Dear [redacted]:

Enclosed are copies of statements which document discrimination at four separate Trump rental offices: 8855 Bay Parkway, 3323 Nostrand Ave., 577 Avenue Z, and 2611 W. 2nd Street, all in Brooklyn. [redacted] statement and the copy of the receipt she received at 8855 Bay Parkway complement the statement of [redacted] which you already have. [redacted] [redacted] is white. The other statements concern the trips made by [redacted] and myself to different Trump rental offices.

The names and addresses of the persons whose statements concerning Trump you now have are the following:

The most comprehensive ethnic breakdown of the 1970 census for New York City is that published in the New York Times on October 6, 1972. It shows that the sections of Brooklyn in which the majority of Trump buildings are located - Bayside, Rego, Bayside, Flatbush - remained more than 90 per cent white over the last ten years.

In conversation with [redacted] the rental agent for Trump's Seven Apartments, on Wednesday, June 14, 1972, [redacted] advised on his part to keep blacks out of the neighborhood.

The visit by [redacted], a black, with her fiancée [redacted] a white checker, to Trump's Four [redacted] Brooklyn, indicates a clear distinction in treatment. [redacted] was told by the superintendent and she would have to call a certain rental agent the next day; [redacted] was given the wrong phone number for this purpose, and [redacted] went through an exhausting series of phone calls to Trump agent as which ended in her being offered an apartment in Park Gardens, 590-598 Flatbush Ave., a building into which we believe Trump deliberately steers persistent black applicants. [redacted] who visited the same superintendent later that afternoon, was immediately offered the apartment [redacted] wanted and was allowed to leave a deposit on it.

On July 31, 1972, [redacted] a black, and [redacted] a white, visited the two rental offices for Trump's Seven Apartments. [redacted] entered [redacted] and asked for a one bedroom apartment. He was told nothing was available and was asked to leave his phone number. [redacted] was not given a card or a number he could call. [redacted] entered the office twenty minutes later and asked for a one bedroom apartment. He was shown a vacant apartment and was offered it immediately. He was given [redacted] card.

The same series of events happened when [redacted] visited [redacted] [redacted] was told nothing was available; [redacted] entering about twenty minutes later, was shown an apartment and offered it immediately.

Two days previous to this visit, [redacted] a black, was told by [redacted] that he had no apartments available, despite an ad run that day in the New York Times and run subsequently. As her statement indicates, [redacted] received humiliating treatment in the process.

APARTMENT HOUSING

SHORE HAVEN APARTMENTS NO. 5 AND NO. 6, [redacted] near [redacted] Avenue 2, Brooklyn, N.Y. 11223, phone [redacted] [redacted] of Beach Haven; these are four and five story buildings which stretch along the block, surrounded by and including pleasant lawn areas, walks, and playground facilities.
Beach Haven is near the beach and the amusement park, two elementary schools, and a commercial area with small shops, restaurants, and so on, schools and athletic fields.
TRANSPORTATION: Auto-Shore Pkwy (Belt) to Ocean Pkwy; training station with trains to Manhattan and all points of Brooklyn.

I talked to [redacted] the rental agent for these two buildings; he said he had a studio and a 3 1/2 room apartment available for July occupancy, with other openings possible later. He could not show me these, but offered to do so at a future date. Two year lease, one month security. $ 3 1/2 rooms, $180; STUDIO, $150

The other [redacted] are rented by [redacted] [redacted] Brooklyn, phone [redacted] Same location as above--no dogs, must bring W-2 tax form, "we won't bother with people making under $10,000."

- 3 1/2 rooms available July 1, $180; pay gas and electric, 1 month security, sign two year lease.

- 3 1/2 rooms available August 1, $190, of a higher quality, new refrigerator, etc.

Other apartments will apparently be available, but he said he had a long list of applicants for each.

Contact [redacted] any day except Tuesday and Sunday between 10 and 5.

SHORE HAVEN Apartments, 1483-85-87, 1486-91-93 Shore Parkway, and 2004-74, 2076-78 Croysey Avenue, [redacted] rental agent, open six days a week, 10 to 5, 2076 Croysey Ave. in model apartment. Same physical layout as Beach Haven, four and five story buildings, lawns and playgrounds. Shore Haven is near a large park area, playing fields, commercial areas with small shops, supermarkets, restaurants, and a large Kmart department store.

TRANSPORTATION: Shore (Belt) Parkway to Ocean Parkway; trains, a minute walk to the 20th Avenue BMT line which goes into Manhattan and connects with other lines.

3 1/2 rooms avail., bedroom, kitchen, living room, walk-in kitchen, $175/month, wants W-2 form, 1 month security, sign a two year lease.

