05/04/2018	117	ORDER [Regarding Telephonic Access to Court Conferences]: By letter dated May 3, 2018 (Docket No. 106), the parties in this case requested permission for certain counsel to appear telephonically at the initial pretrial conference on May 9, 2018. The request is hereby granted. To that end, the Court has arranged for the use of CourtCall, an independent conference call company, to enable counsel who have noticed an appearance on ECF to listen to conferences in this litigation, including but not limited to the conference scheduled for 3:00 p.m. on May 9, 2018. In order to use CourtCall to participate in a conference, a party must call CourtCall's reservation desk at (888) 882-6878 prior to the conference to schedule an appearance. CourtCall will provide each participant with written confirmation of his or her registration and a number for the participant to call at the appointed time. Parties are advised that there is a fee to use CourtCall. All CourtCall participants will be in "listen-only" mode. That is, unless the Court grants leave to counsel in advance of a conference, any counsel who wishes to speak at a conference must be physically present in the courtroom. (Signed by Judge Jesse M. Furman on 5/4/2018) (ras) (Entered: 05/04/2018)

06/08/2018	172	ORDER: On June 6, 2018, five organizations filed suit against the United States Department of Commerce, the Bureau of the Census, and related individual defendants. (18-CV-5025, Docket No. 1). Plaintiffs submitted a Related Case Statement (18-CV-5025, Docket No. 7), indicating their view that the case is related to 18-CV-2921, and this Court accepted it as related. Counsel in both cases shall promptly confer and, no later than June 12, 2018, shall submit a joint letter (or, if that is impracticable, competing letters) expressing their views on (1) whether and to what extent the two cases should be consolidated (pursuant to Rule 42 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure) or otherwise coordinated; (2) whether Defendants anticipate filing any motions in 18-CV-5025 and, if so, a proposed schedule for such motions (mindful of the schedule in 18-CV-2921); and (3) whether (and, if so, when) the Court should hold a conference to discuss those issues or any others. The Court notes that Plaintiffs in the new case indicate that they "will not seek to alter the existing schedule in the State of New York case." (18-CV-5025, Docket No. 7). For that reason and others, unless and until the Court says otherwise, the deadlines for briefing and oral argument in 18-CV-2921 remain in effect. (Signed by Judge Jesse M. Furman on 6/8/2018) (mro) (Entered: 06/08/2018)

06/13/2018	180	ORDER: It is hereby ORDERED that: The Court defers the question of whether the two cases should be formally consolidated pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 42(a). For now, the Court finds that the cases should be consolidated or coordinated for purposes of case management with respect to scheduling and discovery (if the Court determines that Plaintiffs are entitled to discovery beyond of the administrative record). The briefing and oral argument schedule with respect to Defendants' Motion to Dismiss in 18-CV-2921 (Docket No. 154) remains in effect. Accordingly, Plaintiffs' opposition is due today and Defendants' reply is due by June 22, 2018. The Court will hear oral argument on that motion on July 3, 2018, at 10 a.m. (See 18-CV-2921, Docket No. 137). The New York Immigration Coalition ("NYIC") Plaintiffs shall submit a five-page single-spaced letter brief by June 26, 2018, concerning whether and to what extent the Court should permit discovery in these matters outside of the administrative record. The NYIC Plaintiffs are also granted leave to participate in the July 3, 2018 hearing to the extent that it concerns the question of discovery. The following briefing schedule shall apply to Defendants' anticipated motion to dismiss in 18-CV-5025: Defendants shall submit any such motion by June 29, 2018; Plaintiffs' opposition shall be filed by July 9, 2018; and Defendants' reply, if any, shall be filed by July 13, 2018. The Court will advise the parties after reviewing their written submissions if it intends to hold oral argument on that motion. (Motions due by 6/29/2018. Responses due by 7/9/2018. Replies due by 7/13/2018.) (Oral Argument set for 7/3/2018 at 10:00 AM before Judge Jesse M. Furman.) (Signed by Judge Jesse M. Furman on 6/13/2018) (ras) (Entered: 06/13/2018)

06/13/2018	181	ORDER: The Order entered earlier today mistakenly stated that oral argument on July 3, 2018, would begin at 10 a.m. Per the Court's Order of May 9, 2018, the Court will hear oral argument beginning at 9:30 a.m. - NOT 10 a.m. SO ORDERED. 07/19/2018	204	ORDER denying without prejudice 201 Letter Motion for Discovery. Plaintiffs' letter motion is denied, substantially for the reasons set forth in 203 Defendants' letter of earlier today. With respect to the first request, to the extent that Plaintiffs can identify a narrower category of particular evidence that they need earlier in order to prepare for a particular deposition or depositions, they may reapply for relief - but only after conferring with defense counsel. With respect to the second request, the Court is skeptical of the need for additional deposition time based on the need to coordinate given the substantial overlap in claims among the cases. Regardless, the request is denied without prejudice to a new application only after a need becomes apparent in the course of a particular deposition or for a particular witness - and, again, only after conferring with defense counsel. 