COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF FOR VIOLATION OF THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT, 5 U.S.C. § 552 et seq.

Introduction

1. The American Civil Liberties Union of Arizona (“Plaintiff” or “ACLU”) brings this action under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552 et seq., as amended (“FOIA”), to obtain injunctive and other appropriate relief requiring Defendants U.S. Department of Homeland Security (“DHS”) and U.S. Customs and Border Protection (“CBP”) (collectively, “Defendants”) to respond to a FOIA request sent by Plaintiff on February 2, 2017 (“Request”), and to promptly disclose the requested records.

2. The Request seeks records concerning CBP's local implementation of President Trump's January 27, 2017 Executive Order titled "Protecting the Nation From Foreign Terrorist Entry Into the United States," Exec. Order No. 13769, 82 Fed. Reg. 8977 (Feb. 1, 2017) ("Executive Order No. 1"), as well as any other judicial order or executive directive issued regarding Executive Order No. 1, including President Trump's March 6, 2017 Executive Order, identically titled, Exec. Order No. 13780, 82 Fed. Reg. 13209 (Mar. 6, 2017) ("Executive Order No. 2") (collectively, "Executive Orders"). A true and correct copy of the Request is attached as Exhibit A.

3. Specifically, the Request seeks records concerning CBP's local implementation of the Executive Orders at sites within the purview of CBP's Tucson Field Office, including Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport.

4. Among other things, the Executive Orders purport to halt refugee admissions and bar entrants from several predominantly Muslim countries from entering the United States.

5. Defendants' implementation of the Executive Orders has been the subject of significant public concern, as reflected by mass protests around the country, substantial news coverage, and numerous lawsuits filed following the President's signing of each Executive Order.

6. Over the weekend of January 27–29, 2017, at least five lawsuits resulted in emergency court orders enjoining implementation of various sections of Executive Order No. 1.¹ On March 15, 2017, a district court enjoined implementation of Sections 2 and 6 of Executive Order No. 2.²

Trump*, No. 17 CIV. 480 (AMD), 2017 WL 388504 (E.D.N.Y. Jan. 28, 2017).

² Hawai'i v. Trump, No. CV 17-00050 DKW-KSC, 2017 WL 1011673 (D. Haw. Mar. 15, 2017).

7. News reports described Defendants' implementation of the Executive Orders as "chaotic" and "total[ly] lack[ing] . . . clarity and direction."³

8. Official DHS statements reflected this confusion. For example, DHS stated on January 28 that Executive Order No. 1 would "bar green card holders."⁴ The next day, however, DHS Secretary John Kelly deemed "the entry of lawful permanent residents to be in the national interest,"⁵ and the government clarified that Executive Order No. 1 did not apply to green card holders.⁶

9. Reportedly spurred by this chaos, on January 29, Senators Tammy Duckworth and Dick Durbin called upon the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Homeland Security to investigate Defendants' implementation of Executive Order No. 1.⁷ The Senators specifically sought information regarding: any guidance Defendants provided to the White House in developing the order; any directions that were provided to Defendants in implementing it; whether CBP officers complied with the relevant court orders; and whether DHS and CBP officers kept a list of individuals that they had detained at ports of entry under the order. In response, the Inspector General directed Defendants' personnel to preserve all records "that might

1 reasonably lead to the discovery of relevant information relating the implementation of”
2 Executive Order No. 1.⁸

3 10. The Tucson Field Office oversees ten ports of entry including ports of entry
4 at Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport. Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport
5 ranks as the eleventh busiest airport nationally and the twenty-ninth busiest airport
6 globally.⁹ It is the sixth-largest hub for American Airlines, a focus city for Southwest
7 Airlines and receives regular international arrivals from Canada, Costa Rica, Mexico and 8 the United Kingdom. In 2016, 1,004,389 passengers deplaned from international flights
9 at Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport.¹⁰

10 11. Disclosure of the records Plaintiff seeks through this action would facilitate 11 the public’s understanding of how Defendants implemented and enforced the Executive
12 Orders in the Tucson Field Office, particularly including Phoenix Sky Harbor
13 International Airport. Such information is critical to the public’s ability to hold the 14 government accountable.