I had a long, interesting talk with [redacted] He said it was a clean, safe neighborhood, mainly because it was run

... (11th Avenue, 11th Avenue, 11th Avenue). He said that the apartment was built within a limited, specific area and assured me that I would have little contact with them if I moved into the apartment. He has rooms readily available (no studios), but obviously wants no blacks. He said he had the lowest prices one could find in Brooklyn. A large majority of the residents are elderly, and they are apparently all white.

Adjacent to the Shore Haven apartments are three "luxury" apartments run by Trump: The Falcon, the Southampton, and the Fountainbleu. The Falcon and the Southampton have fancy exteriors, door man, balconies for each apartment, and the Southampton has a swimming pool as well. The superintendent said that there were no open rooms at the moment. You must leave your name and phone number, and they call you if there is an opening. A 3 1/2 room apartment for $225.

THE FOUNTAINBLEU, 8855 Bay Parkway is contiguous to the Shore Haven apartments, eleven stories, self-service elevator.
They have two apartments ready to rent immediately, both of which I was shown: 3 1/2 rooms, $245/month, pay one month security, one month rent, sign two year lease; and 4 1/2 rooms, $275, same conditions. Fine apartments, will install airconditioning, paint rooms free.

PATIO GARDENS, 582-598 Flatbush Ave., phone 469-9600 for rental agent. Located near Prospect Park, extensive commercial area, has elaborate security measures, with TV monitors in elevators and hall ways, has sitting area in the court yard for the residents. I was shown two very attractive apartments which are ready to rent: 3 1/2 rooms with terrace, airconditioning, spacious closet space, and elaborately equipped kitchen, $250 month, one month security, two year lease, $50 deposit; and 4 1/2 rooms, same set up with an extra bedroom, $315, same conditions.
TRANSPORTATION: car- near Flatbush Ave. and Ocean Ave.
train- BMT into Manhattan.

PARK TOWERS, 370 Ocean Parkway, bet. Avenue C and Cortelyou Avenue, a luxury apartment with door man, elaborate lobby and front exterior. Contact Superintendent at 871-6894 for rental information. I was told there were two apartments available: a one bedroom apt. with dinette, kitchen, and sitting room for $317, one month security, two year lease, $50 deposit; and a large studio for $210 month same conditions. An attractive quiet neighborhood. Five minute walk to commercial area with A and P supermarket, small shops.
TRANSPORTATION: car- Ocean Parkway train- fifteen minute walk to the BMT.

I also visited Trump Village which has been described and commented on by [redacted] Director of Urban Service Center in his memorandum to [redacted] December 5, 1968. When I

1. The first of these is the fact that the United States has a large and growing population of people who are not citizens of the United States. This is a result of the large number of people who have immigrated to the United States in recent years, and the fact that many of these people are not naturalized citizens.

At the apartment, we saw a young man who said he had the same apartment. He then told us that his name was [redacted] b6 [redacted] two vacant apartments. One was 3 rooms, the other 2. b7 [redacted] view and employment of Mrs. [redacted] the 3 room apartment.
[redacted] by speaking, we asked how soon it could be available.
[redacted] Mr. [redacted] reply was that he could not supply it until [redacted] and that we would have to see a Mrs. [redacted] [redacted] between Monday and Friday for the information.
[redacted] [redacted] and her phone [redacted]

On Monday, I could get no answer at the above number. On Tuesday when I called, a man answered. He informed me that I was calling a wrong number. He also informed me that he had gotten quite a lot of calls from people who were phoning in reference to an apartment. He said that the number I had called was not a business number but a residence. When I called the operator and asked for the number of the apartment for the Pottsville Times, she gave me [redacted] I called this number and later to speak to [redacted] the young man who answered said that this was not Mrs. Backley's number but that of his brother the superintendent. When I asked him to give me Mrs. Backley's number, he told me that he did not know it by heart but he knew where to find it. I then asked to speak to Mr. Bigl. I was told that he was on another floor doing some repairs. I said I'd call back.

On Wednesday I called again. The young man who said that he was Mr. Riggs' brother answered the phone again. This time, however, my neighbor, Mr. Riggs, could come to the phone. He said he had made a mistake in giving Mrs. Mackley's phone number. He also mentioned that the apartment I was interested in was rented. I said I'd still like to see the apartment with [redacted].

Getting [redacted] was another task. I was eventually led to a Mrs. Blake who said she was [redacted] who I had explained my reason for calling she told me with certainty that there were any vacant apartments at the time I inquired that I had seen two she reluctantly offered me the address of these apartments by the afternoon, as I had called.

On July 23 between 5 and 6 PM I went to the Fort 225 Parkway, Toronto I saw a sign outside the building for apartments in 3-3 1/2 rooms. The superintendent showed me the two apartments which were vacant. He said either one could be occupied in 3 days.
The 3 room apartment was 225 per month the larger apartment 245.

The Superintendent said that a person named [redacted] held the apartment I wanted and would return the next day with as the deposit receipt. The same of the apartment number was 725.