07/26/2018	215	OPINION AND ORDER re: (38 in 1:18-cv-05025-JMF) MOTION to Dismiss . filed by Wilbur L. Ross, United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, Ron S. Jarmin, (154 in 1:18-cv-02921-JMF) MOTION to Dismiss . filed by Wilbur L. Ross, Jr., United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, Ron S. Jarmin. Defendants' motions to dismiss are GRANTED in part and DENIED in part. First, the Court rejects Defendants' attempts to insulate Secretary Ross's decision to reinstate a question about citizenship on the 2020 census from judicial review. Granted, courts must give proper deference to the Secretary, but that does not mean that they lack authority to entertain claims like those pressed here. To the contrary, courts have a critical role to play in reviewing the conduct of the political branches to ensure that the census is conducted in a manner consistent with the Constitution and applicable law. Second, the Court concludes that Plaintiffs' claims under the Enumeration Clause which turn on whether Secretary Ross had the power to add a question about citizenship to the census and not on whether he exercised that power for impermissible reasons must be dismissed. Third, assuming the truth of their allegations and drawing all reasonable inferences in their favor, the Court finds that NGO Plaintiffs plausibly allege that Secretary Ross's decision to reinstate the citizenship question was motivated at least in part by discriminatory animus and will result in a discriminatory effect. Accordingly, their equal protection claim under the Due Process Clause (and Plaintiffs' APA claims, which Defendants did not substantively challenge) may proceed. None of that is to say that Plaintiffs will ultimately prevail in their challenge to Secretary Ross's decision to reinstate the citizenship question on the 2020 census. As noted, the Enumeration Clause and the Census Act grant him broad authority over the census, and Plaintiffs may not ultimately be able to prove that he exercised that authority in an unlawful manner. Put another way, the question at this stage of the proceedings is not whether the evidence supports Plaintiffs' claims, but rather whether Plaintiffs may proceed with discovery and, ultimately, to summary judgment or trial on their claims. The Court concludes that they may as to their claims under the APA and the Due Process Clause and, to that extent, Defendants' motions are denied. Per the Court's Order entered on July 5, 2018 (Docket No. 199), the deadline for the completion of fact and expert discovery in these cases is October 12, 2018, and the parties shall appear for a pretrial conference on September 14, 2018. The parties are reminded that, no later than the Thursday prior to the pretrial conference, they are to file on ECF a joint letter addressing certain issues. (See id. at 2-3). In that letter, the parties should also give their views with respect to whether the case should resolved by way of summary judgment or trial and whether the two cases should be consolidated for either of those purposes. 08/14/2018	241	ORDER terminating 220 Letter Motion to Compel. 08/26/2018	283	ORDER denying without prejudice 280 Motion to File Amicus Brief. The Court is not, at present, considering the substance of merits of Plaintiffs' claims in these cases. Accordingly, the proposed amicus brief (unlike the amicus briefs filed in connection with Defendants' motions to dismiss) would not aid the Court at this time. Accordingly, the motion for leave to file an amicus brief is denied - but without prejudice to renewal if or when the brief would be relevant to a matter under consideration by the Court. (HEREBY ORDERED by Judge Jesse M. Furman)(Text Only Order) (Furman, Jesse) (Entered: 08/26/2018)

08/29/2018	285	ORDER granting 284 Letter Motion for Extension of Time to Answer. The Court is skeptical that the Government's conceded "inadverten[ce]" qualifies as "good cause." Nevertheless, in light of Plaintiffs' consent and the presumption in favor of adjudication of disputes on the merits, the motion is granted. Defendants shall file their answer by August 31, 2018. 08/31/2018	287	ORDER: The Court's view is that, for the time being, there is no need to adopt additional procedures to promote coordination among the parallel cases beyond those adopted in the Court's August 4th Order. That said, counsel is cautioned that, in an effort to discourage the parties from seeking multiple bites at any particular apple, the Court will not lightly entertain efforts to relitigate discovery rulings made by one of the other Judges on an overlapping issue - unless the moving party can identify a material difference between Second Circuit law and the law of the applicable Judge's Circuit or a material factual difference between these cases and the applicable Judge's cases. If, at any time, counsel believe that additional coordination procedures are warranted, counsel should confer with counsel in all the cases and submit a joint letter to the Court.

