting here. And 5 U.S.C. § 3331 is the oath of office every federal 15 official—except the President—takes when appointed to a federal office. The oath provides no
 16 independent authority for the powers claimed by the Executive Order.

17 3. The President’s and his subordinates’ statements reveal the Executive 18 Order’s unconstitutionally broad scope.

19 91. The Executive Order contains a few vague caveats indicating that it will, in part,
 20 be applied “to the extent consistent with law” (a caveat noticeably absent from the Enforcement
 21 Provision). See Executive Order, Sec. 9 at 8801. But the President’s and his subordinates’ own
 22 statements belie that blithe assurance. On the contrary, there is no indication that the executive
 23 branch understands, respects, or has any intention to interpret or enforce the Executive Order
 24 consistent with governing law and well-established constitutional limitations.

25 92. The President’s own statements—and those of other officials in his 26 administration—reveal that the executive branch intends the Executive Order to go far beyond
 27 current law. Indeed, the President has repeatedly promised, both on the campaign trail and once 28 elected, that his goal is not to use the spending power (which is not his, in any event) to

1 encourage jurisdictions to cooperate with his federal immigration program. Rather, he proposes
 2 to deny all federal funding to jurisdictions he believes are failing to comply with federal
 3 immigration laws, “ending” them altogether. That approach is undoubtedly unconstitutional,
 4 however implemented.

5 93. The President’s and his aides’ statements unambiguously point to a broad, and 6 therefore unconstitutional, interpretation of the Executive Order. For instance:

7 i) On August 31, 2016, then-candidate Donald J. Trump issued an “Address
 8 on Immigration,” which included a heading entitled “Block Funding for Sanctuary Cities.”
 9 Donald J. Trump: Address on Immigration, Donald J. Trump for President (Aug. 31, 2016),
 10 <https://www.donaldjtrump.com/press-releases/donald-j.-trump-address-on-immigration>. Mr.
 11 Trump stated, “We will end the Sanctuary Cities that have resulted in so many needless deaths.
 12 Cities that refuse to cooperate with federal authorities will not receive taxpayer dollars, and we 13 will work with Congress to pass legislation to protect those jurisdictions that do assist federal 14 authorities.” Id. (emphasis added).

15 ii) On January 25, 2017—the day on which the President issued the Executive 16 Order—the President’s press secretary, Sean Spicer, made clear that the order targets all federal 17 funding: “We are going to strip federal grant money from the sanctuary states and cities that 18 harbor illegal immigrants. The American people are no longer going to have to be forced to 19 subsidize this disregard for our laws.” White House, 1/25/17: White House Press Briefing, 22 iii) On January 26, 2016, President Trump reiterated his plan to target

 23 sanctuary jurisdictions during remarks at the Congressional Republican Retreat: “And finally, at 24 long last, cracking down on sanctuary cities. It’s time to restore the civil rights of Americans, to 25 protect their jobs, their hopes and their dreams for a much better future.” Donald J. Trump,

 28 deliver (begin at 13:54 mark) (emphasis added).

iv) On January 28, 2017, the White House issued a press release stating, “President Trump signed an executive order to ensure that immigration laws are enforced throughout the United States, including halting federal funding for sanctuary cities.” Press Release, The White House, Office of the Press Secretary, President Trump’s First Week of Action (Jan. 28, 2017), <https://www.whitehouse.gov/the-press-office/2017/01/28/President-trumps-first-week-action> (emphasis added).

v) That same day, the President stated, “Here are just a few of the executive actions that I have taken in the last few days An order to immediately begin the border wall and to crack down on sanctuary cities. They are not safe, we have to take care of that horrible situation.” Press Release, The White House, Office of the Press Secretary, President Trump’s First Weekly Address (Jan. 28, 2017), <https://www.whitehouse.gov/the-press-office/2017/01/28/President-trumps-first-weekly-address> (emphasis added).

vi) The White House’s public website likewise states that President Trump “is dedicated to enforcing our border laws, ending sanctuary cities, and stemming the tide of lawlessness associated with illegal immigration.” The White House, Standing Up For Our Law Enforcement Community, <https://www.whitehouse.gov/law-enforcement-community> (last accessed on February 1, 2017) (emphasis added).

vii) Mr. Spicer, the President’s press secretary, reiterated this goal on February 1, 2017, stating in a press briefing, “I think the President’s goal in ending sanctuary cities is pretty clear. . . . [T]he President has been very clear through his executive order that federal funds, paid for by hardworking taxpayers, should not be used to help fund sanctuary cities.” Press Release, The White House, Office of the Press Secretary, Press Briefing by Press Secretary Sean Spicer, 2/1/2017, #6 (Feb. 1, 2017), <https://www.whitehouse.gov/the-press-office/2017/02/01/press-briefing-press-secretary-sean-spicer-212017-6> (emphases added).

94. The Executive Order itself confirms the sweeping scope outlined by the President and his aides. It cannot refer merely to existing executive power to limit spending; if that is all the order accomplishes, then it is superfluous. There would be no need to order what the President may already accomplish through existing statutory authorization.

95. In addition to comments regarding the Executive Order, the President's more recent statements reveal a complete lack of understanding of, and respect for, the boundaries between executive and legislative powers. For example, commenting on reports of violent protests at U.C. Berkeley in response to a planned speaking event, the President tweeted, "If U.C. Berkeley does not allow free speech and practices violence on innocent people with a different point of view – NO FEDERAL FUNDS?" @realDonaldTrump, Twitter (Feb. 2, 2017, 3:13 AM), <https://twitter.com/realDonaldTrump/status/827112633224544256> (last accessed Feb. 2, 2017). The President seems to hold the misimpression that the executive branch controls the power of the purse, and that he can simply turn off the federal funding spigot to states, local governments, and other publicly funded entities he disfavors. The Founders drafted and designed our Constitution to avoid precisely this result.

C. Congress Considered and Rejected Conditioning Federal Law Enforcement Funds on Compliance with Section 1373.

96. The Executive Order not only claims legislative power in excess of what the Constitution grants to Congress, but it also represents an attempt to enact a policy that Congress has already expressly considered and rejected. In fact, one of the individuals who will likely be tasked with implementing and enforcing the Executive Order is the same person who tried and failed to persuade Congress to enact the policy the executive branch is now imposing by dictate: Jeff Sessions.

97. On June 22, 2015, Senator Jeff Sessions—now the President's nominee for Attorney General of the United States—introduced a bill in the United States Senate. The bill, S. 1640, is entitled the "Michael Davis, Jr. and Danny Oliver in Honor of State and Local Law Enforcement Act," and is attached hereto as Exhibit B. Senator Sessions's bill sought to tie certain federal funds to compliance with 8 U.S.C. § 1373. S. 1640, 114th Cong. (2015). That is the same power, on a narrower scale, the President now claims.

98. Only seven Senators co-sponsored Mr. Sessions's bill, which died in the Senate Judiciary Committee.

99. Senator Sessions's bill had a counterpart in the United States House of Representatives. There, U.S. Representative Trey Gowdy introduced H.R. 1148, entitled the "Michael Davis, Jr. in Honor of State and Local Law Enforcement Act." H.R. 1148, 114th Cong. (2015). The House bill is attached hereto as Exhibit C. Only 50 House Members co-sponsored Mr. Gowdy's bill, which was reported out of the House Judiciary Committee, but languished in the Committee on Homeland Security. It never received a vote on the floor of the House.

100. Senator Sessions's unsuccessful legislation, as well as its companion bill in the House, was a narrower version of the sweeping Executive Order the President issued after nominating Mr. Sessions to be his Attorney General. Its declared purpose was to "amend the Immigration and Nationality Act to improve immigration law enforcement within the interior of the United States." S. 1640, 114th Cong. (2015). Section 114 of the bill, entitled, "State Violations of Enforcement of Immigration Laws," proposed an amendment to 8 U.S.C. § 1373 that is strikingly similar to the Executive Order Mr. Sessions will enforce if he is confirmed as the Attorney General. Section 114(d) provided as follows:

"(d) Compliance.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—A State, or a political subdivision of a State, that has in effect a statute, policy, or practice that prohibits law enforcement officers of the State, or of a political subdivision of the State, from assisting or cooperating with Federal immigration law enforcement in the course of carrying out the officers' routine law enforcement duties shall not be eligible to receive—

"(A) any of the funds that would otherwise be allocated to the State or political subdivision under section 241(i) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1231(i)) or the 'Cops on the Beat' program under part Q of title I of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (42 U.S.C. 3796dd et seq.); or

"(B) any other law enforcement or Department of Homeland Security grant.

"(2) ANNUAL DETERMINATION.—The Secretary shall determine annually which State or political subdivision of a State are not in compliance with this section and shall report such determinations to Congress on March 1 of each year.

"(3) REPORTS.—The Attorney General shall issue a report concerning the compliance of any particular State or political subdivision at the request of the House or Senate Judiciary Committee. Any jurisdiction that is found to be out of compliance shall be ineligible to receive Federal financial assistance as provided in paragraph (1) for a minimum period of 1 year, and shall only become eligible again after the Attorney General certifies that the jurisdiction is in compliance.

