 11 Settlement. Any settlement payment received by Haddad & Sherwin LLP later than 45 days after 12 approval of the settlement by the Alameda County Board of Supervisors shall include interest at 13 the California judgment interest rate, California Code of Civil Procedure § 685.010.
 14

15 2) The parties also stipulate and agree to the nonmonetary relief set forth below.
 16

17 3) Licensed California Registered Nurses or a higher level care provider (physician,
 18 physician's assistant, or nurse practitioner) will conduct all Receiving Screenings and patient
 19 assessments on all inmates in Alameda County Jails, and in all facilities throughout the State of 20 California where Corizon Health, Inc., or any of its related corporations (for example, Corizon, 21 Inc. or Corizon, LLC), collectively called herein "Corizon," provide correctional health care
 22 services. Corizon will comply with all California statutes and regulations governing the practice
 23 of nursing and vocational nursing. Corizon shall provide the Registered Nurses described in this 24 paragraph by December 31, 2015.

26 4) The County will provide health training for Alameda County Sheriff's Office ("ACSO")

6 providing this training. This training includes an outline and course content and length kept on 7 file, and a certificate or other evidence of attendance for each employee. This training shall occur
8 not less than every two years in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph. New hires will 9 be timely trained.

11 5) The Honorable Jon S. Tigar will maintain jurisdiction over this settlement and the

13 facilitate the meet and confer process, and to issue all appropriate orders concerning the settlement
14 agreement and the interpretation, implementation, and enforcement thereof, for four years. Any 15 party may request a status conference with the Court concerning these matters at any time, or 16 move for any appropriate relief under the terms of this Order. If there is a material breach of the 17 terms of the agreement within that four year time period, any party may move the court to extend 18 the Court’s supervision and monitoring against the breaching party for up to an additional three 19 years. Before moving for relief from the District Court, the parties will meet and confer to attempt 20 to resolve any differences. Should the parties’ meet and confer efforts be unsuccessful, any party
21 may request a settlement conference with Magistrate Judge Beeler.

1 7) Alameda County and Corizon Health, Inc., will enter into an amendment to their current
2 contract for medical services within the Alameda County jails, that includes all nonmonetary relief
3 set forth herein.

4 8) It is expressly understood and agreed among the parties that this agreement is made in 5 compromise of disputed and controverted claims, and that nothing contained herein shall 6 constitute or be deemed to be an admission by any party of any fault, liability, or wrongdoing of 7 any kind, or of the validity or invalidity of other parties' allegations, claims, defenses, or 8 contentions.

10 9) This Stipulation and Proposed Order of Settlement was negotiated and agreed under the 11 auspices of settlement conferences with the Honorable Laurel Beeler, Magistrate Judge, after four

J-C-04
*essentialHEALTH TRAINING FOR CORRECTIONAL OFFICERS*Standard

A training program, established or approved by the responsible health authority in cooperation with the facility administrator, guides the health-related training of all correctional officers who work with inmates.

Compliance Indicators

1. Correctional officers who work with inmates receive health-related training at least every 2 years. This training includes, at a minimum:
 - a. Administration of first aid
 - b. Recognizing the need for emergency care and intervention in life-threatening situations (e.g., heart attack)
 - c. Recognizing acute manifestations of certain chronic illnesses (e.g., asthma, seizures), intoxication and withdrawal, and adverse reactions to medications
 - d. Recognizing signs and symptoms of mental illness
 - e. Procedures for suicide prevention
 - f. Procedures for appropriate referral of inmates with health complaints to health staff
 - g. Precautions and procedures with respect to infectious and communicable diseases
 - h. Cardiopulmonary resuscitation
2. An outline of the training including course content and length is kept on file.
3. A certificate or other evidence of attendance is kept on site for each employee.
4. While it is expected that 100% of the correctional staff who work with inmates are trained in all of these areas, compliance with the standard requires that at least 75% of the staff present on each shift are current in their health-related training.
5. All aspects of the standard are addressed by written policy and defined procedures.

Discussion

This standard intends to promote the training of correctional officers to recognize the need to refer an inmate to a qualified health care professional and to provide emergency care until he or she arrives.

Because correctional personnel are often the first to respond to problems, they must be aware of the potential for emergencies that may arise, know the proper response to life-threatening situations, and understand their part in the early detection of illness and injury.

There are special training requirements for correctional officers regarding alcohol and other drugs in G-06 Patients With Alcohol and Other Drug Problems.

Personnel and Training

It is recommended that correctional staff receive training on the special health needs of adolescents if the facility houses adolescents.

It also is recommended that mental health staff review the training curriculum to advise on its content regarding suicide prevention procedures, the signs and symptoms of mental illness and substance abuse, psychological first aid, and communication skills for managing inmates with mental illness.