09/06/2018	302	ORDER denying without prejudice 293 Letter Motion to Compel. In light of Plaintiffs' letter of earlier today indicating that Defendants are "prepared to provide certain of the relief sought" in the motion to compel interrogatory responses and to complete the administrative record (Docket No. 301), the motion to compel is denied without prejudice to renewal in the event that the parties discussions do not resolve the matter. (HEREBY ORDERED by Judge Jesse M. Furman)(Text Only Order) (Furman, Jesse) (Entered: 09/06/2018)
09/06/2018	303	ORDER denying 286 Letter Motion for Discovery requesting leave to seek third-party discovery from Kris Kobach. Substantially for the reasons set forth in Defendants' letter (18-CV-2921, Docket No. 300 ; 18-CV-5025, Docket No. 124), Plaintiffs' motion to conduct limited document discovery and a deposition of non-party Kris Kobach is DENIED. Among other things, given the timing and nature of the communications between Mr. Kobach and Secretary Ross; the fact that Mr. Kobach is one of many people outside the Commerce Department who communicated with Secretary Ross about the citizenship question (see, e.g., A.R. 1770 (detailing correspondence regarding the citizenship question with, among others, the Indiana and West Virginia Secretaries of State, the Louisiana Attorney General, and the Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee); the fact that the substance of Mr. Kobach's views is already reflected in the record (see, e.g., A.R. 763, 1141); and the discovery that Plaintiffs have gotten, or will get, directly from the Commerce and Justice Departments, the Court concludes that the discovery sought is neither "necessary" nor "appropriate." 09/21/2018	344	MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER re: 324 LETTER MOTION for Discovery Motion for Protective Order re: Non-Party Deposition Subpoenas addressed to Judge Jesse M. Furman from Davin M. Rosborough dated 09/17/2018 filed by New York Immigration Coalition, American-Arab Anti-Discrimination Committee, Make the Road-New York, ADC Research Institute, CASA de Maryland. Upon review of the parties' letters, the Court concludes that a conference is not necessary. Instead, Plaintiffs' request for a protective order is granted in part and denied in part. That said, the Court concludes that the depositions and Defendants' use of the depositions should be limited in several respects. First, the depositions shall be limited in scope to where the individual members live and whether they use any services that could be adversely affected by a census undercount. Any questions beyond those topics are irrelevant and not proportional to the needs of this case. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1). Second, in light of that limited scope, each deposition is limited to no more than one hour in length. See, e.g., Arista Records LLC v. Lime Grp. LLC , No. 06-CV-5936, 2008 WL 1752254, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 16, 2008) ("A district court has broad discretion to set the length of depositions appropriate to the circumstances of the case."). Third, counsel shall confer in an effort to schedule the depositions so as to minimize the burdens on the witnesses. And finally, Defendants shall refer to the witnesses only by their initials in public filings to minimize any burden on them. (See Defs.' Letter 3). The Clerk of Court is directed to terminate Docket No. 324. SO ORDERED. (Signed by Judge Jesse M. Furman on 9/21/2018) (ne) (Entered: 09/21/2018)
09/21/2018	345	Vacated as moot as per Judge's Order dated 1/15/2019, Doc. #574 in case no. 18cv2921 OPINION AND ORDER re: 314 LETTER MOTION for Discovery requesting leave to depose Secretary of Commerce Wilbur L. Ross, Jr. addressed to Judge Jesse M. Furman from Matthew Colangelo dated September 10, 2018 filed by State Of New York. In short, the public interest weighs heavily in favor of granting Plaintiffs' application for an order requiring Secretary Ross to sit for a deposition. That said, mindful of the burdens that a deposition will impose on Secretary Ross and the scope of the existing record (including the fact that Secretary Ross has already testified before Congress about his decision to add the citizenship question), the Court limits the deposition to four hours in length, see, e.g., Arista Records LLC v. Lime Grp. LLC, No. 06-CV-5936 (GEL), 2008 WL 1752254, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 16, 2008) ("A district court has broad discretion to set the length of depositions appropriate to the circumstances of the case."), and mandates that it be conducted at the Department of Commerce or another location convenient for Secretary Ross. The Court, however, rejects Defendants' contention that the deposition "should be held only after all other discovery is concluded," (Defs.' Letter 3), in no small part because the smaller the window, the harder it will undoubtedly be to schedule the deposition. Finally, the Court declines Defendants' request to "stay its order for 14 days or until Defendants' anticipated mandamus petition is resolved, whichever is later." (Id.). Putting aside the fact that Defendants do not even attempt to establish that the circumstances warranting a stay are present, see New York, 2018 WL 4279467, at *1 (discussing the standards for a stay pending a mandamus petition), the October 12, 2018 discovery deadline is rapidly approaching and Defendants themselves have acknowledged that time is of the essence, see id. at *3. Moreover, the deposition will not take place immediately; instead, Plaintiffs will need to notice it and counsel will presumably need to confer about scheduling and other logistics. In the meantime, Defendants will have ample time to seek mandamus review and a stay pending such review from the Circuit. The Clerk of Court is directed to terminate Docket No. 314. SO ORDERED. 