03/19/2019	161	ORDER: The 158 Motion for Protective Order (the "Motion") filed by the City of Baton Rouge ("Movant") is DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE for failure to fully comply with FRCP 37(a)(1). Although Movant certifies that counsel for the parties "conferred in a good–faith effort to resolve the discovery matters that are the subject of this motion between December 12, 2018 through March 13, 2019, R. Doc. 158, p. 2, Plaintiffs assert in response to the Motion that they "do not object, in principle, to the entry of a protective order" but that the scope of the order proposed by Movant is too broad. R. Doc. 160, p. 1. Considering Plaintiffs' representations, it appears that counsel for the parties have not exhausted their conferral obligations. The parties are instructed to confer in an effort to resolve the issues raised in the Motion without the necessity of court intervention, as required under FRCP 37(a)(1).