S. 1640, 11th Cong. § 114(d) (2015).⁷

101. Shortly after introducing his bill in the U.S. Senate, Mr. Sessions issued a press release calling on Congress to pass a law restricting federal funds to sanctuary cities—the very authority the President now claims as his own. Senator Sessions said: “I am calling today on Congress to make its first item of business the immediate passage of legislation to cut off relevant federal monies to sanctuary cities.” News Release, Office of Senator Jeff Sessions, Senator Sessions Calls on Congress to Take Up Immigration Reform for Americans (July 9, 2015), <http://www.sessions.senate.gov/public/index.cfm/2015/7/senator-sessions-calls-on-congress-to-take-up-immigration-reform-for-americans> (emphasis added).

102. Two aspects of Senator Sessions’s statement bear emphasizing, and each of them demonstrates the unconstitutionality of the Executive Order Mr. Sessions will be charged with implementing if he is confirmed as Attorney General. First, Senator Sessions is flatly admitting that current law does not allow funds to be “cut off” from sanctuary jurisdictions. As Senator Sessions understood, new legislation would be needed to accomplish that objective. Second, Senator Sessions is recognizing that only “relevant federal monies” may be conditioned on compliance with certain immigration laws. Id. (emphasis added). Senator Sessions did not call on Congress to render sanctuary jurisdictions ineligible from receiving all federal grants, whether or not those grants were germane to immigration or law enforcement, because such a law would be patently unconstitutional.

103. Despite Senator Sessions’s exhortation, Congress never enacted his proposed bill, which would have cut off certain federal funding to state and local governments deemed insufficiently compliant with federal immigration directives. In fact, the precise opposite is true:

⁷ The companion House bill, H.R. 1148, contained an identical provision. See H.R. 1148, 114th Cong. § 114(d) (2015).

both houses of Congress have independently and expressly considered and rejected the policy that the President and Mr. Sessions now claim for the executive branch by fiat.

104. The similarities between Senator Sessions's failed bill and the Executive Order are striking, and likely not coincidental.⁸ The two documents share common phrases nearly verbatim, targeting any jurisdiction that "has in effect a statute, policy, or practice" that the federal government finds problematic. They both declare that such jurisdictions shall not be "eligible to receive" federal funds. And they both vest in the Secretary of Homeland Security the ability to designate certain jurisdictions as noncompliant. They also both contemplate the Attorney General publishing a report listing jurisdictions that the Attorney General has deemed noncompliant.

105. The differences between the failed bill and the Executive Order are also telling. The bill appears to have made at least some effort to conform to constitutional limitations on Congress's spending power. For example, the bill tied only certain law-enforcement-related funds to the proposed funding condition, signaling out "Cops on the Beat" funds, and other law enforcement or Department of Homeland Security grants. S. 1640, 114th Cong. § 114(d)(1)(A-B). That limitation stands in stark contrast to the Executive Order, which renders affected jurisdictions ineligible to receive all "Federal grants." Executive Order, Sec. 9(a) at 8801. The failed bill also vested the Secretary of Homeland Security with primary authority for implementing the legislation. By contrast, the Executive Order vests the Attorney General—presumably Mr. Sessions—as well as the Secretary with ensuring fund ineligibility. Id.

106. The President's attempt to secure by executive fiat what Senator Sessions failed to win through the legislative process violates the separation of powers principles that undergird our

1 system of government. As Justice Jackson stated in his seminal concurrence in Youngstown,
2 “When the President takes measures incompatible with the expressed or implied will of Congress,
3 his power is at its lowest ebb, for then he can rely only upon his own constitutional powers minus
4 any constitutional powers of Congress over the matter.” 343 U.S. at 637 (Jackson, J.,
5 concurring). In issuing the Executive Order, the President operated at his lowest ebb of power,
6 since Congress had already expressed its will by considering and rejecting the very powers the 7 President has claimed for himself with the stroke of a pen.

8 D. The County Requires Immediate Relief.

9 107. The County has standing to challenge the Executive Order and its claims are ripe
10 for adjudication today.

11 108. The County has suffered an injury-in-fact. As set forth above, the County receives
12 approximately $1 billion in federal funding per year, which amounts to more than 15% of its total
13 budget. The Executive Order purports to strip away all of this federal funding, decimating the 14 County’s ability to provide basic services to its residents. The “loss of funds promised under 15 federal law” is a quintessential economic injury that “satisfies Article III’s standing requirement.”
16 See Organized Vill. of Kake v. U.S. Dep’t of Agric., 795 F.3d 956, 965 (9th Cir. 2015) (en banc), 17 cert. denied sub nom. Alaska v. Organized Vill. of Kake, Alaska, 136 S. Ct. 1509 (2016).

18 109. Furthermore, the Executive Order applies to, and purportedly would bar the 19 County from receiving, federal funds to reimburse the County for established programs and 20 services that the County is currently providing, and for which Congress has already approved
21 funding. The County is an eligible recipient of, expects to receive, and has made budgeting,
22 programming, and hiring decisions based on these prior congressional funding decisions. Now,
23 the Executive Order purports to require retroactive imposition of the condition that municipalities
24 comply with federal immigration provisions to already-approved funds. This is precisely the sort 25 of “substantial contingent liability” that confers standing because it “immediately and directly 26 affects the borrowing power, financial strength, and fiscal planning” of the County. See Clinton
27 v. City of N.Y., 524 U.S. 417, 430-31 (1998).

110. The County’s injuries are “actual or imminent.” Susan B. Anthony List v. Driehaus, 134 S. Ct. 2334, 2341 (2014) (quotations omitted). The County has already suffered harm as a result of the Executive Order, and its injuries will only continue to grow unless the Executive Order is declared unlawful and its implementation enjoined. Indeed, the Executive Order has thrown the County’s ongoing budgeting process into chaos, forcing the County to choose whether to continue incurring hundreds of millions of dollars in costs that may never be reimbursed or discontinue providing basic safety-net services to its most vulnerable residents. And, because the County’s federally funded programs operate continuously, the County is currently spending millions of dollars that may never be reimbursed by the federal government pursuant to the Executive Order.

111. Furthermore, Defendants have made clear that their express purpose in adopting the Executive Order is to “[h]alt federal funding for,” “strip federal grant money from,” and “crack down on” municipalities, like the County of Santa Clara, which do not comply with federal directives, as purportedly required by the Executive Order. See supra ¶¶ 91–95.

112. Given the County’s policies described above, and Defendants’ repeated threats to pull federal funding from jurisdictions that refuse to carry out the commands of federal immigration officials, there is a “credible threat” that Defendants will seek to enforce the unconstitutional Executive Order against the County. See Susan B. Anthony List, 134 S. Ct. at 2342 (collecting cases). The County is not required to “expose [itself] to liability before bringing suit to challenge the basis for [Defendants’] threat.” MedImmune, Inc. v. Genentech, Inc., 549 U.S. 118, 128–129 (2007).

113. The County’s injuries are “fairly traceable to the challenged action”—in fact, they are directly caused by the Executive Order. Friends of the Earth, Inc. v. Laidlaw Envtl. Servs., Inc., 528 U.S. 167, 180 (2000). But for the Executive Order, the County would continue to receive federal funds for programs and services that it currently provides, and would be able to make budgeting and programming decisions without the threat that its federal funds will disappear.

114. The Court can redress the County’s injuries by declaring the Executive Order unconstitutional and enjoining its implementation and enforcement.

115. The issues in this case are fit for judicial decision. The Executive Order is final and the County's challenge to that Order presents legal issues that "will not be clarified by further factual development." Susan B. Anthony List, 134 S. Ct. at 2347 (quotations omitted).

116. Postponing judicial review would impose a significant hardship on the County. Requiring the County to "proceed without knowing whether the [Executive Order] is valid would impose a palpable and considerable hardship" by forcing the County to decide now whether to continue providing essential safety-net services to its residents, without knowing that it will recoup the promised federal funding. Thomas v. Union Carbide Agric. Prod. Co., 473 U.S. 568, 581 (1985) (quoting Pac. Gas & Elec. Co. v. State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Comm'n, 461 U.S. 190, 201 (1983)).

117. In light of this substantial and imminent constitutional injury, the County is left with no choice but to seek immediate judicial relief, including a preliminary and permanent injunction.

CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

Violation of the Separation of Powers Inherent in the U.S. Constitution

118. The County incorporates and re-alleges each and every allegation contained above as if fully set forth herein.

119. Sixty-five years ago, in the midst of the Korean War, our Supreme Court held that the power of the President, "if any," to issue executive orders "must stem either from an act of Congress or from the Constitution itself." Youngstown, 343 U.S. at 585. Accordingly, an executive order lacking congressional or constitutional authority is unconstitutional.