09/25/2018	351	ORDER of USCA (Certified Copy). USCA Case Number 18-2652 ; 18-2659. Petitioners seek a writ of mandamus directing the halt of discovery in two consolidated district court cases. Upon due consideration, it is hereby ORDERED that the mandamus petitions are DENIED, and the stay of the district courts order compelling the deposition of Acting Assistant Attorney General John Gore is LIFTED. Mandamus is "a drastic and extraordinary remedy reserved for really extraordinary causes." Balintulo v. Daimler AG , 727 F.3d 174, 186 (2d Cir. 2013) (quoting Cheney v. U.S. Dist. Ct. for D.C. , 542 U.S. 367, 380 (2004)). "We issue the writ only in 'exceptional circumstances amounting to a judicial usurpation of power or a clear abuse of discretion.'" In re Roman Catholic Diocese of Albany, N.Y., Inc. , 745 F.3d 30, 35 (2d Cir. 2014) (quoting Cheney , 542 U.S. at 380). To obtain mandamus relief, a petitioner must show that (1) it has "no other adequate means to attain the relief [it] desires," (2) "the writ is appropriate under the circumstances," and (3) "the 'right to issuance of the writ is clear and indisputable.'" Id. (alteration in original) (quoting Cheney , 542 U.S. at 38081). "Because the writ of mandamus is such an extraordinary remedy, our analysis of whether the petitioning party has a 'clear and indisputable' right to the writ is necessarily more deferential to the district court than our review on direct appeal." Linde v. Arab Bank, PLC, 706 F.3d 92, 10809 (2d Cir. 2013). We assume without deciding that Petitioners do not have another "adequate means to attain the relief" they seek, and that the writ would be "appropriate under the circumstances" if Petitioners were entitled to it. See Cheney, 542 U.S. at 38081 (internal quotation marks omitted). However, mandamus is not warranted here because Petitioners have not persuaded us that their "right to issuance of the writ is clear and indisputable." Id. at 381 (internal quotation marks omitted). The district court's discovery orders do not amount to "a judicial usurpation of power or a clear abuse of discretion." In re Roman Catholic Diocese of Albany, N.Y., Inc., 745 F.3d at 35 (quoting Cheney, 542 U.S. at 380). The district court applied controlling case law and made careful factual findings supporting its conclusion that the initial administrative record was incomplete and that limited extra-record discovery was warranted. See Nat'l Audubon Soc'y v. Hoffman, 132 F.3d 7, 14 (2d Cir. 1997) (stating that, "[d]espite the general 'record rule,'" extra-record discovery "may be appropriate when there has been a strong showing in support of a claim of bad faith or improper behavior on the part of agency decisionmakers or where the absence of formal administrative findings makes such investigation necessary in order to determine the reasons for the agency's choice"). We cannot say that the district court clearly abused its discretion in concluding that plaintiffs made a sufficient showing of "bad faith or improper behavior" to warrant limited extra-record discovery. See id. Nor did the district court clearly abuse its discretion in ordering the deposition of Acting Assistant Attorney General Gore given his apparent authorship of the December 2017 Department of Justice letter. See Lederman v. New York City Dep't of Parks & Recreation, 731 F.3d 199, 203 (2d Cir. 2013) (holding that, "to depose a high-ranking government official, a party must demonstrate exceptional circumstances justifying the deposition for example, that the official has unique first-hand knowledge related to the litigated claims or that the necessary information cannot be obtained through other, less burdensome or intrusive means"). We find no clear abuse of discretion in the district court's determination that Acting Assistant Attorney General Gore's deposition is warranted because he "possesses relevant information that cannot be obtained from another source" related to plaintiffs' allegations that the Secretary used the December 2017 Department of Justice letter as a pretextual legal justification for adding the citizenship question. Addendum at 2; New York v. U.S. Dep't of Commerce, 18-CV-2921 (JMF), 18-CV-5025 (JMF), 2018 WL 4279467, at *4 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 7, 2018). Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe, Clerk USCA for the Second Circuit. 09/27/2018	355	STATUS REPORT. Plaintiffs status report regarding the deposition of Secretary Wilbur L. Ross, Jr. Document filed by State Of New York.(Colangelo, Matthew) (Entered: 09/27/2018)

09/27/2018	356	ORDER granting 338 Letter Motion seeking leave to seek third-party discovery from Mark Neuman. Substantially for the reasons set forth in Plaintiffs' letter motion, their request for an order allowing limited document discovery and a deposition of non-party Mark Neuman is GRANTED. As set forth in Plaintiffs' letter, the record suggests that Mr. Neuman was a key external advisor on matters relating to reinstatement of the citizenship question. Further, much of the substance of his communications with Secretary Ross and other high-level Commerce Department officials appears not to be part of the existing record. Accordingly, the Court finds that the discovery Plaintiffs seek is both necessary and appropriate for a fair adjudication of the claims in these cases. (HEREBY ORDERED by Judge Jesse M. Furman)(Text Only Order) (Furman, Jesse) (Entered: 09/27/2018)