15 12. This action is necessary because Defendants have failed to provide Plaintiff
16 with a determination as to whether they will comply with the Request, although more
17 than 20 business days have elapsed since Defendants received the Request.

18 Jurisdiction

19 13. This Court has subject-matter jurisdiction over this action and personal
20 jurisdiction over the parties under 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(B), 5 U.S.C. § 701–706, and 28
21 U.S.C. § 1331.

1 Venue

2 14. Venue in the District of Arizona is proper under 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(B)
3 because the requested agency records are, upon information and belief, situated within 4 this District at CBP facilities at or near Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport and the 5 Tucson Field Office, and because the principal place of business of Plaintiff American
6 Civil Liberties Union of Arizona is in the District of Arizona. For the same reason, venue
7 also is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(e).

8 Parties

9 15. Plaintiff is a non-profit, 501(c)(4) membership organization that educates 10 the public about the civil liberties implications of pending and proposed state and federal 11 legislation, provides analysis of pending and proposed legislation, directly lobbies
12 legislators, and mobilizes its members to lobby their legislators.

13 16. Defendant Department of Homeland Security is a department of the 14 executive branch of the U.S. government and is an agency within the meaning of 5
15 U.S.C. § 552(f)(1).

16 17. Defendant U.S. Customs and Border Protection is a component of DHS and 17 is a federal agency within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(f)(1).

18 18. Plaintiff is informed and therefore believes that Defendants have 19 possession, custody or control of the requested records.

20 Facts

21 19. On February 2, 2017, Plaintiff sent the Request to CBP's Tucson Field
22 Office and CBP's FOIA Officer at CBP Headquarters via certified, trackable mail, with 23 United States Postal Service tracking numbers of 70162710000086270193 and 24 70162710000086270186, respectively.

25 20. The Request sought copies of CBP's local interpretation and enforcement 26 of the Executive Order at (a) Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport ("Local 27 International Airport"); and (b) Phoenix Port of Entry ("Port of Entry Office"). (The 28 Request expressly did not seek information held in the records of CBP Headquarters.)

21. Specifically, the Request sought the following:

22. “Records created on or after January 27, 2017 concerning CBP’s interpretation, enforcement, and implementation of the following at Local International Airport:

- a. President Trump’s Executive Order, signed on January 27, 2017 and titled ‘Protecting the Nation From Foreign Terrorist Entry Into the United States’;
- b. Any guidance ‘provided to DHS field personnel shortly’ after President Trump signed the Executive Order, as referenced in CBP’s online FAQ;¹¹
- c. Associate Director of Field Operations for U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services Daniel M. Renaud’s email, sent at 11:12 A.M. on January 27, 2017, instructing DHS employees that they could not adjudicate any immigration claims from the seven targeted countries;¹²
- d. Judge Donnelly’s Decision and Order granting an Emergency Motion for Stay of Removal, issued in the Eastern District of New York on January 28, 2017, including records related to CBP’s efforts to comply with the court’s oral order requiring prompt production of a list of all class members detained by CBP;¹³

¹¹ To assist CBP in responding, the Request included the following information in a footnote for reference: “Protecting the Nation from Foreign Terrorist Entry into the United States, U.S. CUSTOMS AND BORDER PROTECTION (Jan. 31, 2017), available at <https://www.cbp.gov/border-security/protecting-nation-foreign-terrorist-entry-united-states> (‘The Executive Order and the instructions therein were effective at the time of the order’s signing. Guidance was provided to DHS field personnel shortly thereafter.’) (emphasis added).”

10 Exh. A. at 5–9.

11 24. The Request included an application for expedited processing, on the 12 grounds that there is a “compelling need” for these records under 5 U.S.C.
13 § 552(a)(6)(E)(v)(II) because the information requested is “urgen[tly]” needed by an 14 organization primarily engaged in disseminating information “to inform the public 15 concerning actual or alleged Federal Government activity.” Exh. A at 9–13.

16 25. The Request provided detail showing that the ACLU is primarily engaged
17 in disseminating information within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(E)(v), given that 18 a critical and substantial aspect of the ACLU’s mission is to obtain information about 19 government activity, analyze that information and publish and disseminate that 20 information widely to the press and public. Exh. A at 9–13.