120. Furthermore, "[w]hen the President takes measures incompatible with the expressed or implied will of Congress, his power is at its lowest ebb, for then he can rely only upon his own constitutional powers minus any constitutional powers of Congress over the matter." Id. at 637 (Jackson, J., concurring) (adopted in Dames & Moore v. Regan, 453 U.S. 654, 669 (1981)).

1 121. Article I of the Constitution vests the federal government’s spending power
 2 exclusively in Congress. See U.S. Const. art. I, § 8, cl. 1. By contrast, nothing in the 3 Constitution’s text, or in more than two centuries of judicial decisions interpreting the 4 Constitution, purports to confer on the President or the executive branch any power either to 5 dictate government spending or to place conditions or limits on the spending power that is vested
 6 in the legislative branch. Those powers reside solely with Congress.

7 122. Although the Constitution vests the spending power exclusively in Congress, it
 8 does not confer unlimited discretion on the legislative branch when that branch seeks to place
 9 conditions on federal spending directed to states and local governments. As the Supreme Court
 10 held in South Dakota v. Dole, 483 U.S. 203, 207 (1987), “[t]he spending power is of course not 11 unlimited.” In its Dole decision, the Court identified and explained particular limits on 12 Congress’s power to spend. Subsequent cases have given further definition to those limits.

13 123. First, as the words of the Constitution make clear, any “exercise of the spending 14 power must be in pursuit of ‘the general welfare.’” Dole, 483 U.S. at 207.

15 124. Second, if Congress wishes to place certain conditions on federal funds, “it must 16 do so unambiguously,” so that states and local governments may “exercise their choice
 17 knowingly, cognizant of the consequences of their participation.” Id. (internal quotation marks
 18 omitted). Accordingly, Congress may not surprise a state or local government by initially 19 approving spending unconditionally, then later imposing a condition on receipt of those funds.
 20 See NFIB, 132 S. Ct. at 2602–04. As the Court explained in NFIB, “[w]e have repeatedly 21 characterized ... Spending Clause legislation as much in the nature of a contract.” Id. at 2602 22 (internal quotation marks omitted) (emphasis in original). Under this framework, “[t]he 23 legitimacy of Congress’s exercise of the spending power thus rests on whether the state 24 voluntarily and knowingly accepts the terms of the contract” at the time Congress offers the 25 money. Id. (internal quotation marks omitted).

26 125. Third, the Supreme Court has “repeatedly said that Congress may condition grants 27 under the spending power only in ways reasonably related to the purpose of the federal program”
 28

1 at issue. Dole, 483 U.S. at 213. In other words, Congress may not burden the payment of funds
 2 to a state or municipality for one purpose with a condition that serves a different federal interest.

3 126. Fourth, a conditional grant of federal funds may be barred if it would violate some
 4 independent constitutional provision. Id. at 208. For example, Congress could not condition
 5 federal grants on a municipality's agreement to perform unlawful searches and seizures in 6 violation of the Fourth Amendment.

7 127. Fifth, "in some circumstances the financial inducement offered by Congress might 8 be so coercive as to pass the point at which 'pressure turns to compulsion.'" Dole, 483 U.S. at 9 211 (quoting Steward Machine Co. v. Davis, 301 U.S. 548, 590 (1937)). Congress may not 10 constitutionally "force the States to implement a federal program," NFIB, 132 S. Ct. at 2602, and 11 may not end-run this limitation by imposing conditions on federal spending that are so draconian
 12 that they amount to "a gun to the head" leaving the state or municipality no realistic choice but to 13 comply. Id. at 2604.

14 128. Section 9(a) of the Executive Order violates most, if not all, of the constitutional
 15 principles and binding precedents outlined above.

16 129. The Executive Order claims the power to establish conditions governing federal 17 spending—which Congress has declined to impose through legislation—and to direct subordinate 18 executive branch officials to restrict eligibility for federal spending without statutory authority to 19 do so. Such powers lie beyond the President's constitutional authority. They claim for the 20 executive branch powers exclusively assigned to Congress under the Spending Clause, U.S.
 21 Const. art. I, § 8, cl. 1.

22 130. To the extent the President is purporting to impose any conditions or limitations on 23 federal spending, or to direct subordinate executive branch officials to do the same, without 24 express statutory authority, the Executive Order also unlawfully exceeds the President's powers
 25 under other provisions of the Constitution that establish the separation of powers among the 26 branches of our government, including:

- 27 i) the President's obligation to "take Care that the Laws be faithfully executed," 28 U.S. Const. art. II, § 3, cl. 5 (Take Care Clause); and

- 1 ii) the limitation that Congressional enactments must “be presented to the 2 President of the United States,” who then may sign that enactment or veto it,
3 but has no power to merely revise it, either upon presentment or after 4 enactment, U.S. Const. art. I, § 7, cls. 2-3 (Presentment Clause).

5 131. The Executive Order not only attempts to commandeer Congress’s spending
6 power, but it also establishes conditions on federal spending that even Congress could not
7 constitutionally impose. In other words, the President has claimed powers over federal spending
8 that even Congress does not possess, and could therefore never delegate. For example:

- 9 i) The Defunding Provision makes no distinction between federal funding
10 already approved by Congress and funding to be approved in the future, and 11 thus applies equally to both categories. But Congress, let alone the President, 12 could not impose a condition on federal spending retroactively.
- 13 ii) The Defunding Provision applies to all federal funding related to any subject.
14 It is not restricted to funding related to a legitimate federal interest in 15 enforcement of immigration laws by municipalities. But the Constitution
16 requires that any federal funding conditions Congress imposes must be 17 reasonably related to the federal interest to which the expenditure relates (the 18 “Dole nexus test”). The Executive Order fails that test utterly: the Defunding
19 Provision applies to, and would bar the County from being eligible for funding
20 for, Medicare and Medicaid programs, transportation, child welfare services,
21 elder care programs, mental health services, immunization and vaccine
22 programs, and a myriad of other programs and services that have absolutely 23 nothing to do with the enforcement of federal immigration laws by state or 24 local governments. See supra ¶¶ 27–45.⁹

25 ⁹ The Defunding Provision not only fails the Dole nexus test—it gets it exactly backwards. It
26 contains only one possible exception, for funding “deemed necessary for law enforcement 27 purposes,” which the Attorney General or Secretary of Homeland Security discretionarily allow 28 to be remitted. These are the sorts of funds that might have withstood constitutional scrutiny had Congress passed them (and indeed, Congress considered such restrictions and declined to impose them, see S. 1640, 114th Cong. § 114(d) (2015)). The Executive Order threatens all funding unrelated to law enforcement, while paradoxically allowing a mechanism by which relevant funding may escape the ban.

1 iii) The Executive Order requires County law enforcement officers to undertake
2 actions that are themselves unconstitutional. For example, the Executive
3 Order's text, as well as the President's statements, indicate that he interprets
4 the Executive Order to require County law enforcement officers to comply
5 with federal directives regarding detainer actions by U.S. Immigration &
6 Customs Enforcement. Courts across the country have already determined that
7 these directives violate the Fourth Amendment. If County law enforcement
8 personnel are obligated to violate the Fourth Amendment in order to receive 9 the federal funds they rely upon to provide services, County personnel would 10 subject themselves to personal liability (including punitive damages), and 11 potentially subject the County to municipal liability, under 42 U.S.C. § 1983
12 and related federal civil rights laws.

13 iv) The new funding conditions the Executive Order imposes are profoundly
14 coercive to the County. Affecting all federal funds, the conditions go far
15 beyond the potential withdrawal of Medicaid funds, which the Supreme Court
16 described as an unconstitutional "gun to the head" in NFIB. As set forth
17 above, the County receives about $1 billion in federal funding per year, 18 amounting to approximately 15% of its total budget. If the President makes 19 good on his threat to strip all of this federal funding away, it would decimate
20 the County's ability to provide basic services, including health care, to its 21 residents. Furthermore, unlike the congressional enactment in NFIB, which 22 permitted withdrawal of Medicaid funding if the Secretary of Health and 23 Human Services so decided, the Executive Order here unambiguously requires 24 the Attorney General and the Secretary of Homeland Security to "ensure that 25 jurisdictions" refusing the condition "are not eligible to receive Federal 26 grants." In other words, the conditions the Executive Order imposes are not 27 only broader in scope than the unconstitutional condition Congress imposed in 28 NFIB, but they are also mandatory rather than permissive.

132. Because the conditions in the Executive Order would be unconstitutional even if imposed by Congress, it is no defense for the government to argue that Congress may have delegated its Spending Clause authority to the President with respect to some or all of the federal funds at issue. Plainly, Congress cannot delegate a power that it does not possess, so it could not authorize the President to impose an unconstitutional condition on federal spending.

133. The County in no way concedes that any delegation of Congress's power under the Spending Clause is constitutionally permitted, or that Congress actually purported to delegate any spending power to the President with respect to the particular federal programs and funds at issue here. In any event, the conditions imposed by the Executive Order are ones that no branch of the federal government has the power to impose, under settled United States Supreme Court precedent.