09/27/2018	357	ORDER with respect to 343 and 349 Motions to Compel Compel Defendants to produce documents withheld on grounds of attorney-client and/or deliberative process privilege. To enable the Court to evaluate the parties' arguments and to ensure a proper record, Defendants shall - no later than tomorrow, September 28, 2018, at 10 a.m. - submit, by e-mail to the e-mail address set forth in the Court's Individual Rules and Practices for Civil Cases, the documents at issue in each of Plaintiffs' motions to compel for in camera review by the Court. (To avoid confusion, Defendants should send a separate email for each letter motion - that is, the first e-mail should contain the documents at issue in Docket No. 343 and the second e-mail should contain the documents at issue in Docket No. 349 .) For documents that were produced in redacted form, Defendants shall highlight the portions of the documents that were redacted. (HEREBY ORDERED by Judge Jesse M. Furman)(Text Only Order) (Furman, Jesse) (Entered: 09/27/2018)

09/28/2018	364	ORDER of USCA (Certified Copy) USCA Case Number 18-2856. As part of its petitions for writ of mandamus, the Government seeks an administrative stay of the depositions of Secretary of Commerce Wilbur Ross and John Gore, the Acting Assistant Attorney General of the Department of Justice's Civil Rights Division. IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the deposition of Secretary Ross is stayed pending determination of the petitions. Answers to the petitions must be filed by October 4, 2018 at noon. The petitions, as they pertain to Secretary Ross, are REFERRED to the motions panel sitting on Tuesday, October 9, 2018. To the extent the Government seeks a stay of Acting Attorney General Gore's deposition, that request is REFERRED to the panel that determined the petitions in docket numbers 18-2652 and 18-2659. 09/29/2018	360	LETTER RESPONSE in Opposition to Motion addressed to Judge Jesse M. Furman from Matthew Colangelo dated September 29, 2018 re: 359 LETTER MOTION to Stay Discovery Pending Supreme Court Review addressed to Judge Jesse M. Furman from Carol Federighi dated 09/28/2018. . Document filed by State Of New York. (Attachments: # 1 Exhibit 1 (Plaintiffs' letter of 9/25/18 regarding discovery), # 2 Exhibit 2 (Defendants' emergency motion for immediate administrative stay), # 3 Exhibit 3 (CA2 order of 9/28/18 regarding administrative stay motion))(Colangelo, Matthew) (Entered: 09/29/2018)
09/30/2018	361	ORDER granting in part and denying in part 349 Letter Motion to Compel Defendants to produce documents withheld on grounds of attorney-client and deliberative process privilege. Upon review of the disputed documents in camera, Plaintiffs' letter motion seeking an order to compel production of documents withheld on a claim of attorney-client privilege is GRANTED in part and DENIED in part. In particular, the Court finds that the document bearing Bates No. 9190 must be disclosed in unredacted form, substantially for the reasons stated in Plaintiffs' letter motion. (See Docket No. 349 , at 2-3). The Court upholds Defendants' invocation of the attorney-client privilege with respect to the remaining disputed documents, substantially for the reasons stated in Defendants' opposition. (See Docket No. 354 , at 1-2). No later than October 1, 2018, Defendants shall disclose an unredacted copy of the document bearing Bates No. 9190. The Clerk of Court is directed to file and maintain the rest of the documents under seal. (HEREBY ORDERED by Judge Jesse M. Furman)(Text Only Order) (Furman, Jesse) (Entered: 09/30/2018)

09/30/2018	362	MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER re: 359 LETTER MOTION to Stay Discovery Pending Supreme Court Review addressed to Judge Jesse M. Furman from Carol Federighi dated 09/28/2018 filed by United States Department of Commerce. Defendants' latest application for stay of discovery in these cases, including the depositions of Secretary Ross and Assistant Attorney General Gore, is DENIED. The application - which does not even bother to recite the requirements for a stay, let alone attempt to show that those requirements have been met - is hard to understand as anything more than a pro forma box-checking exercise for purposes of seeking relief in the Supreme Court. This Court has already rejected Defendants' requests for stays of discovery altogether, of the Assistant Attorney General Gore's deposition, and of Secretary Ross's deposition, (see Docket No. 308 ; Docket No. 345 , at 12), and it adheres to its views on the merits of those requests. To the extent that Defendants request a stay of all discovery, their application is particularly frivolous - if not outrageous - given their inexplicable (and still unexplained) two-month delay in seeking that relief, see New York v. U.S. Dept of Commerce, No. 18-CV-2921 (JMF), 2018 WL 4279467, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 7, 2018), and their representation to the Second Circuit only last week that they were not actually seeking a stay of all discovery, (see Docket No. 360 , at 1-2). If anything, the notion that Defendants will suffer irreparable harm absent a stay of all discovery is even more far-fetched now than it was when first requested on August 31, 2018, as the parties are nearly three months into discovery and only days away from completing it. The Court will not permit (and doubts that either the Second Circuit or the Supreme Court would permit) Defendants to use their arguably timely challenges to the Orders authorizing depositions of Assistant Attorney General Gore and Secretary Ross to bootstrap an untimely - and almost moot - challenge to the July 3rd Order authorizing extra-record discovery, particularly when only nine business days remain before the close of such discovery and much apparently remains to be done. (See Docket No. [360-1]). Unless and until this Court's Orders are stayed by a higher court, Defendants shall comply with their discovery obligations completely and expeditiously; the Court will not look kindly on any delay, and - absent relief from a higher court - will not extend discovery beyond October 12th given the November 5th trial date. As for the deposition of Secretary Ross, which has been administratively