21 26. The Request described examples of the ACLU’s information-dissemination
22 function. Exh. A at 9–13. Specifically, the Request described the ACLU’s dissemination
23 of information to the public, including information obtained through FOIA requests,
24 through an email list of approximately 35,000 Arizonans, via social media (ACLU-AZ

1 has more than 14,000 Facebook followers and 7,500 Twitter followers), and through a
2 printed newsletter delivered to roughly 9,500 homes in Arizona.

3 27. The Request also included an application for a fee waiver or limitation
4 under 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(iii) on the grounds that disclosure of the requested records
5 is in the public interest and is “likely to contribute significantly to public understanding
6 of the operations or activities of the government and is not primarily in the commercial 7 interest of the requester.” In particular, the ACLU emphasized that the Request would 8 significantly contribute to public understanding on a matter of profound public 9 importance about which scant specific information had been made public (i.e., how local 10 CBP Field Offices had enforced, and continue to enforce, the Executive Orders). The 11 Request also made clear that the ACLU plans to disseminate the information disclosed as 12 a result of the Request to the public at no cost. Exh. A at 13.

13 28. The Request also applied for a waiver of search fees under 5 U.S.C.
14 § 552(a)(4)(A)(ii)(II) on the grounds that Plaintiff qualifies as “representatives of the 15 news media” and the records are not sought for commercial use, given the ACLU’s non-16 profit mission and substantial activities to publish information for dissemination to the 17 public, as discussed in greater detail in ¶ 26 above.

18 29. CBP received the Request on February 6, 2017. See Exhibit B.

19 30. CBP has not acknowledged receipt of the Request.

20 31. As of April 12, 2017, more than 20 days (excepting Saturdays, Sundays and 21 legal public holidays) have elapsed since CBP received the Request.

22 32. As of the filing date of this Complaint, Defendants have not notified
23 Plaintiff of a determination as to whether Defendants will comply with the Request.

24 33. Because Defendants failed to comply with the 20-business-day time limit
25 provision of FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(A)(i), Plaintiff is deemed to have exhausted its 26 administrative remedies with respect to the Request under 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(C)(i).

Violation of FOIA for Failure
to Provide a Determination
Within 20 Business Days

34. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 33 above, inclusive.

35. Defendants have a legal duty under FOIA to determine whether to comply with a request within 20 days (excepting Saturdays, Sundays and legal public holidays) after receiving the request, and also have a legal duty to immediately notify a requester of the agency's determination and the reasons therefor.

36. Defendants' failure to determine whether to comply with the Request within 20 business days after receiving it violates FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(A)(i), and applicable regulations promulgated thereunder.

Violation of FOIA for Failure to Make Records Available

37. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 33 above, inclusive.

38. Plaintiff has a legal right under FOIA to obtain the specific agency records requested on February 2, 2017, and there exists no legal basis for Defendants' failure to make the requested records promptly available to the Plaintiff, its members and the public.

39. Defendants' failure to promptly make available the records sought by the Request violates FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(3)(A), and applicable regulations promulgated thereunder.

40. On information and belief, Defendants' currently have possession, custody or control of the requested records.

Violation of FOIA for Failure to Provide a Determination As To Expedited Processing Within 10 Days

41. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 33 above, inclusive.

1 42. Defendants have a legal duty under FOIA to determine whether to provide
2 expedited processing, and to provide notice of that determination to the ACLU, within 10
3 days after the date of the Request.

4 43. Defendants' failure to determine whether to provide expedited processing
5 and to provide notice of that determination to Plaintiff within 10 days after the date of the 6 Request violates FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(E)(ii)(I), and applicable regulations
7 promulgated thereunder.

8 44. Because Defendants have not provided a complete response to the Request,
9 this Court has jurisdiction under FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(E)(iv), to review
10 Defendants' failure to make a determination concerning the Plaintiff's request for 11 expedited processing.