134. For all these reasons, and as set forth elsewhere in this Complaint, section 9(a) of the Executive Order is unlawful and unconstitutional because it violates the constitutional separation of powers and the specific constitutional provisions identified herein.

Violation of the Due Process Clause, Amend. 5 – Void for Vagueness

135. The County incorporates and re-alleges each and every allegation contained above as if fully set forth herein.

136. Under the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution, a federal law is unconstitutionally vague if it “fails to provide a person of ordinary intelligence fair notice of what is prohibited, or is so standardless that it authorizes or encourages seriously discriminatory enforcement.” United States v. Williams, 553 U.S. 285, 304 (2008).

137. The constitutional vagueness standard applies with full force to executive orders. See United States v. Soussi, 316 F.3d 1095, 1101 (10th Cir. 2002). When an executive order contains terms that are not “susceptible of a clear meaning,” nor “mitigate the vagueness of the term by supplying any definition,” then the provision “lends itself to subjective interpretation” and is unconstitutional. Humanitarian Law Project v. U.S. Dep’t of Treasury, 463 F. Supp. 2d 1049, 1070 (C.D. Cal. 2006).

1 138. The Executive Order, which reads more like a slapdash press release than it does a
2 serious expression of federal policy, fails to satisfy this constitutional minimum. It fails to 3 provide fair notice of the conduct it requires from the County.

4 139. Section 9(a) of the Executive Order fails to define key terms, such as “sanctuary
5 jurisdiction,” “Federal grants,” “law enforcement purposes,” “appropriate enforcement action,” 6 and “entity,” as well as the all-important phrase “statute, policy, or practice that prevents or 7 hinders the enforcement of Federal law.” Executive Order, Sec. 9(a) at 8801. Having such a 8 “practice” subjects a jurisdiction to “enforcement action,” which could be draconian in nature. Id.
9 What such a practice might be is left undefined, and subject to the executive branch’s unbridled
10 discretion.

11 140. The Executive Order lends itself to subjective interpretation and discriminatory
12 enforcement; indeed, that seems to be its point. The order grants the Secretary of Homeland
13 Security unfettered discretion to designate a state or local government as a “sanctuary 14 jurisdiction” that is “not eligible to receive Federal grants.” Id. The order likewise grants the 15 Attorney General unfettered discretion to take “appropriate enforcement action” against any 16 “entity” that, in his estimation, violates 8 U.S.C. § 1373, or has a “statute, policy, or practice that 17 prevents or hinders the enforcement of Federal law.” Id. Such a vast, standardless, and 18 overbroad power invites arbitrary, subjective, and discriminatory enforcement.

19 141. Other portions of the Executive Order are equally vague. Section 6, for example, 20 requires assessment of “fines and penalties” against not only undocumented persons but also 21 anyone who “facilitate[s] their presence in the United States.” Id. Sec. 6 at 8800. It is unclear
22 what “facilitate” means in this context, and could apply to County employees who provide 23 undocumented persons with basic, safety-net services, landlords, employers, friends, family, 24 churches or non-profit organizations who assist undocumented persons, or even lawyers who
25 represent undocumented persons in immigration proceedings. Not only does this standardless
26 provision exceed the President’s authority by legislating through executive order, but it also 27 encourages and sanctions arbitrary, subjective, and discriminatory enforcement.
28

142. For all these reasons, and as set forth elsewhere in this Complaint, the Executive Order is unconstitutionally vague in violation of the Fifth Amendment’s Due Process Clause.

COUNT 3

Violation of the Due Process Clause, Amend. 5 – Procedural Due Process

143. The County incorporates and re-alleges each and every allegation contained above as if fully set forth herein.

144. Under the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution, the federal government may not deprive the County of money or property without “due process of law.”

145. The County has a constitutionally protectable property interest in the federal funds it relies on to provide essential services to 1.9 million residents. The County’s property interest in those federal funds is established and governed by rules and mutually explicit understandings with the federal government.

146. Section 9(a) of the Executive Order deprives the County of its procedural due process rights under the Fifth Amendment because it grants the Attorney General and Secretary of Homeland Security unfettered discretion to deprive the County of all federal funds, with no opportunity to review, challenge, or even obtain notice that the deprivation is coming.

147. Specifically, the Executive Order grants the Attorney General and Secretary of Homeland Security unfettered discretion to “ensure” that certain jurisdictions “are not eligible to receive Federal grants.” Executive Order, Sec. 9(a) at 8801. The order further grants those executive branch officials unfettered discretion to designate a state or local government as a “sanctuary jurisdiction” that may not receive federal funds. Id. The order likewise grants the Attorney General unfettered discretion to take “appropriate enforcement action” against any “entity” that, in his estimation, violates 8 U.S.C. § 1373, or has a “statute, policy, or practice that prevents or hinders the enforcement of Federal law.” Id. The order provides no mechanism by which a state or local government may review, challenge, or even obtain notice that it has been designated a “sanctuary jurisdiction” ineligible for federal funds.

148. Because the Executive Order deprives the County of a cognizable property interest while providing no notice, no pre-deprivation opportunity to be heard, and no post-deprivation opportunity to be heard, it violates the Fifth Amendment's due process clause.

Violation of the Tenth Amendment

149. The County incorporates and re-alleges each and every allegation contained above as if fully set forth herein.

150. Executive Order Section 9(a) provides that “The Attorney General shall take appropriate enforcement action against any entity that violates 8 U.S.C. § 1373, or which has in effect a statute, policy, or practice that prevents or hinders the enforcement of Federal law.” Executive Order, Sec. 9(a) at 8801.

151. The Executive Order requires state and local jurisdictions to affirmatively assist federal immigration officials by, inter alia, complying, at their own expense, with ICE detainer requests. By demanding that state and local governments, including the County, imprison individuals subject to removal at the request of federal officials even if those individuals would otherwise be subject to release from County custody, the Executive Order commandeers state and local officials in furtherance of a federal regulatory program in violation of the Tenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

152. The Executive Order also demands that state and local governments, including the County, take other unspecified actions to avoid “prevent[ing] or hinder[ing]” the federal government in the enforcement of “Federal law” more generally. Id. That directive transforms state and local officials into ancillary arms of the federal government, destroying the political accountability that drives our federal system. A more plain violation of the Tenth Amendment is difficult to fathom.

CONCLUSION

153. In Federalist No. 47, James Madison warned of the dangers inherent in “[t]he accumulation of all powers, legislative, executive, and judiciary, in the same hands,” pronouncing it “the very definition of tyranny.” The Federalist No. 47 (James Madison). Mindful of the

1 threat, he continued: “Were the federal Constitution, therefore, really chargeable with the 2 accumulation of power, or with a mixture of powers, having a dangerous tendency to such an
 3 accumulation, no further arguments would be necessary to inspire a universal reprobation of the 4 system.” Id. Quoting Montesquieu, Madison focused on the particular dangers posed by an 5 executive that claims for himself the legislative power: “When the legislative and executive
 6 powers are united in the same person or body . . . there can be no liberty, because apprehensions
 7 may arise lest THE SAME monarch or senate should ENACT tyrannical laws to EXECUTE them
 8 in a tyrannical manner.” Id.

9 154. Capital lettering notwithstanding, Madison’s statement was no tweet. It describes 10 a bedrock notion—the separation of powers—that lies at the very legal heart of our nation. And 11 if the nation, and the Constitution that created it, are to endure, then that principle must yet have 12 force. Executive Order 13768 is unconstitutional, and the courts must declare it so.

13 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

14 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff County of Santa Clara respectfully requests that this Court enter 15 judgment in its favor, and grant the following relief:

- 16 1. A declaration that Section 9 of the Executive Order is unconstitutional and invalid
 17 on its face;
- 18 2. A declaration that the Section 9 of the Executive Order is unconstitutional and 19 invalid as applied to the policies and practices of the County;
- 20 3. A preliminary and permanent injunction enjoining Defendants from enforcing 21 Section 9 of the Executive Order, or taking any other action in furtherance of any withholding or 22 conditioning of federal funds based on the Executive Order;
- 23 4. A declaration that Section 6 of the Executive Order is unconstitutional and invalid
 24 on its face;
- 25 5. A declaration that Section 6 of the Executive Order is unconstitutional and invalid
 26 as applied to the policies and practices of the County;
- 27 6. A preliminary and permanent injunction enjoining Defendants from taking any 28 action, or exercising any purported authority, against “those who facilitate [an alien’s] presence in the United States” pursuant to Section 6 of the Executive Order;

7. An award to the County of reasonable costs and attorneys’ fees; and

8. Such other and further relief that this Court may deem fit and proper.

Enhancing Public Safety in the Interior of the United States

By the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and the laws of the United States of America, including the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) (8 U.S.C. 1101 et seq.), and in order to ensure the public safety of the American people in communities across the United States as well as to ensure that our Nation's immigration laws are faithfully executed, I hereby declare the policy of the executive branch to be, and order, as follows:

Section 1. Purpose. Interior enforcement of our Nation's immigration laws is critically important to the national security and public safety of the United States. Many aliens who illegally enter the United States and those who overstay or otherwise violate the terms of their visas present a significant threat to national security and public safety. This is particularly so for aliens who engage in criminal conduct in the United States.