stayed by the Court of Appeals (see Docket No. [360-3]), the Court takes Defendants at their word when they say that the deposition "can be conducted expeditiously should [the Second Circuit] deny the government's petition," (Pets. for Mandamus at 32, Nos. 18-2856 & 18-2857 (2d Cir. Sept. 27, 2018)). In light of that representation, and the discovery deadline of October 12, 2018, Defendants should endeavor to ensure that Secretary Ross remains available for a deposition on October 11, 2018, so that the deposition may take place before discovery closes in the event that the administrative stay is lifted by that date and Defendants' efforts to obtain permanent relief fail. For the foregoing reasons, Defendants' latest application for stay of discovery in these cases, "including" the depositions of Secretary Ross and Assistant Attorney General Gore, is DENIED. The Clerk of Court is directed to terminate Docket No. 359 . (Signed by Judge Jesse M. Furman on 9/30/2018) Filed In Associated Cases: 1:18-cv-02921-JMF, 1:18-cv-05025-JMF(ab) Modified on 9/30/2018 (ab). (Entered: 09/30/2018)

09/30/2018	363	ORDER regarding 333 and 341 Parties' Letters concerning the appropriateness of summary judgment. Upon review of the parties' letters, the Court remains firmly convinced that a trial will be necessary to resolve the claims in this case. First, the cases cited by Plaintiffs make clear that APA claims may properly be heard at trial where, as appears to be the case here, there is a need to make credibility determinations in connection with allegations of pretext or an improper government purpose, see, e.g., Buffalo Cent. Terminal v. U.S., 886 F. Supp. 1031, 1037, 1047-48 (W.D.N.Y. 1995), or where there are disputes involving competing experts, see, e.g., Cuomo v. Baldrige, 674 F. Supp. 1089, 1093 (S.D.N.Y. 1987). (See Docket No. 341 , at 1-4). Second, it seems quite clear from the existing record that there will be genuine disputes of material fact precluding entry of summary judgment. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(a). Given the foregoing, the Court believes that it would be far more efficient - and more consistent with Defendants' own interest in a speedy resolution of the claims in this case - to proceed directly to trial and that Defendants would be far better off devoting their time and resources to preparing their pre-trial materials than to preparing summary judgment papers. That said, the Court will not bar Defendants from making a motion for summary judgment if they wish to spend their time and resources preparing one. Any such motion shall be filed by October 19, 2018; any opposition to such a motion shall be filed by October 31, 2018; and no reply shall be filed without prior leave of Court. All other dates and deadlines - including the November 5th trial date - remain in effect. (See Docket No. 323). SO ORDERED. (Signed by Judge Jesse M. Furman on 9/30/2018) (Text Only Order)(Furman, Jesse) (Entered: 09/30/2018)

10/10/2018	372	ORDER of USCA (Certified Copy) USCA Case Number 18-2652, 18-2659, 18-2856, 18-2857. Petitioners have renewed their request for a stay of discovery in Nos. 18-2652 and 18-2659, including the deposition of Acting Assistant Attorney General Gore, in light of the October 5, 2018 order of the United States Supreme Court denying their application for a stay. That order denied Petitioners' application "without prejudice, provided that the Court of Appeals will afford sufficient time for either party to seek relief in this Court before the depositions in question are taken." In re Department of Commerce, Sup. Ct. No. 18A350 (Oct. 5, 2018) (order of Ginsburg, J.). In light of the Supreme Court's order, the deposition of Acting Assistant Attorney General Gore is hereby temporarily stayed for thirty-six hours from the filing of this order. The application for stay presented to JUSTICE GINSBURG and by her referred to the Court is granted in part and denied in part. The application is granted as to the order of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York dated September 21, 2018, which is stayed through October 29, 2018 at 4 p.m. The application is denied as to the orders of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York dated July 3,2018 and August 17, 2018. If the applicants file a petition for a writ of certiorari or a petition for a writ of mandamus with respect to the stayed order by or before October 29, 2018 at 4 p.m., the stay will remain in effect until disposition of such petition by this Court. Should the petition be denied, this stay shall terminate automatically. In the event the petition is granted, the stay shall terminate upon the sending down of the judgment of this Court. The denial of the stay with respect to the remaining orders does not preclude the applicants from making arguments with respect to those orders. 10/25/2018	403	ORDER denying 389 Motion to authorize remote trial testimony or de bene esse trial depositions of Commerce Department officials. Plaintiffs' motion is denied substantially for the reasons set forth in 400 Defendants' opposition letter. The Court is skeptical that Rules 43 and 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure authorize the Court to require the witnesses at issue to testify remotely via videotape and, regardless, concludes that Plaintiffs cannot show "good cause" to proceed in such a manner, Fed. R. Civ. P. 43(a), given, among other things, that they chose this forum to bring their cases, presumably knowing that certain officials would be beyond the Court's subpoena power. In the final analysis, at most, the disclosure of documents after the depositions at issue had been taken might have justified granting leave to reopen those depositions. But Plaintiffs failed to seek that relief (if they even do in this motion) until the eve of the discovery deadline, and