The Court has reviewed the parties joint e-mail seeking a pre-discovery motion telephonic conference related to Respondents assertion of the deliberative process privilege over a small subset of the documents produced. Given the impending discovery cutoff (January 29, 2020) and the parties agreement that in camera review is necessary, the Court dispenses with the pre-discovery motion teleconference requirement and sets the following briefing schedule: Respondents, who bear the burden of demonstrating that the privilege applies, will file their opening brief on or before Wednesday, January 8, 2020 and shall submit the disputed documents for in camera review at that time; Petitioners will file their response on or before Tuesday, January 14, 2020; Respondents reply, if any, is limited to five pages and is due on or before Thursday, January 16, 2020. 02/20/2020	114	MINUTES OF Discovery Hearing held before Magistrate Judge Gail J. Standish regarding in camera documents reviewed by the Court. The narrow issue before the Court is whether certain redactions applied by Respondent to twenty-five documents, which the Court reviewed in camera, are proper. Specifically, Petitioners challenge whether, in asserting the deliberative process privilege as to these documents (in whole or in part), Respondents fulfilled their obligation to produce reasonably severable factual material. See F.T.C. v. Warner Commc'ns Inc. , 742 F.2d 1156, 1161 (9th Cir. 1984). The documents at issue are primarily drafts of memoranda and internal analyses, and, in general, are documents to which the deliberative process privilege applies.