Sanctuary jurisdictions across the United States willfully violate Federal law in an attempt to shield aliens from removal from the United States. These jurisdictions have caused immeasurable harm to the American people and to the very fabric of our Republic.

Tens of thousands of removable aliens have been released into communities across the country, solely because their home countries refuse to accept their repatriation. Many of these aliens are criminals who have served time in our Federal, State, and local jails. The presence of such individuals in the United States, and the practices of foreign nations that refuse the repatriation of their nationals, are contrary to the national interest.

Although Federal immigration law provides a framework for Federal-State partnerships in enforcing our immigration laws to ensure the removal of aliens who have no right to be in the United States, the Federal Government has failed to discharge this basic sovereign responsibility. We cannot faithfully execute the immigration laws of the United States if we exempt classes or categories of removable aliens from potential enforcement. The purpose of this order is to direct executive departments and agencies (agencies) to employ all lawful means to enforce the immigration laws of the United States.

Sec. 2. Policy. It is the policy of the executive branch to:

(a) Ensure the faithful execution of the immigration laws of the United States, including the INA, against all removable aliens, consistent with Article II, Section 3 of the United States Constitution and section 3331 of title 5, United States Code;

(b) Make use of all available systems and resources to ensure the efficient and faithful execution of the immigration laws of the United States;

(c) Ensure that jurisdictions that fail to comply with applicable Federal law do not receive Federal funds, except as mandated by law;

(d) Ensure that aliens ordered removed from the United States are promptly removed; and

(e) Support victims, and the families of victims, of crimes committed by removable aliens.

Sec. 3. Definitions. The terms of this order, where applicable, shall have the meaning provided by section 1101 of title 8, United States Code.

Sec. 4. Enforcement of the Immigration Laws in the Interior of the United States. In furtherance of the policy described in section 2 of this order, I hereby direct agencies to employ all lawful means to ensure the faithful execution of the immigration laws of the United States against all removable aliens.

Sec. 5. Enforcement Priorities. In executing faithfully the immigration laws of the United States, the Secretary of Homeland Security (Secretary) shall prioritize for removal those aliens described by the Congress in sections 212(a)(2), (a)(3), and (a)(6)(C), 235, and 237(a)(2) and (4) of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1182(a)(2), (a)(3), and (a)(6)(C), 1225, and 1227(a)(2) and (4)), as well as removable aliens who:

- (a) Have been convicted of any criminal offense;
- (b) Have been charged with any criminal offense, where such charge has not been resolved;
- (c) Have committed acts that constitute a chargeable criminal offense;
- (d) Have engaged in fraud or willful misrepresentation in connection with any official matter or application before a governmental agency;
- (e) Have abused any program related to receipt of public benefits;
- (f) Are subject to a final order of removal, but who have not complied with their legal obligation to depart the United States; or
- (g) In the judgment of an immigration officer, otherwise pose a risk to public safety or national security.

Sec. 6. Civil Fines and Penalties. As soon as practicable, and by no later than one year after the date of this order, the Secretary shall issue guidance and promulgate regulations, where required by law, to ensure the assessment and collection of all fines and penalties that the Secretary is authorized under the law to assess and collect from aliens unlawfully present in the United States and from those who facilitate their presence in the United States.

Sec. 7. Additional Enforcement and Removal Officers. The Secretary, through the Director of U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, shall, to the extent permitted by law and subject to the availability of appropriations, take all appropriate action to hire 10,000 additional immigration officers, who shall complete relevant training and be authorized to perform the law enforcement functions described in section 287 of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1357).

Sec. 8. Federal-State Agreements. It is the policy of the executive branch to empower State and local law enforcement agencies across the country to perform the functions of an immigration officer in the interior of the United States to the maximum extent permitted by law.

(a) In furtherance of this policy, the Secretary shall immediately take appropriate action to engage with the Governors of the States, as well as local officials, for the purpose of preparing to enter into agreements under section 287(g) of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1357(g)).

(b) To the extent permitted by law and with the consent of State or local officials, as appropriate, the Secretary shall take appropriate action, through agreements under section 287(g) of the INA, or otherwise, to authorize State and local law enforcement officials, as the Secretary determines are qualified and appropriate, to perform the functions of immigration officers in relation to the investigation, apprehension, or detention of aliens in the United States under the direction and the supervision of the Secretary. Such authorization shall be in addition to, rather than in place of, Federal performance of these duties.

(c) To the extent permitted by law, the Secretary may structure each agreement under section 287(g) of the INA in a manner that provides the most effective model for enforcing Federal immigration laws for that jurisdiction.

Sec. 9. Sanctuary Jurisdictions. It is the policy of the executive branch to ensure, to the fullest extent of the law, that a State, or a political subdivision of a State, shall comply with 8 U.S.C. 1373.

(a) In furtherance of this policy, the Attorney General and the Secretary, in their discretion and to the extent consistent with law, shall ensure that jurisdictions that willfully refuse to comply with 8 U.S.C. 1373 (sanctuary jurisdictions) are not eligible to receive Federal grants, except as deemed necessary for law enforcement purposes by the Attorney General or the Secretary. The Secretary has the authority to designate, in his discretion and to the extent consistent with law, a jurisdiction as a sanctuary jurisdiction. The Attorney General shall take appropriate enforcement action against any entity that violates 8 U.S.C. 1373, or which has in effect a statute, policy, or practice that prevents or hinders the enforcement of Federal law.

(b) To better inform the public regarding the public safety threats associated with sanctuary jurisdictions, the Secretary shall utilize the Declined Detainer Outcome Report or its equivalent and, on a weekly basis, make public a comprehensive list of criminal actions committed by aliens and any jurisdiction that ignored or otherwise failed to honor any detainers with respect to such aliens.

(c) The Director of the Office of Management and Budget is directed to obtain and provide relevant and responsive information on all Federal grant money that currently is received by any sanctuary jurisdiction.

Sec. 10. Review of Previous Immigration Actions and Policies. (a) The Secretary shall immediately take all appropriate action to terminate the Priority Enforcement Program (PEP) described in the memorandum issued by the Secretary on November 20, 2014, and to reinstitute the immigration program known as “Secure Communities” referenced in that memorandum.

(b) The Secretary shall review agency regulations, policies, and procedures for consistency with this order and, if required, publish for notice and comment proposed regulations rescinding or revising any regulations inconsistent with this order and shall consider whether to withdraw or modify any inconsistent policies and procedures, as appropriate and consistent with the law.

(c) To protect our communities and better facilitate the identification, detention, and removal of criminal aliens within constitutional and statutory parameters, the Secretary shall consolidate and revise any applicable forms to more effectively communicate with recipient law enforcement agencies.

Sec. 11. Department of Justice Prosecutions of Immigration Violators. The Attorney General and the Secretary shall work together to develop and implement a program that ensures that adequate resources are devoted to the prosecution of criminal immigration offenses in the United States, and to develop cooperative strategies to reduce violent crime and the reach of transnational criminal organizations into the United States.

Sec. 12. Recalcitrant Countries. The Secretary of Homeland Security and the Secretary of State shall cooperate to effectively implement the sanctions provided by section 243(d) of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1253(d)), as appropriate. The Secretary of State shall, to the maximum extent permitted by law, ensure that diplomatic efforts and negotiations with foreign states include as a condition precedent the acceptance by those foreign states of their nationals who are subject to removal from the United States.

Sec. 13. Office for Victims of Crimes Committed by Removable Aliens. The Secretary shall direct the Director of U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement to take all appropriate and lawful action to establish within U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement an office to provide proactive, timely, adequate, and professional services to victims of crimes committed by removable aliens and the family members of such victims. This office shall provide quarterly reports studying the effects of the victimization by criminal aliens present in the United States.

(2) TEMPORARY EXIGENT CIRCUMSTANCES.—If the Secretary of State submits to Congress a written determination that temporary exigent circumstances require a waiver of the sanctions under subsection (b), the Secretary may waive any reduction below 80 percent of the baseline visa number during 6-month renewable periods. The Secretary of Homeland Security may not delegate the authority under this subsection.

(d) EXEMPTION.—The Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Secretary of State, may exempt a country from inclusion in a list under subsection (a)(2) if the total number of nonrepatriations outstanding is less than 10 for the preceding 3-year period.

(e) UNAUTHORIZED VISA ISSUANCE.—Any visa issued in violation of this section shall be void.

(f) NOTICE.—If an alien who has been convicted of a criminal offense before a Federal or State court whose repatriation was refused or unreasonably delayed is to be released from detention by the Secretary of Homeland Security, the Secretary shall provide notice to the State and local law enforcement agency for the jurisdictions in which the alien is required to report or is to be released. When possible, and particularly in the case of violent crime, the Secretary shall make a reasonable effort to provide notice of such release to any crime victims and their immediate family members.

