12/09/2015	81	ORDER DENYING 55 Motion for More Definite Statement. Rule 12(e) permits the court to order plaintiffs to file a more definite statement of their claims if the complaint is so vague or ambiguous that the party cannot reasonably prepare a response. The complaint in this case is not such a pleading because lack of detail prompting a more definite statement is this complaints problem. The complaint sets out plaintiffs' claims in sufficient detail to permit defendants to respond. Defendants can reasonably be required to prepare an answer or other appropriate response to the complaint. If the parties' Rule 12 motions to dismiss relating to these movants are denied, these defendants must answer no later than fourteen days from entry of the court's order denying all pending Rule 12 motions to dismiss relating to these movants. 05/03/2016	120	ORDER - Having reviewed the parties' motion 106 , the Court has determined that a status conference is unnecessary. Local Civil Rule 23.1(B) shall not apply to this case, and the Court will schedule a class certification hearing in due course. Accordingly, the judicial defendants' motion 105 to dismiss plaintiffs' class action allegations is DENIED at this time. If the Court resolves defendants other motions to dismiss, it will notify the parties regarding when a motion for class certification is appropriate. In addition, the Court GRANTS the parties' motion 113 to continue all pretrial deadlines. Signed by Judge Sarah S. Vance on 5/3/16. (jjs) (Entered: 05/03/2016)

05/05/2016	122	ORDER – Defendants have filed numerous motions to dismiss in this matter. Since plaintiffs filing of their First Am Complaint, defendants have had sufficient time to evaluate the substance of plaintiffs' allegations. As of May 5, 2016, the Court will not consider any newly filed motions attacking the face of plaintiffs' complaint under Rule 12(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.. Signed by Judge Sarah S. Vance on 5/5/16.(jjs) (Entered: 05/05/2016)
05/11/2016	123	ORDER AND REASONS granting 92 Motion to Dismiss and dismisses plaintiffs' claims against the Orleans Parish Criminal District Court. The Court also dismisses plaintiffs' claims against the court's Judicial Administrator, Robert [REDACTED] in his official capacity because when a civil rights plaintiff's claims against an entity "fail for a jurisdictional, procedural pleading defect," any official capacity claim against an individual representative of that entity also fails. The only remaining claims against the "judicial defendants" are the declaratory relief claim against Kazik, in his individual capacity, and the declaratory relief claims against the thirteen Criminal District Court judges.. An in-person settlement conference was conducted on June 27, 2016, before the undersigned magistrate judge. After numerous follow up discussions via telephone, I conducted two settlement conferences on this date separately with representatives of both sides. Participating were: Alex Karakatsanis, counsel for plaintiffs (via telephone); Celeste Brustowicz, counsel for the judicial defendants, with defendant Honorable Franz Zibilich, Judge of the Orleans Parish Criminal District Court (both in person). Each side has submitted to the court written settlement position papers/proposals. (mm) (Entered: 08/29/2016)

		The competing proposals contain little common ground and not much basis to conclude that the parties would reach compromise, if left to their own devices. Accordingly, I outlined for each side a twelve-point "mediator's proposal" out a framework for possible settlement between plaintiffs and the judicial defendants only. Counsel for both sides v consider the "mediator's proposal," discuss it with their clients and report their responses orally to me. (my) (Entered: 08/30/2016)

05/18/2017	246	ORDER granting 242 Motion for Extension of Deadlines; granting 243 Motion to Expedite. The Court's scheduling order of March, 14 2017 is MODIFIED as follows: (1) the parties shall file cross-motions for summary judgment on Counts 5 and 6 on or before June 20, 2017; (2) responses to these motions shall be submitted on or before July 5, 2017; (3) replies shall be submitted on or before July 19, 2017. All other provisions of the Court's March 14, 2017 order remain unchanged. Signed by Judge Sarah S. Vance on 5/18/2017. (cg) (Entered: 05/18/2017)
05/23/2017	247	Minute Entry for proceedings held before Magistrate Judge Joseph C. Wilkinson, Jr: Status Conference held on 5/23/2017. At my direction, a status conference was conducted on this date in this case. Participating were Alec Karakatsanis and Mateya Kelley, representing plaintiffs; Celeste Brustowicz, representing defendants. The parties have crafted an extensive stipulation of facts upon which they will base dispositive motions. They cannot agree upon a few additional stipulations proposed by defendants. I have conferred with Judge Vance concerning these matters. While full dispositive motion practice and briefing might conceivably indicate otherwise at some later date, it appears at this time that the proposed stipulations as to which agreement cannot be reached are not material to most of what is anticipated to be addressed by the motions to defendants' proposed facts relating to its anticipated "voluntary cessation" motion, defendants are instructed to submit their motion addressed to that issue with one or more affidavits or other evidentiary materials, and plaintiffs may respond in any manner they deem appropriate, including the procedure contemplated by Fed. R. Civ. 56(d). (my)(NEF: HON. SARAH S. VANCE) (Entered: 05/23/2017)