12 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests that the Court award it the following relief:

13 1. Declare that Defendants violated FOIA by failing to determine whether to 14 comply with the Request within 20 business days and by failing to immediately thereafter
15 notify the Plaintiff of such determination and the reasons therefor;

16 2. Declare that Defendants violated FOIA by unlawfully withholding the 17 requested records;

18 3. Declare that Defendants violated FOIA by failing to determine whether to 19 provide expedited processing, and to provide notice of that determination to Plaintiff,
20 within 10 days;

21 4. Order Defendants to immediately disclose the requested records to the 22 public and make copies immediately available to Plaintiff without charge for any search
23 or duplication fees, or, in the alternative, provide for expedited proceedings to adjudicate
24 Plaintiff's rights under FOIA;

25 5. Award Plaintiff their its costs and attorneys' fees; and 26 6. Grant such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

Re: Request Under Freedom of Information Act
(Expedited Processing & Fee Waiver/Limitation Requested)

To Whom It May Concern:

The American Civil Liberties Union of Arizona and the American Civil Liberties Union Foundation of Arizona (together, "ACLU-AZ")¹ submit this Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA") request ("Request") for records about the implementation of President Trump's January 27, 2017 Executive Order ("Executive Order") by U.S. Customs and Border Protection ("CBP"). Titled "Protecting the Nation From Foreign Terrorist Entry Into the United States," the Executive Order halts refugee admissions and bars entrants from seven predominantly Muslim countries from entering the United States.² By this letter, which constitutes a request pursuant to FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552 et seq., and the relevant implementing regulations, see 6 C.F.R. § 5 et seq., the ACLU-AZ seeks information regarding CBP's local implementation of the Executive Order at international airports within the purview of the Tucson Field Office ("Field Office").

¹ The American Civil Liberties Union of Arizona is a non-profit, 501(c)(4) membership organization that educates the public about the civil liberties implications of pending and proposed state and federal legislation, provides analysis of pending and proposed legislation, directly lobby legislators, and mobilizes its members to lobby their legislators. ² Exec. Order No. 13769, 82 Fed. Reg. 8977 (Feb. 1, 2017).

I. Background

On January 27, 2017, President Donald J. Trump issued an executive order that indefinitely blocks refugees from Syria from entering the United States, bars all refugees for 120 days, and prohibits individuals from seven predominantly Muslim countries—Iran, Iraq, Libya, Somalia, Sudan, Syria, and Yemen—from entering the United States for 90 days.³ By the following day, January 28, 2017, CBP officials across the country had detained an estimated 100 to 200 individuals at airports throughout the United States.⁴ Two unions representing more than 21,000 federal immigration officers praised the Executive Order,⁵ issuing a joint press release that “applaud[ed] the three executive orders [President Trump] has issued to date.”⁶ Daniel M. Renaud, Associate Director of Field Operations for U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, instructed Department of Homeland Security (“DHS”) employees that they could no longer adjudicate any immigration claims from the seven countries targeted by the Executive Order.⁷

Beginning Saturday morning, protests erupted nationwide and attorneys rushed to airports to assist detained individuals and their families.⁸ Over the next twenty-four hours, five federal courts ordered officials to temporarily stop enforcement of the Executive Order.⁹ First, Judge Donnelly of the Eastern District of New York issued a nationwide order in Darweesh v. Trump, filed by the ACLU's Immigrants' Rights Project (among others), that prohibited the government from removing any detained travelers from the seven banned countries who had been legally authorized to enter the United States.¹⁰ And a few hours later, in Tootkaboni v. Trump, filed by the ACLU of Massachusetts (among others), Judge Burroughs and Magistrate Judge Dein of the District of Massachusetts issued a nationwide order that not only prohibited the removal of such individuals, but also temporarily banned the government from detaining people affected by the Executive Order.¹¹

At the same time, President Trump remained publicly committed to his opposing position. In the early hours of Sunday, January 29, 2017, after the five court orders had been issued, President Trump tweeted, "Our country needs strong borders and extreme vetting, NOW."¹² He also issued a statement on Facebook later that day, indicating that entry from the seven predominantly Muslim countries would remain blocked for the next ninety days.¹³