(g) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this section:

(1) REFUSED OR UNREASONABLY DELAYED.—A country is deemed to have refused or unreasonably delayed the acceptance of an alien who is a citizen, subject, national, or resident of such country if, not later than 90 days after receiving a request to repatriate such alien from an official of the United States who is authorized to make such a request, the country does not accept the alien or issue valid travel documents.

(2) FAILURE RATE.—The term “failure rate” for a period means the percentage determined by dividing the total number of repatriation requests for aliens who are citizens, subjects, nationals, or residents of a country that such country refused or unreasonably delayed during that period by the total number of such requests during that period.

(3) EXCESSIVE REPATRIATION FAILURE RATE.—The term “excessive repatriation failure rate” means, with respect to a report under subsection (a), a failure rate greater than 10 percent for any of the following:

(A) The period of the 3 full fiscal years preceding the date of publication of the report.

(B) The period of 1 year preceding the date of publication of the report.

(4) NUMBER OF NON-REPATRIATIONS OUTSTANDING.—The term “number of non-repatriations outstanding” means, for a period, the number of unique aliens whose repatriation a country has refused or unreasonably delayed and whose repatriation has not occurred during that period.

(5) BASELINE VISA NUMBER.—The term “baseline visa number” means, with respect to a country, the average number of visas issued each fiscal year to nationals of that country under clauses (i) and (ii) of section 101(a)(15)(A) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1101\(a\)\(15\)\(A\)) for the 3 full fiscal years immediately preceding the first report under subsection (a) in which such country is included in the list under subsection (a)(2).

SEC. 602. ENCOURAGING ALIENS TO DEPART VOLUNTARILY.

(1) in subsection (a)—

(A) by amending paragraph (1) to read as follows:

“(1) INSTEAD OF REMOVAL PROCEEDINGS.—If an alien is not described in paragraph (2)(A)(iii) or (4) of section 237(a), the Secretary of Homeland Security may permit the alien to voluntarily depart the United States at the alien’s own expense under this subsection instead of being subject to proceedings under section 240.”;

(B) by striking paragraph (3);

(C) by redesignating paragraph (2) as paragraph (3);

(D) by adding after paragraph (1) the following:

“(2) BEFORE THE CONCLUSION OF REMOVAL PROCEEDINGS.—If an alien is not described in paragraph (2)(A)(iii) or (4) of section 237(a), the Attorney General may permit the alien to voluntarily depart the United States at the alien’s own expense under this subsection after the initiation of removal proceedings under section 240 and before the conclusion of such proceedings before an immigration judge.”;

(E) in paragraph (3), as redesignated—

(i) by amending subparagraph (A) to read as follows:

“(A) INSTEAD OF REMOVAL.—Subject to subparagraph (C), permission to voluntarily depart under paragraph (1) shall not be valid for any period in excess of 120 days. The Secretary may require an alien permitted to voluntarily depart under paragraph (1) to post a voluntary departure bond, to be surrendered upon proof that the alien has departed the United States within the time specified.”;

(ii) by redesignating subparagraphs (B), (C), and (D) as subparagraphs (C), (D), and (E), respectively;

(iii) by adding after subparagraph (A) the following:

“(B) BEFORE THE CONCLUSION OF REMOVAL PROCEEDINGS.—Permission to voluntarily depart under paragraph (2) shall not be valid for any period in excess of 60 days, and may be granted only after a finding that the alien has the means to depart the United States and intends to do so. An alien permitted to voluntarily depart under paragraph (2) shall post a voluntary departure bond, in an amount necessary to ensure that the alien will depart, to be surrendered upon proof that the alien has departed the United States within the time specified.”;

(iv) in subparagraph (C), as redesignated, by striking “subparagraphs (C) and (D)(ii)” and inserting “subparagraphs (D) and (E)(ii)”;

(v) in subparagraph (D), as redesignated, by striking “subparagraph (B)” each place that term appears and inserting “subparagraph (C)”; and

(vi) in subparagraph (E), as redesignated, by striking “subparagraph (B)” each place that term appears and inserting “subparagraph (C)”; and

(F) in paragraph (4), by striking “paragraph (1)” and inserting “paragraphs (1) and (2)”;

(2) in subsection (b)(2), by striking “a period exceeding 60 days” and inserting “any period in excess of 45 days”;

(3) by amending subsection (c) to read as follows:

“(c) CONDITIONS ON VOLUNTARY DEPARTURE.—

“(1) VOLUNTARY DEPARTURE AGREEMENT.—Voluntary departure may only be granted as part of an affirmative agreement by the alien. A voluntary departure agreement under subsection (b) shall include a waiver of the right to any further motion, appeal, application, petition, or petition for review relating to removal or relief or protection from removal.

“(2) CONCESSIONS BY THE SECRETARY.—In connection with the alien’s agreement to depart voluntarily under paragraph (1), the Secretary of Homeland Security may agree to a reduction in the period of inadmissibility under subparagraph (A) or (B)(i) of section 212(a)(9).

“(3) ADVISALS.—Agreements relating to voluntary departure granted during removal proceedings under section 240, or at the conclusion of such proceedings, shall be presented on the record before the immigration judge. The immigration judge shall advise the alien of the consequences of a voluntary departure agreement before accepting such agreement.

“(4) FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH AGREEMENT.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—If an alien agrees to voluntary departure under this section and fails to depart the United States within the time allowed for voluntary departure or fails to comply with any other terms of the agreement (including failure to timely post any required bond), the alien is

“(i) ineligible for the benefits of the agreement;

“(ii) subject to the penalties described in subsection (d); and

“(iii) subject to an alternate order of removal if voluntary departure was granted under subsection (a)(2) or (b).

“(B) EFFECT OF FILING TIMELY APPEAL.—If, after agreeing to voluntary departure, the alien files a timely appeal of the immigration judge’s decision granting voluntary departure, the alien may pursue the appeal instead of the voluntary departure agreement. Such appeal operates to void the alien’s voluntary departure agreement and the consequences of such agreement, but precludes the alien from another grant of voluntary departure while the alien remains in the United States.

“(5) VOLUNTARY DEPARTURE PERIOD NOT AFFECTED.—Except as expressly agreed to by the Secretary in writing in the exercise of the Secretary’s discretion before the expiration of the period allowed for voluntary departure, no motion, appeal, application, petition, or petition for review shall affect, reinstate, enjoin, delay, stay, or toll the alien’s obligation to depart from the United States during the period agreed to by the alien and the Secretary.”;

(4) by amending subsection (d) to read as follows:

“(d) PENALTIES FOR FAILURE TO DEPART.—If an alien is permitted to voluntarily depart under this section and fails to voluntarily depart from the United States within the time period specified or otherwise violates the terms of a voluntary departure agreement, the alien will be subject to the following penalties:

“(1) CIVIL PENALTY.—The alien shall be liable for a civil penalty of $3,000. The order allowing voluntary departure shall specify this amount, which shall be acknowledged by the alien on the record. If the Secretary thereafter establishes that the alien failed to depart voluntarily within the time allowed, no further procedure will be necessary to establish the amount of the penalty, and the Secretary may collect the civil penalty at any time thereafter and by whatever means provided by law. An alien will be ineligible for any benefits under this chapter until this civil penalty is paid.

“(2) INELIGIBILITY FOR RELIEF.—The alien shall be ineligible during the time the alien remains in the United States and for a period of 10 years after the alien’s departure for any further relief under this section and sections 240A, 245, 248, and 249. The order permitting the alien to depart voluntarily shall inform the alien of the penalties under this subsection.

“(3) REOPENING.—The alien shall be ineligible to reopen the final order of removal that took effect upon the alien’s failure to depart, or upon the alien’s other violations of the conditions for voluntary departure, during the period described in paragraph (2). This paragraph does not preclude a motion to reopen to seek withholding of removal under section 241(b)(3) or protection against torture, if the motion—

“(A) presents material evidence of changed country conditions arising after the date of the order granting voluntary departure in the country to which the alien would be removed; and

(5) by amending subsection (e) to read as follows:

“(1) PRIOR GRANT OF VOLUNTARY DEPARTURE.—An alien shall not be permitted to voluntarily depart under this section if the Secretary of Homeland Security or the Attorney General previously permitted the alien to depart voluntarily.

“(2) RULEMAKING.—The Secretary may promulgate regulations to limit eligibility or impose additional conditions for voluntary departure under subsection (a)(1) for any class of aliens. The Secretary or Attorney General may by regulation limit eligibility or impose additional conditions for voluntary departure under subsection (a)(2) or (b) of this section for any class or classes of aliens.”; and

(6) in subsection (f), by adding at the end the following: “Notwithstanding section 242(a)(2)(D) of this Act, sections 1361, 1651, and 2241 of title 28, United States Code, any other habeas corpus provision, and any other provision of law (statutory or nonstatutory), no court shall have jurisdiction to affect, reinstate, enjoin, delay, stay, or toll the period allowed for voluntary departure under this section.”.