thus cannot demonstrate "good cause" to grant that relief now, with literally hours remaining before discovery ends. See, e.g., Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(b)(4) ("A schedule may be modified only for good cause and with the judge's consent."); Grochowski v. Phoenix Const. , 318 F.3d 80, 86 (2d Cir. 2003) ("A finding of good cause depends on the diligence of the moving party"). (HEREBY ORDERED by Judge Jesse M. 10/30/2018	452	ORDER denying 387 Motion to Preclude Expert Testimony. Upon review of the parties' submissions, the Court denies Plaintiffs' motion to preclude, substantially for the reasons set forth in 404 Defendants' opposition. The Court is unpersuaded that Defendants violated Rule 26 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and, to the extent there was a violation, it was harmless. Further, given that any trial would be without a jury, the Court need not rule on Plaintiffs' arguments under Rule 702 of the Federal Rules of Evidence now. Instead, the Court will consider those arguments in evaluating Dr. Abowd's testimony at trial. (HEREBY ORDERED by Judge Jesse M. Furman)(Text Only Order) (Furman, Jesse) (Entered: 10/30/2018)

11/04/2018	476	ORDER re: 463 Defendants' Objections to Plaintiffs' Direct Testimony; and 474 Plaintiffs' Responses to Defendants' Objections. Upon review of the parties' submissions, Defendants' objections to the affidavits of Steven Choi, Evelyn Rodriguez, and Monica Sarmiento are all overruled. Hearsay is defined as an out-of-court statement offered "to prove the truth of the matter asserted." Fed. R. Evid. 801(c). It is black-letter law that statements offered to prove state of mind, statements offered to prove an effect on the listener or others, and questions are not hearsay. In light of those well-established principles, and the clear purpose of the witnesses' proffered testimony, Defendants' hearsay objections are utterly lacking in merit (to the extent that they are even based on out-of-court statements at all). Defendants' foundation and undisclosed expert testimony objections fare no better, particularly if the witnesses' supplemental affidavits submitted yesterday are considered. The parties should immediately confer with respect to the need for the witnesses to appear in person tomorrow in light of the foregoing rulings. Further, Defendants should be prepared in the morning to address their objections to Plaintiffs' remaining witnesses - namely, whether they should file a revised set of objections in light of the foregoing rulings (as well as any objections they may have to Plaintiffs' supplemental affidavits). 11/16/2018	538	ORDER denying 521 Letter Motion for Discovery; granting in part and denying in part 522 Motion to Admit Trial Exhibits into Evidence. Plaintiffs' motion to include additional documents in the Administrative Record (Docket No. 521) is DENIED for the reasons given on the record at trial on November 15, 2018. Plaintiffs' motion to admit certain trial exhibits into evidence (Docket No. 522) is GRANTED in part and DENIED in part for the reasons given on the record at trial on November

		15, 2018. With respect to the exhibits as to which the Court had reserved judgment namely, PX-347, PX-377, PX-383, PX-392, PX-395, PX-396, PX-401, and PX-413 Defendants' hearsay objections are overruled, as there is no dispute that each exhibit is a statement by a party's "employee on a matter within the scope of that relationship and while it existed." Fed. R. Evid. 801(d)(2)(D). In the Court's judgment, the disclaimer on each exhibit affects the weight, but not the admissibility, of the evidence. An analogy is instructive: Consider a document authored by a corporate party's employee setting forth his or her "own" views on a matter for discussion within the company. Even if the employee's views were shared solely to stimulate discussion and did not represent the views of the company itself, there is no question that such a document would not be hearsay pursuant to Rule 801(d)(2)(D) of the Federal Rules of Evidence. So too the articles written by Census Bureau employees on matters within the scope of their employment relationship are not hearsay, even though they contain disclaimers indicating that the views expressed are "not necessarily" those of the Census Bureau. With those rulings, the trial record is now closed, subject to the caveats discussed on the record at trial on November 15, 2018 including that, as jointly stipulated by the parties on the record, the Court may reopen the trial record for the purpose of obtaining and including Secretary Ross's testimony in the event that the Supreme Court's stay of the Court's Order compelling that testimony is dissolved before the Court issues a final decision. No later than November 19, 2018, Plaintiffs shall submit an agreed-upon exhibit list updated to reflect (1) which exhibits were admitted into evidence (and when) and (2) whether those exhibits appear in the Administrative Record (and, if so, where). The Clerk of Court is directed to terminate Docket Nos. 521 and 522. SO ORDERED. (Signed by Judge Jesse M. Furman on 11/16/18) (yv) (Entered: 11/16/2018)