In the face of nationwide confusion about the scope and validity of the Executive Order, guidance from other relevant actors offered little clarity. For example, on Saturday, DHS confirmed that the ban “will bar green card holders.”¹⁴ But on Sunday, DHS Secretary John Kelly deemed “the entry of lawful permanent residents to be in the national interest”¹⁵ and, that evening, the Trump administration clarified that the Executive Order does not apply to green card holders.¹⁶ The same day, DHS stated, perhaps contradictorily and without any elaboration, “We are and will remain in compliance with judicial orders. We are and will continue to enforce President Trump’s executive order humanely and with professionalism.”¹⁷ On Monday, then—Acting Attorney General Sally Yates announced that the Department of Justice would not present arguments in defense of the Executive Order unless and until she became convinced that it was lawful.¹⁸ Shortly thereafter, Ms. Yates was relieved of her position by President Trump.¹⁹ The same evening, President Trump also replaced the acting director of U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (“ICE”).²⁰

In spite of court orders to the contrary, some CBP officials appear to be continuing to detain individuals—though the approach appears to differ by location.²¹ Accordingly, the ACLU seeks to supplement the public record to clarify

5. Records containing the “guidance” that was “provided to DHS field personnel shortly” after President Trump signed the Executive Order.³²

To reiterate: The ACLU-AZ seeks information regarding CBP’s interpretation and enforcement of the Executive Order at the Local International Airport, not information held in the records of CBP Headquarters.

Specifically, the ACLU-AZ seeks records held by CBP employees and offices at the Local International Airport, and the corresponding Port of Entry Office and Regional Field Operations Office. CBP has an obligation to search all such field offices that are reasonably expected to produce any relevant information. See, e.g., Oglesby v. U.S. Dep’t of Army, 920 F.2d 57, 68 (D.C. Cir. 1990); Marks v. U.S. Dep’t of Justice, 578 F.2d 261, 263 (9th Cir. 1978) (agency not required to search all of its field offices because request did not ask for a search beyond the agency’s central files); see also Am. Immigration Council v. U.S. Dep’t of Homeland Sec., 950 F. Supp. 2d 221, 230 (D.D.C. 2013).

We request that searches of all electronic and paper/manual indices, filing systems, and locations for any and all records relating or referring to the subject of our Request be conducted. Given the expedited timeline on which the relevant events and interpretations occurred, this includes the personal email accounts and work phones of all employees and former employees who may have sent or received emails or text messages regarding the subject matter of this Request, as well as all institutional, shared, group, duty, task force, and all other joint and/or multi-user email accounts and work phones which may have been utilized by each such employee or former employee. Additionally, for each relevant email account identified, all storage areas must be searched, including the inbox “folder” (and all subfolders therein), sent folder, deleted folder, and all relevant archive files.

If any records responsive or potentially responsive to the Request have been destroyed, our Request includes, but is not limited to, any and all records relating or referring to the destruction of those records. This includes, but is not limited to, any and all records relating or referring to the events leading to the destruction of those records.

As required by the relevant case law, the agency should follow any leads it discovers during the conduct of its searches and should perform additional searches when said leads indicate that records may be located in another system. Failure to follow clear leads is a violation of FOIA.

With respect to the form of production, see 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(3)(B), the ACLU requests that responsive electronic records be provided electronically in their native file format, if possible. Alternatively, the ACLU requests that the records be provided electronically in a text-searchable, static-image format (PDF), in the best image quality in the agency's possession, and that the records be provided in separate, Bates-stamped files.

III. Application for Expedited Processing

The ACLU-AZ requests expedited processing pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(E).³³ There is a "compelling need" for these records, as defined in the statute, because the information requested is "urgen[tly]" needed by an organization primarily engaged in disseminating information "to inform the public concerning actual or alleged Federal Government activity." 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(E)(v)(II).

A. The ACLU is an organization primarily engaged in disseminating information in order to inform the public about actual or alleged government activity.

The ACLU is "primarily engaged in disseminating information" within the meaning of the statute. 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(E)(v)(II).³⁴ Obtaining information about government activity, analyzing that information, and widely publishing and disseminating that information to the press and public are critical and substantial components of the ACLU's work and are among its primary activities. See ACLU v. U.S. Dep't of Justice, 321 F. Supp. 2d 24, 29 n.5 (D.D.C. 2004) (finding non-profit public interest group that "gathers information of potential interest to a segment of the public, uses its editorial skills to turn the raw material into a distinct work, and distributes that work to an audience" to be "primarily engaged in disseminating information").³⁵

³³ See also 6 C.F.R. § 5.5(e)(1).