(b) RULEMAKING.—The Secretary shall within one year of the date of enactment of this Act promulgate regulations to provide for the imposition and collection of penalties for failure to depart under section 240B(d) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1229c\(d\)).

(c) EFFECTIVE DATES.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), the amendments made by this section shall apply with respect to all orders granting voluntary departure under section 240B of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1229c) made on or after the date that is 180 days after the enactment of this Act.

(2) EXCEPTION.—The amendment made by subsection (a)(6) shall take effect on the date of the enactment of this Act and shall apply with respect to any petition for review which is filed on or after such date.

“(2) SAVINGS PROVISION.—Nothing in paragraph (1) shall preclude a motion to reopen to seek withholding of removal under section 241(b)(3) or protection against torture, if the motion—

“(A) presents material evidence of changed country conditions arising after the date of the final order of removal in the country to which the alien would be removed; and

“(A) the order of removal, deportation, or exclusion is reinstated from its original date and is not subject to being reopened or reviewed notwithstanding section 242(a)(2)(D);

“(B) the alien is not eligible and may not apply for any relief under this Act, regardless of the date that an application or request for such relief may have been filed or made; and

19 to nationals of that country under clauses (i) and 20 (ii) of section 101(a)(15)(A) of the Immigration and 21 Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1101(a)(15)(A)) for the 3
22 full fiscal years immediately preceding the first re-
23 port under subsection (a) in which that country is 24 included in the list under subsection (a)(2).

1 (h) GAO REPORT.—On the date that is 1 day after
2 the date that the President submits a budget under sec-
3 tion 1105(a) of title 31, United States Code, for fiscal year
4 2016, the Comptroller General of the United States shall 5 submit a report to Congress regarding the progress of the 6 Secretary of Homeland Security and the Secretary of 7 State in implementation of this section and in making re-
8 quests to repatriate aliens as appropriate.

9 SEC. 602. ENCOURAGING ALIENS TO DEPART VOLUN-
10 TARILY.

11 (a) IN GENERAL.—Section 240B of the Immigration
12 and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1229c) is amended—

13 (1) in subsection (a)—

14 (A) by amending paragraph (1) to read as 15 follows:

16 “(1) INSTEAD OF REMOVAL PROCEEDINGS.—If 17 an alien is not described in paragraph (2)(A)(iii) or 18 (4) of section 237(a), the Secretary of Homeland Se-
19 curity may permit the alien to voluntarily depart the 20 United States at the alien’s own expense under this 21 subsection instead of being subject to proceedings
22 under section 240.”;

23 (B) by striking paragraph (3);

24 (C) by redesignating paragraph (2) as 25 paragraph (3);

1 (D) by adding after paragraph (1) the fol-
2 lowing:

3 “(2) BEFORE THE CONCLUSION OF REMOVAL
4 PROCEEDINGS.—If an alien is not described in para-
5 graph (2)(A)(iii) or (4) of section 237(a), the Attor-
6 ney General may permit the alien to voluntarily de-
7 part the United States at the alien’s own expense
8 under this subsection after the initiation of removal
9 proceedings under section 240 and before the con-
10 clusion of such proceedings before an immigration
11 judge.”;

12 (E) in paragraph (3), as redesignated—

13 (i) by amending subparagraph (A) to 14 read as follows:

15 “(A) INSTEAD OF REMOVAL.—Subject to 16 subparagraph (C), permission to voluntarily de-
17 part under paragraph (1) shall not be valid for 18 any period in excess of 120 days. The Secretary
19 may require an alien permitted to voluntarily
20 depart under paragraph (1) to post a voluntary
21 departure bond, to be surrendered upon proof
22 that the alien has departed the United States
23 within the time specified.”;

1 (ii) by redesignating subparagraphs
2 (B), (C), and (D) as subparagraphs (C),
3 (D), and (E), respectively;

4 (iii) by adding after subparagraph (A)
5 the following:

6 “(B) BEFORE THE CONCLUSION OF RE-
7 MOVAL PROCEEDINGS.—Permission to volun-
8 tarily depart under paragraph (2) shall not be 9 valid for any period in excess of 60 days, and 10 may be granted only after a finding that the 11 alien has the means to depart the United States
12 and intends to do so. An alien permitted to vol-
13 untarily depart under paragraph (2) shall post
14 a voluntary departure bond, in an amount nec-
15 essary to ensure that the alien will depart, to be 16 surrendered upon proof that the alien has de-
17 parted the United States within the time speci-
18 fied. An immigration judge may waive the re-
19 quirement to post a voluntary departure bond
20 in individual cases upon a finding that the alien
21 has presented compelling evidence that the 22 posting of a bond will pose a serious financial 23 hardship and the alien has presented credible
24 evidence that such a bond is unnecessary to 25 guarantee timely departure.”;

1 (iv) in subparagraph (C), as redesign-
2 nated, by striking “subparagraphs (C) and
3 (D)(ii)” and inserting “subparagraphs (D)
4 and (E)(ii)”;

5 (v) in subparagraph (D), as redesign-
6 nated, by striking “subparagraph (B)”
7 each place that term appears and inserting
8 “subparagraph (C)”; and

9 (vi) in subparagraph (E), as redesign-
10 nated, by striking “subparagraph (B)”
11 each place that term appears and inserting
12 “subparagraph (C)”; and

13 (F) in paragraph (4), by striking “para-
14 graph (1)” and inserting “paragraphs (1) and 15 (2)”;

16 (2) in subsection (b)(2), by striking “a period
17 exceeding 60 days” and inserting “any period in ex-
18 cess of 45 days”;

19 (3) by amending subsection (c) to read as fol-
20 lows:

22 “(1) VOLUNTARY DEPARTURE AGREEMENT.—
23 Voluntary departure may only be granted as part of 24 an affirmative agreement by the alien. A voluntary
25 departure agreement under subsection (b) shall in-

1 include a waiver of the right to any further motion,
2 appeal, application, petition, or petition for review
3 relating to removal or relief or protection from re-
4 moval.

5 “(2) CONCESSIONS BY THE SECRETARY.—In
6 connection with the alien’s agreement to depart vol-
7 untarily under paragraph (1), the Secretary of 8 Homeland Security may agree to a reduction in the 9 period of inadmissibility under subparagraph (A) or 10 (B)(i) of section 212(a)(9).

11 “(3) ADVISALS.—Agreements relating to vol-
12 untary departure granted during removal pro-
13 ceedings under section 240, or at the conclusion of 14 such proceedings, shall be presented on the record
15 before the immigration judge. The immigration
16 judge shall advise the alien of the consequences of 17 a voluntary departure agreement before accepting 18 such agreement.

19 “(4) FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH AGREE-
20 MENT.—

21 “(A) IN GENERAL.—If an alien agrees to 22 voluntary departure under this section and fails
23 to depart the United States within the time al-
24 lowed for voluntary departure or fails to comply
25 with any other terms of the agreement (includ-

1 ing failure to timely post any required bond),
2 the alien is—

3 “(i) ineligible for the benefits of the 4 agreement;

5 “(ii) subject to the penalties described
6 in subsection (d); and

7 “(iii) subject to an alternate order of 8 removal if voluntary departure was granted
9 under subsection (a)(2) or (b).

10 “(B) EFFECT OF FILING TIMELY AP-
11 PEAL.—If, after agreeing to voluntary depart-
12 ture, the alien files a timely appeal of the immi-
13 gration judge’s decision granting voluntary de-
14 parture, the alien may pursue the appeal in-
15 stead of the voluntary departure agreement.
16 Such appeal operates to void the alien’s vol-
17 untary departure agreement and the con-
18 sequences of such agreement, but precludes the 19 alien from another grant of voluntary departure
20 while the alien remains in the United States.

21 “(5) VOLUNTARY DEPARTURE PERIOD NOT AF-
22 FECTED.—Except as expressly agreed to by the Sec-
23 retary in writing in the exercise of the Secretary’s
24 discretion before the expiration of the period allowed
25 for voluntary departure, no motion, appeal, applica-

1 tion, petition, or petition for review shall affect, rein-
2 state, enjoin, delay, stay, or toll the alien’s obligation
3 to depart from the United States during the period
4 agreed to by the alien and the Secretary.”;

5 (4) by amending subsection (d) to read as fol-
6 lows:

7 “(d) PENALTIES FOR FAILURE TO DEPART.—If an 8 alien is permitted to voluntarily depart under this section
9 and fails to voluntarily depart from the United States
10 within the time period specified or otherwise violates the 11 terms of a voluntary departure agreement, the alien will 12 be subject to the following penalties:

13 “(1) CIVIL PENALTY.—The alien shall be liable
14 for a civil penalty of $3,000. The order allowing vol-
15 untary departure shall specify this amount, which 16 shall be acknowledged by the alien on the record. If 17 the Secretary thereafter establishes that the alien
18 failed to depart voluntarily within the time allowed,
19 no further procedure will be necessary to establish 20 the amount of the penalty, and the Secretary may 21 collect the civil penalty at any time thereafter and 22 by whatever means provided by law. An alien will be 23 ineligible for any benefits under this chapter until 24 this civil penalty is paid.