11/26/2018	547	ORDER: Given the length and breadth of the parties' post-trial briefing, the Court provides the following preliminary guidance in advance of tomorrow's oral arguments. First, the Court will allow one lawyer from each side between 20 and 30 minutes to make an opening argument on issues of counsels choosing. Thereafter, the Court plans to proceed in greater depth issue by issue, hearing on each issue from one side and then the other. (The Court will hear from only one lawyer per side per issue, but will allow different lawyers to address different issues.) Although the parties should be prepared to address all of the issues raised in their post-trial briefing, the Court anticipates covering at least the following issues: ripeness; standing; the merits of Plaintiffs' arguments regarding 13 U.S.C. § 6 and the implications (if any) of their failure to cite that provision in their Complaints; Defendants' arguments concerning 13 U.S.C. § 141(f); whether Secretary Ross's decision was arbitrary and capricious; whether there is evidence of unconstitutional discriminatory animus; and the appropriate nature and scope of any remedy in this case. At the conclusion of the argument, the Court will address whether there is any need for additional briefing. SO ORDERED. (Signed by Judge Jesse M. 01/15/2019	574	FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW: The Court concludes that Secretary of Commerce Wilbur L. Ross Jr.'s March 26, 2018 decision to add a question about citizenship status to the 2020 census, while not inconsistent with the Constitution, violated the statutory limits on his authority and the Administrative Procedure Act in several respects. Accordingly, and for the reasons stated in its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, the Court vacates Secretary Ross's decision to add a citizenship question to the 2020 census, enjoins Defendants from implementing his decision or from otherwise adding a citizenship question to the 2020 census without curing the legal defects identified in the Court's Opinion, and remands the matter to the Secretary for further action not inconsistent with the Courts Opinion. Finally, the Court September 21, 2018 Order granting Plaintiffs motion to compel a deposition of Secretary Ross, see Docket No. 345 , is VACATED as moot. (Signed by Judge Jesse M. Furman on 1/15/2019)

01/15/2019	575	FINAL JUDGMENT, ORDER OF VACATUR, AND PERMANENT INJUNCTION: Final judgment is entered for Defendants and against Plaintiffs on Plaintiffs' claims arising under the Constitution's Enumeration Clause, as amended by the Fourteenth Amendment (namely, the First Claim for Relief in the Second Amended Complaint in No. 18-CV-2921 and the second Cause of Action in the Complaint in No. 18-CV-5025). Final judgment is entered for Defendants and against Plaintiffs on Plaintiffs' claims arising under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution (namely, the first Cause of Action in the Complaint in No. 18-CV-5025). Final judgment is entered for Plaintiffs and against Defendants on Plaintiffs' claims arising under the Administrative Procedure Act (namely, the Second and Third Claims for Relief in the Second Amended Complaint in No. 18-CV-2921 and the third Cause of Action in the Complaint in No. 18-CV-5025). The March 26, 2018 decision of the Secretary of Commerce to add a question concerning citizenship status to the 2020 decennial census questionnaire is VACATED, and the matter is REMANDED to the Secretary for further action not inconsistent with this Court's Orders. Defendants, including the Secretary of Commerce in his official capacity, the Director of the Census in his official capacity, and any successors to those offices, together with their agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and other persons who are in active concert or participation with the foregoing, see Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(d)(2), are PERMANENTLY ENJOINED from implementing Secretary Ross's March 26, 2018 decision and from adding a citizenship question to the 2020 decennial census questionnaire based on substantially similar reasoning on a substantially similar record, and from doing so unless: 1) the Secretary of Commerce has exhausted his ability to acquire and use administrative records to the maximum extent possible and consistent with the kind, timeliness, quality and scope of the citizenship data required, instead of adding an inquiry to the 2020 census questionnaire; and as further set forth in this Judgment. 12/13/2019	675	ORDER granting 674 Letter Motion for Leave to File Letter Responding to Plaintiffs' December 3, 2019, Letters. Defendants' letter to Plaintiffs' counsel dated November 25, 2019, stated that they were "still investigating... to determine whether any other documents were similarly inadvertently omittedfrom production." ECF No. [669-1], at 2. Defendants' letter of yesterday reports that Defendants have been "unable to discover the cause" of why the documents disclosed on November 25th were not disclosed earlier - whether it was "human error or a technical snafu," ECF No. 674 , at 4 - but says nothing about the status of the investigation into whether there are "any other documents" that "were similarly inadvertently omitted from production." No later than December 19, 2019, Defendants shall file a letter indicating the status of that investigation, including but not limited to when they expect the investigation (and any further production of previously undisclosed documents) to be completed. Ross, Jr., United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, Steven Dillingham. ENDORSEMENT: The Court is inclined to believe that, under the circumstances (including but not limited to the pending motion for sanctions), Defendants should be required to complete their review of the new documents more quickly than they have proposed. Indeed, the Court would think that counsel could use software to immediately de-duplicate the documents and then swiftly review any unique documents without the need to even use search terms (which is part of what caused these problems in the first place). Counsel shall confer about these matters, and about whether there are "search parameters... that would allow for a more targeted review of the documents in question and more expedited production of pertinent information, if any," and submit a joint letter regarding next steps (and any other relevant issues) no later than December 27, 2019. SO ORDERED. (Signed by Judge Jesse M. Furman on 12/20/19) (yv) (Entered: 12/20/2019)