³⁴ See also 6 C.F.R. § 5.5(e)(1)(ii).

³⁵ Courts have found that the ACLU as well as other organizations with similar missions that engage in information-dissemination activities similar to the ACLU are "primarily engaged in disseminating information." See, e.g., Leadership Conference on Civil Rights v. Gonzales, 404 F. Supp. 2d 246,

The national ACLU, with which the ACLU organizations in Arizona are affiliated, regularly publishes STAND, a print magazine that reports on and analyzes civil liberties-related current events. The magazine is disseminated to over 620,000 people. The ACLU also publishes regular updates and alerts via email to approximately 2.1 million subscribers (both ACLU members and non-members). These updates are additionally broadcast to 1.5 million social media followers (members and non-members). The magazine as well as the email and social-media alerts often include descriptions and analysis of information obtained through FOIA requests. ACLU-AZ disseminates information, including information obtained through FOIA, through an email list of approximately 35,000 Arizonans, over social media (ACLU-AZ has more than 14,000 Facebook followers and 7,500 Twitter followers), and through a printed newsletter delivered to roughly 9,500 homes in Arizona.

The ACLU also regularly issues press releases to call attention to documents obtained through FOIA requests, as well as other breaking news,³⁶ and ACLU attorneys are interviewed frequently for news stories about documents released through ACLU FOIA requests.³⁷

Similarly, the ACLU publishes reports about government conduct and civil liberties issues based on its analysis of information derived from various sources, including information obtained from the government through FOIA requests. This material is broadly circulated to the public and widely available to everyone for no cost or, sometimes, for a small fee. ACLU national projects regularly publish and disseminate reports that include a description and analysis of government documents obtained through FOIA requests.³⁸ The ACLU also regularly publishes books, “know your rights” materials, fact sheets, and educational brochures and pamphlets designed to educate the public about civil liberties issues and government policies that implicate civil rights and liberties.³⁹

The ACLU publishes a widely-read blog where original editorial content reporting on and analyzing civil rights and civil liberties news is posted daily. See <https://www.aclu.org/blog>. The ACLU creates and disseminates original editorial and educational content on civil rights and civil liberties news through multi-media projects, including videos, podcasts, and interactive features. See <https://www.aclu.org/multimedia>. The ACLU also publishes, analyzes, and disseminates information through its heavily visited website, www.aclu.org. The website addresses civil rights and civil liberties issues in depth, provides features on civil rights and civil liberties issues in the news, and contains many thousands of documents relating to the issues on which the ACLU is focused. The ACLU website also serves as a clearinghouse for news about ACLU cases, as well as analysis about case developments, and an archive of case-related documents. Through these pages, and with respect to each specific civil liberties issue, the ACLU provides the public with educational material, recent news, analyses of relevant Congressional or executive branch action, government documents obtained through FOIA requests, and further in-depth analytic and educational multi-media features.

The ACLU website includes many features on information obtained through the FOIA.⁴⁰ For example, the ACLU's "Predator Drones FOIA" webpage, <https://www.aclu.org/national-security/predator-drones-foia>, contains commentary about the ACLU's FOIA request, press releases, analysis of the FOIA documents, numerous blog posts on the issue, documents related to litigation over the FOIA request, frequently asked questions about targeted killing, and links to the documents themselves. Similarly, the ACLU maintains an online "Torture Database," a compilation of over 100,000 pages of FOIA documents that allows researchers and the public to conduct sophisticated searches of FOIA documents relating to government policies on rendition, detention, and interrogation.⁴¹

The ACLU has also published a number of charts and explanatory materials that collect, summarize, and analyze information it has obtained through the FOIA. For example, through compilation and analysis of information gathered from various sources—including information obtained from the government through FOIA requests—the ACLU created an original chart that provides the public and news media with a comprehensive summary index of Bush-era Office of Legal Counsel memos relating to interrogation, detention, rendition, and surveillance.⁴² Similarly, the ACLU produced a summary of documents released in response to a FOIA request related to the FISA Amendments Act⁴³; a chart of original statistics about the Defense Department's use of National Security Letters based on its own analysis of records obtained through FOIA requests⁴⁴; and an analysis of documents obtained through FOIA requests about FBI surveillance flights over Baltimore.⁴⁵

The ACLU plans to analyze, publish, and disseminate to the public the information gathered through this Request. The records requested are not sought for commercial use and the requesters plan to disseminate the information disclosed as a result of this Request to the public at no cost.