When I paid the deposit, I got an application about my bond and my business address.
I gave him my name and residence as in the past four years.

On May 22, 1972, at 11:00 a.m. we arrived at the apartment building, 110 and was startled to find that we could not get in. We saw people leaving out of the building and a policeman standing by the window. We went to a nearby telephone and called the police. He advised us to come back the door was open. However, we returned the same afternoon. We went back and my fiance called. He advised this time that the apartment was taken. Being upset by the reaction; I called again myself and received the same response.

On Monday, July 31, 1972, I visited the office of [redacted] at 2611 W. 2nd Street, Brooklyn, NY. [redacted] arrived approximately 20 minutes after [redacted] [redacted] office at about 3 o'clock, 20 minutes after [redacted]. I asked about the 3 1/2 room apartment for $180 which had been advertised in the New York Times several times over the previous weeks. On that morning, July 31, [redacted] said that he had nothing for immediate occupancy. He asked me to sit down and left the office for about five minutes. When he came back, he made small talk with me about why I was leaving my home and about my job. Then he took out some keys and showed me a 3 1/2 room apartment, apartment 1C in the [redacted] building down from his office. He said he was expecting a phone call and that I could go alone.

I saw the apartment, which was vacant and told [redacted] I liked it. He said I could have it immediately. I said that I did not have any money on me to leave a deposit but that I would be back the following day to leave the deposit. He gave me a card and said he would be looking forward to seeing me.

I then went to [redacted] again about twenty minutes after [redacted] had been told that nothing was available. I asked about the 3 1/2 room apartment for $180 listed in the real estate section of the New York Times on July 24. He said that he had the apartment and that I could have it immediately if I wanted it. He showed me the apartment, which was in the Betcher building opposite his office. The apartment was vacant, and he said that the kitchen was being redone and a new icebox was being installed. I expressed interest in the apartment, and he said that I would probably come in the following Wednesday to leave a deposit and fill out the application. He asked me what I did for a living and seemed satisfied with my answer. He said he looked forward to seeing me on Wednesday.

THE FOLLOWING EVENTS WHICH OCCURRED ON JULY 31, 1972:

[redacted] and I am Black. On Monday, July 31, 1972, in conjunction with [redacted] of the Urban League's Open Day, I went to see renting agent, [redacted]

[redacted] I indicated to him that I was responding to an advertisement in the New York Times dated Friday, July 14, 1972. [redacted] then asked me what size apartment was I interested in and I indicated that I would have liked one 3 1/2 rooms. I told him that I was disparate. [redacted] then asked me why did I need such a large apartment to which I responded 3 1/2 rooms was not very large. He then suggested that I get a studio apartment. I told him I was not interested in a studio apartment, but I did, however, ask him if he had any studio apartments available and he said no. I then asked him how was it that there was nothing available when it was being advertised in the paper. He then told me that this was a routine procedure and that it was cheaper to put an advertisement in the paper on a regular basis rather than only when apartments were available. I asked him when would there be an apartment available and he told me that he had no idea but I should leave my name and telephone number and he would get in touch with me as soon as there was a vacancy. I did as he told me and left.

[redacted] by the name of [redacted] located at [redacted]. I stated to [redacted] that I had seen an ad in the New York Times advertising the availability of a 3 1/2 room apartment. I asked [redacted] whether the apartment was still available. He stated that he had nothing to offer at this time but that something would be available around September 1, or October 2, 1972. I then asked to see the type of apartments that had been advertised. [redacted] told me that there ^{were} no vacant apartments to show at that time and that I should leave my name and telephone number with him so that he could contact me when "something comes up". Having done as he had indicated, I then left his office.

in either a studio apartment or a one bed room apartment, both of which were advertised in the New York Times of August 17, 1972. He told me that the night before there had been a party, and that at that time someone else had signed the agreement to lease the apartment. I asked him what about the studio apartment, and he told me that there was a lot of junk in it and that they had no keys to that apartment.

I asked him how was it that an ad could appear in the New York Times stating that an apartment was available when in fact it was not. He told me that if I had seen that night, before the party, that I could have had the apartment. I asked him if he could at least show me the type of apartment he was talking about, and he said he could not. We then exchanged telephone numbers and I left.

my name is [redacted] and I am white. On Thursday, August 17, 1972, I visited [redacted] a building owned and operated by Fred C. Trump, with [redacted]. The New York Times that morning ran an ad for various apartments in this building available for rent. Twenty minutes after [redacted] was told by the superintendent that these apartments had already been rented or could not be seen that day, I entered the renting office and was told by the superintendent's assistant that the apartments were all available and that I could see them. He took me upstairs and showed me the one bedroom apartment for $235, which was vacant, and offered to show me the studio apartments. I said that I did not have time. He said that I could fill out the application for the one bedroom apartment right away if I liked. I said that I did not have time to do so but that I would come back later and departed.