1 “(2) INELIGIBILITY FOR RELIEF.—The alien
2 shall be ineligible during the time the alien remains
3 in the United States and for a period of 10 years
4 after the alien’s departure for any further relief
5 under this section and sections 240A, 245, 248, and
6 249. The order permitting the alien to depart volun-
7 tarily shall inform the alien of the penalties under 8 this subsection.

9 “(3) REOPENING.—The alien shall be ineligible
10 to reopen the final order of removal that took effect
11 upon the alien’s failure to depart, or upon the alien’s
12 other violations of the conditions for voluntary de-
13 parture, during the period described in paragraph 14 (2). This paragraph does not preclude a motion to 15 reopen to seek withholding of removal under section
16 241(b)(3) or protection against torture, if the mo-
17 tion—

18 “(A) presents material evidence of changed
19 country conditions arising after the date of the 20 order granting voluntary departure in the coun-
21 try to which the alien would be removed; and

22 “(B) makes a sufficient showing to the sat-
23 isfaction of the Attorney General that the alien
24 is otherwise eligible for such protection.”;

1 (5) by amending subsection (e) to read as fol-
2 lows:

4 “(1) PRIOR GRANT OF VOLUNTARY DEPAR-
5 TURE.—An alien shall not be permitted to volun-
6 tarily depart under this section if the Secretary of 7 Homeland Security or the Attorney General pre-
8 viously permitted the alien to depart voluntarily.

9 “(2) RULEMAKING.—The Secretary may pro-
10 mulgate regulations to limit eligibility or impose ad-
11 ditional conditions for voluntary departure under 12 subsection (a)(1) for any class of aliens. The Sec-
13 retary or Attorney General may by regulation limit
14 eligibility or impose additional conditions for vol-
15 untary departure under subsections (a)(2) or (b) of 16 this section for any class or classes of aliens.”; and

17 (6) in subsection (f), by adding at the end the 18 following: “Notwithstanding section 242(a)(2)(D) of 19 this Act, sections 1361, 1651, and 2241 of title 28,
20 United States Code, any other habeas corpus provi-
21 sion, and any other provision of law (statutory or 22 nonstatutory), no court shall have jurisdiction to af-
23 fect, reinstate, enjoin, delay, stay, or toll the period
24 allowed for voluntary departure under this section.”.

1 (b) RULEMAKING.—The Secretary shall within one
2 year of the date of enactment of this Act promulgate regu-
3 lations to provide for the imposition and collection of pen-
4 alties for failure to depart under section 240B(d) of the 5 Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1229c(d)).

6 (c) EFFECTIVE DATES.—

7 (1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in para-
8 graph (2), the amendments made by this section
9 shall apply with respect to all orders granting vol-
10 untary departure under section 240B of the Immi-
11 gration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1229c) made
12 on or after the date that is 180 days after the enact-
13 ment of this Act.

14 (2) EXCEPTION.—The amendment made by 15 subsection (a)(6) shall take effect on the date of the 16 enactment of this Act and shall apply with respect
17 to any petition for review which is filed on or after 18 such date.

2 within 5 years of the date of such removal (or within

4 than 5 years after the date of the alien’s removal (or 5 not later than 20 years after the alien’s removal”;
6 and

7 (2) in clause (ii), by striking “seeks admission
8 within 10 years of the date of such alien’s departure
9 or removal (or within 20 years of” and inserting

11 date of the alien’s departure or removal (or not later

13 (b) BAR ON DISCRETIONARY RELIEF.—Section 274D
14 of such Act (8 U.S.C. 324d) is amended—

15 (1) in subsection (a), by striking “Commis-
16 sioner” and inserting “Secretary of Homeland Secu-
17 rity”; and

18 (2) by adding at the end the following:

19 “(c) INELIGIBILITY FOR RELIEF.—

20 “(1) IN GENERAL.—Unless a timely motion to 21 reopen is granted under section 240(c)(6), an alien
22 described in subsection (a) shall be ineligible for any 23 discretionary relief from removal (including cancella-24 tion of removal and adjustment of status) during the 25 time the alien remains in the United States and for

1 a period of 10 years after the alien's departure from 2 the United States.

3 “(2) SAVINGS PROVISION.—Nothing in para-
4 graph (1) shall preclude a motion to reopen to seek 5 withholding of removal under section 241(b)(3) or 6 protection against torture, if the motion—

7 “(A) presents material evidence of changed
8 country conditions arising after the date of the 9 final order of removal in the country to which

18 SEC. 604. REINSTATEMENT OF REMOVAL ORDERS.

19 (a) IN GENERAL.—Section 241(a)(5) of the Immi-

23 AGAINST ALIENS ILLEGALLY REENTERING.—If the 24 Secretary of Homeland Security finds that an alien 25 has entered the United States illegally after having

1 been removed, deported, or excluded or having de-
2 parted voluntarily, under an order of removal, depor-
3 tation, or exclusion, regardless of the date of the 4 original order or the date of the illegal entry—

5 “(A) the order of removal, deportation, or 6 exclusion is reinstated from its original date
7 and is not subject to being reopened or reviewed
8 notwithstanding section 242(a)(2)(D);

9 “(B) the alien is not eligible and may not
10 apply for any relief under this Act, regardless
11 of the date that an application or request for 12 such relief may have been filed or made; and

13 “(C) the alien shall be removed under the 14 order of removal, deportation, or exclusion at 15 any time after the illegal entry.

16 Reinstatement under this paragraph shall not re-

6 nonstatutory), including section 2241 of title 28,

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTORNEYS COMPLETING CIVIL COVER SHEET FORM JS-CAND 44

Authority For Civil Cover Sheet. The JS-CAND 44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved in its original form by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the Clerk of Court to initiate the civil docket sheet. Consequently, a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows:

- I. a) Plaintiffs-Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.
 - b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing. (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the “defendant” is the location of the tract of land involved.)
 - c) Attorneys. Enter the firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section “(see attachment).”
- II. Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(a), which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place an “X” in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below.
- (1) United States plaintiff. Jurisdiction based on 28 USC §§ 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here.
 - (2) United States defendant. When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an “X” in this box.
 - (3) Federal question. This refers to suits under 28 USC § 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked.
 - (4) Diversity of citizenship. This refers to suits under 28 USC § 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; NOTE: federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases.)
- III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS-CAND 44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.
- IV. Nature of Suit. Place an “X” in the appropriate box. If the nature of suit cannot be determined, be sure the cause of action, in Section VI below, is sufficient to enable the deputy clerk or the statistical clerk(s) in the Administrative Office to determine the nature of suit. If the cause fits more than one nature of suit, select the most definitive.
- V. Origin. Place an “X” in one of the six boxes.
- (1) Original Proceedings. Cases originating in the United States district courts.
 - (2) Removed from State Court. Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 USC § 1441. When the petition for removal is granted, check this box.
 - (3) Remanded from Appellate Court. Check this box for cases remanded to the district court for further action. Use the date of remand as the filing date.
 - (4) Reinstated or Reopened. Check this box for cases reinstated or reopened in the district court. Use the reopening date as the filing date.
 - (5) Transferred from Another District. For cases transferred under Title 28 USC § 1404(a). Do not use this for within district transfers or multidistrict litigation transfers.
 - (6) Multidistrict Litigation Transfer. Check this box when a multidistrict case is transferred into the district under authority of Title 28 USC § 1407. When this box is checked, do not check (5) above.
 - (8) Multidistrict Litigation Direct File. Check this box when a multidistrict litigation case is filed in the same district as the Master MDL docket. Please note that there is no Origin Code 7. Origin Code 7 was used for historical records and is no longer relevant due to changes in statute.
- VI. Cause of Action. Report the civil statute directly related to the cause of action and give a brief description of the cause. Do not cite jurisdictional statutes unless diversity. Example: U.S. Civil Statute: 47 USC § 553. Brief Description: Unauthorized reception of cable service.
- VII. Requested in Complaint. Class Action. Place an “X” in this box if you are filing a class action under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23.
- Demand. In this space enter the actual dollar amount being demanded or indicate other demand, such as a preliminary injunction.
- Jury Demand. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether or not a jury is being demanded.
- VIII. Related Cases. This section of the JS-CAND 44 is used to identify related pending cases, if any. If there are related pending cases, insert the docket numbers and the corresponding judge names for such cases.
- IX. Divisional Assignment. If the Nature of Suit is under Property Rights or Prisoner Petitions or the matter is a Securities Class Action, leave this section blank. For all other cases, identify the divisional venue according to Civil Local Rule 3-2: “the county in which a substantial part of the events or omissions which give rise to the claim occurred or in which a substantial part of the property that is the subject of the action is situated.”

Date and Attorney Signature. Date and sign the civil cover sheet.