B. The records sought are urgently needed to inform the public about actual or alleged government activity.

These records are urgently needed to inform the public about actual or alleged government activity. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(E)(v)(II).⁴⁶ Specifically, as discussed in Part I, supra, the requested records seek to inform the public about the CBP's current, local enforcement of a new Executive Order amid five court orders, varying directives, and other quickly developing events.

Given the foregoing, the ACLU-AZ has satisfied the requirements for expedited processing of this Request.

IV. Application for Waiver or Limitation of Fees

The ACLU-AZ requests a waiver of document search, review, and duplication fees on the grounds that disclosure of the requested records is in the public interest and because disclosure is "likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of the operations or activities of the government and is not primarily in the commercial interest of the requester." 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(iii).⁴⁷ The ACLU-AZ also requests a waiver of search fees on the grounds that the ACLU-AZ qualifies as a "representative of the news media" and the records are not sought for commercial use. 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(ii)(II).

A. The Request is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of the operations or activities of the government and is not primarily in the commercial interest of the ACLU-AZ.

As discussed above, news accounts underscore the substantial public interest in the records sought through this Request. Given the ongoing and widespread media attention to this issue, the records sought will significantly contribute to public understanding of an issue of profound public importance. Especially because little specific information has been made public about how local CBP Field Offices plan to enforce the Executive Order while also complying with the federal court orders, the records sought are certain to contribute significantly to the public's understanding of these issues.

⁴⁶ See also 6 C.F.R. § 5.5(e)(1)(ii).

⁴⁷ See also 6 C.F.R. § 5.11(k).

The ACLU-AZ is not filing this Request to further its commercial interest. As described above, any information disclosed by the ACLU as a result of this FOIA Request will be available to the public at no cost. Thus, a fee waiver would fulfill Congress's legislative intent in amending the FOIA. See Judicial Watch, Inc. v. Rossotti, 326 F.3d 1309, 1312 (D.C. Cir. 2003) ("Congress amended FOIA to ensure that it be liberally construed in favor of waivers for noncommercial requesters." (quotation marks omitted)).

B. The ACLU-AZ is a representative of the news media and the records are not sought for commercial use.

The ACLU-AZ also requests a waiver of search fees on the grounds that the ACLU-AZ qualifies as a "representative of the news media" and the records are not sought for commercial use. 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(ii)(II). The ACLU-AZ meets the statutory and regulatory definitions of a "representative of the news media" because it is an "entity that gathers information of potential interest to a segment of the public, uses its editorial skills to turn the raw materials into a distinct work, and distributes that work to an audience." 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(ii)(III);⁴⁸ see also Nat'l Sec. Archive v. U.S. Dep't of Defense, 880 F.2d 1381, 1387 (D.C. Cir. 1989) (finding that an organization that gathers information, exercises editorial discretion in selecting and organizing documents, "devises indices and finding aids," and "distributes the resulting work to the public" is a "representative of the news media" for purposes of the FOIA); Serv. Women's Action Network v. U.S. Dep't of Defense, 888 F. Supp. 2d 282 (D. Conn. 2012) (requesters, including ACLU, were representatives of the news media and thus qualified for fee waivers for FOIA requests to the Department of Defense and Department of Veterans Affairs); ACLU of Wash. v. U.S. Dep't of Justice, No. C09-0642RSL, 2011 WL 887731, at *10 (W.D. Wash. Mar. 10, 2011) (finding that the ACLU of Washington is an entity that "gathers information of potential interest to a segment of the public, uses its editorial skills to turn the raw materials into a distinct work, and distributes that work to an audience"); ACLU, 321 F. Supp. 2d at 30 n.5 (finding non-profit public interest group to be "primarily engaged in disseminating information"). The ACLU-AZ is therefore a "representative of the news media" for the same reasons it is "primarily engaged in the dissemination of information."

Furthermore, courts have found other organizations whose mission, function, publishing, and public education activities are similar in kind to the ACLU-AZ's to be "representatives of the news media" as well. See, e.g., Cause of Action v. IRS, 125 F. Supp. 3d 145 (D.C. Cir. 2015); Elec. Privacy Info. Ctr., 241 F. Supp. 2d at 10-15 (finding non-profit public interest group that disseminated an electronic newsletter and published books was a "representative of the news media" for purposes of the FOIA); Nat'l Sec. Archive, 880 F.2d at 1387; Judicial Watch, Inc. v. U.S. Dep't of Justice, 133 F. Supp. 2d 52, 53-54 (D.D.C. 2000) (finding Judicial Watch, self-described as a “public interest law firm,” a news media requester).⁴⁹

On account of these factors, fees associated with responding to FOIA requests are regularly waived for the ACLU as a “representative of the news media.”⁵⁰ As was true in those instances, the ACLU-AZ meets the requirements for a fee waiver here.

Pursuant to applicable statutes and regulations, the ACLU-AZ expects a determination regarding expedited processing within 10 days. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(E)(ii); 6 C.F.R. § 5.5(e)(4).

If the Request is denied in whole or in part, the ACLU-AZ asks that you justify all deletions by reference to specific FOIA exemptions. The ACLU-AZ expects the release of all segregable portions of otherwise exempt material. The ⁴⁹ Courts have found these organizations to be “representatives of the news media” even though they engage in litigation and lobbying activities beyond their dissemination of information / public education activities. See, e.g., Elec. Privacy Info. Ctr., 241 F. Supp. 2d 5; Nat’l Sec. Archive, 880 F.2d at 1387; see also Leadership Conference on Civil Rights, 404 F. Supp. 2d at 260; Judicial Watch, Inc., 133 F. Supp. 2d at 53-54.

⁵⁰ In May 2016, the FBI granted a fee-waiver request regarding a FOIA request issued to the DOJ for documents related to Countering Violent Extremism Programs. In April 2013, the National Security Division of the DOJ granted a fee-waiver request with respect to a request for documents relating to the FISA Amendments Act. Also in April 2013, the DOJ granted a fee-waiver request regarding a FOIA request for documents related to “national security letters” issued under the Electronic Communications Privacy Act. In August 2013, the FBI granted a fee-waiver request related to the same FOIA request issued to the DOJ. In June 2011, the DOJ National Security Division granted a fee waiver to the ACLU with respect to a request for documents relating to the interpretation and implementation of a section of the PATRIOT Act. In March 2009, the State Department granted a fee waiver to the ACLU with regard to a FOIA request for documents relating to the detention, interrogation, treatment, or prosecution of suspected terrorists. Likewise, in December 2008, the Department of Justice granted the ACLU a fee waiver with respect to the same request. In November 2006, the Department of Health and Human Services granted a fee waiver to the ACLU with regard to a FOIA request. In May 2005, the U.S. Department of Commerce granted a fee waiver to the ACLU with respect to its request for information regarding the radio-frequency identification chips in United States passports. In March 2005, the Department of State granted a fee waiver to the ACLU for a request regarding the use of immigration laws to exclude prominent non-citizen scholars and intellectuals from the country because of their political views, statements, or associations. In addition, the Department of Defense did not charge the ACLU fees associated with FOIA requests submitted by the ACLU in April 2007, June 2006, February 2006, and October 2003. The DOJ did not charge the ACLU fees associated with FOIA requests submitted by the ACLU in November 2007, December 2005, and December 2004. Finally, three separate agencies—the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review, and the DOJ Office of Information and Privacy—did not charge the ACLU fees associated with a FOIA request submitted by the ACLU in August 2002.

ACLU-AZ reserves the right to appeal a decision to withhold any information or deny a waiver of fees.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter. Please furnish the applicable records to:
